- (i) He shall if he so desires, be entitled to have eight (8) consecutive hours off duty from the completion of his overtime work until he next commences work, but shall not be paid for such time off duty.
- (ii) If on the instructions of the employer, he continues or resumes work at his ordinary starting time without having such eight (8) hours break, he shall be paid at overtime rates for the balance of the hours less than eight (8) which he has not had off duty. Hours of overtime actually worked since his last usual finishing time, shall be counted in computing the actual rate of overtime under this paragraph.
- (iii) If a worker of his own volition, continues or resumes work at his ordinary starting time without such break, he shall be paid at ordinary rates.

11.—Holidays.

(a) Subject to clause 9 hereof, the following days, or the days observed in lieu, shall be holidays without deduction of pay, namely:—Christmas Day, Labour Day, Easter Monday, and one other day to be nominated by the employer.

(b) Liberty is reserved to the Union to apply for an additional holiday and to the respondents to apply to amend this clause.

12.—Annual Leave.

(a) Subject to the proviso herein, three (3) weeks' holiday on full pay shall be granted once in each year to every worker: Provided he has worked two hundred and forty two (242) working days at ordinary rates of pay. Should he have worked on less than two hundred and forty-two (242) working days, when the said holiday is taken, or at the termination of his employment, he shall be paid for or allowed a proportionate number of holidays. Payment for the said holidays shall be at the rate of pay the worker is receiving immediately before the holiday is taken or employment terminated.

(b) Pieceworkers shall be entitled to be paid, when on holiday, the minimum rate for their grade.

(c) Any worker who has taken part in a strike (including a slow strike) or a general or sectional stoppage of work unauthorised by the employer during the period of service in respect of which the abovementioned annual holidays are granted, shall forfeit one day of such annual holidays for every day or part of a day during which he takes part in a strike, or in such unauthorised stoppage of work.

Each such inexperienced worker shall during this term be deemed to be an apprentice. At the end of each period of six (6) months the employer shall furnish the Registrar with a return showing the number of workers employed under this subclause and the wages and/or other payments made to each.

(f) Notwithstanding any alteration in the basic wage, the piecework rates shall remain constant until reviewed in accordance with the provisions of this clause. All holiday shifts shall rotate. One ordinary day's pay shall be paid for the undermentioned holidays to workers who do not work that day.

The annual leave shall be in addition to the holidays mentioned in clause 11 hereof.

An employer shall pay to an employee who has been continuously employed for more than one (1) month but less than three (3) months an amount equivalent to one and one quarter ($1\frac{1}{4}$) day's pay in respect of each completed month of service; and to an employee who has been continuously employed for more than three (3) months an amount equivalent to two and one twelfth ($2\frac{1}{12}$) days' pay in respect of each completed month of service. The said payments shall be made to an employee entitled thereto:—

- (a) on the termination of his service if such termination occurs before he takes his annual leave; or
- (b) on the taking of his annual leave if he remains in the service of his employer.

An employer shall set aside and/or credit to an employee's account from time to time sufficient money to cover the said payments so that unless that employee's service is terminated earlier there will be available for him at the time he takes his annual leave a sum equivalent to two (2) weeks' double pay and one (1) week's single pay and apart from paying the money so set aside an employer shall not be obliged to make any payments to an employee in respect of his annual leave or in respect of the period during which such leave is actually taken.

(b) It shall be a condition of every worker taking annual leave that he—

- (i) Shall not under any circumstances be engaged in any gainful employment while on such leave.
- (ii) Shall return to the active service of the employer forthwith at the expiration of leave, and
- (iii) Shall not draw any sick or accident pay simultaneously with annual leave.

A breach of condition (1) above will result in immediate discharge from the employer's service accompanied by forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance or other similar payments or benefits.

A breach of condition (ii) (except as on the grounds of illness necessitating retirement or additional leave on the advice of a medical officer) will result in forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance or other similar benefits or payments.

13.—Annual Bonus.

The employer shall pay such employee receiving wages under this Award, a week's pay by way of bonus in the last week in December in each year. Any employee leaving the employer's service for reasons other than misconduct, dishonesty or neglect of duty before the payment of such bonus in any year shall, when leaving be paid a pro rata payment in lieu thereof; any employee who shall not have been in the employ of the employer for a year in the first week in December shall receive a part of his week's pay bearing the same proportion to a week's pay as the period of his service bears to a year.

14.—Long Service Leave.

(a) All workers who from time to time shall complete 25 years of continuous service with an employer shall be given long service leave. Such long service leave shall be taken at the conclusion of 25 years of continuous service and shall comprise 13 weeks' leave of absence for recreational purposes.

(b) Should a worker who has completed 15 years of continuous service be retired compulsorily on medical grounds on the advice of a Medical Officer appointed by the employer or by reason of being over the employer's retiring age or die before completing 25 years' continuous service, there shall be paid by the employer to such worker or to his dependants as the case may require a sum of money bearing the same relation to 13 weeks' pay at his rate as his service with the employer bears to 25 years. "Dependant" shall mean the widow and/or children under the age of 16 years, or any child in fact dependent on any worker and, in the case of a single worker shall mean such dependent (if any) as such single worker may in writing notify to the employer during his lifetime, accompanied by proper proof of actual dependency.

(c) Continuous service shall include any interval spent on Service with Her Majesty's Armed Forces during the duration of any war on which Her Majesty may be engaged, and shall also include any interval spent during the duration of any war on which Her Majesty may be engaged with any National Service into which a worker is compulsorily drafted for defence purposes.

(d) Unless otherwise agreed in individual cases, long service leave shall be taken at such period as shall be mutually agreed upon within two years of it becoming due. In default of agreement it shall be taken at such time within such period of two years as the employer shall determine.

(e) Except in the cases of a worker who, at the time he becomes eligible for long service leave, is of an age exceeding 60 all long service leave shall be taken by way of actual holiday and not by way of payment in lieu thereof on retirement. A worker who at the time he becomes eligible for long service leave is beyond 60 years of age shall have the option of taking actual holiday under this scheme or of receiving payment in lieu thereof on retirement. Such option shall be exercised by a notice in writing addressed to the employer at the time of becoming eligible for long service leave.

(f) Workers on long service leave shall, while on such leave, continue to be paid at the actual rate (exclusive of overtime or other allowance) enjoyed by them at the commencement of such leave. Except in special circumstances payment shall be at the same times as during normal employment but may be made by cheque by mutual arrangement.

(g) It shall be a condition of every worker's taking long service leave that he (or she):—

- (i) Shall not under any circumstances be engaged in any gainful employment while on such leave;
- (ii) Shall return to the active service of the employer forthwith at the expiration of the leave; and
- (iii) Shall not draw any sick or accident pay simultaneously with long service leave pay.

A breach of condition (i) above will result in immediate discharge from the employer's service accompanied by forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance, or other similar payments or benefits. A breach of conditions (ii) above (except as on the grounds of illness necessitating retirement or additional leave on the advice of a Medical Officer appointed by the employer) will result in forfeiture of all rights (if any) to retiring allowance or other similar benefits or payments.

(h) The employer shall have the right in cases of emergency to recall any worker from long service leave, in which case the unexpired leave shall be made up on some mutually convenient date.

(i) In order to avoid confusion and embarrassment workers whilst on long service leave shall not, without the prior permission of the officer in charge of the particular establishment, visit any of the premises of the employer except for the purpose of collecting pay or transacting genuine business with the employer's officers. Social visits shall not be indulged in. "Establishment" means any brewery, co-operative, or workshop, but does not include hotels or annual picnics or sports or usual weekly competitive sporting activities.

(j) The benefits of long service leave shall be in addition to all benefits at present or hereafter to be enjoyed by workers.

(k) In the event of any governmental or similar long service leave scheme being introduced for industry as a whole, the parties concerned shall meet to consider alterations necessary in order to adjust the scheme to such new conditions.

(l) Notwithstanding anything in this clause contained no worker nor his legal personal representative shall be entitled to any of the benefits by this clause conferred in any of the following circumstances:—

- (i) When, in the opinion of the directors of an employer a worker has committed fraud upon the employer or any defalcation in relation to the employer or breach of trust or similar act prejudicially affecting or likely to so affect business or interests of the employer and is dismissed.
- (ii) If the worker shall become a bankrupt or insolvent debtor within the meaning of any Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia or of the State of Western Australia or shall assign, alienate or charge his benefits hereunder or any part thereof or attempt to do so or if through his own act or default or by operation or process of law the same shall become vested in or payable to some other person, firm or company.

15.—Under-Rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage, may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the Union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at the matter may be referred to the board of reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the board, and pending the board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for or be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

(d) The provisions of regulation 92 of the regulations made under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, shall be deemed to apply to any board of reference appointed hereunder.

16.—Engagement.

The engagement between employer and worker, except casual hands, shall be weekly, and may be terminated by a week's notice from either party, except in the case of the worker absenting himself without leave, not obeying lawful commands, or being guilty of other misconduct, or of the works of the employer being stopped, through fire or tempest, when such engagement may be terminated immediately.

17.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) A worker who is unable through sickness or accident to attend his duties, shall notify the employer not later than 10 a.m. on the day he first absents himself from duty

(b) A worker shall be entitled to sick pay in respect of any period of absence on account of sickness after the first day of January, 1948, on the basis of one half day's pay for each completed month served with the employer between the said 1st day of January, 1948, and the date of the commencement of such absence provided that in calculating the amount due to a worker in respect of any particular period of absence through sickness there shall be deducted therefrom any sum or sums previously paid to him hereunder.

(c) The term "sickness" shall not include any case where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(d) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof of his sickness satisfactory to the employer. This proof shall be in the form of a medical certificate if the absence is for three days or more. The employer shall have the right at any time to have the worker examined by a doctor on behalf of the employer.

(e) Except as aforesaid, a worker shall not be entitled to payment for time lost through sickness or accident.

All work of any employee in the capacity as mentioned in this Agreement in or about a brewery or bottling works or in connection with the business of brewing or bottling beer shall be carried out departmentally by bona fide brewery employees engaged and paid direct by the brewery proprietors and not by agents or contractors. This clause shall not apply to contractors erecting, repairing or making alterations to buildings or machinery or to carriers being engaged for the delivery of goods other than beer as has been the practice or custom prior to this date. But when contractors are employed delivering beer the brewery company shall undertake to see that whilst employed on such work the contractors pay to both the drivers and offsidiers the same wages and work under the same conditions as is provided in this Agreement.

19.—Area.

This Agreement shall apply to the area comprised within a radius of fifteen (15) miles from the General Post Office, Perth.
