		(ex. survey fee)

Subject to the following conditions:—

- The maximum area allowed to be selected by any one person is limited to 2,500 acres or such excess as is contained by survey.
- The selector or his agent must take up residence within three years from date of approval and make it his habitual residence for the following five years.
- The selector shall in each of the first four years clear and cultivate 250 acres or 1/10 of the area, whichever is the lesser, of the lands suitable for pasture. In the third year and each of the three following years thereafter lay down in pasture the aforesaid 250 acres or 1/10 of the area. Such clearing, cultivation and pasture shall be properly maintained during the term of the lease. Half the internal boundaries shall be fenced in five years and fully fenced within 10 years from commencing date of the lease.
- A lease is granted under Section 47 of the Land Act for a period of 25 to 30 years during which interest on survey fee only is paid in the first five years and the purchase price, free of interest, plus survey fee is paid by half-yearly instalments during the balance of the term.
- Upon completion of payment of purchase money and carrying out of improvement conditions, a freehold title is issued.
- At any time after the expiration of five years from the inception of the lease the freehold title may issue provided purchase money is paid in full and the 10 year improvement conditions have been completed.

MINING ACT, 1904-1952, PART XIII,

Division I.

Before the W.A. Coal Industry Tribunal, held at Collie:

Application No. 27 of 1958.

Between Amalgamated Collieries of W.A. Limited and others, applicants, and Federated Engine Drivers and Firemen's Industrial Union of Workers of W.A., Collie, respondents. Application to amend Long Service Leave Order No. 106 of 1955. (Application No. 27 of 1958 of the W.A. Coal Industry Tribunal.)

THE Tribunal hereby awards, orders and prescribes that Award No. 106 of 1955, of the W.A. Coal Industry Tribunal, as amended, be further amended in the following manner:—

1. Amend Clause 2 by adding the following new subclause:—

(xii) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this Award an employer may require any employee who has qualified for long service leave to take such leave at any time provided he is given one month's notice of the date of commencement of such leave.

2. This amendment shall take effect forthwith.

Dated at Collie this 17th day of December, 1958.

W. J. WALLWORK,
Chairman, W. A. Coal Industry Tribunal.

Filed in my office this 12th day of February, 1959.

R. BOWYER,
Clerk of Court of Arbitration.

INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENT.

No. 1 of 1959.

(Registered 4th February, 1959.)

THIS Agreement, made in pursuance of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912-1952, this 19th day of December, 1958, between the State Electricity Commission of Western Australia (hereinafter referred to as "the employer") of the one part, and the Collie Federated Engine Drivers and Firemen's Union of Workers, Western Australia (hereinafter referred to as "the Union") of the other part, whereby the said parties mutually agree as follows:—

1.—Title.

This Agreement shall be known as the Collie Engine Drivers and Firemen, State Electricity Commission Agreement—for power stations within the boundaries of the Collie coalfield.

2.—Arrangement.

1. Title.
2. Arrangement.
3. Area and Scope.
4. Term.
5. Mixed Functions.
6. Contract of Service.
7. Absence from Duty.
8. Payment for Sickness.

10. Public Holidays.
11. Long Service Leave.
12. Shop Stewards.
13. Hours of Duty.
14. Wages During Suspension.
15. Overtime and Sunday Work.
16. Shift Work.
17. Board of Reference.
18. Right of Entry.
19. Promotion.
20. Allowances and Special Provisions.
21. Definitions.
22. Wages.

3. Area and Scope.

This Agreement shall apply to members of the Collie Federated Engine Drivers and Firemen's Union employed by the State Electricity Commission at power stations within the boundaries of the Collie coalfield.

4. Term.

This Agreement shall operate for a period of one year from the date hereof.

5. Mixed Functions.

(a) A worker called upon to perform work carrying a higher rate of pay than his classified rate for two hours in any day or shift shall be paid such higher rate for the whole of the day or shift.

(b) Should any worker be required to perform work in a lower grade, his wage shall not be reduced whilst employed in such capacity.

6.—Contract of Service.

1. Subject to paragraph 2—

(a) no worker shall leave the Commission until the expiration of fourteen (14) days' written notice of his intention to do so without the approval of the Commission;

(b) except in the case of summary dismissal for misconduct, peculation or theft, fourteen (14) days' written notice shall be given by the Commission to any worker and the reason for dismissal shall be stated in such notice.

2. For the first 14 days of employment, the hiring shall be from day to day, and during this period shall be terminable by a day's notice or a day's pay in lieu of notice.

3. The Commission shall be entitled to deduct payment for any day or portion of a day on which the worker cannot be usefully employed because of any strike by the Union or unions affiliated with it, or by any other association or unions, or through the breakdown of the Commission's machinery, or any stoppage of work by any cause which the Commission cannot reasonably prevent.

7.—Absence from Duty.

(a) Any worker losing time through sickness or injury shall, as soon as possible, notify the officer in charge in sufficient time to permit of arrangements being made for the performance of his duties.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Clause 8 (Payment for Sickness), any worker losing time through sickness or special leave shall be reduced in wages only to the extent of the time actually lost through sickness or granted as special leave.

8.—Payment for Sickness.

(a) (i) A worker shall be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health for one-twelfth (1/12th) of a week's pay for each completed month of service.

(ii) The liability of the Commission shall in no case exceed one (1) week's wages during each calendar year in respect of each worker, but the sick leave herein provided shall be allowed to accumulate, and any portion unused in any year may be availed of in the next or any succeeding year.

(iii) Payment hereunder may be adjusted at the end of each calendar year, or at the time the worker leaves the services, in the event of the worker being entitled by service subsequent to the sickness to a greater allowance than that made at the time the sickness occurred.

(b) This clause shall not apply where the worker is entitled to compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause unless he produces proof to the satisfaction of the Commission or its representative of sickness, but the Commission shall not be entitled to a medical certificate unless the absence is for three (3) consecutive working days or more.

(d) No payment will be made for any absence due to a worker's own fault, neglect, or misconduct.

9.—Annual Leave.

(a) (i) Except as hereinafter provided, a period of two consecutive weeks' leave with payment of ordinary wages as prescribed shall be allowed annually to a worker by the Commission after a period of twelve months' continuous service with the Commission.

(ii) In addition to the leave hereinbefore prescribed, seven-day shift worker, that is, shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed seven consecutive days' leave including non-working days.

(iii) Where an employee with twelve months' continuous service is engaged for part of the twelve monthly period as a seven-day shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of fourteen consecutive days' annual leave prescribed in sub-clause (a) (i) hereof increased by half a day for each month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

(b) If any Award holidays fall within a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(c) (i) Subject to paragraph (ii) when computing the annual leave due under this clause no deduction shall be made from such leave in respect of the period that a worker is on annual leave and/or holidays; provided that no deduction shall be made for any approved period a worker is absent from duty through sickness with or without pay unless the absence exceeds an aggregate of thirteen (13) weeks in which case deduction may be made for such excess only.

(ii) Approved periods of absence from work caused through accident sustained in the course of employment shall not be considered breaks in continuity of service but the first six months only of any such period shall count as service for the purpose of computing annual leave.

(d) In the event of a worker being employed by the Commission for portion only of a year, he shall only be entitled to such holidays on full pay as are proportionate to his length of service during that period with the Commission.

(e) Any worker who may resign or be dismissed from the service for any cause other than for peculation or theft shall be entitled to receive payment for any annual leave which may have been due up to the time of leaving the service; provided always that if the worker has been dismissed for peculation or theft no claim for annual leave shall be recognised. Misconduct herein referred to shall not affect accumulated annual leave or payment therefor.

(f) When work is closed down for the purpose of allowing annual leave to be taken, workers with less than a full year's service shall be entitled to payment during such period for the number of days leave due to them. Provided that nothing herein contained shall deprive the Commission of its right to retain such workers at work during the close-down period as may be essential.

(g) "Ordinary wages" for the purpose of sub-clause (a) hereof shall mean the rate of wage the worker has received for the greater proportion of the calendar month prior to his taking the annual leave.

(h) Provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

10.—Public Holidays.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided, each of the following days, or the day observed in lieu thereof, shall be allowed as a holiday to all workers and be paid for, namely: New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Collie Show Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

(b) (i) Whenever any holiday falls on an employee's ordinary working day and the employee is not required to work on such day he shall be paid for the ordinary hours he would have worked on such day if it had not been a holiday. If he is required to work on a holiday he shall be paid at the rate of double time, or alternatively he shall be paid for the time worked as if it were an ordinary working day and shall, in addition, be allowed a day's leave with pay to be added to the annual leave or to be taken at some subsequent date if the worker so agrees.

(ii) If any worker is required to work on a public holiday prescribed as a holiday under this agreement which falls on a non-working day, he shall be paid the rate which he would have been paid if the day had not been a public holiday, and in addition shall have one day for each holiday so worked added to his annual leave.

(c) Payment for holidays shall be in accordance with the usual hours of work.

(d) When a worker is off duty owing to leave without pay or sickness, including accidents on or off duty except time for which he is entitled to claim sick pay, any holiday falling during such absence shall not be treated as a paid holiday. Where the worker is on duty or available on the whole of the working day immediately preceding a holiday or resumes duty or is available on the whole of the working day immediately following a holiday as prescribed in this clause, the worker shall be entitled to a paid holiday on all such holidays.

(e) Day workers employed on Sunday work will be entitled to half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one day extra on their annual leave for every four (4) Sundays worked during the year. Sunday work shall not be counted for the purpose of this subclause unless at least three (3) hours actual work is done.

(f) A casual worker shall not be entitled to payment for any holiday referred to in this clause.

11.—Long Service Leave.

The conditions relating to full-time Government wages employees generally as in force as at the date of this agreement, and as may be amended from time to time, shall apply to all workers employed under the provisions of this agreement.

12.—Shop Stewards.

Subject to the recognition of properly constituted authority, shop stewards to be appointed by the Union shall be recognised by the Commission.

13.—Hours of Duty.

(a) The ordinary hours of work for employees other than shift workers shall be forty (40) per week to be worked in shifts of eight hours Monday to Friday inclusive.

(b) The ordinary hours of work for shift workers shall be eighty (80) hours per fortnight to be worked in shifts of eight (8) hours each.

14.—Wages During Suspension.

(a) Where a worker is suspended and the charge is not proven, full wages for the period of suspension shall be paid.

(b) Where the charge is admitted or proven, the worker may be deprived of wages for the whole or any portion of the period of suspension, but in such case the Commission shall decide the amount of wages of which it is intended to deprive the worker, and any such deprivation shall be recorded and regarded as part of the punishment.

(c) Unless proceedings on any charge are commenced within seven (7) days of the first laying of the charge and finalised within one month of such date the charge shall lapse and full payment of wages made to the worker for the complete period unless proceedings are delayed by causes outside the control of the Commission.

15.—Overtime and Sunday Work.

(a) Except where otherwise specified, all work performed by any worker outside the usual working hours of such worker shall be regarded as overtime, and the rates payable for overtime shall be as follows:—

(i) Where the worker commences the overtime within the period of one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) hours prior to his usual starting time, time and one half for the time worked in such one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) hour period;

(ii) where the worker works overtime in any portion of the period commencing five (5) hours or more after his usual stopping time, but commences the overtime prior to one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) hours before his usual starting time, double time for all time worked up to the usual starting time;

(iii) subject to the preceding paragraphs, time and one half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(b) All time worked on Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(c) A day worker called on to do duty on any Sunday shall be paid for not less than four (4) hours at the rate applicable to that day; provided that the worker shall not be obliged to work for the four (4) hours if the job for which he was brought on to do is completed in less than four (4) hours; provided further, if he is called out for duty more than once within a period of four (4) hours from the start of a previous callout for duty, he shall not be entitled to any further payment for time worked within that period of four (4) hours.

(d) (i) When a worker without being notified on the previous day is required to work overtime for more than one (1) hour after his usual knock-off time, he shall be provided with any meal required or shall be paid three shillings and sixpence (3s. 6d.) in lieu thereof.

(ii) An employee working overtime shall be allowed a meal time of twenty (20) minutes without loss of pay after each four (4) hours of overtime if the employee continues work after such meal time.

(iii) When a worker is required to work overtime for more than four (4) hours without being notified the previous day, he shall be supplied by the employer with a reasonable meal for every meal time occurring during such period of overtime but the payments under subclause (i) shall not apply.

(iv) Where a worker has been notified the previous day to work overtime which necessitates the provision of a meal or meals and has provided a meal or meals and is not required to work overtime or is required to work less than the amount advised, he shall be paid two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) for each meal supplied and which is surplus.

(e) When overtime work is necessary it shall wherever reasonably practicable be so arranged that employees have at least eight (8) consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days.

(f) No worker shall work more than sixteen (16) hours consecutively in any one period of twenty-four (24) hours.

(g) Extra rates shall be computed at the rate applicable to the day on which the time is worked; provided that double time (i.e. twice ordinary rate) shall be maximum rate payable under any provision of this agreement.

(h) When a worker is required to hold himself in readiness as from a specific time for a callout to work after ordinary hours, he shall be paid at ordinary rates for the actual time in which he so holds himself in readiness as from the specific time.

(i) Any worker brought on duty (except on Sunday) for any purpose outside his ordinary working hours shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours, or at overtime rates, whichever is the greater provided such work, exclusive of meal time, is not continuous with his shift and provided that the worker shall not be obliged to work for the two (2) hours if the job for which he has been brought on has been completed in less time.

16.—Shift Work.

Continuous Shift Workers.

(a) The loading on the ordinary rates of pay for continuous shift workers shall be 7½ per cent. for afternoon shift and 10 per cent. for night shift worked between midnight on Sundays and midnight on Fridays.

(b) Time and a half shall be paid for all rostered shifts worked by shift workers between midnight on Fridays and midnight on Saturdays.

(c) Double time shall be paid for rostered shifts worked by continuous shift workers between midnight on Saturdays and midnight on Sundays.

(d) If a shift worker is called upon to work on his rostered day off he shall be paid as follows:—

(i) Between midnight on Sunday and noon on Saturday he shall be paid time and a half for the first four (4) hours and double time thereafter.

(ii) Between noon on Saturday and midnight on Sunday he shall be paid double time.

17.—Board of Reference.

The board shall consist of a chairman and two (2) other representatives nominated by the parties. There shall be assigned to such board, in the event of no agreement being arrived at between the parties to the agreement, the function of adjusting any matters of difference which may arise between the parties from time to time except such as involve interpretations of the provisions of the Agreement or any of them.

18.—Right of Entry.

On notifying the officer in charge, any officer of the union authorised in writing by the president and secretary of such union shall have the right to enter any place or premises during ordinary working hours wherein members of such Union covered by this agreement are engaged, for the purposes of conversing with or interviewing the workers in such place or premises.

Provided that such officer shall not hamper or otherwise hinder the workers in the carrying out of their work. The officer in charge shall determine whether workers are being hampered or hindered in their work.

19.—Promotions.

All promotions shall be made under and in accordance with the Government Employees (Promotion Appeal Board) Act, 1945-1955, and the Regulations thereto.

20.—Allowances and Special Provisions.

(a) A casual worker shall be paid 10 per cent. in addition to the minimum rate specified.

(b) Three shillings (3s.) per day shall be paid to workers when working in confined space as defined.

(c) Workers when temporarily working in water over their ankles, if not provided with rubber boots, shall be paid one shilling (1s.) per day extra.

(d) Workers entering a bunker to trim or remove any coal which is on fire or hot when required by a person in authority to do so, shall be paid three shillings (3s.) per day extra.

(e) Workers engaged on boiler cleaning work shall be paid one shilling (1s.) per day extra.

(f) In addition to any other allowances which may be payable, the following allowance shall be paid:—

To workers, under the direct control of a power station superintendent, employed on the operation and maintenance of the Collie Power Station plant, five shillings (5s.) per week extra.

(g) Except where otherwise expressly provided, not more than one of the foregoing allowances or extra rates shall be paid at any one time, and where more than one allowance or extra rate applies only the highest shall be paid.

(h) The foregoing allowances and extra rates shall be paid irrespective of the times at which the work is performed and shall not be included in the calculation of overtime or other penalty rates.

(i) (i) Each worker covered by this Agreement shall be supplied with two sets of overalls annually after six months' continuous service.

(ii) Each worker shall sign an acknowledgement on receipt thereof, and on leaving his employment shall return same to the Commission.

(iii) During the time they are on issue to the worker he shall be responsible for any loss or damage thereto, fair wear and tear attributable to ordinary use excepted.
