BETTING CONTROL ACT, 1954-1956.

The Betting Control Board,
Perth, 29th April, 1957.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Betting Control Act, 1954-1956, has been pleased to make the regulations set out in the Schedule hereunder.

T. H. ANDERSEN,
Chairman of the Betting Control Board of Western Australia.

Schedule. Regulations.

1. In these regulations the Betting Control Regulations, 1955, published in the Government Gazette on the 6th May, 1955, as amended by the regulations amending the same published in the Gazette on the 4th and 11th November, 1955, the 3rd August, 1956, the 15th June, 1956, and the 13th November, 1956, are referred to as the principal regulations.

2. Regulation 2 of the principal regulations is amended

(a) by substituting for the interpretation of "bookmaker's employee's license" in lines four, five and six the following interpretation:—

"Bookmaker's employee's license" means a premises bookmaker's employee's license or a racecourse bookmaker's employee's license;

(b) by adding after the interpretation of "leger" the following interpretation:

"license" means license as interpreted by section 4 of the Act, and, unless inconsistent with the context, includes a bookmaker's employee's license;

(c) by adding after the interpretation of "metropolitan area" the following interpretations:

"premises bookmaker's employee's license" means a license issued by the Board to a person authorising him to be employed in registered premises by a bookmaker in his business as a bookmaker;

"race course bookmaker's employee's license" means a license issued by the Board to a person authorising him to be employed on a race course by a bookmaker in his business as a bookmaker.

3. Regulation 5 of the principal regulations is amended—
- (a) by adding after the regulation designation "5" the subregulation designation "(1)";
 - (b) by adding a subregulation as follows:—
 - (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (1) of this regulation, where it appears to the Chairman that, by reason of the urgency of a matter required to be dealt with by the Board, there is insufficient time available to convene a meeting to deal with that matter, if the matter in question is decided by a majority of the Board ascertained by separate communication to each member available, that decision shall be deemed to be the decision of the Board as if it was made at a duly convened meeting of the Board.
4. Regulation 11C of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for subregulation (2) the following subregulation:—
- (2) The member who is also the deputy Chairman of the Board is entitled to such leave of absence as he would be entitled if he were appointed an officer of the Public Service under the Public Service Act, 1904-1956, or any Act substituted for that Act.
5. Regulation 19 of the principal regulations is amended
- (a) by substituting for paragraphs (a) and (b) of subregulation (1) the following paragraphs:
 - (a) complete and sign in duplicate the appropriate form prescribed in the second appendix;
 - (b) lodge the original and duplicate of the application together with the appropriate fee prescribed in regulation 56 with the Secretary to the Board;
 - (b) by substituting for paragraph (b) of subregulation (2) the following paragraph:
 - (b) (i) for a Premises Bookmaker's Employee's License, Form L.3 in the second appendix;
 - (ii) for a Race Course Bookmaker's Employee's License, Form L.3A in the second appendix;
 - (c) by substituting for paragraph (d) of subregulation (2) the following paragraph:
 - (d) (i) For Renewal of a Premises Bookmaker's Employee's License, Form L.20;
 - (ii) for renewal of a Race Course Bookmaker's Employee's License, Form L.20A.
6. Subregulation (3) of regulation 20 of the principal regulations is re-enacted as follows:—
- (3) (a) A person may
 - (i) at any time prior to the grant or refusal of his application for a license or renewal of a license, withdraw the application by notice in writing served on the Board;
 - (ii) at any time after a license or renewal of a license is granted to him surrender the license to the Board.
 - (b) Upon receipt by the Board of a notice in writing or the surrender of a license referred to in paragraph (a) of this subregulation, the application or the license, as the case may be ceases to have effect, but a withdrawal or the surrender so made does not affect the operation of regulation 34 or the validity of any bond or security lodged under that regulation.
7. Regulation 21 of the principal regulations is amended by adding, after the word "instance" being the last word of the regulation, the following passage " ; but the Board may, in its discretion grant a renewal of a bookmaker's employee's license notwithstanding the expiry of the license sought to be renewed."

8. The principal regulations are amended by adding after regulation 23 a heading and a regulation as follows:—

Duplicate Licenses.

23A (1) (a) The holder of a license which is lost or destroyed may make application to the Board for the issue of a duplicate license.

(b) The applicant shall lodge with the Board, together with the application, the appropriate fee prescribed in subregulation (4) of this regulation.

(2) In the application the applicant shall state truthfully the circumstances under which the license was lost or destroyed.

(3) (a) The Board may, after considering the application, issue to the applicant a duplicate of the license alleged to be lost or destroyed.

(b) A duplicate license so issued has the same effect as the original license.

(4) The fees payable for the issue of a duplicate license are as follows:

For a bookmaker's employee's license	10s.
For a bookmaker's license	£1.

(5) Where after the issue of a duplicate license, the original license is found, the duplicate license shall forthwith be forwarded to the Board for cancellation.

(6) A person who knowingly or recklessly gives false information in an application for a duplicate license commits an offence.

Penalty: One hundred pounds.

9. Subregulation (1) of regulation 24 of the principal regulations is amended by adding after "L 10" in line two the following: ", L 10 A".

10. Regulation 25 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for the words "prior cancellation or withdrawal" in line one, the passage "the provisions of the Act and these regulations and in particular to those of paragraph (c) of subregulation (3) of regulation 35, so far as that paragraph relates to premises bookmaker's employee's licenses,".

11. Regulations 27 and 28 of the principal regulations are revoked.

- (e) by adding after the word "paragraph" being the last word of subparagraph (v) of paragraph (c) of subregulation (1) the passage "or on any other race course which the Board may from time to time specify by notice published in a newspaper having, in the opinion of the Board, a substantial circulation outside the metropolitan area";
- (f) by adding a subregulation as follows:

(3) Where a bookmaker refuses to accept a bet which is in excess of the maximum amount which he is obliged to accept under the provisions of this regulation, the bookmaker shall inform the bettor of the lesser amount which a bookmaker is obliged to accept under this regulation.

29. Regulation 99 of the principal regulations is revoked.

30. Regulation 126 of the principal regulations is amended by adding after subregulation (1) a subregulation as follows:—

(1a) A bookmaker shall not have printed on any betting ticket used in the course of his business as a bookmaker anything other than his name and address.

31. Subregulation (2) of regulation 134 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for paragraphs (a) and (b) the following paragraphs:—

(a) The Board may request the committee or other authority controlling a race meeting outside the metropolitan area to recommend to the Board the name of a person suitable for carrying out the duties of a starting price officer at the race meeting.

(b) (i) The committee or other authority shall comply with the request within the time specified by the Board.

(ii) The Board may, but is not obliged to, appoint the person so recommended to act as a starting price officer at the race meeting.

32. Subregulation (2) of regulation 135 of the principal regulations is amended by adding after the word "bookmaker" in line two the passage "or carry out the duties of a bookmaker's employee."

33. Regulation 139 of the principal regulations is amended

(a) by substituting for subregulation (1) the following subregulation:—

(1) (a) The Board may appoint a starting price officer or starting price officers whose duty it is to determine the starting price of horses running in each race at race meetings and to carry out the functions of a starting price officer prescribed by these regulations.

(b) The Board may appoint one or more assistant starting price officers whose duty it is to assist any starting price officer.

(c) Starting price officers and assistant starting price officers are entitled to enter the premises of any race course at any time for the purpose of carrying out their duties.

(d) As soon as practicable after each race at a race meeting at which he is on duty, the starting price officer shall inform the Board's authorised price agent or his representative personally, or in writing, or by telephone as the circumstances permit, of

(i) the starting price determined by him of the winning horse, or, in the case of a dead heat for first place, of the winning horses together with the name or names of that horse or those horses as determined by the race club;

(ii) the names of the horses placed second and third or of those that dead heated for those places;

(iii) the starting price of the favorite or equal favorites; and

(iv) the official straight out and place totalisator dividends applicable to the horses running first, second and third in that race.

(e) If required by the Board, the starting price officer shall also, where practicable having regard to the available means of communication and the time for so doing, inform the authorised price agent of

(i) the names of horses "scratched" from each race;

(ii) the actual or approximate starting time of each race if that time differs from the scheduled starting time of the race as published in the official race book;

(iii) the names of the riders or drivers of all the horses in each race; and

(iv) the starting price of any specified horse running in a race, other than the winner or favourite.

(f) A starting price officer or an assistant starting price officer shall not unless expressly directed by the Board supply to the authorised price agent or any other person any information relating to the betting prices of any horse running in a race before the race has been run.

(g) A starting price officer or an assistant starting price officer shall at all times carry out the directions of the Board,

- (b) by substituting for the words "an officer" in line one of subregulation (2) the words "a starting price officer";
- (c) by substituting for the words "an officer" in line one of subregulation (3) the words "a starting price officer."

34. Regulation 140 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for subregulation (1) the following subregulation:—

(1) The Board's authorised price agent shall not, unless expressly given permission by the Board to do so, disseminate any starting price or other information obtained by him in his capacity as the Board's authorised agent, except such information as relates to horses running in races on which bookmakers betting in registered premises are obliged to bet under these regulations.

35. Regulation 141 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for subregulation (1) a subregulation as follows:—

(1) An authorised price agent shall not, without the express permission of the Board, give or make available to any person who is not a duly licensed bookmaker any information obtained by him in his capacity as the Board's authorised price agent relating to the starting price of any horse running in any race whether in or outside Western Australia on which licensed bookmakers in registered premises are obliged to bet.

36. Regulation 143 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for subregulation (1) a subregulation as follows:—

(1) The Board may publish in the Government Gazette and in such newspapers as it thinks fit the fact of the suspension or cancellation of a license.

37. The principal regulations are amended by adding after regulation 144 a regulation as follows:—

144A Where a license, certificate of registration or a renewal of a license or certificate is obtained for the licensing period commencing on the 1st August, 1957, on payment of the appropriate fee prescribed for a full licensing year, if the Act expires on the 31st December, 1957, the Commissioner shall, on the application of the holder of the license, certificate or renewal, refund to the holder one half of the amount of the fee so prescribed.

38. Rule 3 of the Rules of Betting contained in the First Appendix to the principal regulations is amended

(a) by substituting for subrule (2) a subrule as follows:

(2) No provision of paragraphs (f), (g) or (h) of subrule (1) of this rule

(a) affects the discretion of the stewards to declare all bets off in special circumstances, or

(b) prevents a bookmaker from laying odds against a horse in a race after the stewards order or permit the withdrawal from that race of any other horse;

(b) by revoking subrule (3);

(c) by substituting for subrule (4) a subrule as follows:

(4) The provisions of paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) of subrule (1) of this rule do not apply to bets made before the day of the race.

39. Rule 6 of the Rules of Betting contained in the First Appendix to the principal regulations is amended

(a) by substituting for the word "Place" being the first word of the Rule, the passage "(1) Subject to the provisions of subrule (2) of this rule, place";

(b) by adding a subrule as follows:

(2) Where on any race two horses are bracketed on the totalisator and either horse runs into a place, if twice the dividend declared by the totalisator on the bracketed horses exceeds an amount equivalent to that which would have been payable as dividend at the appropriate starting price limit prescribed for that race in the Schedule to these regulations, the maximum liability of a bookmaker in respect of each horse so bracketed is limited to half the amount which would have been payable at the appropriate starting price limit so prescribed; but if both the horses so bracketed are placed in that race, the dividend declared by the totalisator is payable by the bookmaker subject to the appropriate starting price limit so prescribed.

40. Rule 10 of the Rules of Betting contained in the First Appendix to the principal regulations is amended

(a) by substituting for paragraph (b) of subrule (1) a paragraph as follows:

(b) if either event is decided in the backer's favour and the other results in a dead-heat between two horses, one of which was backed by the backer, the bookmaker shall pay to the backer one half of the proceeds of the bet which would have been payable if each event had been won outright by the horse backed by the backer in the double; and if the dead-heat is between more than two horses the amount payable by the bookmaker to the backer shall be calculated on a proportionate basis;

(b) by substituting for paragraph (c) of subrule (1) a paragraph as follows:

(c) if both horses backed run dead-heats the bookmaker shall pay to the backer one-quarter of the proceeds of the bet which would have been payable if each event had been won outright by the horse backed by the backer in the double.

41. Rule 16 of the Rules of Betting contained in the First Appendix to the principal regulations is amended by deleting the passage ", within a period of one week" in line three.

42. Rule 17 of the Rules of Betting contained in the First Appendix to the principal regulations is amended

(a) by adding after the rule designation "17" the subrule designation (1);

(b) by adding a subrule as follows:

(2) The provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of subrule (1) of rule 10 also apply mutatis mutandis to multiple doubles.

44. The table of Starting Price Limits in the Schedule to the principal regulations is amended by adding after the words "Victoria Park" appearing under the heading "South Australia" the passage ", Gawler."

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, 17th April, 1957.

R. H. DOIG,
Clerk of the Council.

STATE TRANSPORT CO-ORDINATION ACT, 1933-1956.
THE Western Australian Transport Board, pursuant to section 58 of the State Transport Co-ordination Act, 1933-1956, hereby makes the regulations set out in the Schedule hereunder.

Schedule.
Regulations.

1. In these regulations the Transport Regulations, 1934, published in the Government Gazette on the 16th March, 1934, and amended from time to time thereafter, are referred to as the principal regulations.

2. Regulation 1 of the principal regulations is amended by adding the following interpretations—

"bus stop" means a place on the roadway of a road appointed by the Board as a stopping place for the taking up and setting down, or the taking up or setting down of omnibus passengers;

"bus stop sign" means a sign displaying the words "BUS STOP";

"erect" in relation to bus stop signs means construct, make, place, affix or paint and inflections of the verb "to erect" have correlative meanings.

3. The principal regulations are amended by adding after regulation 29 a new sub-heading and regulations as follows:—

Omnibus Stopping Places.

29A. (1) The Board may cause or authorise the erection of bus stop signs at or adjacent to bus stops.

(2) A person shall not erect a bus stop sign on or near a road without the authority of the Board or in any manner which is not in accordance with directions issued by or on behalf of the Board, as to location, design and construction.

(3) Where a bus stop sign is erected without the authority of the Board or in a manner which is not in accordance with directions so issued, the Board may, in addition to taking proceedings for a breach of subregulation (2) of this regulation, destroy, remove or obliterate or cause to be destroyed, removed or obliterated the sign so erected.

29B. The Board may

(a) appoint, abolish or alter bus stops;

(b) remove, move, or cause to be removed or moved any bus stop sign erected at a bus stop so abolished or altered.

29C. A bus stop sign erected with the approval of the Board and in existence at the time this regulation takes effect, shall be deemed to have been erected with the authority of the Board and in pursuance of the Act and these regulations.

29D. A person who, without the authority of the Board, destroys, removes, obliterates, demolishes, erases, defaces, or otherwise damages or interferes with a bus stop sign erected with the authority of the Board, commits an offence.

29E. (1) Upon a road where bus stops are indicated by means of bus stop signs erected on or near the road, the driver of an omnibus shall not stop the omnibus for the purpose of taking up or setting down passengers except at a bus stop so indicated.

(2) The driver of an omnibus about to take up or set down a passenger on a road at a bus stop shall drive the omnibus as near as practicable to and parallel with the left hand side or kerb of the road and shall halt the omnibus as near as practicable to but not past the bus stop sign indicating the bus stop.

29F. For the purposes of these regulations

- (a) a bus stop indicated by means of a bus stop sign erected on or near a road shall in the absence of proof to the contrary be deemed to be a bus stop duly appointed by the Board; and
- (b) a bus stop sign erected on or near a road shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to be duly erected with the authority of the Board and in accordance with the Act and these regulations.

Made and adopted at a meeting of the Western Australian Transport Board on the 2nd day of April, 1957.

The Common Seal of the Western Australian Transport Board was hereto affixed by order of the Board, in the presence of—

W. H. HOWARD,
Chairman.

G. SLATER,
Secretary.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, this 17th day of April, 1957.

R. H. DOIG,
Clerk of the Council.
