This clause does not affect the right to dismiss for misconduct.

6.—Hours of Duty.

(d) In the calculation of overtime, each day shall stand alone.

(e) (i) When a worker is recalled to work after leaving the job, he shall be paid for at least three (3) hours at overtime rates.

(ii) When a worker is required to hold himself in readiness for a call to work after ordinary hours, he shall be paid at ordinary rates for the time he so holds himself in readiness.

(f) These overtime rates shall not apply to excess time worked due to private arrangement between the workers themselves or owing to a relieving man failing to come on duty at the proper time or where such time is worked to effect the periodical rotation of shifts. The time for which any worker may be paid at ordinary rates instead of overtime due to a relieving man failing to come on duty at the proper time shall not exceed two (2) hours, after the expiration of which overtime rates shall apply for the whole of the extra time worked.

(b) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this Award, the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work be done, ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two (2) consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by his employer after a period of 12 months' continuous service with such employer.

(d) Shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed one (1) week's leave in addition to the leave prescribed in subclause (c) hereof. Where a worker with 12 months' continuous service is engaged for part of a qualifying 12-monthly period as a seven-day shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of two consecutive weeks' annual leave prescribed in subclause (c) hereof increased by one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week for each completed month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

(e) If any prescribed holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which, in the case of that worker, would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(f) If after one month's continuous service in any qualifying 12-monthly period a worker lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the worker, the worker shall be paid one-sixth (1/6th) of a week's pay at his ordinary rate of wage in respect of each completed month of continuous service.

4. Delete the existing Clause 16—Overtime, and substitute in lieu thereof the following:—

16.—Overtime (Other than Continuous Shift Workers).

(a) For all work done beyond the hours of duty any week day other than a holiday, payment shall be at the rate of time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(b) Overtime on shift work shall be based on the rate payable for shift work.

(c) Except as provided by clause 16A (d), work done on Sundays or the holidays prescribed in clause 19 (a), shall be paid for at double time rates, except in connection with repairs to the employer's machinery, which has broken down and has caused a stoppage of operations, when the rate of time and a half shall apply to the work done on such days.

(d) (i) Rest period after overtime. When overtime work is necessary it shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that workers have at least eight (8) consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days.

(ii) A worker (other than a casual worker) who works so much overtime between the termination of his ordinary work on one day and the commencement of his ordinary work on the next day that he has not at least eight (8) consecutive hours off duty between those times shall, subject to this subclause, be released after completion of such overtime until he has had eight (8) consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

(iii) If, on the instructions of his employer, such a worker resumes or continues work without having had such eight (8) consecutive hours off duty, he shall be paid at double rates until he is released from duty for such period and he shall then be entitled to be absent until he has had eight (8) consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

(e) When a worker is recalled to work after leaving the job, he shall be paid for at least three (3) hours at overtime rates.

(f) When a worker is required to hold himself in readiness for a call to work after ordinary hours, he shall be paid at ordinary rates for the time he so holds himself in readiness.

(g) When a worker is required for duty during any meal time, whereby his meal time is postponed for more than one (1) hour, he shall be paid at overtime rates until he gets his meal.

(h) A worker shall not be compelled to work for more than six (6) hours without a break for a meal.

(i) A worker required to work overtime for more than two (2) hours, without being notified on the previous day or earlier that he will be so required to work, shall be supplied with a meal by the employer or paid five shillings (5s.) for a meal.

If the amount of overtime required to be worked necessitates a second or subsequent meal, the employer shall, unless he has notified the workers concerned on the previous day or earlier that such second or subsequent meal will also be required, provide such meals or pay an amount of three shillings and four pence (3s. 4d.) for each such second or subsequent meal.

No such payments need be made to workers living in the same locality as their workshops who can reasonably return home for such meals.

If a worker in consequence of receiving such notice has provided himself with a meal or meals and is not required to work overtime or is required to work less overtime than notified, he shall be paid the amounts above prescribed in respect of the meals not then required.

(j) (i) An employer may require any worker to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such worker shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement,

(ii) No organisation party to this Award, or worker or workers covered by this Award, shall in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation, or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

5. Insert a new clause as follows:—

16A.—Continuous Shift Workers.

(a) Forty (40) hours (inclusive of crib time) shall constitute a week's work to be worked in five (5) shifts of eight (8) hours each: Provided that this clause shall be deemed to have been complied with if the ordinary working hours do not exceed eighty (80) hours per fortnight to be worked in shifts of eight (8) hours each. For the purpose of this clause a "fortnight" means any two (2) consecutive pay weeks.

(b) All time worked in excess of or outside the ordinary working hours as prescribed, or on a shift other than a rostered shift, shall be paid for at the rate of double time, except where a worker is called upon to work a sixth shift in not more than one week in any four (4) weeks, when he shall be paid for such shift at time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(c) These overtime rates shall not apply to excess time due to private arrangements between the workers themselves or for the purpose of effecting the customary rotation of shifts, or which is owing to a relieving man not coming on at the appointed time. The time for which any worker may be paid at ordinary rates instead of overtime due to a relieving man not coming on at the proper time, shall not exceed two (2) hours, after the expiration of which overtime rates shall apply for the whole shift.

(d) All work performed during ordinary hours on Saturday, Sundays or holidays shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half. These rates shall be paid in lieu of the shift allowances prescribed by subclause (c) of clause 17.

(e) Paragraphs (b), (d), (e), (f) and (i) of clause 16 shall apply to continuous shift workers as if each of those paragraphs were repeated in this clause.

6. Clause 17—Shift Work. Delete subclause (e) of this clause and redesignate the existing subclause (f) as (e).

7. Clause 20.—Absence Through Sickness. Add to this clause a new subclause as follows:—

(d) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to any worker by his employer as paid sick leave may be claimed by the worker and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by his employer in any subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year. Provided that the sick leave which accumulates pursuant to this subclause shall be available to the worker for a period of two (2) years but no longer from the end of the year in which it accrues.

8. Second Schedule—Wages.

(i) Delete from Section (a)—General Engineering Section—the existing margin of £3 12s. for Item (9)—Motor Mechanic—and insert in lieu thereof the amount of £3 15s.

(ii) Delete from Section (k)—Ironworking Section—the existing margin of £1 17s. 6d. for Item (97)—Rigger and Splicer on Ships and Buildings—and insert in lieu thereof the amount of £2 7s. 6d.

3. Delete the title and subclause (1) of the existing Clause 15—Hours—and substitute in lieu thereof the following:—

15.—Hours (Other than Continuous Shift Workers).

(1) The ordinary working hours shall not exceed forty (40) in any one week, and shall not exceed eight (8) hours in any one day, Monday to Friday inclusive, and except in the case of shift workers, shall be worked between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. Provided that—

(a) For all work done beyond the hours of duty on any week day other than a holiday, payment shall be at the rate of time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(b) Overtime on shift work shall be based on the rate payable for shift work.

(c) Except as provided by clause 16A (d), work done on Sundays or the holidays prescribed in clause 19 (a), shall be paid for at double time rates, except in connection with repairs to the employer's machinery, which has broken down and has caused a stoppage of operations, when the rate of time and a half shall apply to the work done on such days.

(d) (i) Rest period after overtime. When overtime work is necessary it shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that workers have at least eight (8) consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days.

(ii) A worker (other than a casual worker) who works so much overtime between the termination of his ordinary work on one day and the commencement of his ordinary work on the next day that he has not at least eight (8) consecutive hours off duty between those times shall, subject to this subclause, be released after completion of such overtime until he has had eight (8) consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

(iii) If, on the instructions of his employer, such a worker resumes or continues work without having had such eight (8) consecutive hours off duty, he shall be paid at double rates until he is released from duty for such period and he shall then be entitled to be absent until he has had eight (8) consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

(b) All time worked in excess of or outside the ordinary working hours as prescribed, or on a shift other than a rostered shift, shall be paid for at the rate of double time, except where a worker is called upon to work a sixth shift in not more than one week in any four (4) weeks, when he shall be paid for such shift at time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(c) These overtime rates shall not apply to excess time due to private arrangements between the workers themselves or for the purpose of effecting the customary rotation of shifts, or which is owing to a relieving man not coming on at the appointed time. The time for which any worker may be paid at ordinary rates instead of overtime due to a relieving man not coming on at the proper time, shall not exceed two (2) hours, after the expiration of which overtime rates shall apply for the whole shift.

(d) All work performed during ordinary hours on Saturday, Sundays or holidays shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half. These rates shall be paid in lieu of the shift allowances prescribed by subclause (c) of clause 17.

(e) Paragraphs (b), (d), (e), (f) and (i) of clause 16 shall apply to continuous shift workers as if each of those paragraphs were repeated in this clause.
