Clerk of the Council.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1906-1956.

The City of Perth.

By-law No. 1.—Standing Orders.

L.G. 227/58.

IN pursuance of the powers in that behalf contained in the Municipal Corporations Act, 1906-1956, and of all other powers in that behalf, the Lord Mayor and Councillors of the City of Perth order that By-law No. 1 be repealed and that the following new by-law be substituted therefor:—

1. The proceedings and business of the Council shall be conducted according to the following regulations, which shall be called the Standing Orders.

“Lord Mayor.”

2. In the construction of this by-law, unless the context otherwise requires, the words “Lord Mayor” shall include the Councillor chosen to preside at any meetings of the Council.

Meetings of the Council.

Lord Mayor to preside.

3. The Lord Mayor, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Council, and, in his absence, or if, after being present, he retires, one of the Councillors chosen by the Councillors present shall preside.

Quorum.

4. At any meeting of the Council a quorum shall consist of not less than eight Councillors in addition to the Lord Mayor or Councillor chosen to preside. Every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated in the summons, as there shall be a sufficient number of Councillors in attendance to constitute a quorum.

Absence of quorum.

5. If at any meeting a quorum be not present within a quarter of an hour after the time appointed for such meeting, the majority of the Councillors present, or any one Councillor if only one be present, or the Town Clerk if no Councillor be present, may adjourn such meeting to any date not later than seven days from the date of such adjournment.

6. If at any time during any meeting of the Council, a quorum is not present the Lord Mayor shall thereupon suspend the proceedings of the meeting for a period of two minutes, and if a quorum be not present at the expiration of such period, the meeting shall be deemed to have been counted out, and the Lord Mayor shall adjourn it to some future date.

7. At all meetings at which there are not present eight Councillors and the Lord Mayor or Councillor chosen to preside, or at which the Council is counted out for want of a quorum, the names of the Councillors then present shall be recorded in the Minute Book.

Open or closed doors.

8. (1) The business of the Council shall be conducted with open doors, except upon such occasions as the Council shall by resolution otherwise decide, which resolution may be moved without notice.

(2) Upon the carrying of such resolution the Lord Mayor shall direct all persons other than Councillors and servants of the Council to leave the Council Chambers and all such persons shall forthwith comply with such direction.

(3) Any person failing to comply with such direction may by order of the Lord Mayor be removed from the Council Chambers.

(4) After the carrying of a resolution under subclause (1) of this clause the business at that meeting of the Council shall proceed behind closed doors until the Council shall by resolution decide to proceed with open doors, which lastmentioned resolution may be moved without notice.

(5) While a resolution under subclause (1) of this clause is in force the operation of clause 26 hereof shall be suspended unless the Council shall by resolution otherwise decide, which last-mentioned resolution may be moved without notice.

9. (1) No person, not being a Councillor, shall at any meeting of the Council by expressing approval or dissent or conversing or otherwise interrupt the proceedings of the Council. Disturbance by strangers.

(2) Any person so offending shall when so directed by the Lord Mayor forthwith leave the Council Chambers.

(3) Any person being so ordered to leave and failing to do so may by order of the Lord Mayor be removed from the Council Chambers.

Order of Business.

10. The order of business at an ordinary meeting shall be as follows, or as near thereto as shall be practicable, but for the greater convenience of the Council at any particular meeting thereof it may be altered by resolution to that effect. Order of business at ordinary meeting.

- (i) Confirmation of minutes.
- (ii) Announcements by the Lord Mayor without discussion.
- (iii) Questions of which due notice has been given without discussion.
- (iv) Correspondence.
- (v) Petitions and memorials.
- (vi) Notices of intention to move the suspension of Standing Orders at the close of the meeting.
- (vii) Reports of committees.
- (viii) Orders of the day, including considering and ordering upon any business left over from the previous meeting, and any business the Lord Mayor may think desirable to bring under the notice of the Council and may have directed to be entered as an order of the day.
- (ix) Motions of which previous notice has been given.
- (x) Notice of motions for consideration at the following meeting, if given during the meeting.

11. The order of business at any special meeting of the Council shall be the order in which such business stands in the notice thereof. Order of business at special meeting.

12. The minutes of any preceding meeting, whether ordinary or special, not previously confirmed, shall be submitted as the first business at all meetings of the Council in order to their confirmation; and no discussion shall be permitted thereon, except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings, and the said minutes shall then be signed by the Lord Mayor. Confirmation of minutes.

13. Any Councillor desiring to ask a question at any meeting of the Council shall give notice thereof in writing to the Town Clerk at least four hours before the hour fixed for the meeting. Questions.

14. All questions and answers shall be submitted as briefly and concisely as possible, and no discussion shall be allowed thereon.

15. No discussion shall be permitted on any motion that any correspondence be received or not received or that any correspondence or any part thereof be referred to any Occasional Committee of the Council. Reception of correspondence.

16. (1) Any Councillor may bring forward such business as he may consider advisable in the form of a motion, of which notice shall be given in writing to the Town Clerk, either at the meeting previous to the meeting at which it is intended to move the same, or at any time thereafter, being not less than three clear days before such lastmentioned meeting. Notices of motion.

(2) Every notice of motion shall relate to some question affecting the constitution, administration, or condition of the City.

(3) The Lord Mayor shall rule out of order any motion which does not comply with the last preceding subclause.

17. Every such motion shall lapse, unless the Councillor who gave notice thereof, or some other Councillor authorised by him in writing, be present to move the same when such motion shall be called on.

Deputations.

18. Deputations wishing to be received by the Council shall in the first instance send in a memorial in writing, and the Town Clerk shall bring the memorial before the Committee concerned, which shall if it sees fit receive the deputation and report to the Council. If the Committee is of the opinion that the memorial is one which should be brought before the Council the Committee shall so report, and if the Council shall so order the deputation shall be invited to attend.

19. A deputation shall not exceed ten in number and only two members thereof shall be at liberty to address the Council or a Committee of the Council except in reply to questions from members of the Council or Committee, and the matter shall not be further considered by the Council or the Committee until the deputation shall have withdrawn.

Councillors to address Lord Mayor.

20. (1) Any Councillor moving a motion or amendment, or taking part in the discussion thereon, shall rise and address the Lord Mayor.

Point of order.

(2) A Councillor who is addressing the Lord Mayor shall not be interrupted except upon a point of order, when he shall resume his seat until the Councillor raising the point of order has been heard thereon and the question of order has been disposed of, whereupon the firstmentioned Councillor may proceed.

(3) Rising to express a difference of opinion with or to contradict a speaker shall not be recognised as raising a point of order.

(4) A violation of any provision of these Standing Orders shall be a breach of order.

Substance of motion to be stated.

21. Any Councillor desirous of proposing an original motion or amendment shall state the substance of the same before he addresses the Council thereon and, if so required by the Lord Mayor, shall put the motion or amendment in writing.

Motions and amendments to be seconded.

22. No motion or amendment shall be discussed or put to the vote of the Council unless it be seconded, but a Councillor may require the enforcement of any Standing Order of the Council by directing the Lord Mayor's attention to the infraction thereof.

Titles to be used.

23. Speakers in referring to others present shall designate them by their respective titles of Lord Mayor or Councillor as the case may be.

Priority of speaking.

24. If two or more Councillors rise to speak at the same time, the Lord Mayor shall decide which is entitled to priority.

Lord Mayor to be heard.

25. Whenever the Lord Mayor rises during a debate any Councillor then speaking or offering to speak shall sit down and the Council shall be silent so that the Lord Mayor may be heard without interruption.

Speaking twice.

26. Subject to clause 27 hereof, no Councillor shall speak twice on the same question except

- (a) in reply upon an original motion of which he was the mover;
- (b) in reply upon an amendment last debated of which he was the mover;
- (c) by way of personal explanation.

27. The Council may by resolution, which resolution may be moved without notice, suspend the operation of clause 26 hereof and thereupon such clause shall be suspended until such time as the Council shall by resolution otherwise decide, which resolution may be moved without notice.

28. A Councillor making a personal explanation shall confine it to a succinct explanation of a material part of his former speech which may have been misunderstood, and to the explanation itself. He shall not advert to matters not strictly necessary for that purpose nor seek to strengthen his former argument by new matter or by replying to other Councillors. Personal explanation.
29. The Lord Mayor shall forthwith call to order any Councillor committing a breach of clause 26 hereof.
30. No Councillor shall speak on any motion or amendment
(a) after the mover has replied;
(b) after the question has been put. No speech after certain events.
31. A Councillor moving or seconding a motion or amendment shall be held to have spoken thereon. Mover and seconder have spoken.
32. No Councillor shall speak upon any motion or amendment or in reply for a longer period than ten minutes without the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without debate. Limit of speeches.
33. A Councillor speaking in reply shall not introduce any new matter but shall confine himself strictly to answering previous speakers. Speaking in reply.
34. The Lord Mayor, at his discretion may, or the Council may by motion without debate, order a complicated motion to be divided and put in the form of several motions. Division of motions.
35. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without debate, and it shall not be competent for any Councillor to speak upon it after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal unless such permission is refused. Withdrawal of motions.
36. Any Councillor may of right require the production of any of the documents of the Council relating to the question or matter under discussion. Production of documents.
37. No Councillor shall speak otherwise than upon or shall digress from the question then before the Council except to make a personal explanation. No digression.
38. No Councillor shall reflect adversely upon a resolution of the Council except on a motion that such resolution be rescinded. No adverse reflection on Council.
39. No Councillor shall reflect adversely upon the character motives or actions of another Councillor unless the Council shall resolve, without debate, that the question then before the Council cannot otherwise be adequately considered. No adverse reflection on Councillor.
40. Any Councillor may require the Town Clerk to take down any particular words used by a Councillor immediately upon the same being used.
41. If any Councillor commits a breach of clauses 38 or 39 hereof the Lord Mayor may require him unreservedly to withdraw his offending comment and make a satisfactory apology, and if he decline or neglect to do so the Lord Mayor may direct such Councillor to cease speaking and resume his seat and may call on the next speaker. Demand for withdrawal.
42. No Councillor shall make any noise or disturbance or, except to raise a point of order, converse aloud while any other person is addressing the Council. Disturbance by Councillors.
43. The Lord Mayor may call the attention of the Council to continued irrelevance, tedious repetition, unbecoming language, or any breach of order or decorum on the part of a Councillor and may direct such Councillor, if speaking, to discontinue his speech, and thereupon such Councillor shall cease speaking and resume his seat. Continued irrelevance, etc.
44. When the Lord Mayor is putting any question no Councillor shall walk out of or across the Chamber, nor shall any Councillor, whilst any other Councillor is speaking, pass between the speaker and the chair.

45. The Lord Mayor shall preserve order, and may call any Councillor to order whenever in his opinion there shall be cause for so doing.

46. Every Councillor shall be entitled to direct the attention of the Lord Mayor to any infraction of the Standing Orders by any other Councillor.

Rulings by
Lord Mayor.

47. The Lord Mayor when deciding a point of order or practice shall give his decision and no argument or comment shall be permitted thereon and his decision shall be final in that particular case unless a majority of the Councillors then present shall upon motion made forthwith, without discussion, dissent therefrom.

48. Whenever it shall have been decided by the Lord Mayor that any motion, amendment or other matter before the Council is out of order, the same shall be rejected, and whenever anything said or done in the Council by any Councillor shall be similarly decided to be out of order such Councillor shall be called upon by the Lord Mayor to make such explanation, retraction or apology as the case may require.

order.

49. If a Councillor shall persist in any conduct which the Lord Mayor shall have decided is out of order, or shall refuse to make any explanation, retraction or apology required by the Lord Mayor under clause 48 hereof, the Lord Mayor may direct such Councillor to refrain from taking any further part in the then meeting of the Council other than the recording of his vote, and the Councillor shall comply with such direction.

Serious
disorder.

50. (1) If at a meeting of the Council the Lord Mayor is of opinion that by reason of disorder or otherwise the business of the Council cannot be effectually continued he may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen minutes, whereafter the Council shall re-assemble and decide whether business shall be proceeded with, which question shall be forthwith decided without debate.

(2) If thereafter the Lord Mayor is again of opinion that the business of the Council cannot be effectually continued he may close the meeting.

All Councillors to vote.

51. At all meetings of the Council, save when the Act otherwise provides, all the Councillors present shall vote, and if any Councillor who is entitled to vote fails to vote the Lord Mayor shall call upon him to vote. If there be an equal division of votes upon any question the Lord Mayor shall in addition to his own vote, have a second or casting vote.

Permissible

52. (1) Subject to subclause (2) of this clause when a motion is under debate no further motion shall be moved except the following:—

- (a) That the motion be amended.
- (b) That the Council do adjourn.
- (c) That the debate be adjourned.
- (d) That the question be now put.
- (e) That the Council do proceed with the next business.
- (f) That the Council do sit behind closed doors.
- (g) That the meeting be now closed.

(2) When the question before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee of the Council, a Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice that the question be referred back to the Committee. On such motion the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and the chairman of the Committee concerned, or in his absence a member thereof, may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

Amendment
motion.

53. Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion on which it is moved.

54. Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

55. Only one amendment at a time shall be discussed, but as often as an amendment is lost another amendment may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote: Provided that when an amendment is carried one further amendment to the original motion as amended and no more may be moved.

One amendment at a time.

56. When an amendment is carried the original motion as amended shall for all purposes of subsequent debate, subject only to the last preceding clause, be treated as an original motion.

57. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor or on the conclusion of any business move without notice that the Council do now adjourn. Such motion shall state the time and date to which the adjournment is to be made. On such motion the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and the mover of the motion (if any) which was then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

"That Council adjourn."

58. If a motion for the adjournment of the Council be negatived no similar motion shall be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the notice paper or any other which may be allowed precedence shall have been disposed of.

59. (1) No Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall move the adjournment of the Council.

(2) No Councillor shall at the same sitting of the Council move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the Council.

60. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried the debate on the question (if any) under debate when such motion was moved shall be continued immediately upon the Council resuming after the adjournment.

61. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration at the time of the adjournment and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject: Provided that this clause shall not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

62. The Lord Mayor may at any time adjourn the Council to such time and date as he shall then declare.

63. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice that the debate be adjourned to a later hour of the same meeting or to a subsequent meeting of the Council. On such motion the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding, and no other debate shall be allowed, Provided that if the question then before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee the chairman of the Committee concerned, or in his absence a member thereof may speak for not more than five minutes.

"That debate be adjourned."

64. (1) No Councillor who has spoken on the question then under debate shall move the adjournment of the debate.

(2) No Councillor shall at the same sitting of the Council move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the same debate.

65. On resuming an adjourned debate the Councillor who moved its adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.

66. On a motion for the adjournment of a debate being carried a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under debate and they shall not be permitted to speak on any resumption of the debate on that subject, Provided that this clause shall not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

67. If the debate on any motion, moved and seconded, be interrupted by Council being counted out, such debate may on motion with notice be resumed at the next meeting at the point where it was so interrupted.

"That question be put."

68. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice and without comment that the question under consideration be now put, and upon such motion being formally seconded the same shall be immediately put without debate.

69. A motion that the question under consideration be put shall not be moved by a Councillor who has already spoken on the question, and such a motion shall not be carried without the consent of a two-thirds majority of the Councillors present.

70. When it is decided by the Council that the question under consideration be put the mover of the question under consideration shall, if debate has ensued and if otherwise entitled to do so, be permitted to speak in reply for not more than five minutes before the question is put but subject thereto the question shall at once be put.

71. Whenever it is decided by the Council that the question shall be put the question to be so put shall include the main question as well as any amendment thereto.

"That Council proceed with next business."

72. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move without notice and without comment that the Council do proceed with the next business and upon such motion being formally seconded the same shall be immediately put without debate.

73. When the Council decides to proceed with the next business the question which was then under discussion shall be considered as dropped.

74. During the same debate on any question a motion that the Council do proceed with the next business shall not be moved within one hour after a similar motion has been negatived.

"That meeting be closed."

75. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor, or on the conclusion of any business, move without notice that the meeting of the Council be now closed. On such motion the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and the mover of the motion (if any) then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

76. If a motion that the meeting of the Council be closed be negatived no similar motion shall be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the motion paper or any other which may be allowed precedence shall have been disposed of.

77. (1) No Councillor who shall have spoken on the question then before the Council shall move that the meeting be closed.

(2) No Councillor shall at the same meeting of the Council move or second more than one motion that the meeting be closed.

78. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried the debate on the question (if any) under debate when such motion was moved shall stand adjourned to its place on the notice paper for the next meeting of the Council.

79. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration up to the closing of the meeting and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject, Provided that this clause shall not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

Confidential business.

80. All matters dealt with by or brought before the Council sitting otherwise than with open doors, or any Committee of the Council, shall be treated as strictly confidential, and shall not without the authority of the Council or of the Committee, as the case may be be disclosed to any person other than the Lord Mayor, Councillors or servants of the Council (and in the case of servants only so far as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of such servants) prior to the discussion of such matters at a meeting of the Council held with open doors.

81. No motion or amendment shall be moved at any meeting of the Council otherwise than in the form of a reference to the Finance Committee for consideration and report if it would have the effect of incurring expenditure not provided for in the estimates. Motions affecting expenditure.
82. No resolution of any meeting of the Council shall be revoked, rescinded, or altered at any subsequent meeting held during the municipal year, except in the manner provided by the Act. Rescission of resolution.
83. No motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived by the Council shall again be entertained within a period of three months except with the consent of at least fourteen members of the Council. Negatived motions.
84. In cases of urgent necessity any Standing Order of the Council may be suspended on motion duly made and seconded: Provided that— Suspension of Standing Orders.
- (a) no such motion shall be made until all business appearing in the notice paper has been disposed of;
 - (b) no such motion shall be carried unless the number of Councillors voting in the affirmative shall exceed those voting in the negative by at least eight;
 - (c) no such motion shall be permitted unless notice thereof in writing shall have been given at the time prescribed by clause ten hereof unless the Lord Mayor shall be satisfied that this requirement could not reasonably have been complied with.
85. Any Councillor moving the suspension of any standing order shall state the object of such motion, but no discussion shall take place thereon.
86. The Lord Mayor shall, in taking the vote on any motion or amendment, put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative, and he may do so as often as is necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion as to which party has the majority on the voices or by a show of hands. Method of taking vote.
87. (1) The Council shall vote on the voices, or by a show of hands as may in each case be directed by the Lord Mayor, but any Councillor may call for a division on any question.
- (2) Upon a division being called for the division bell shall be rung, and after the lapse of one-half of a minute from the bell ceasing to ring no Councillor shall be permitted to enter or leave the Chamber until after the division has been taken.
- (3) When a division is being taken and until the vote is recorded all Councillors voting in the affirmative shall stand up and all those voting in the negative shall remain seated.

Committees.

88. (1) In addition to such occasional committees as may from time to time be appointed there shall be ten standing committees of the Council namely (i) Finance, (ii) Works, (iii) General Purposes, (iv) Health, (v) Town Planning, (vi) Endowment Lands, (vii) Electricity and Plant, (viii) Buildings, (ix) Vehicle Parking and (x) Library. Standing Committees.
- (2) Each standing committee shall comprise the Lord Mayor and eight Councillors being one Councillor from each ward, Provided that the General Purposes Committee shall, when occasion arises, be increased by one member pursuant to clause 89 (iii) hereof.
- (3) The members of each standing committee shall be appointed for each year at the first meeting of the Council held after the annual election and shall hold office until the thirtieth day of November then next ensuing, Provided that the Council may by resolution change the membership of any committee or appoint substitutes for Councillors absent pursuant to leave granted by the Council.

(4) In default of agreement the members of the standing committees shall be elected by ballot and in the event of an equality of votes for two or more Councillors the Lord Mayor shall have a second or casting vote.

89. Subject to any resolution of the Council passed after the coming into operation of these Standing Orders the standing committees shall have the oversight of the following matters:—

- (i) Finance Committee.—(a) The finances of the Council; (b) items of expenditure recommended by any Committee; (c) estimates of receipts and expenditure for each financial year; (d) loans; (e) the Council's official staff, provided that any Standing Committee may make a recommendation to the Finance Committee concerning an appointment to the official staff of an applicant whose principal duties pertain to matters the oversight of which has been entrusted by the Council to such Committee, and if the Finance Committee does not accept such recommendation it may be made to the Council.
- (ii) Works Committee.—(a) Construction and maintenance of streets, ways, drains, bridges and other public places; (b) sweeping and watering of streets; (c) fencing vacant lands; (d) construction of street shelters and street signs; (e) construction of crossings over footpaths, and any constructional matters in connection with streets; (f) siting of all works buildings.
- (iii) General Purposes Committee.—(a) Parks, reserves and playgrounds; (b) enclosed recreational areas, including ovals, other than on the Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate: Providing that recommendations to the Council affecting the charges and allocations for use of ovals or areas in the Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate shall be made by the General Purposes Committee; (c) street trees and road verges; (d) town halls and all buildings the property of the Council except that where recommendations to the Council are to be considered affecting the establishment, alteration, maintenance or use of any premises used in connection with matters over which any other Committee has oversight the Chairman of such other Committee shall be a member of the General Purposes Committee when such recommendations are being considered; (e) swimming pools, including the management and control thereof; (f) acquisition of land for recreational areas, but only after receipt of a recommendation from the Town Planning Committee as to the location thereof; (g) civic functions (with power to act).
- (iv) Health Committee.—(a) Matters affecting or relating to the health of the citizens; (b) immunisation, location and construction of all clinics; (c) house inspections; (d) licensing of eating houses, sale of food and drugs and food sampling; (e) nightsoil and rubbish services; (f) noxious trades, morgues, etc.; (g) hawkers, dogs and goats, impounding, etc.; (h) inspection of places of public amusement.
- (v) Town Planning Committee.—(a) All matters, including resumption of land, relating to zoning and town planning generally except in the Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate; (b) location of metropolitan regional roads including those in the Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate.
- (vi) Endowment Lands Committee.—The City Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate except where otherwise herein provided.

- (vii) Electricity and Plant Committee.—With the exception of matters involving expenditure under the City of Perth Parking Facilities Act—(a) the provision of electricity services equipment and fittings for the lighting of streets, ways, reserves and public places, and matters relating thereto; (b) the purchase, sale, replacement, control and maintenance of all Council vehicles, plant and machinery; (c) the purchase of all necessary supplies for the foregoing.
- (viii) Buildings Committee.—(a) Control of buildings and building operations and of verandahs, signs, hoardings and similar matters, otherwise than in connection with the property of the Council; (b) storage of inflammable materials.
- (ix) Vehicle Parking Committee.—(a) Control and management of the parking facilities scheme; (b) the definition and allocation for use of street kerbside space; (c) parking areas and shuttle services, and all matters relating thereto, but as to the location thereof subject to first obtaining a recommendation from the Town Planning Committee.
- (x) Library Committee.—Matters relating to the control and management of libraries.

90. (1) The Council may appoint occasional committees to perform any duty which may be lawfully entrusted to a committee.

Occasional Committees.

(2) An occasional committee may comprise any number of Councillors not exceeding the largest minority of the total number of Councillors.

(3) No standing committee shall interfere in any matter which has for the time being been entrusted to an occasional committee.

(4) An occasional committee shall not be appointed except on a motion which states

- (a) the duties proposed to be entrusted to such committee, and
- (b) the names of the Councillors intended to constitute the committee, or
- (c) the number of Councillors intended to constitute the committee and that they be elected by ballot.

(5) If the members of an occasional committee are elected by ballot then in the event of an equality of votes for two or more Councillors the Lord Mayor shall have a second or casting vote.

91. The Town Clerk shall call a meeting of any committee when requested so to do by the Lord Mayor or the chairman or any two members of such committee.

Calling Committee meetings.

92. These Standing Orders shall be observed at meetings of committees except insofar as they limit the number of times a member may speak and except insofar as they require meetings to be conducted with open doors.

93. At a meeting of a committee, a quorum shall consist of not less than three members and the chairman. Every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated as there shall be a sufficient number of Councillors in attendance to constitute a quorum, provided that if a quorum is lacking fifteen minutes after the appointed time of the meeting such meeting shall lapse.

Quorum of Committees.

94. Each standing committee shall cause to be kept a minute book in which shall be entered minutes of all its proceedings and transactions. The minutes of each meeting shall be confirmed at the next meeting of the committee and shall be signed by the chairman thereof.

Minutes of Committees.

95. Whenever it becomes necessary to appoint a Councillor to represent the Council on a public body or State instrumentality notice of the necessity to make such appointment shall be given at the meeting of the Council next preceding the meeting at which it is intended to make such appointment.

Representation on public bodies.

Penalty.

Penalty. 96. Any person who shall commit a breach of these Standing Orders shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Passed by the Council of the City of Perth at the ordinary meeting of the Council held on the 14th day of July, 1958.

ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919-1957.

West Arthur Road Board.

By-laws for the Control and Management of Recreation Ground Portion Wellington Location 2098.

L.G. 1997/52.

THE West Arthur Road Board, under and by virtue of the powers conferred on it by the Road Districts Act, 1919-1957, and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, does hereby make and publish the following by-laws:—

1. In these by-laws, unless the contrary intention appears, the following words shall have the meanings assigned to them hereunder:—

“Board” means the West Arthur Road Board.

“Reserve” shall mean the area designated portion of Wellington Location 2098, containing 11 acres 1 rood 31 perches and set aside as a recreation reserve.

“Buildings” means and includes any building, erection, stall, jetty, fence, barrier, hoarding, pavilion, dressing room, or other construction, and includes tent or caravan.

“Person” means any person or body corporate or group of persons.

“Secretary” means the Secretary of the West Arthur Road Board.

“Inspector” shall mean and include the traffic inspector and the inspector appointed by the said Board to assist the Board in obtaining due observance of these by-laws.

“Vehicle” shall have the same meaning as in the Traffic Act, 1919-1957.

2. No person shall, within the reserve, wilfully obstruct, disturb, interrupt or annoy any other person in the proper use thereof, or wilfully obstruct in the execution of his duty, or insult or neglect to obey the lawful directions of, the inspector or any caretaker, ranger, or other servant of the Board.

3. No person shall damage or interfere with any tree, shrub, fence, post, building, seat, watertank, waterpipe, hose or fitting, treeguard, earth or other property within the reserve.

4. No person shall climb or be upon any tree, shrub, treeguard, wall or fence, or upon the roof of any building within the reserve.

5. No person shall light any fire within the reserve, except at a fireplace built of brick, stone or fire-proof material.

6. No person shall post, stick, stamp, stencil, paint, or otherwise affix any placard, poster, handbill, notice, advertisement or any document whatever upon any tree, board, post, fence, gate, building, road, path or any place whatever on the reserve.

7. No person shall use a microphone, loudspeaker, megaphone or other means of sound magnification for the purpose of advertising, nor shall he use such instrument or instruments for any other purpose so as to cause annoyance to other persons using the reserve.

8. No person shall carry any firearm within the reserve, or shoot, snare, or destroy any bird, or animal therein.

9. No person shall deposit or leave any rubbish, refuse, offal, paper, bottles, broken glass, china or litter of any kind whatsoever upon the reserve, except in a receptacle provided for the purpose.

10. No person shall commit a nuisance on the reserve or in any part of any pavilion, dressing room or other building erected on the reserve.

11. No person shall, without permission in writing from the Secretary, sell or expose or offer for sale any goods, wares, refreshments, fruits, or other merchandise or things.

12. The Board or authorised persons may make charges for admission to the reserve or to any specified portion thereof, or to any buildings thereon as per Schedule A.

13. No person shall camp, lodge or tarry overnight in the reserve, or frequent the same for the purpose of camping, lodging or tarrying overnight therein, without the consent of the Secretary, in writing, and the period of such consent shall not exceed six weeks.

14. No person shall erect, or permit, or authorise the erection of a building on the reserve without the consent of the Board.

15. The Board may refuse to grant such consent or may grant its consent upon such terms and conditions as it may think fit.

16. Any persons desirous of erecting a building on the reserve shall make application to the Board in writing, stating the purpose of the building, and shall if so required, provide a plan and specification of the proposed building and any other particulars required of him by the Board.

17. The consent of the Board to the erection of a building may specify—

- (a) the purpose for which such building may be used;
- (b) the nature of the building which may be erected;
- (c) the time during which such building may be permitted to remain on the reserve;
- (d) the times when such building may be used;
- (e) the position in which such building may be erected.

18. Any person who shall erect or use or permit or authorise the erection or use of any building on a reserve without the written consent of the Board or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the written consent of the Board, shall be guilty of an offence.

19. The Board may, after having given to the person to whom a consent to erect a building on the reserve has been granted, one calendar month's notice of its intention so to do, withdraw such consent.

20. The Board may, by notice in writing to the owner, or to the person whom it believes to be the owner, of a building on the reserve, direct that a building erected or used on the reserve without the consent of the Board or erected or used otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the consent of the Board, or any building in respect of which the consent to erect or use the same has been withdrawn, be removed within a period of 14 days after the date of the service of the said notice. Any person who fails to comply with a notice given by the Board to remove a building on the reserve shall be guilty of an offence.

21. No person shall allow any vehicle to remain stationary on any road or prepared carriage way within the reserve, except on authorised stands.

22. No person in charge of any vehicle shall cause or permit such vehicle to stand on any portion of the reserve, except on authorised stands.

23. No person shall ride a motor cycle on any portion of the reserve other than a prepared road, carriage way or track specifically set out for that purpose.

24. The Board may prohibit any specified games or sports from being played or carried on in the reserve.

25. No person shall, within the reserve, indulge in or play at any game of chance or any unlawful game, and gambling or betting in any and all forms are completely prohibited.

26. No dog shall be at large in any part of the reserve, and any person who shall cause or permit a dog to stray or be at large in the reserve shall be guilty of an offence.

27. Any person who commits a breach of any of these by-laws shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Schedule A.

Fees for Admission to Reserve at Authorised Times.

A fee not exceeding a maximum of 5s. (five shillings) per person.

A resolution adopting the foregoing by-laws was passed by the Board on the 18th June, 1958.

R. B. CUTHBERT,
Chairman.

J. F. CAMERON,
Secretary.
