6.—Definitions.

(a) "Taxi-car driver" shall mean any person employed to drive a motor vehicle registered under the Traffic Act to carry not more than seven (7) persons including the driver, but shall not include any person driving such a vehicle when it is not being used to carry passengers: Provided that it is not available for the use of passengers.

(b) "Omnibus driver" shall mean any person employed to drive a motor vehicle, other than a taxi-car, which is used to carry passengers for hire or reward at separate fares or otherwise but shall not include any person driving such a vehicle when it is not being used to carry passengers: Provided that it is not available for the use of passengers.

(c) "Fare collector" shall mean any person, except the driver, who collects fares from passengers travelling in omnibuses—

- (i) with only one side door for passenger entrance; or
- (ii) which are not articulated or double-decker vehicles.

(d) "Conductor" shall mean any person, except the driver, who collects fares from passengers travelling in omnibuses—

- (i) with two or more side doors for passenger entrance; or
- (ii) which are articulated or double-decker vehicles.

(e) "Casual worker" shall mean any person who is engaged as a casual worker and who is dismissed or refused work without any fault of his own before the expiration of one (1) week from the date of commencing work.

(f) "Holidays" shall mean the days on which New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day are observed.

7.—Casual Workers.

(a) Casual workers shall be paid at the rate of two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) per day in the case of male workers and one shilling and threepence (1s. 3d.) per day in the case of female workers, in addition to an hourly rate calculated upon the weekly rate prescribed in clause 14 hereof and on the basis that forty (40) hours constitute a week's work: Provided that the minimum payment to a casual worker for work performed on any one (1) day shall be not less than five shillings (5s.): Provided further, that the rate of payment for casual workers for work done on any Saturday shall be at the rate of time and a half and on any Sunday or holiday shall be at the rate of time and three-quarters of the ordinary rate for casual workers.

(b) The maximum number of casual workers allowed to be employed by any employer shall be in the proportion of one (1) casual worker to every fifteen (15) or fraction of fifteen (15) weekly workers employed under the provisions of this Award: Provided that, where a casual worker is engaged to take the place temporarily of a weekly worker, such casual worker shall for the purpose of this subclause be regarded as and be deemed to be a weekly worker.

8.—Under-rate Workers.

(a) Any worker who, by reason of old age or infirmity is unable to earn the minimum wage, may be paid such lesser wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between the Union and the employer.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

9.—Termination of Employment.

One (1) week's notice at any time on either side shall be required before the engagement of any but a casual hand shall be determined: Provided that an employer may at any time dismiss a worker for refusal or neglect to obey orders, misconduct, carelessness in the performance of his duties, or, if after receiving one (1) week's notice, he does not carry out his duties in the same manner as he did prior to such notice.

Notice given every week to determine the employment without any intention to determine the employment at the end of the week but only with a view of dismissing men at any time, shall not be deemed notice for the purpose of this Award.

10.—Hours.

(a) Forty (40) hours shall constitute a week's work to be worked in not more than six (6) days. No worker shall be permitted to be on duty without payment of overtime in excess of—

- (i) forty (40) hours in any week;
- (ii) in the case of omnibus drivers and/or fare collectors, and/or conductors, and/or taxi-car drivers, nine (9) hours twenty (20) minutes in any one (1) day.
- (iii) all other workers, eight (8) hours in any one day.

(b) Provided, however, that at the option of the employer eighty (80) hours shall constitute a fortnight's work to be worked in not more than six (6) days in any one (1) week, in which case no worker shall be permitted to be on duty without payment of overtime in excess of—

- (i) omnibus drivers and/or fare collectors, and/or conductors, and/or taxi-car drivers, forty-eight (48) hours in any one (1) week, or nine (9) hours twenty (20) minutes in any one (1) day;
- (ii) all other workers, forty-eight (48) hours in any one (1) week, or eight (8) hours in any one (1) day;
- (iii) all workers, eighty (80) hours in any fortnight.

Provided further, that in every case where it is intended to work the eighty (80) hours fortnight it shall be the duty of the employer, on the first day of the first week of each fortnightly period to clearly indicate such fortnightly period in the time and wages book.

(c) Any time worked on any day or days to make up the hours of duty in any week shall be worked in a continuous shift except in the case of omnibus drivers and/or fare collectors, and/or conductors, and/or taxi-car drivers, who may be worked in broken shifts to suit the exigencies of the employer's business, but in such case, no shift shall consist of more than three (3) periods of working time with two (2) intervals in one of which the meal interval may be included.

(d) No worker shall be permitted to be on continuous duty for a greater period than six (6) hours without a meal break of at least one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour, and such meal break shall not be included in computing the hours worked each day.

(e) No rostered shift shall consist of more than three (3) periods of working time.

(f) A worker failing to take up his rostered or appointed shift unless such is due to illness or other unavoidable cause (the onus of proof of "unavoidable cause" shall rest upon the worker) shall pay the employer for any extra payment incurred thereby through another worker being called upon to work the shift.

(g) Specials.—Where a worker is required to work off his regular route he shall be deemed to have worked the whole of the time which elapses between the time he leaves the starting place until he returns to that place if such time is less than six (6) hours forty (40) minutes in any one (1) day. If such time is six (6) hours forty (40) minutes or more in any one (1) day he shall be deemed to have worked six (6) hours forty (40) minutes at least on such day. Subject to the provisos hereto, all time in any one (1) day, occupied in waiting, shall stand alone and be paid for at half the time rate applicable for that day: Provided that, any waiting time which is used to make up the six (6) hours forty (40) minutes beforementioned shall not be deemed waiting time for the purpose of this clause: Provided also that a worker who comes within the scope of clause 18 of this Award shall not be entitled to payment for waiting time under this clause.

(h) Whenever a worker commences a period of work on any day whether for the purpose of making up the ordinary weekly hours or for overtime he shall be deemed to have worked not less than one (1) hour for each such period.

(i) Each worker shall be rostered one (1) day off duty in each week.

(j) Subject to subclause (g) of this clause and subject as hereinafter provided all time between the earliest starting time and the latest finishing time, on any day, which is not counted as time of duty shall be deemed to be waiting time, shall stand alone and be paid for at half the time rate applicable to the day for the particular worker concerned. Provided that—

- (i) a worker shall not be entitled to any payment in respect of one hour of waiting time in any one day;
- (ii) when two periods of waiting time occur on any day the maximum waiting time to be paid for shall not exceed three hours for such day; and when only one period of waiting time occurs on any day the maximum waiting time to be paid for shall not exceed two hours for that day.

11.—Spread of Shifts.

(a) The spread of hours for omnibus drivers and/or taxi-car drivers and/or fare collectors and/or conductors from the beginning to the end of the day's work shall not exceed twelve (12) hours.

(b) No worker shall be required to work outside the daily spread of hours mentioned in subclause (a) hereof except by agreement between the employer concerned and the Union and on payment of overtime rates as prescribed, unless for the purposes of relief in the case of sickness or absence of another worker, specials which take a worker off his regular route for the whole of his shift, or an accident which prevents the proper working of the roster. In the event of disagreement, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

Provided that agreement between the employer and the Union shall not be required for work outside the spread of hours on Saturdays and holidays.

(c) No worker shall be booked off for a lesser period than a half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour.

(d) No worker shall be called on for duty until he has had nine (9) hours off duty between the shifts, excepting in the case of sickness of a worker, default of a worker, or in case of an accident which prevents the proper working of the roster; or when necessary in order to facilitate a change of shifts, in which case not less than eight (8) hours shall be permitted and in such last-mentioned case no worker shall be subject to same more than once in any calendar week, namely, Sunday to Saturday inclusive.

12.—Minimum Hours Per Day.

Any worker, other than a casual worker, required to report for duty in any day shall be deemed to have worked four (4) hours at least on such day except where such reporting for duty is owing to another worker failing to report for duty at the appointed time.

13.—Posting Roster.

(a) The employer shall post a roster showing the ordinary hours to be worked during each week by weekly omnibus drivers, taxi-car drivers, conductors and fare collectors, other than relief workers, which roster shall be exhibited in each establishment in such a place as it may be conveniently and readily seen by each worker concerned. The hours to be recorded in such roster shall not exceed the spread of hours prescribed in clause 11.

Such roster shall be posted by the employer not less than two (2) days before the start of the working week, and may only be altered on account of sickness or absence of a worker, or on account of any contingency that the employer could not reasonably foresee: Provided that workers may change shifts on any specified day by written joint application to the employer and on his approval. Where workers have changed shifts in accordance with the foregoing, they shall be deemed to have worked, on the specified day, the hours they would have worked had the change not been made.

(b) As far as practicable, rostered shifts shall rotate weekly to the intent that all workers on the roster may receive a proper share of all shifts on the roster. In any proceeding under this clause, the onus shall rest upon the employer to establish that such rotation was not practicable.

(c) The secretary of the Union or any person authorised in writing by him shall be permitted to inspect the roster at any time between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

(d) No worker shall be rostered for duty on more than six (6) days in any week.

15.—Overtime.

(a) Omnibus drivers and/or fare collectors and/or conductors and/or taxi-car drivers shall be paid overtime at the rate of time and a half for all time of duty—

- (i) in excess of the ordinary hours of duty per week; or
- (ii) in excess of the daily hours of duty as prescribed in clause 10 hereof; or

(b) All workers other than those mentioned in subclause (a) hereof shall be paid overtime at the rate of time and a half for all time of duty in excess of eight (8) hours in any one (1) day or the ordinary hours of duty in any week.

(c) All overtime shall stand alone and be paid for in addition to the weekly or casual wage as the case may be.

(d) Overtime shall not be paid twice for the same hours of work.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained herein—

- (i) an employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement;
 - (ii) the Union or any worker or workers covered by this Award shall not in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation, or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause;
 - (iii) this subclause shall remain in operation only until otherwise determined by the Court.
- (f) When an employer has the right to alter the roster through the absence of a worker in accordance with clause 13, subclause (a), he shall have the right to make such alteration without payment of overtime to the worker who replaces the absent worker, for working outside his original rostered hours.

16.—Saturday and Sunday Work.

Except in the case of casual workers all time of duty on Saturdays shall be paid for at half-time extra, and all time of duty on Sundays shall be paid for at three-quarter time extra; such half-time extra and three-quarter time extra shall stand alone and be paid for in addition to the weekly wage and, subject to clause 17, shall not be taken into account in the calculation of overtime in any way whatsoever: Provided that this clause shall not apply to workers who finish by 1.30 o'clock a.m. on Saturday. The time so worked shall be deemed to be part of the Friday shift. Work which finishes by 1.30 o'clock a.m. on Sunday shall be deemed to be part of the Saturday shift.

17.—Maximum Rate.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Award to the contrary, no time of duty whatsoever shall be required to be paid for at more than double-time rate.

18.—Away from Home Allowance.

Workers engaged on work from which they are unable to return to their homes at night shall be paid such personal expenses as they may reasonably incur: Provided that such expenses shall not be less than seven shillings and sixpence (7s. 6d.) per day.

19.—Payment for Highest Function.

A worker who is called upon to perform two (2) or more classes of work for more than two (2) hours on any day shall be paid for the day at the class for which the highest rate of wage is prescribed. Where the work for which the highest rate is prescribed does not exceed two (2) hours on any day, the worker shall be paid the highest rate for the actual time so worked.

20.—Change.

Where an employer requires a worker to give change to clients, such change shall be supplied by the employer.

21.—Shortages.

If any worker is charged with any shortage in the cash collected by him he shall have the right, when so charged, to check the running sheets, revenue journal, or other record issued to him. A worker shall be notified of any shortage which it is intended to charge against him as soon as possible after same has been discovered. Failing such notice within a reasonable time the worker shall not be held liable for the shortage.

22.—Pay Day.

All wages shall be paid weekly; but in the case of the eighty (80) hour fortnight it shall be permissible for the employer to pay all overtime fortnightly; no employer shall hold more than three (3) days' wages in hand.

Provided that this clause shall be deemed to be complied with if a worker's pay is available at the time his shift finishes or at 2 p.m., whichever is the later on the fourth day following the end of the working week.

23.—Holidays.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided a period of three and two-thirds (3 $\frac{2}{3}$) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of twelve (12) months' continuous service with such employer. Such leave shall be given to and taken by the worker within three (3) months of becoming due.

Provided that where the engagement of any worker is terminated after four (4) weeks' continuous service, or after any period of continuous service from the date on which the previous annual holidays became due, he shall receive a monetary payment in lieu of holidays in proportion to the length of his service.

(b) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on annual leave as prescribed by this Award shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave.

(c) A worker who is dismissed for misconduct or who illegally severs his contract of service shall not be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this clause.

24.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week for each completed month of service: Provided that payment for absence through such ill-health shall be limited to one week in each calendar year. Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year or at the time the worker leaves the service of the employer, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred. This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from his employer for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness, but the employer shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) days or more.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (c) hereof, a worker who has already been allowed paid sick leave on one occasion shall not be entitled to payment for any further absence in the same year, unless he produces to the employer a medical certificate stating that he was unable to attend for duty on account of personal ill-health.

(e) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to any worker by his employer as paid sick leave may be claimed by the worker, and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by his employer in any subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year: Provided that sick leave which accumulates pursuant to this subclause shall be available to the worker for a period of two (2) years but no longer from the end of the year in which it accrues.

(f) The quantum of sick leave which may accumulate to the 31st day of December, 1950, under subclause (e) of this clause, shall not exceed two (2) days.

25.—Contract of Employment.

(a) Weekly hands ready and willing to work for the whole week and not dismissed for any reason set out in clause 9 of this Award shall be paid a full week's wages.

(b) Employers shall, when engaging workers, state definitely whether such worker is engaged as a weekly or casual hand. Failing such notice the worker shall be deemed to be engaged as a weekly worker.

(c) The employer shall be under no obligation to pay for any day not worked upon which the worker is required to present himself for duty except such absence from work is due to illness and comes within the provisions of clause 24 or such absence is on account of holidays to which the worker is entitled under the provisions of this Award, or such absence is on account of some other unavoidable cause, the onus of proof of which shall rest upon the worker.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause a worker who is engaged to take the place temporarily of another worker who is absent on account of sickness or accident may be dismissed by the giving of one (1) day's notice.

26.—Temporary Change of Garage, etc.

(a) Where an employer transfers a worker after he comes to work from one garage, depot or place situated more than two (2) miles distant from the garage, depot or place at which he usually works, fares to and from such altered garage, depot or place shall be allowed by the employer.

(b) If a worker is transferred temporarily to work at a garage, depot or place which requires him to travel one (1) mile or more from his home beyond the distance he usually travels, the fares to and from and excess time shall be paid for by the employer. Any dispute arising under this clause shall be referred to a Board of Reference for determination.

(c) A relief worker shall have some one depot named as his regular depot and when he is required to work elsewhere he shall be treated as being temporarily transferred and subject to the provisions of subclause (b) hereof.

27.—Uniforms.

Employers requiring workers to wear uniforms or wearing apparel of any specified description shall provide same free of cost to workers; such uniform or wearing apparel shall remain the property of the employer, and shall be returned to the employer, on demand, in good order and condition subject to fair wear and tear.

28.—Board of Reference.

(a) The Court appoints for the purposes of the Award a Board or Boards of Reference. Each Board shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties. There are assigned to each such Board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the Award, the functions of—

- (i) adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time, except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Award or any of them;
- (ii) deciding any other matter that the Court may refer to such Board from time to time.

(b) An appeal shall lie from any decision of such Board in the manner and subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations to the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, which for this purpose are embodied in this Award.

29.—Time and Wages Book.

Each employer shall provide a time and wages book to be kept at a place where it is easily accessible to the employer and the worker. The book shall show the name of each worker, the nature of the work performed, the time he starts and finishes work each day, the number of hours worked by and the wages and overtime paid to each worker, and the worker's signature therefor. The employer and the worker shall be severally responsible for the proper posting of the book daily. Such book shall be open to inspection during working hours between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday to Friday inclusive and between 9 a.m.

and 12 noon on Saturdays, by the secretary of the Union or any other person authorised in writing by him: Provided that an employer may, at his option, in lieu of a time book, provide a mechanical clock for the purpose of recording the starting and finishing times of workers in which case a record of the number of hours worked each day by each worker, and the wages and overtime paid to such worker, shall be entered on a card or check (used in connection with such clock) which shall be signed by the worker on receipt of wages each week. The employer and worker shall be severally responsible for the correct keeping daily of such card or check, which shall be open to inspection in the same manner as the time and wages book beforementioned.

30.—Junior Workers' Certificate.

(a) Junior workers shall furnish the employer with a certificate showing the following particulars:—

- (i) Name in full.
- (ii) Age and date of birth.

(b) The certificate shall be signed by the worker.

(c) No worker shall have any claim upon the employer for additional wages on the ground of age in the event of his age being wrongly stated on this certificate: Provided that this subclause shall operate only for the first three (3) months from the date of the worker's first engagement thereby enabling the employer, if he so desires, to obtain proof of the junior worker's age.

31.—Breakdowns.

The employer shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day upon which the worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the Union or Unions affiliated with it, or because of any stoppage of work by any cause which the employer cannot reasonably prevent.

32.—Liberty to Apply.

Liberty is reserved to either party to apply to amend this Award at any time during its operation in respect to the inclusion in the wages clause of new classifications or a variation of margins and for a variation of the Award to provide for a five-day week.

I certify pursuant to section 65 of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, that the foregoing is a copy of the agreement arrived at between the parties mentioned above.
