FACTORIES AND SHOPS ACT, 1920-1957.

Department of Labour,
Perth, 31st December, 1957.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Executive Council has been pleased in exercise of powers conferred by sections 100 and 158 of the Factories and Shops Act, 1920-1957, to make the regulation set out in the Schedule hereunder.

F. W. WARMAN,
Chief Inspector of Factories.

Schedule. Regulation.

Trading Hours for Sale of Motor Requisites in Prescribed Zones. (S. 100.)

41B. (1) In this regulation

“Appendix” means the Appendix to this regulation.

(2) Those portions of the State described in Division 1 of each of the respective Parts of the Appendix are hereby prescribed pursuant to subsection (4) of section one hundred of the Act as zones and may be referred to by the respective numbers or names or both, assigned to them in the Appendix.

(3) The shops described in Division 2 of each of the respective Parts of the Appendix are hereby prescribed pursuant to subsection (5) of section one hundred of the Act to be shops which, subject to this regulation, are permitted under paragraph (a) of subsection (5), and which are required under subsection (7) of that section to open during extraordinary trading hours for the sale of requisites.

(4) The respective days on which those shops are so permitted and required to open respectively, are hereby prescribed to be those shown in Division 2 of each of the respective Parts of the Appendix opposite the respective descriptions of the shops, and are referred to in this regulation and the Appendix as the “rostered extraordinary trading period.”

(5) The respective times during extraordinary trading hours when those shops are so permitted and required to open are hereby prescribed to be those shown in Division 3 of each of the respective Parts of the Appendix and are referred to in this regulation and the Appendix as “extraordinary trading times.”

(6) The requisites which the shopkeepers of those shops are required under subsection (7) of section one hundred of the Act to sell are hereby prescribed under paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of that section to be—

- (a) fuel;
- (b) oil;
- (c) lubricants;
- (d) tyres;
- (e) batteries;
- (f) distilled water; and
- (g) such other requisites as the shopkeeper has in stock at the shop.

(7) Where any of the days in any rostered extraordinary trading period is Christmas Day, Good Friday, or Anzac Day, a shopkeeper of a shop in a zone shall keep his shop closed during the whole of that day, but for the purpose of preserving uniformity in each rostered extraordinary trading period, the hours during which, but for this subregulation, he would have been permitted and required to keep the shop open for the sale of requisites during extraordinary trading times, shall be deemed to be included in that rostered extraordinary trading period as if, in fact, the shop had so been open during those times.

(8) Where a shopkeeper intends to cease to carry on business of selling any requisites prescribed by subregulation (6) of this regulation at a shop described in Division 2 of any of the Parts of the Appendix, he shall, within fourteen days before so ceasing, give written notice, signed by him, of the intention and the day of the intended cessation to sell such requisites, to the Chief Inspector of Factories.

Penalty £5.

(9) Where a shopkeeper of a shop in a zone omits for any reason, whether because of damage to, or destruction of, his shop, or otherwise, to keep his shop open for the sale of requisites for the whole or part of any extraordinary trading times in any rostered extraordinary trading period as required by this regulation, the omission does not affect the liability of any shopkeeper of any other shop in the zone to keep his shop open for the sale of requisites for any extraordinary trading times in any rostered extraordinary trading period during which he is required to do so by this regulation, and during which he would do so in compliance with the requirements of this regulation were there no such omission.

(10) This regulation takes effect and has the force of law on and from the 13th day of January, 1958, on which day regulation 41A, the subheading to that regulation, and Form 15A prescribed by that regulation, all of which were published in the Gazette on the 26th day of January, 1940, are hereby revoked.
