BUSH FIRES ACT, 1954.

Section 33.

Drakesbrook Road Board.

Notice to Owners and Occupiers of Land in the Drakesbrook Road District.

PURSUANT to the powers contained in section 33 of the above Act, you are hereby required on or before the 30th day of November, 1957, to plough, cultivate, scarify or otherwise clear of all inflammable material, firebreaks not less than six feet wide in the following positions on the land owned or occupied by you.

- (1) Inside and along the boundaries of all land used for pasture.
- (2) Immediately surrounding all land under crop.
- (3) Within five chains of the perimeter of all buildings on the land.

If it is impracticable for any reason to clear firebreaks in the positions required by this notice the approval of the Board must be obtained to provide them in an alternative situation. Firebreaks in the situations described hereunder will be accepted as complying with the requirements of this notice so far as it applies to the common boundary between the land of any owner or occupier and the abutting lands referred to hereunder:—

- (a) Where the land of an owner or occupier abuts on a declared road and the owner or occupier has burned or cleared the bush between the road formation and the common boundary.
- (b) Where the land of an owner or occupier abuts on Crown land or a reserve and the owner or occupier has cleared a firebreak not less than six feet wide on the Crown land or reserve along the common boundary.

(d) Casual workers shall be paid ten per cent. (10%) in addition to the above prescribed rates.

(e) (i) A leading hand placed in charge of not less than three (3) and not more than ten (10) other workers shall be paid eleven shillings (11s.) extra per week.

(ii) A leading hand placed in charge of more than ten (10) but not more than twenty (20) other workers shall be paid twenty-two shillings (22s.) extra per week.

6.—Definitions.

"Casual Worker" shall mean a worker for whom less than one week's continuous work is provided.

7.—Contract of Service.

(a) Except in the case of a casual worker whose engagement shall be by the hour the contract of service of every worker shall be a weekly contract, terminable on either side by one (1) week's notice. If the required notice is not given, one week's wages shall be paid or forfeited.

(b) Any worker not attending for duty shall lose his pay for the actual time of such non-attendance Subject to the provisions of clause 13 (Sick Leave) or such absence is on account of holidays to which the worker is entitled under the provisions of this Agreement.

(c) The provisions of this clause shall not affect the employer's right to dismiss a worker at any time for misconduct.

8.—Shift Work.

The loading on the ordinary rates of pay for shift work shall be five per cent. (5%) for afternoon shift and ten per cent. (10%) for night shift.

9.—Hours of Duty.

(a) Day Workers—

- (i) Subject to clause 9 hereof, forty (40) hours, exclusive of Sunday work, shall constitute a week's work to be worked between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m.
- (ii) No day's work shall exceed eight (8) hours.
- (iii) Lunch interval shall be of not less than forty-five (45) minutes.

(b) Shift Workers—

- (i) The ordinary hours of work for shift workers shall not exceed an average of forty (40) hours per week which may be spread over a period of two, three or four weeks.
- (ii) Each shift shall be of eight (8) hours' duration to be worked within the hours prescribed in paragraph (i) of this subclause, provided that by agreement with the Union, shifts or more or less than eight (8) hours may be worked.
- (iii) Each shift shall include a crib time of thirty (30) minutes which shall be taken so as not to interfere with the operation of the plant.

10.—Overtime.

(a) All work performed outside the worker's usual working hours on any week day other than a holiday shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(b) All work performed by workers other than seven-day shift workers on Sundays and the holidays prescribed by this Agreement shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(c) Subject to subclause (e) hereof all work performed by seven-day shift workers during their ordinary hours on Saturday shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-quarter and on Sundays and the holidays prescribed by this Agreement at the rate of time and one-half. These rates shall be paid in lieu of the shift allowances prescribed by clause 8 hereof.

(d) All work performed by seven-day shift workers outside their ordinary hours on Sundays or the holidays prescribed by this Agreement shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(e) Where a shift commences at or after 11 p.m., then the whole shift shall be paid for at the rate which applies to the major portion of the shift.

(f) These overtime rates shall not apply to excess time worked due to private arrangement between the workers themselves or owing to a relieving man failing to come on duty at the proper time, or where such time is worked to effect the periodical rotation of shifts.

(g) A worker shall not be compelled to work for more than six hours without a break for a meal.

(h) (i) The employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates, and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement.

(ii) No organisation party to this Agreement, or worker or workers covered by this Agreement, shall, in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation, or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

11.—Higher Duties.

A worker engaged for more than half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one (1) day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than his ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate for such day or shift. If employed for less than half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one (1) day or shift he shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked.

12.—Holidays.

(a) The following days, or the days observed in lieu shall, subject to clause 10 hereof, be allowed as holidays without deduction of pay, namely, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, State Foundation Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

Provided that any worker who absents himself from work on the whole or any portion of the working day preceding or on the whole or any portion of the working day succeeding a holiday provided for herein shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Agreement, the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done, ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer.

(d) Seven-day shift workers, that is, shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed one (1) week's leave in addition to the leave prescribed in subclause (c) hereof. Where a worker with twelve (12) months' continuous service is engaged for part of a qualifying twelve-monthly period as a seven-day shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of two (2) consecutive weeks' annual leave prescribed in subclause (c) hereof increased by one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$ th) of a week for each completed month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

(e) If any award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day there shall be added to that period one (1) day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(f) If after one (1) month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth ($\frac{1}{6}$ th) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(g) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave as prescribed by this Agreement shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(h) In the event of a worker being employed by an employer for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled, subject to subclause (f) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer, and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

(i) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

(j) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

13.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth ($\frac{1}{12}$ th) of a week for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to one (1) week in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

14.—Breakdowns.

The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day upon which a worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the union or unions affiliated with it, or by any other association or union, or through the breakdown of the employer's machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

15.—Meal Allowance.

When a worker, without being notified on the previous day, is required to continue working after the usual knock-off time for more than two (2) hours or (in the case of a day worker or worker on day shift) after 6 p.m., whichever is the later, he shall be provided with any meal required or shall be paid three shillings (3s.) in lieu thereof. Provided that such payment need not be paid to workers living in the same locality as their place of employment who can reasonably return home for a meal.

16.—Maximum Rate.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, no time of duty whatsoever shall be required to be paid for at more than double time rate.

17.—Record.

(a) The employer shall keep a time and wages book showing the name of each worker, and the nature of his work, the hours worked each day, and the wages and allowances paid each week. Any system of automatic recording by means of machines shall be deemed to comply with this provision to the extent of the information recorded.

(b) The time and wages record shall be open for inspection by a duly accredited official of the union, during the usual office hours, at the employer's office or other convenient place, and he shall be allowed to take extracts therefrom.

18.—Board of Reference.

(a) The Court hereby appoints for the purpose of this Agreement a Board of Reference.

(b) The Board shall consist of a chairman, to be appointed by the Court and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties.

(c) The Board is hereby assigned the following functions in the event of a disagreement between the parties bound by this Agreement—

(i) Adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of this Agreement or any of them.

(ii) Deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

(d) The provisions of regulation 106 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, shall be deemed to apply to any Board of Reference appointed hereunder.

19.—Under-Rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and Seals the day and year first hereinbefore written.

(c) District Allowance.—Provided that a district allowance at the following rates:—

Carnarvon 7s. 6d., Onslow, Point Samson, Port Hedland, Broome and Derby 15s., Wyndham (Goods Shed) 19s., calculated on an hourly rate using a divisor of thirty (30) shall be paid as an additional flat rate loading during all time of duty. Provided further that the additional flat rate loading prescribed in this subclause shall not be subject to multiplication in the calculation of penalty rates.

Liberty is reserved to either party to apply to amend the hourly rates.

8.—Overtime.

Overtime as hereinafter defined shall be paid for at the following rates :—

(a) Between 6 p.m. and midnight, Monday to Friday inclusive, ordinary rate and a half.

(b) Between midnight and 7 a.m., Monday to Saturday inclusive, double ordinary rate.

(c) For work done on Saturday between 8 a.m. and midnight, double ordinary rate shall be paid.

9.—Sunday and Holiday Work.

Payment for time worked on Sundays and holidays shall be as under :—

(a) Ordinary holidays.—For work done on ordinary holidays the rates shall be :—

(i) between midnight and 7 a.m.—two and a half times the ordinary rate ;

(ii) between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.—ordinary rate and a half ;

(iii) between 5 p.m. and midnight—double ordinary rate.

(b) Sundays and extraordinary holidays.—For work done between midnight on Saturday and midnight on Sunday and between midnight and midnight on extraordinary holidays, two and a half times the ordinary rate shall be paid.

10.—Holidays.

The holidays shall be as follows :—

(a) Extraordinary holidays.—Christmas Day, Good Friday, Labour Day, Picnic Day and Sundays. Picnic Day shall be notified or nominated at the beginning of each year. Such picnic day shall be mutually decided between the Union and the Wharfinger.

(b) Ordinary holidays.—New Year's Day, Foundation Day, Easter Monday, Boxing Day, State Foundation Day and Anzac Day.

11.—Payment for Public Holidays.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this clause, each worker shall be entitled to be paid six (6) hours at the minimum ordinary hourly rate applicable at the date of the holiday for each of the extraordinary holidays (excluding Sundays) set out in Clause 10 (a) of this Award.

(b) Any worker who—

(i) has failed to offer for or accept employment ; or

(ii) has failed to commence, continue or complete an engagement for employment without the consent of the employer ; or

(iii) has been dismissed for misconduct ; or

(iv) is on leave from the industry

either on the working day before or the working day after an extraordinary holiday shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday under this clause unless he satisfies the employer that he had reasonable excuse.

(c) A worker shall not be entitled to any payment under this clause unless he has worked or, at the direction of the employer, has made himself available for work in stevedoring operations during the week prior to the holiday or within one (1) week following the holiday.

(d) "Working day" for the purpose of this clause shall mean any day upon which the worker has been engaged for work or is required by the employer to attend for engagement,

(e) This clause shall not apply to regular and/or permanent employees of other Government Departments who are entitled to payment for public holidays by that other Government Department nor to any worker who is entitled to receive payment for such holiday from any other employer.

12.—Meal Hours.

(a) Subject to subclause (b) (iv) hereof, the hours for meals shall be :—

Breakfast—7 a.m. to 8 a.m.

Dinner—Noon to 1 p.m.

Tea—5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Supper : If work commences before 11 p.m., a supper hour may be taken between the hours of 11 p.m. and 1 a.m. but if work commences at 11 p.m. or later, no supper hour shall be allowed.

Provided that in the case of workers handling vessels' lines, meal hours shall be one hour between the hours of—

Breakfast—6 a.m. to 8 a.m.

Dinner—Noon to 2 p.m.

Tea—5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

(b) For the purposes of the following, the supper period shall be regarded as a meal hour—

(i) Monday to Friday.—For each meal required outside ordinary working hours, each worker shall be paid the sum of five shillings and sixpence (5s. 6d.). Provided that payment shall be made in respect to such meals only when work resumes after the expiration of the meal period.

(ii) Saturdays and Sundays.—All employees including shed hands, shall be paid five shillings and sixpence (5s. 6d.) for each meal period ; provided that such entitlement shall be only in respect of such meals where work resumes after the end of such meal period.

Where employees work through a dinner or tea break on Saturdays and Sundays and such work continues into the hour following such meal break, one payment of five shillings and sixpence (5s. 6d.) in respect of each meal period so worked shall be made in addition to the penalty rate prescribed in Clause 13.

(iii) Holidays.—Meal payments shall be in accordance with the payments usually made for the particular day on which the holiday falls.

(iv) Extended Meal Hour.—At Carnarvon all meal periods other than the first and supper period, may be extended for jetty gangs and ship gangs to one and a half (1½) hours.

13.—Working During Meal Hours.

(a) Any employee required to work during meal hour shall be paid at the appropriate rate plus the rate applying between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on an ordinary day, for such meal hour or portion thereof worked and such rate, subject to the exception hereinafter mentioned, shall continue until the employee is discharged or has been allowed a full hour of leisure for a meal.

(b) Employees of their own will working with the concurrence of the employer through a meal hour in order to complete a ship or job, shall not be entitled to meal hour rates.

(c) The extra payment after the expiry of a meal hour period shall not continue in the following cases :—

(i) Where the employee has, during the meal hour, been on duty for only the last quarter of the hour assisting to handle the vessel's lines.

(ii) Where the employee is desirous of working during the meal hour as hereinbefore provided.

(iii) Where the work begins for the day at or during a meal hour.

14.—Annual Leave.

(1) Each worker shall for every one hundred and four (104) hours of qualifying service, as defined in paragraph (2) hereof, be credited with four (4) hours leave, with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed, accumulated on the foregoing basis:—

Provided that—

- (a) leave shall be taken each year at a time suitable to both the employer and employee;
- (b) after dividing the total number of qualifying hours of service by one hundred and four (104), odd hours less than 104 remaining shall be credited on the basis of one hour of leave for every twenty-six (26) hours of completed service;
- (c) the maximum leave which shall be credited shall be eighty (80) hours;
- (d) annual leave shall not apply to regular and/or permanent employees of other Government Departments.

(2) Qualifying service shall be calculated as follows:—

- (a) One (1) hour shall be credited to each worker for each hour he works or performs some work, provided that no credit shall be given to a worker who fails without reasonable cause to commence or resume work as ordered.
- (b) Eight (8) hours shall be credited to each worker for each eight (8) hours he is absent from work on annual leave paid for pursuant to this clause.

(3) If a worker desires to leave the industry he may require payment for annual leave in respect to qualifying service standing to his credit. Provided that—

- (a) payment shall be made at the ordinary working rate then applicable on the basis of four (4) hours pay for each completed period of one hundred and four (104) hours of qualifying service;
- (b) if such worker returns to the industry within one month, no qualifying service shall be credited to him for a further period of one month.

15.—Time of Duty.

(a) (i) The place of engagement shall be at the Goods Shed unless otherwise mutually determined by the parties.

(ii) To promote the expeditious, safe and efficient performance of stevedoring operations, the wharfinger shall endeavour that labour will be used to the best advantage and that there will be a fair distribution of the work.

(iii) Where practicable, the labour force of the port will be formed into ship gangs comprising one hatchman, two winchmen and six hold workers.

(iv) Ship gangs may be temporarily created into gangs larger or smaller than nine (9) as required.

(v) Shore gangs shall comprise a minimum of three (3) men but this number may be reduced when handling bulk and/or pre-slung cargoes.

(b) Advance information shall be given wherever possible that labour is required for the work of loading and unloading vessels. Such information shall be posted at the wharfinger's office, at the office of the State Shipping Service, at the town notice board, and given to the Union representative.

(c) Specific notice of the call for labour shall be posted at the wharfinger's office, at the office of the State Shipping Service, at the town notice board and also shall be given to the local representative of the Union. Such notice shall indicate the number of gangs and/or men required.

(d) Where after notification vide subclause (c), a member of a gang is or will be unable to fulfil his engagement, the Union representative shall thenceforth arrange, in conjunction with the wharfinger, for a substitute.

(e) Cancellation or postponement of labour shall, subject to subclause (j), be notified by notice posted at the wharfinger's office, State Shipping Service office, town notice board, and the Union representative informed.

(f) The time of duty shall commence at a time and place to which the worker is directed to present himself for work or for conveyance to work and shall cease at the time he is last returned to that place after the loading and/or discharge of the vessel has been completed. Provided that workers shall be conveyed from Roebourne to Point Samson and returned to Roebourne after work has ceased.

(g) Travelling time shall be computed in the following manner:—

(i) Carnarvon: Travelling time shall be deemed to be thirty (30) minutes each way, included in the term of engagement.

(ii) Roebourne: Travelling time of thirty (30) minutes each way shall be added to the term of engagement for workers who have to be transported to and from Roebourne.

(h) Except as provided in proviso (iii) of subclause (k) of this clause, all time that workers are travelling, in attendance, or waiting, including time occupied in moving the vessel from one berth to another, unless and until the workers are discharged, shall be treated as time of duty and shall be paid for at ordinary basic rates.

(i) Workers who present themselves by direction of the employer for work after a meal hour without having been discharged shall be paid as for one (1) hour at least, even if they are not turned to work.

(j) When the exigency of the occasion demands, the wharfinger may cancel or postpone the engaged labour without penalty or payment whatsoever, provided that notice of such cancellation or postponement is given at least six (6) hours before the time for which the worker is engaged to commence work.

Notice of cancellation or postponement shall be given in the same manner as provided in subclause (e) of this clause, provided however, that no cancellation or postponement notice shall be issued between 8 p.m. and 6 a.m.

(k) A minimum period of six (6) hours at the working rate shall be paid to workers except as hereinafter provided:—

(i) The minimum payment under subclause (h) of this clause shall be as for six (6) hours at the ordinary basic rate.

(ii) The minimum payment on any Saturday in respect of Harbour and Light Goods Sheds when a ship is not working and such Goods Sheds are open to the public until 12 noon shall be as for four (4) hours at the working rate.

(iii) When any worker ceases or does not commence work between midnight and 6 a.m., either because of rain or because of the non-arrival of the vessel, he shall be paid for at least three (3) hours at the working rate, and three (3) hours at the ordinary basic rate.

(iv) A worker who refuses to accept a transfer in accordance with this Award, or who is dismissed for misconduct or for refusing to carry out the direction of the employer, shall not be entitled to the minimum payment prescribed.

- (v) The minimum payment herein prescribed shall not apply to any worker who cannot be usefully employed for at least six (6) hours on any day as the result of any strike, ban or limitation or restriction imposed on the proper performance of work by any worker or group of workers, whether covered by this Award or not.
- (vi) The minimum payment herein prescribed shall not apply to workers detailed to handle the vessel's lines if work is not continued on the vessel and shall be paid as for two (2) hours at the appropriate rate.
- (vii) The number of workers to handle the vessel's lines shall be allocated from the ship and shore gangs detailed to work the vessel.
- (viii) Where, owing to the exigencies of the weather prevailing at the time, a ship is prevented from berthing, labour which has been engaged and owing to the circumstances does not work, shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours at the appropriate rate.
- (ix) After six (6) hours of work, a worker shall be paid for each fraction of a half-hour as if it were a full half-hour.
- (x) This subclause shall not apply to regular and/or permanent workers of other Government Departments during the ordinary hours of duty, Monday to Friday, inclusive.

16.—Engagement of Labour.

The wharfinger shall have due regard to the particular requirements of particular types of work in respect of workers specially trained for or accustomed to perform such types of work.

17.—Transfers of Labour.

(a) A worker shall transfer as required by the employer to any work whether on ship or on shore or on lighter in relation to the ship or wharf for which he has been engaged or, where his engagement is not for a particular ship or wharf, any work related to that for which he has been engaged. He shall further transfer to any other work for the purpose of completing the minimum period of engagement; provided that the employee is not required to perform work which is not incidental to the function of the employer.

(b) Workers shall transfer from hatch to hatch, engagement to engagement, or from ship to ship, in such manner as may be determined by the employer.

(c) Subject to the rights of the employer to shorten hands or to terminate engagements owing to rain or other stoppage of work arising from causes beyond the employer's control or where directions given at or before the time of ceasing work by any person having authority so to direct, preclude the giving of further employment at the relevant time or to transfer labour within the terms of this Award, or to dismiss men who are obviously unable to discharge their duties or for misconduct or refusal to carry out directions of the wharfinger, men engaged to start a job shall be entitled to work till the job is finished, at such hours as the employer may direct.

18.—Number of Men in Hold.

(a) With the exceptions following, the number of men employed to work a hold or on deck loading and discharging (irrespective of hatchmen or winchmen) shall be not less than:—

- (i) six, if the vessel be more than 500 tons (net register);
- (ii) four, if the vessel be more than 100 tons and not more than 500 tons;
- (iii) two, if the vessel be not more than 100 tons.

(b) Exceptions.—The exceptions where a lesser number of men need be employed are:—

- (i) Where the cargo does not exceed 25 tons.
- (ii) In the case of ingots, blooms, billets, slabs, castings, forgings, plate, structural sections, rails, piling bar, sleeper bar, sheet bar, galvanised iron sheets, black iron sheets, stainless steel sheets, merchant steel, skelp rolls, coiled rods, coiled wire, cold rolled strip, pipes, tubes, scrap iron, pig iron, fence posts, keyhold ties, sleepers, fish plates, barbed wire and logs or unsawn timber.
- (iii) When cargo is being dumped into the hold without stowing.
- (iv) In the working of trunkways of hatches.
- (v) In the working of fore and aft hatches of sailing vessels.

(c) The above conditions may be relaxed or varied as to any particular vessel, hatch or cargo or at any stage in the working thereof when the number of men is clearly unnecessary.

19.—Preparatory and Closing Gangs.

(a) For the purpose of doing preparatory work such as removing beams and hatches and rigging or adjusting nets, tents or gear, the employer may employ only such labour as he deems necessary, and for the purpose of doing closing work, such as replacing beams and hatches, removing nets, tents or gear, may retain only such labour as he deems necessary; provided that the period for which men may be required so to work shall be limited to one half-hour before the normal starting time of each shift and one half-hour after the normal finishing time of each shift.

(b) Employees required to commence early on the day shift in accordance with subclause (a) hereof, shall be given notice thereof not later than the normal finishing time of the day shift on the previous day or, if they have been working an extra half-hour, before they finish.

20.—Sling Loads.

Subject to Clause 18, the quantity, height, size or weight of any cargo to be lifted into or out of any vessel, the method of loading or discharging any such cargo, and the number of workers and/or gangs to be employed, whether on ship or on shore, shall be in each case at the discretion of the employer. Workers so engaged shall work as directed by the employer; provided that

- (i) the employer shall properly consider the circumstances of each job, by engaging sufficient labour and using such cargo appliances to avoid undue strain and danger to the worker;
- (ii) the employer shall properly consider any physical infirmity impairing or likely to impair the skill of the worker required for the job;
- (iii) the limit of weight of bagged ore to be lifted by any one man shall be one (1) cwt.

21.—Incidental Work.

(a) Nothing in this Award shall prevent ships' crews from removing hatches and beams. Where hatches and beams have been removed by the ship's crew, workers under this Award shall, if directed, replace such hatches and beams.

(b) Mails carried on any ship may be made up in slings ready for delivery or stacked ready for slinging, before the mooring of a ship. Mails may be landed from or loaded into a moored ship by ships' crews or other workmen.

(c) Passengers' luggage in ships' holds may be handled by any labour the employer may select.

(d) Nothing in this Award shall prevent ships' crews from burlapping, dunnaging and sweeping and cleaning of holds. If workers under this Award are required for this work, the number to be employed shall be at the discretion of the employer and the men employed shall move from hatch to hatch as directed.

22.—Smokos.

- (a) 10 a.m. to 10.20 a.m.
- 3 p.m. to 3.20 p.m.
- 9 p.m. to 9.30 p.m.
- 3 a.m. to 3.15 a.m.
- 5 a.m. to 5.15 a.m.

(b) Rest periods shall not be given or taken under this clause, unless—

(i) in the two hours immediately preceding the commencement of any rest period the workers concerned have actually worked for a least sixty (60) minutes in the aggregate, stoppages of ten (10) minutes or less (except unauthorised stoppages by workers) not being taken into account, and provided that in the case of the 10 a.m. to 10.20 a.m. smoko, the employees shall be entitled to the said break where actual work commences one hour before the time mentioned;

(ii) It is anticipated by the employer that the workers concerned will not be discharged less than forty-five (45) minutes after the end of the rest period.

(c) Employees shall not be bound to work through smoko, except when finishing a ship or to meet unexpected rushes of cargo or for some special reason necessary to enable a ship to leave port to schedule time or to prevent delay owing to tidal conditions and, if required by the employer to work through the whole or part of a smoko for any such reason, they shall do so and shall be paid double the appropriate rates for the whole or part of such period actually worked.

(d) The employer may bring forward or postpone the commencement of a rest period by not more than thirty (30) minutes where work is not possible because of rain, shunting, defect of machinery, shifting ship or lighter or awaiting arrival of cargo. In such case the rest period may be given during the time work is not possible, provided that five (5) minutes' notice is given of the change.

(e) If the employer does not give a rest period because he anticipates that the workers concerned will be discharged less than forty-five (45) minutes after the end of such rest period and such anticipation is incorrect, the workers shall be paid double the appropriate rate for the whole of the rest period.

(f) The employer shall indicate the commencing and finishing times of rest periods and shall give a warning three (3) minutes before the resumption of work from the rest period. An employee shall not leave the place where he was working prior to the time fixed for the commencement of the rest period and shall return to the place where he was working, in sufficient time to ensure that the work of discharging or loading shall commence at the time fixed for the completion of the rest period.

23.—Frozen Cargo.

(a) Employees handling frozen cargo shall be entitled, without deduction of pay, to five (5) minutes at the beginning and finishing of work each day and before and after meal hours for the purpose of changing clothes.

(b) Employees handling frozen cargo shall be provided with suitable warm clothing by the employer or, if no such clothing is provided, shall be paid threepence (3d.) per hour extra.

24.—Working during Rain.

(a) The employer's sanction to cease work owing to rain shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(b) No employee shall work in rain unless he so elects, if he ceases work or does not commence work owing to rain, with the sanction of the employer, he shall be entitled, until discharged, to payment at the ordinary rates for standing-by time,

(c) If he ceases work or does not commence work, owing to rain, without the sanction of the employer, he shall be entitled until discharged, to payment of half the ordinary rate.

(d) The provisions in respect to ceasing work or not commencing work owing to rain, contained in sub-clauses (b) and (c) hereof, shall also be applicable to cases where work ceases or is not commenced owing to boisterous weather or grounding of lighters.

25.—Damaged, Difficult and Obnoxious Cargo.

Employees required to work on—

- (a) cargoes handled at marine casualties;
- (b) cargoes damaged by fire or water;
- (c) cargoes which are unusually dangerous to handle;
- (d) cargoes which are unusually obnoxious or unusually difficult to handle shall be entitled to such special rates and conditions as may be determined by their representative and by the representative of the employer or, if they differ, by a Board of Reference; providing that the employee forthwith proceeds with the job as required, leaving special rates and conditions to be determined as aforesaid.

26.—Handling Stock.

All cattle and sheep shall be handled from stock receiving yards to ship or vice versa, by the agents or a stockman.

27.—Absence through Sickness.

(a) Each worker shall for the first one hundred and fifty-six (156) hours of qualifying service as defined in subclause (2) of Clause 14 of this Award, be credited contingently with three (3) hours' leave and for each additional fifty-two (52) hours of such qualifying service be credited contingently with one (1) hour's leave and, to the extent of any such leave for the time being so contingently credited, shall be entitled to payment at the ordinary minimum rate in respect of any period during which he is absent from work through personal illness or injury on a day on which he is required or would but for such personal illness or injury have been required to attend or make himself available for work: Provided that—

- (i) the employer's liability in respect of such periods of absence shall not exceed thirty (30) hours in each year;
- (ii) regular employees of another Government Department shall not be entitled to sick leave prescribed by this clause;
- (iii) a worker shall not be entitled to payment under this clause in respect of any period for which he is entitled to payment in respect of such illness or injury from any other employer
- (iv) a worker shall not be entitled to payment under this clause in respect of any period in respect of which he is entitled to payment of Workers' Compensation.

(b) The fact that other members of a gang with which a worker ordinarily works are required to attend or make themselves available for work for any particular period shall be prima facie evidence that such worker should have been required to attend or make himself available for work for that period.

(c) A worker shall not be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to the employer or, in the event of a dispute, a Board of Reference, of sickness but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) working days or more.

(d) The sick leave herein prescribed shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified herein which has not been availed of by the worker shall be allowed in a subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in that year but so that the sick leave which accumulates pursuant to this subclause shall not be available to the worker during a period longer than two (2) years from the end of the year in which the said leave accrues.

(e) In the case of a worker who claims to be allowed paid sick leave in accordance with this clause for an absence of one (1) day only, such worker, if in the year he has already been allowed paid sick leave on more than one occasion for one (1) day only, shall not be entitled to payment for the day claimed unless, if so required by the employer, he produces to him a certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner that in his (the medical practitioner's) opinion, the worker was prevented by personal illness or injury from presenting himself for employment on that day.

28.—Preference.

Preference of employment shall be given to members of the Australian Workers' Union.

29.—Board of Reference.

The Court hereby appoints for the purpose of this Award a Board of Reference. Such Board shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties.

There are assigned to such Board in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to this Award, the functions of—

- (a) allowing, approving, fixing, determining or dealing with, any matters or things arising under or out of this Award which may require from time to time to be allowed, approved, fixed, determined or dealt with by the Board;
- (b) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, which, for the purpose, are embodied in this Award.

(c) Industry Money.—In addition to the wages prescribed in this Agreement, industry money shall be paid at the rate of three shillings (3s.) per week to all workers covered by this Agreement, with the exclusion of the workers employed for less than one week and men discharging coal from railway trucks.

(d) Service Money.—Service money shall be payable to all men (except fitters) employed over three years at the rate of three shillings (3s.) per week.

(e) Relief Retort Operator.—Is to be paid retort operator's (Shift work) rate for the full week.

(f) Shift Workers.—Shift workers are to receive five per cent. (5%) increase on the wage rate ruling for afternoon shift; for the night shift they are to receive a ten per cent. (10%) increase on their wage rate. Relief shift to work shift hours when not employed on their usual occupation.

(g) (i) Leading Hand.—Leading hand herein means one other than a shift worker who has in any degree control, supervision, direction of three or more other workers, shall be paid three shillings (3s.) per day above the ordinary rate of pay for such work (this shall include one man on the regular gang being so designated and paid while in charge on the purifiers while they are being emptied or filled).

(ii) Leading Hand.—(Being a tradesman and not a shift worker) in charge of three or more tradesmen or six or more workers shall be paid three shillings and sixpence (3s. 6d.) per day above the rate prescribed for his trade.

(h) Gas workers plumber's rate to be paid in the following cases:—

- (i) For fixing meters of 700 cubic feet and upwards. On altering position of cooker jobs, when renewing pipe which involves screwing and cutting.
- (ii) In the case of men on meter lorries, should they be working as fitters, that is, screwing, cutting, and fitting, for over four hours in any one day they shall be paid the gas workers plumber's rate for that day.
- (iii) Fixing meters and fixing stoves which does not involve cutting or screwing is not to be included to make up four (4) hours.
- (iv) The gas workers plumber's rate starts at the building line, less one-half hour for fixing or fitting meters.

(i) Working Inside Boilers, etc.—Men engaged inside the gas, tar, or water space at any boiler, or inside the boiler flue in cleaning or scraping work, or in tar stills, tar tanks, super heaters, carburettors (water gas plant) after such vessels have been in commission, cleaning off and removing the residue therefrom, shall be paid a margin of six-pence (6d.) per hour on existing rate of pay when so engaged.

(j) Men cleaning tar tanks of the waterless holder only shall be paid a margin of two shillings (2s.) per day when so engaged.

(k) Man in charge operating pan-ash washer shall be paid a margin of 2s. per day.

(l) Man working on coke screening machine at Perth gas works shall be paid a margin of 2s. per day.

(m) Working in Wet Ground.—Any worker working in wet ground shall be paid one shilling and threepence (1s. 3d.) per day in addition to his ordinary or overtime rate of pay. "Wet ground" means ground in which, in the opinion of the engineer, it is impracticable for workers to work without getting wet feet, provided that where watertight boots are supplied by the management, there shall be no allowance for wet ground.

(n) Height Money.—Any worker working on any temporary scaffolding, swinging stage, boson's chair or ladder, at a height of 40 feet or over from the ground, shall be paid one shilling (1s.) per day in addition to the rate of pay for the job, provided he so works four hours or over in any one day. If he works less than four hours, he shall be paid at the higher rate for the time of working only.

(o) Mixed Functions.—

(i) Any worker required to do more than one class of work in any one day shall be paid at the higher rate for the day, provided he works for four hours or over at this rate, otherwise he shall be paid the higher rate only for the time so worked.

(ii) If a higher rate is paid for over four hours in any one day, the rate to be paid when the worker is proceeding from one job to another shall be at the higher rate for that day.

(p) Gas meter makers or repairers shall be elevated from No. 2 bench to No. 1 bench after three years of service subject to the employee's efficiency as determined by the management.

4.—Provision of Oilskins.

Service men, all regular workers of the main laying gangs, complaint men, tar fillers, truck drivers' mates and coal gang shall be supplied with oilskins, leggins, coat and sou'wester (but workers who are required to ride push cycles in the course of their employment to be supplied with capes and trousers in lieu of the foregoing articles) every two (2) years. The worker shall be responsible for any loss or damage to same (ordinary wear and tear excepted) before the expiration of such period. If the worker leaves or is dismissed from his employment before the expiration of two (2) years from the issue, he shall return all articles issued to him.

5.—Provision of Boots.

Boots will be issued by the employer to all men while they are engaged on the purifiers and tar filling plant; these boots are to be handed back each night by the men concerned, and will be kept by the employer whilst not in use; under no circumstances are they to be taken away from the gas works.

6.—Travelling Allowance for Main Gangs and Outside Workers.

Where a worker commencing work at starting time on the job incurs extra tram or railway fares over and above one fare each way, the extra amount of fare shall be refunded to him each week.

7.—Time Allowance Outside the Two-mile Radius.

Workers working temporarily outside the two-mile radius of the Fremantle, Cottesloe, Belmont, Claremont and Leederville Depots, Gas Meter Shop East Perth, and Albany, Spearwood and East Perth Gas Works, and not within two miles of their place of residence, shall be allowed one-half hour per day travelling time without loss of pay, in addition to above travelling allowance, when required to report for work on the job.

8.—Hours.

The hours of duty shall not, without payment of overtime, exceed forty (40) hours per week, and the hours of duty for any day shall not without payment for overtime, exceed eight (8) hours. Provided also, that if it is found necessary, arrangements may be made for workers to commence work earlier or later and finish earlier or later than the ordinary hours. Each shift to consist of eight (8) hours, a five-day week to operate subject to a system of rostering for shift workers.

9.—Overtime.

(a) Payment shall be made for overtime at the rate of time and one half for the first four hours after the usual knock-off time and double time thereafter.

(b) When a worker is recalled to work after leaving the job, he shall be paid for at least two hours at overtime rates.

(c) When a worker, without being notified on the previous day, is required to continue working after the usual knock-off time, for more than one hour, he shall be provided with any meal required or shall be paid three shillings and sixpence (3s. 6d.) in lieu thereof.

This provision shall not apply in case of emergency breakdown repairs. No worker shall work overtime more than four and one quarter (4½) hours without a meal break.

(d) An employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement.

(e) No organisation, party to this Agreement or worker or workers covered by this Agreement shall in any way whether directly or indirectly, be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation, or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

10.—Shift Work.

(a) The hours of duty without the payment of overtime shall not, for shiftmen (except watchmen) exceed an average of forty (40) hours per week, to be worked in shifts not exceeding eight (8) hours each. Such shifts to be distributed as the employers choose, but so as to make an aggregate shift time on duty not exceeding one hundred and sixty (160) hours in each period of four (4) weeks.

(b) For all duty performed on his day off in the week, a shiftman shall be paid at the rate of double time, provided that payment for a "ringer" shift worked on any day other than a holiday prescribed in this Agreement shall be at the rate of time and one half.

(c) For all time worked on a Saturday, Sunday and holidays (not being his day off) the minimum ordinary rate for a shiftman shall be increased by one half for a Saturday, three-quarters for a Sunday, but in the case of a holiday it shall be doubled.

(d) In the case of a shiftman working on his day off at the request of another employee, the rate to be paid shall be the ordinary rate payable for the day or shift.

(e) A shiftman shall be deemed to be working on a continuous process.

(f) A worker not notified before his usual knock-off time that he is being required for night shift, and being required for shift work after his usual day's work and between his usual knock-off time and 8 a.m., shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half.

11.—Holidays.

(a) Two weeks' annual leave will be granted on full pay annually after twelve months' service, leave not to be cumulative and to be taken at the discretion of the management so as to interfere with the routine of the works as little as possible.

(b) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(c) (i) Retort operators and men engaged on shift work shall receive three working weeks (one hundred and twenty (120) hours) leave on full pay after twelve months' service.

(ii) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-quarter of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

(d) Men on the water gas plant and tar plant shall be classified as shift workers for annual holidays, when two or more shifts are being worked continuously per day.

(e) For the purpose of annual leave shift workers shall be paid for their three week's leave at the afternoon shift rate, then add industry money where applicable.

(f) The following days shall be recognised as holidays and the usual rates of pay shall be paid for same:—New Year's Day, Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, Union Picnic Day, and people's or children's Show Day.

(g) Shift workers shall be paid one day's pay in lieu of the Union Picnic Day.

(h) Any days which are prescribed by the laws of the State to be observed in lieu of the holidays abovementioned will be treated as the days to which this holiday clause shall apply.

(i) All workers, other than shiftmen, shall be free from duty on holidays, without loss of pay for the day, but any employee may be required for duty on any Sunday or holiday and, if so required, shall be entitled to the ordinary rate for the time worked on holidays and double time for Sunday, the ordinary day's pay plus the holiday pay for the day.

(j) In the case of workers on mixed functions for the named holidays, between the periods of annual leave, the employee shall be paid at the rate per day he was paid prior to taking annual leave.

12.—Junior Workers.

(a) Junior worker is a person under the age of 21 years of age and shall be paid in accordance with the following scale:—

	Per cent. of Basic Wage.
Up to 16 years of age	30
Between 16 and 17 years of age	40
Between 17 and 18 years of age	65
Between 18 and 19 years of age	80
Between 19 and 21 years of age	95

(b) At 16 years, a junior worker shall be paid industry money at the rate of sixpence (6d.) per week, then increased by sixpence per week each year until at 21 years he shall receive three shillings (3s.) per week industry money in addition to the rate prescribed in this Agreement.

(c) Junior workers excepting those employed in the meter shop must not be employed on work which requires the use of tradesmen's tools, or connecting meters or any gas appliances to the main.

13.—Weekly Hiring.

(a) The employment is terminable on either side by one week's notice, given on any day, but for the first four days of employment the hiring shall be from hour to hour, and during this period an hour's notice or an hour's pay shall be sufficient.

(b) If a weekly worker absents himself from duty, a sum proportionate to his time of absence may be deducted from his pay.

(c) This clause does not affect the right for dismissal for misconduct, and in such case wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.

(d) The employers shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day upon which the worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the union or unions affiliated with it, or by any other association or union, or through any breakdown of the employer's machinery, or any stoppage of work, or by any such strike or breakdown which the employers cannot reasonably prevent.

14.—Absence through Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth of a week for each completed month of service. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. Payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to forty (40) hours in any calendar year, provided that if a worker be not absent from his work owing to ill-health during any year such sick pay unused out of the balance of forty (40) hours in any one year may be carried forward for five (5) succeeding years, there being one-twelfth of a week for every month of service. That is, any balance of forty (40) hours to be carried forward from the first to the second year, any balance of the eighty (80) hours to be carried forward from the second to the third year, any balance of one hundred and twenty (120) hours carried forward from the third to the fourth year, any balance of the one hundred and sixty (160) hours to be carried forward from the fourth to the fifth year, any balance of the two hundred (200) hours to be carried forward from the fifth to the sixth year, with a maximum carry-forward of two hundred (200) hours. After the sixth year, and at any time the maximum sick pay shall be two hundred and forty (240) hours.

(b) This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act, or for any accident wherever sustained arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to the employers of sickness, but the employers shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(d) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay under the preceding provisions shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to holidays.

15.—Provisions.

Service layer's work to terminate within six feet of inside of building or street line.

16.—Maintenance Work.

Maintenance work shall not constitute gas-fitter's work, unless it is found necessary to remove the fittings and replace them to repair a fault.

17.—Tools.

All tools required in connection with any work performed by the employees on behalf of the employers, to be provided by the employers, except small tools.

18.—Overalls or Dust Coats.

All employees of the Gas Department of the State Electricity Commission and fitters, complaint men and assistants of the Fremantle Gas and Coke Company, party to this Agreement shall be supplied with two (2) pairs of overalls or dust coat annually after six months' continuous service. 19.—Membership of Union.

All new workers joining the service of the employers and employed under this Agreement shall, within fourteen (14) days make application to join the Union which is party to this Agreement except that this provision shall not apply to University students or casual workers.

20.—Obligation of Union.

It is agreed that in the event of any strike or similar action against any other employer, the Union party to this Agreement will not allow its members in the service of the employers to be involved directly or indirectly in the withdrawal of their labour from the normal activities of the employers.

21.—Promotion.

Before any promotion to a vacancy shall be made, consideration as to the qualifications of each man shall be given. Any man for promotion who considers he has been penalised shall have the right of appeal to the engineer or general manager with a representative of the Union.

22.—Washing Facilities.

The employer shall provide for workers at the works in the industry, facility for washing (hot showers and wash basin) and soap suitable as a solvent for removing tar and grease.

23.—Settlement of Disputes.

(a) Should any question or dispute arise regarding this Agreement or any matter not provided herein, it shall be referred to a representative of the employers and of the Union, who shall meet and endeavour to effect a settlement.

(b) This clause shall not be taken to interfere with any rights of either of the parties to proceed for a penalty for a breach of this Agreement.

24.—First Aid Kit.

The employer shall provide all requisite first aid appliances and materials as prescribed by the Factories and Shops Act, at the works and for main laying and service gangs.

25.—Extra Provisions.

(a) Gloves shall be supplied to all employees working on the caustic bath, in the stove and meter shop, and to employees engaged on dry gas plants.

(b) Glass goggles shall be supplied to employees engaged on emery wheels or buffing.

(c) After the purifier box lids are lifted, two (2) hours shall elapse before men are sent into the purifiers to work.

26.—Area.

This Agreement shall apply to those areas of the State in which the State Electricity Commission and the Fremantle Gas and Coke Company, Limited supply gas.

27.—Duration of Agreement.

This Agreement shall operate for two years from the date hereof.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first hereinbefore written.

(e) In the case of a male officer who joins the service of the bank when over 19 years of age his salary, on reaching the age of 28 years, shall be not less than that prescribed for an officer in his twelfth year of service, and shall be increased thereafter as though he had completed eleven years' service on reaching his 28th birthday.

(f) Female clerks other than typists engaged after the 1st day of November, 1951, are to be paid the rates prescribed for male clerks. Where, however, female clerks are employed on such work as passbooks or statements of accounts, typing, shorthand, indexing, sorting, filing, recording branch remittances, ledger-keeping, current account or teller's cash books or slips, perusal or dealing with branch returns, or the working of any mechanical appliances, they may be paid the rates prescribed for female typists.

(g) The rates of pay (and increases in pay) prescribed in sub-clauses (c) and (d) hereof shall be subject to good conduct, diligence and efficiency.

(h) Increases in rates of pay as prescribed herein shall date from the nearest pay day occurring to the due birth date.

(i) Whenever any salary or increment provided for by this Award shall be withheld from any officer, he shall be informed of the reason on which it is decided to withhold such salary or increase. If such officer, within one month thereafter, asks in writing to be furnished with the reasons for such withholding, he shall be informed in writing of such reasons within a fortnight from the receipt at head office in Western Australia of the request therefor.

(j) Allowances provided by this Award are not subject to variation in accordance with fluctuations in the basic wage of Western Australia.

(k) Accountants.—The minimum margin to be paid to Accountants in branches shall be—

	Per annum.
(i) Six, seven or eight hands (including the manager)	620
(ii) Nine or more hands	645

For the purpose of this clause, in determining the number of hands in any branch, no account is to be taken of an officer providing temporary assistance in addition to the usual staff, nor of any officer attached for duty at a sub-branch or agency, or receiving office, nor of any officer absent on leave whose place is being filled by another officer who has been taken into account in determining the number of hands, nor any field officer or cadet field officer. Where an officer is attached to a five-handed branch for training, this shall not entitle the branch to be classified as a branch of six hands.

(l) Managers.—To the manager of any branch (excluding officers in charge of agencies or receiving offices), a margin not less than—

	Per Annum.
1st year as manager	700
2nd year as manager	725

To the manager of any branch of six hands (including the manager) and upwards, a margin not less than—

	Per Annum.
1st year as such manager	800
2nd year as such manager	825
3rd year as such manager	850

(m) Female Machine Operators.—A female ledger or statement machine operator shall be paid an allowance (in addition to salary) in accordance with the following scale:—

Statement and Ledger Machines.

Dual Posting.	Sensimatic Burroughs Side by Side.	Allowance.	Allowance per day or part thereof for periods of less than one week.
Up to 350 voucher postings daily average	Up to 250 voucher postings daily average	Nil	Nil
351 voucher postings and up to 750 voucher postings daily average	251 voucher postings and up to 750 voucher postings daily average	£39	3s.
More than 750 voucher postings daily average	£52	4s.

Such daily average is to be assessed by dividing the total number of ledger postings in respect of all full working days in the month of June of each year by the number of full working days in that month the appropriate allowance to be reviewed as from the commencement of the following month.

(n) All salaries shall be paid fortnightly on dates most convenient to the Commissioners.

(o) Living Away from Home Allowance: Any officer who on account of distance or any cause necessarily resides at a place other than the home town of his or her parents or other relations with whom he or she lives shall, unless otherwise agreed between the Commissioners and the Bank Officials' Association of Western Australia, be paid in addition to his or her salary the following allowances:—

Year of Service.	MALES.		FEMALES.
	Salary not more than: per cent. of Basic Wage.	Allowance.	Salary not more than: per cent. of Basic Wage.	Allowance.

7.—Hours.

(a) The ordinary working hours of officers, exclusive of meal hours, shall not exceed 40 in any one week.

(b) In weeks in which statutory gazetted or proclaimed holidays are observed, the ordinary weekly hours shall be reduced by seven hours and 18 minutes for a full holiday, by 3½ hours for a half holiday and by 3¼ hours for a Saturday.

(c) Not less than 45 minutes shall be allowed for meals on all working days between 11.45 a.m. and 2 p.m.

8.—Overtime.

(a) Officers (other than managers and branch auditors) who are in receipt of salaries which do not exceed a margin of £200 over and above the rate for the time being prescribed in the scale appearing in clause 5 hereof and applicable to the eighteenth year of service for male officers and as adjusted, shall be paid overtime at the rate of time and a half for all time worked in excess of the hours mentioned in clause 7, or before 8.30 a.m. on any day and after 12.30 p.m. on Saturdays.

The hourly rates for overtime for officers shall be calculated on the following formula:—

$$\frac{\text{Salary} \times 6 \times 1 \times 3}{313 \times 1 \times 40 \times 2}$$

(b) An officer subject to Clause 20—Special Duties (other than managers and branch auditors) required to work on any Sunday, statutory, gazetted or proclaimed bank holiday shall be paid overtime for all time worked at double rates on a full holiday or between 12 midnight and 7.30 a.m., and at time and a half on a half-holiday, in addition to meal allowances. One half-day shall be the minimum time deemed to have been worked on Sunday or any full-day holiday.

(c) An officer shall be deemed to be required to work on any hours actually worked unless he is directed not to work such hours by his superior officer.

(d) The Commissioners shall keep a record of all time worked and each officer shall be paid the amount due for overtime within two weeks of the expiration of the period for which such overtime was incurred without the officer having to make application therefor.

(e) Broken time off in lieu of overtime shall not be allowed.

9.—Meal Money.

If any officer is required to work after 6.10 p.m. from Monday to Friday, inclusive, or after 12.30 p.m. on Saturday, or Sunday, 8s. 6d. shall be allowed for a meal in addition to any overtime to which he or she shall be entitled: Provided the officer is unable to go to the usual place of abode and return during the forty-five minutes allowed for the meal; similarly, if required to work after 6 p.m. on Saturday, or Sunday, a further 8s. 6d. shall be paid for a meal.

10.—Annual Leave and Payment for Leave on Termination of Employment.

(a) Subject to the provisions of subclauses (c) and (e) hereof, adult officers shall receive not less than three weeks' leave of absence in respect of each full calendar year's service, and those under 21 years of age shall receive two weeks' leave of absence in respect of each full calendar year's service. All such leave shall be granted on full pay and shall be in addition to all gazetted bank holidays.

(b) A calendar year shall be the period from the 1st day of January to the succeeding 31st day of December.

(c) In the event of it being found impracticable to grant such leave in any year, the officer concerned shall in the following year be granted double leave.

(d) The Commissioners shall make every endeavour to give each officer at least a fortnight's notice of intention to send them on annual leave. Where practicable, married officers shall be given at least 28 days' notice.

(e) Any officer joining the bank after the 1st day of January, 1951, shall be entitled to leave in respect of that portion of the calendar year in which he or she joins the bank to one working day's leave in respect of each full calendar month's service to the end of the calendar year. Provided that any such officer being an adult at the time of so joining shall be entitled to one and one-half working day's leave in respect of each full calendar month.

(f) (i) Should an officer be retired for any reason or voluntarily resign or be dismissed, a cash equivalent shall be paid to any such officer for all annual leave then due.

(ii) In the event of an officer dying, a cash equivalent for all annual leave then due to such officer shall be paid to his dependants or his legal representative or representatives.

(iii) In every case where an officer shall retire, resign, or be dismissed, or shall die, before a full year's annual leave shall have accrued, a proportionate cash payment shall be made in respect of all annual leave accruing to such officer and shall be paid to him or his dependants or his legal representative or representatives.

(iv) Payment under this subclause shall be made at the rate of salary of the officer at the time of his retirement, resignation, dismissal or death.

11.—Sick Leave.

Sick leave may be allowed officers, according to length of service, for no lesser periods or rates of pay than apply from time to time in the Western Australian Civil Service and the other conditions governing the allowance of sick leave shall be decided by the Commissioners.

12.—Long Service Leave.

Officers may be granted long service leave on terms and conditions as set out in the Rural and Industries Bank Act of 1944 as amended.

13.—Short Leave of Absence.

The Commissioners may, on sufficient cause be shown, grant an officer leave of absence not exceeding two (2) days.

All such periods of leave shall be recorded and may, at the Commissioners' discretion be deducted from the next annual leave.

If, however, the leave granted under this clause to any officer exceeds three (3) days in one year, the excess shall be deducted from the officer's next annual leave.

14.—Travelling Allowances and Expenses.

An officer, when travelling under instructions from his or her bank, shall be entitled to the following travelling expenses:—

(a) First class fares by rail, boat or aeroplane (including sleeping accommodation when available).

(b) Necessary cab and portage expenses, to be approved by the Commissioners.

(c) 30s. per day or 3s. per hour up to ten hours, providing that no allowance shall be paid for a journey of less than two hours and provided also that the allowance shall be reduced by one half where an officer travels by rail, boat or air and found. Field officers' and field cadets' entitlement shall not commence until 6 p.m. on 1st day of travel.

(d) A married officer when transferred to another appointment shall also be entitled to travelling expenses in respect of each dependent member of his family as provided in paragraph (a) and (b) and (c) hereof.

(e) These allowances shall be increased to cover any further actual and necessary expenses reasonably incurred on the journey to be approved by the Commissioners.

(f) When a married officer under transfer must necessarily reside at a hotel or lodging house—

(i) whilst waiting to begin his journey,

(ii) in the course of his journey, or

(iii) whilst waiting to secure a residence at his destination,

he shall be paid any necessary and reasonable expenses so incurred for the minimum period required to effect the transfer but not exceeding seven days and two-thirds of any necessary and reasonable expenses so incurred for any further period up to three months. Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to any period of his journey for which the allowances under paragraph (c) hereof are payable. Provided, further, that if such officer shall prove to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that it was through no fault of his that he could not secure residence at his destination, such allowance may at the Commissioners' discretion be paid for a longer period than three months.

(g) When an officer travels, but is not absent from home overnight, in lieu of the above expenses he shall be granted an allowance of 8s. 6d. per meal as follows, provided he is unable, for sufficient reason, to have such meal at the usual place of abode, provided further clauses (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph shall not apply to Field Officers or Cadet Field Officers.

(i) Breakfast, if an officer has to leave the home town before 8-00 a.m.

(ii) Lunch, if an officer cannot return to the home town before 1-30 p.m.

(iii) Dinner, if an officer cannot return to the home town before 6-00 p.m.

15.—Removal Allowances and Expenses.

(a) When a married officer, because of his transfer from one branch or office to another, is necessarily obliged to change his place of residence he shall be paid—

(i) all reasonable costs of packing and removing his furniture, furnishings and effects to his new place of residence and the cost of adequately insuring the same during such removal;

(ii) a cash allowance of at least £50 to cover incidental costs connected with his transfer. Such allowance shall be not less than £25 for an officer moving to premises furnished by the Bank. No such allowance shall be payable to an officer setting up his first home.

(b) If an officer so transferred is required to store his furniture, furnishings and/or effects, he shall also be paid the storage charges and the cost of insuring the same whilst in storage or in removal thereto or therefrom.

(c) This clause shall have no application to an officer transferred at his own request. Any payments in such case shall be at the discretion of the Commissioners.

16.—Relieving Allowances.

(a) An officer sent to relieve another officer or sent for audit purposes and who, as a consequence is required to reside away from his usual place of residence, shall be paid from arrival to departure a minimum relieving allowance as follows:—

Manager and married officers : 40s. per day.
Unmarried officers : 30s. per day.

(b) An officer shall be regarded as relieving unless permanently appointed to the staff at the branch at which he is serving. Any appointment shall not be deemed permanent unless the previous appointee be transferred to another branch, or to do other duties at the same branch. Any officer relieving another officer in a lower-paid position shall not be reduced in salary whilst so relieving.

(c) The allowance provided in subclause (a) of this clause shall be increased to cover any further actual and reasonable expenses approved by the Commissioners, incurred whilst relieving. Provided further, that no officer shall draw an allowance under clause 5, subclause (c), in addition to such relieving allowance.

(d) When an officer is relieving in a district where district allowance is payable, he shall be granted such allowance in addition to other allowances.

17.—Car Expenses.

Where a manager or other officer provides his own car and uses it in connection with the bank's business in circumstances approved by the Commissioners, he shall be paid an allowance of not less than one shilling per mile or not less favourable terms when so using the car. Audit officers shall be excluded from this clause, but shall be subject to arrangements mutually agreed between the parties from time to time.

18.—Cleaning, etc.

The cost of fuel, light, and cleaning of the office portion of the bank premises shall be defrayed by the Commissioners.

19.—House Allowance.

(a) Where a residence is not provided for a manager, the following house allowance shall be paid:—

	Per Annum.
(i) To managers of branches in metropolitan area	£208
(ii) To managers of country branches	£182

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this clause contained, any greater allowance in lieu of residence at present paid to a manager of a branch shall be preserved to him whilst occupying his present position, and when no residence is provided for him.

20.—Special Duties.

(a) Should an officer be called upon for special duty attending at or for the arrival or departure of aircraft, ships or boats, receiving or despatching coins, notes, etc., or receiving coins, notes, etc., from race meetings, shows, sports meetings, theatres, etc., and the like, he shall be paid for such service on each occasion a minimum of:—

- (i) On ordinary working days, other than Saturday, before 8.30 a.m. or after 6.10 p.m.—£1 10s.
- (ii) On Saturdays before 8.30 a.m.—£1 10s.
- (iii) On Saturdays after 12.30 p.m., or at any time on Sundays or on statutory or proclaimed holidays to which he is entitled—£2.

Provided that, if payment at not less than the rates specified is made by another party, the Commissioners shall be absolved from responsibility hereunder. If a lesser amount is paid by another party, the Commissioner shall be liable only to make up the difference.

(b) This clause shall have no application where the officer is entitled to payment under clause 8 (overtime) of this award, provided that if the amount which would have been payable if this clause had applied is greater than that payable under the said clause 8, the amount provided by this clause shall be paid in lieu of that payable under the said clause 8.

Notwithstanding anything in clause 8 of this Award, these provisions shall apply to all officers, including managers and branch auditors.

21.—Disputes.

In the event of any dispute arising as to any of the matters herein contained, except question of interpretation, the matter shall be referred to a representative of the Union and a representative of the Commissioners, and, if they are unable to come to an agreement, the matter shall be referred to the Court, which may determine the matter itself, or refer to a board constituted under section 89 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952.

22.—Dismissals, etc.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in or implied by clause 5 hereof, an officer may, subject to sections 92 and 121 (6) of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, be reduced for disciplinary reasons or for inefficiency or other good cause, in which event he shall be paid such rate as may be agreed upon by the Commissioners and the Secretary of the Union. If the Commissioners are unable to agree with the Secretary of the Union as to the rate to be paid in such case, the matter shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed by clause 21. This subclause (a) shall not in any way interfere with the discretionary powers referred to in clause 5, subclause (g).

(b) Whenever any salary or increment provided for by this Award shall be withheld from any officer, or he shall be dismissed, suspended, or reduced in salary, or is informed that he is disgraced, he shall be informed in writing of the reasons therefor within a fortnight from the receipt at head office of the bank in Western Australia of the request therefor.

23.—Engagement.

All officers under this Award shall be engaged and employed by the month, except where otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing between the Commissioners and individual officers.

24.—Aged and Infirm Workers.

Any worker who by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum rate of wage herein, may be employed at a lesser rate of wage to be agreed upon in writing between the worker and the Secretary of the Union, or, in default of such agreement, within twenty-four hours after such worker shall have applied in writing to such Secretary, stating his desire for such wage to be agreed upon, such wage shall be fixed by the most convenient Resident or Police Magistrate upon the application of such worker, after 24 hours' notice in writing shall have been given by him to the said Secretary, who shall, if he so desires, be heard by the Magistrate upon such application. After having made application to the Secretary of the Union, and after lodging the application to the Magistrate, and pending the decision therein in either case, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed by the employer at the proposed reduced wage. The determination of the Magistrate shall have effect for six calendar months from the date thereof, and after the expiration of the said period, until the wage shall be again fixed in the manner prescribed at the instance of the said Secretary. The Secretary of the Union may, by writing under his hand, appoint an agent or substitute to represent the Union at the hearing of any such application before the Magistrate.

25.—Length of Service.

For the purpose of calculating the length of service of any officer, except as relates to long service leave, (a) any period of probation which shall have been served, (b) all service, whether continuous or in broken periods (provided the break is not more than 12 months) in any bank, Agricultural Bank or Western Australian State Government Department, (c) any period for which an officer (already in the bank's service when he or she enlisted or was called up) has been engaged during the Great War or the war which commenced on the 3rd day of September, 1939, upon war service or any service with the Armed Forces or Civil Defence Works, Allied Works Council, Civil Construction Corps, or similar body; and (d) any absences on account of sickness, not exceeding 12 consecutive months in duration, or on account of annual leave or period of National Service Training, shall be included.

26.—General.

(a) The Commissioners will continue the present practice of reviewing periodically the rate of pay of officers other than those provided for by this Award.

(b) Except as allowed by this Award, no officer shall, as a result of this Award, suffer any loss of rates of pay, allowance, or position to which such officer is entitled under agreement with the Commissioners.

(c) An officer shall not be in any way affected or injured in his employment or service by reason of any charge or complaint made against him until he is informed of such charge or complaint and given an opportunity to meet it.

(d) Provided that if any officer, within one calendar month from the date of such charge or complaint being made against him, requests in writing to be informed as to the nature of the charge or complaint, he shall be informed in writing thereof within 14 days from the receipt at the head office of the bank in Western Australia of the written request therefor.

27.—Higher and Lower Grades.

(a) When an officer relieves as a manager or as an accountant for a period of more than three months in one term, he shall be paid not less than the minimum salary prescribed by this Award for such position.

(b) An officer relieving another in a lower paid position shall not be reduced in salary whilst so relieving.

28.—Repatriation of Retired Officers.

The Commissioners shall continue the present practice of paying reasonable removal expenses incurred by an officer who retires from the service and desires to return to his home town.

29.—Messengers.

3.—Area and Scope.

This Award shall operate throughout the State of Western Australia, with the exception of Yilgarn, Coolgardie, Broad Arrow, Dundas, East Coolgardie, Goldfields of the State of Western Australia, and also the area comprised within a distance of 100 miles from the Trans-Australian Railway at Kalgoorlie and east thereof, and shall apply to all persons employed by the State Electricity Commission in the classifications mentioned herein.

4.—Term.

This Award shall operate for three (3) years from the date hereof; provided that at any time after the expiration of twelve (12) calendar months from the date hereof the Court may add to, vary or rescind any provisions of this Award on the application of any party thereto.

5.—Definitions.

(a) "Boilermaker" means a tradesman engaged in assembling, plating, bolting (temporary or otherwise), hand and/or machine rivetting, caulking, chipping, staying, tapping, reaming, welding, drilling (other than on stationary drilling machines), tube staying, tubing, angle or plate straightening, hydraulic presses, ripping and notching machines in connection with the making and/or repairing of iron and steel boilers, vats, digestors, receivers, retorts, ships, vessels other than ships, tanks, locks, towers, waggons, trucks, rolling stock, boilermaking work incidental to bridges, girders, principals (roof or otherwise), pontoons, gasometers, pipes, mining plates and structural iron and steel work, and includes work on sheet metal up to and including ten (10) gauge in connection with the foregoing.

(b) "Casual worker" means a worker employed for less than one (1) week continuously, but does not include a worker who, when work is available, leaves his employment before the expiration of one (1) week.

6.—Mixed Functions.

(a) A worker called upon to perform work carrying a higher rate of pay than his classified rate for two hours in any day or shift shall be paid such higher rate for the whole of the day or shift.

(b) Should any worker be required to perform work in a lower grade his wages shall not be reduced whilst employed in such capacity.

7.—Promotion.

(a) All promotions shall be made under and in accordance with the Government Employees (Promotions Appeal Board) Act, 1945-1955 and the Regulations thereto.

(b) The Commission shall, in the prescribed manner, notify all applicants for any vacancy or new position of the person recommended for appointment to such vacancy or new position.

(c) An employee who desires to appeal shall serve a notice in the prescribed form on the General Manager and the Secretary of the Promotions Appeal Board within fourteen clear days after the date of the notice referred to in subclause (b) hereof.

(d) Where any vacancy occurs or a new office is created, and it is necessary to fill the position without delay, a temporary appointment may be made, but applications for permanent appointment to the position shall be called within two (2) months of the occurrence of such vacancy or the creation of such new office as the case may be.

8.—Contract of Service.

(a) No permanent worker shall leave the department until the expiration of fourteen (14) days' written notice of his intention to do so, without the approval of the Commission.

(b) Except in the case of summary dismissal for misconduct, peculation, or theft, fourteen (14) days' written notice shall be given by the Commission to any permanent worker and the reason for dismissal shall be stated in such notice.

(c) The Commission shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day on which a worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the Union or by a Union or Unions affiliated with it, or by any other Association or Union, or through the breakdown of the Commission's machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause which the Commission cannot reasonably prevent.

9.—Absence from Duty.

(a) Any worker losing time through sickness or injury shall, as soon as possible, notify his foreman, or other officer-in-charge, in sufficient time to permit of arrangements being made for the performance of his duties.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Clause 10 (Sick Leave) any worker losing time through sickness or special leave shall be reduced in wages only to the extent of the time actually lost through sickness or granted as special leave.

10.—Sick Leave.

(a) (i) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week's pay for each completed month of service.

(ii) The liability of the Commission shall in no case exceed one (1) week's wages during each calendar year in respect of each worker, but the sick leave herein provided shall be allowed to accumulate and any portion unused in any year may be availed of in the next or any succeeding year.

(iii) Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the service, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred.

(b) This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause unless he produces proof to the satisfaction of the Commission or its representative, of sickness, but the Commission shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) consecutive working days or more.

(d) No payment will be made for any absence due to a worker's own fault, neglect, or misconduct.

11.—Annual Leave.

(a) (i) Except as hereinafter provided a period of two consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by the Commission after a period of twelve months' continuous service with the Commission.

(ii) In addition to the leave hereinbefore prescribed seven-day shift workers, that is shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays shall be allowed seven consecutive days' leave including non-working days.

(iii) Where an employee with twelve months' continuous service is engaged for part of the twelve monthly period as a seven-day shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of fourteen consecutive days' annual leave, prescribed in subclause (a) (i) hereof, increased by half a day for each month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

(b) If any award holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(c) (i) Subject to paragraph (ii) when computing the annual leave due under this clause no deduction shall be made from such leave in respect of the period that a worker is on annual leave and/or holidays; provided that no deductions shall be made for any approved period a worker is absent from duty through sickness with or without pay unless the absence exceeds an aggregate of thirteen (13) weeks in which case deduction may be made for such excess only.

(ii) Approved periods of absence from work caused through accident sustained in the course of employment shall not be considered breaks in continuity of service but the first six months only of any such period shall count as service for the purpose of computing annual leave.

(d) In the event of a worker being employed by the Commission for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period with the Commission.

(e) Any worker who may resign or be dismissed from the service for any cause other than for peculation or theft shall be entitled to receive payment for any annual leave which may have been due up to the time of leaving the service; provided always that if the worker has been dismissed for peculation or theft no claim for annual leave shall be recognised. Misconduct herein referred to shall not affect accumulated annual leave or payment therefor.

(f) When work is closed for the purpose of allowing annual leave to be taken, workers with less than a full year's service shall be entitled to payment during such period for the number of days' leave due to them: Provided that nothing herein contained shall deprive the Commission of its right to retain such workers at work during the close-down period as may be essential.

(g) "Ordinary wages" for the purpose of subclause (a) hereof shall mean the rate of wage the worker has received for the greatest proportion of the calendar month prior to his taking the annual leave.

(h) Provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

(i) Annual leave shall be calculated up to the end of each financial year.

12.—Public Holidays.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided, each of the following days, or the day observed in lieu thereof, shall be allowed as a holiday to all workers and be paid for, namely: New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Sovereign's Birthday, Christmas Day and Boxing Day, but at the option of the employer any employee may be granted Show Day in lieu of Sovereign's Birthday provided he makes application to his officer-in-charge.

(b) (i) Whenever any holiday falls on an employee's ordinary working day and the employee is not required to work on such day he shall be paid for the ordinary hours he would have worked on such day if it had not been a holiday. If he is required to work on a holiday he shall be paid for the time worked as if it were an ordinary working day and shall, in addition, be allowed a day's leave with pay to be added to the annual leave or to be taken at some subsequent date if the worker so agrees.

(ii) If any worker is required to work on a public holiday prescribed as a holiday under this Award which falls on a non-working day, he shall be paid the rate which he would have been paid if the day had not been a public holiday, and in addition shall have one day for each holiday so worked added to his annual leave.

(c) Payment for holidays shall be in accordance with the usual hours of work.

(d) When a worker is off duty owing to leave without pay or sickness including accidents on or off duty, except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay, any holiday falling during such absence shall not be treated as a paid holiday. Where the worker is on duty or available on the whole of the working day immediately preceding a holiday or resumes duty or is available on the whole of the working day immediately following a holiday as prescribed in this clause, the worker shall be entitled to a paid holiday on all such holidays.

(e) Day workers employed on Sunday work will be entitled to half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one day extra on their annual leave for every four (4) Sundays worked during the year; Sunday work shall not be counted for the purpose of this subclause unless at least three (3) hours actual work is done.

(f) A casual worker shall not be entitled to payment for any holiday referred to in this clause.

13.—Long Service Leave.

The conditions relating to full-time Government wages employees generally as in force as at the date of this Award, and as may be amended from time to time, shall apply to all workers employed under the provisions of this Award.

14.—No New Designation.

No new designation shall be introduced during the currency of this Award so as to reduce the status of any worker covered thereby.

15.—Shop Stewards.

Subject to the recognition of properly constituted authority shop stewards to be appointed by the Union shall be recognised by the Commission.

16.—Hours of Duty.

(a) Forty (40) hours exclusive of Saturday and Sunday work shall constitute a week's work. No day's work shall exceed eight (8) hours without payment of overtime.

(b) The ordinary hours of duty shall be between the hours of 7.15 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday to Friday inclusive.

(c) The usual hours of duty within the scope as provided in sub-clause (b) hereof shall not be altered without consultation with the Union concerned, parties to this Award.

17.—Guaranteed Week.

(a) (i) The Commission shall guarantee to each worker, other than a casual or a temporary worker with less than six months' service or shift worker, a full weeks' work, exclusive of Saturday and Sunday work, except during such period as by reason of any action on the part of any section of its workers or for any other cause beyond its control, the Commission is unable wholly or partially to continue operations at the generating stations and/or at any of its undertakings. Each week shall stand by itself.

(ii) The Commission shall guarantee to each shift worker a full week's work except during such period as by reason of any action on the part of any section of its workers, or any other cause beyond its control, the Commission is unable wholly or partially to continue operations at the generating stations and/or at any of its undertakings. Each week shall stand by itself. Shift workers may be rostered for work on Saturdays and Sundays.

(b) The guaranteed period may be reduced or affected as follows:—

(i) Where a worker is suspended, the provisions of Clause 18 (Wages during Suspension) shall apply.

(ii) In respect of any day when, as a result of a vote taken by the workers concerned with the consent of the Commission or by agreement between the Commission and the Union, a holiday is taken.

(iii) In respect of any day a worker is absent except through sickness as provided for in Clause 9.

18.—Wages during Suspension.

(a) Where a worker is suspended and the charge is not proven full wages for the period of suspension shall be paid.

(b) Where the charge is admitted or proven, the worker may be deprived of wages for the whole or any portion of the period of suspension, but in such case the Commission shall decide the amount of wages of which it is intended to deprive the worker, and any such deprivation shall be recorded and regarded as part of the punishment.

(c) Unless proceedings on any charge are commenced within seven (7) days of the first laying of the charge and finalised within one month of such date the charge shall lapse and full payment of wages made to the worker for the complete period unless proceedings are delayed by causes outside the control of the Commission.

19.—Overtime and Sunday Work.

(1) Overtime.—(a) Except where otherwise specified, all work performed by any worker outside the usual working hours of such worker shall be regarded as overtime, and the rates payable for overtime shall be as follows:—

(i) Where the worker commences the overtime within the period of one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) hours prior to his usual starting time, time and one-half for the time worked in such one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) hour period.

(ii) Where the worker works overtime in any portion of the period commencing five (5) hours or more after his usual stopping time, but commences the overtime prior to one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) hours before his usual starting time, double time for all time worked up to the usual starting time.

(iii) Subject to the preceding paragraphs, time and one-half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(b) Apprentices under 18 years of age shall not be required to work overtime without their consent.

(c) (i) When a worker without being notified on the previous day is required to work overtime for more than one (1) hour after his usual knock-off time, he shall be provided with any meal required or shall be paid three shillings and sixpence (3s. 6d.) in lieu thereof.

(ii) An employee working overtime shall be allowed a meal time of twenty (20) minutes without loss of pay after each four (4) hours of overtime if the employee continues work after such meal time; and where the employee has not been notified the day before that he will be required for overtime he shall be paid meal allowance of two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) for each such meal time.

(iii) Where a worker has been notified the previous day to work overtime which necessitates the provision of a meal or meals and has provided a meal or meals and is not required to work overtime or is required to work less than the amount advised, he shall be paid two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) for each meal supplied and which is surplus.

(d) All time worked during the usual meal time shall be paid for at overtime rates and such rates shall continue until the worker knocks off for his meal.

(e) A worker recalled to work overtime after leaving his employer's premises and who returns to his home on completion of such overtime work shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours' ordinary pay, or at overtime rates for the time actually worked, whichever is the greater; and in such circumstances time reasonably spent in getting to and from work shall be regarded as time worked at ordinary rates. The worker shall not be obliged to work for the two (2) hours if the job for which he has been brought on has been completed in less time.

(f) (i) When overtime work is necessary it shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that employees have at least eight (8) consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days.

(ii) An employee who works so much overtime between the termination of his ordinary work on one day and the commencement of his ordinary work on the next day that he has not had at least eight (8) consecutive hours off duty between those times shall be released after completion of such overtime until he has had eight (8) consecutive hours off duty, but ordinary working time occurring during such absence shall not be paid for: Provided that if the employee, at his own request, is permitted to resume or continue working without having had such eight (8) consecutive hours off duty, he shall be paid at ordinary rates for all work performed during ordinary working hours.

(2) Sunday Time.—(a) All time worked on Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(b) A day worker called on to do duty on any Sunday shall be paid for not less than four (4) hours at the rate applicable to that day; provided that the worker shall not be obliged to work for the four (4) hours if the job for which he was brought on to do is completed in less than four (4) hours; provided further if he is called out for duty more than once within a period of four (4) hours from the start of a previous callout for duty, he shall not be entitled to any further payment for time worked within that period of four (4) hours.

(3) General.—(a) No worker shall work more than sixteen (16) hours consecutively in any one period of twenty-four (24) hours.

(b) Extra rates shall be computed at the rate applicable to the day on which the time is worked; provided that double time (i.e., twice ordinary rate) shall be maximum rate payable under any provision of this award.

(c) When a worker is required to hold himself in readiness as from a specific time for a callout to work after ordinary hours he shall be paid at ordinary rates for the actual time in which he so holds himself in readiness as from the specific time.

(d) Except as provided in (1) (e) above, travelling time shall not be regarded as time worked within the meaning of this clause.

20.—Shift Work.

(a) The Commission may, if it so desires, place day workers on shift work, but before doing so shall give notice of its intention to the Union. Whenever possible at least one (1) month's notice shall be given.

(b) When shift work is required to be worked by day workers, the loading on the ordinary rates of pay for such shift work shall be 25 per cent. for afternoon shift and night shift.

(c) Where a day worker is temporarily transferred on to afternoon or night shift, and is not given seven (7) days' notice of the intended transfer, he shall be paid at overtime rates for the time worked on afternoon or night shift from the time he commences afternoon or night shift until midnight on the following Saturday. Thereafter he shall be paid his ordinary shift rates.

(d) Overtime on night or afternoon shifts shall be calculated on the basis of the rate paid for such shift.

21.—Away from Home and Camp Allowance.

(a) When a worker is instructed to proceed on duty from the place where he is then or is usually employed, the employer shall pay all fares, including sleeper and, except when a camp allowance is paid under sub-clause (b) hereof, proper allowance at current rates for all necessary meals and board and lodging. Fares shall be second class except when travelling by coastal boat when saloon fares shall be paid and shall include return fares on completion of job.

(b) (i) When a worker is required to live in a tent or hut away from his usual residence or home station he shall be paid a camping allowance of four shillings (4s.) for each working day he is required to hold himself and does hold himself available in a camp throughout the said day, whether or not work is done on the said day. Provided, however, the total amount payable under this provision shall not exceed twenty shillings (20s.) per week.

(ii) Provided further that if suitable accommodation, not being a tent or hut, is provided for a married worker and his dependants there shall be no obligation to pay any allowance under the previous subclause.

(iii) Rent may be charged for any tent or huts or other accommodation supplied, at rates to be fixed or falling agreement as decided by the Board of Reference.

22.—Payment for Travelling Time.

(a) A worker going to work away from or returning to his home station shall be paid at ordinary rates for the actual travelling or waiting time for the first eight (8) hours, and thereafter at half the ordinary rates in any one period of twenty-four (24) hours.

(b) Where the waiting time exceeds four (4) hours, and suitable accommodation is available, the worker shall be deemed to be booked off duty and shall not be entitled to payment for the time he is booked off.

(c) Sunday travelling time shall be paid at the same rates and on the same conditions as on week days.

(d) In respect of a worker who is provided with a sleeping berth in a passenger train, travelling time shall not count between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m.; provided this shall not operate to reduce the travelling time to be paid for below four (4) hours in any one (1) day; provided further that where by virtue of the length or nature of the journey the sleeping berth is available for six (6) hours or less, travelling time shall be paid for such period with a minimum of four (4) hours.

(e) A worker residing within the suburban area who is required to start work at some place other than his home station within the suburban area shall:—

(i) If notified the previous evening, travel one way from or to work in his own time provided that there is suitable transport available.

(ii) If not so notified, the worker shall travel both ways in the employer's time.

The Commission shall provide free travelling from the home station. Provided, however, that no worker sent on relief duty within the suburban area shall claim or be allowed extra travelling time if the station at which he is to work is nearer his residence than his home station.

(f) A worker who is working outside of the metropolitan area, and who is required to start work at some place other than at the depot to which he is attached, or at the camp where he is living shall travel one way from or to work in his own time provided however, that the worker shall not be required to travel for more than three-quarters (3/4ths) of an hour in any one day in his own time.

23.—No Reduction.

This Award shall not in itself operate to reduce the wages of any worker who is at present receiving above the minimum rates prescribed for his class of work.

24.—Preference.

Preference of employment shall be given to financial members of the applicant Union: Provided the Commission shall be under no obligation to communicate with the Union to ascertain whether a member is financial.

25.—Height Money.

Employees not in receipt of the power station allowance or the gas works allowance prescribed in Clause 28 when working on or from temporary stages, planks or ladders at a height of fifty (50) feet or more above the ground floor level shall be paid one and sixpence (1s. 6d.) per day extra whilst so employed.

26.—Board of Reference.

(a) The Court appoints for the purpose of the Award a Board of Reference. The Board shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives nominated by the parties. There are assigned to such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the Award, the function of:—

- (i) Classifying and fixing wages, rates and conditions for any machine, occupation or calling not specifically mentioned in the Award.
- (ii) Adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time except such as involve interpretation of the provisions of the Award or any of them.
- (iii) Deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to the Board from time to time.

(b) The provisions of Regulation 106 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952 (Appeal from Board) shall be deemed to apply to any Board of Reference appointed hereunder.

27.—Right of Entry.

On notifying the officer in charge, any officer of the Union authorised in writing by the president and secretary of such union shall have the right to enter any place or premises during ordinary working hours wherein members of such union covered by this Award are engaged, for the purpose of conversing with or interviewing the workers in such place or premises.

Provided that such officer shall not hamper or otherwise hinder the workers in the carrying out of their work. The officer in charge shall determine whether workers are being hampered or hindered in their work.

28.—Allowances, Special Provisions, etc.

- (1) A casual hand shall be paid ten per cent. (10%) in addition to the minimum rate specified.
- (2) Reasonable change room lockers and washing facilities shall be provided for the workers.
- (3) Protective Equipment.—The Commission shall supply for the protection of any workers engaged in welding, such protective equipment as the Engineer-in-Charge shall consider necessary. Such equipment shall be used by the workers concerned for the purpose for which it is issued. In the event of any dispute as to the necessity for any particular equipment, the matter shall be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.
- (4) (i) Workers covered by this Award shall be supplied with two (2) sets of overalls annually after six months' continuous service.

(ii) Each worker shall sign an acknowledgment on receipt thereof, and on leaving his employment shall return same to the Commission.

(iii) During the time they are on issue to the worker he shall be responsible for any loss or damage thereto fair wear and tear attributable to ordinary use excepted.

(5) (i) Tradesmen and/or apprentices in the 4th and 5th year of their apprenticeship under the direct control of the power production engineer employed in operating power houses of installed capacity of 12.5 megawatts or more on maintenance and operation of such power stations shall be paid twenty shillings (20s.) per week extra, and apprentices other than in their 4th and 5th year of apprenticeship ten shillings (10s.) per week extra.

(ii) Any worker (including an apprentice in his 4th or 5th year) employed on maintenance at the Gas Works shall be paid 5/- per week extra. Apprentices other than those in their 4th and 5th year shall be paid 3/- per week extra.

29.—Leading Hands.

Leading hands placed in charge of—

- (a) not less than three and not more than ten (10) other workers, shall be paid fifteen shillings (15s.) per week extra.
- (b) more than ten (10) and not more than twenty (20) other workers, shall be paid thirty shillings (30s.) per week extra.
- (c) more than twenty (20) other workers, shall be paid forty-five shillings (45s.) per week extra.

30.—Apprentices.

(a) The employment of apprentices shall be governed by the Apprenticeship Regulations, 1953.

(b) Apprentices shall be allowed to the trade of boilermaking.

(c) An apprentice on satisfactorily passing his first year examinations shall be supplied for his sole personal use, a basic kit of tools and each year on satisfactorily passing his trade examination shall have his kit augmented. On completion of the apprenticeship he shall retain the tools.

31.—Liberty to Apply.

Liberty is reserved to any party to apply for amendment to Clause 12 (Public Holidays), and Item 3 of the Wages Schedule.

I certify pursuant to Section 65 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, that the foregoing is a copy of the agreement arrived at between the parties mentioned above.

Dated at Perth this 25th day of July, 1957
