(iv) This clause shall not apply when there is in existence a special agreement for long service leave. If a worker has been employed continuously by several employers, whether the Minister for Public Health or a hospital board or boards established under the Hospitals Act, 1927, service shall be counted as continuous for the purpose of qualifying for long service leave; provided the worker has been employed for a minimum period of two (2) years by each employer, unless the worker submits a reason which in the opinion of such employer is a good and sufficient reason for entering into employment with another employer before the expiration of two (2) years service.

(b) In the event of no agreement being arrived at, the matter may be referred to the Board of Reference for determination.

(c) After application has been made to the Board, and pending the Board's decision, the worker shall be entitled to work for and be employed at the proposed lesser rate.

(b) Subject to the exceptions prescribed by paragraph (ii) of sub-clause (m) of Clause 22 of this Award, workers engaged on continuous work and workers required for essential maintenance or other essential work which cannot reasonably be postponed, shall work on any of the days set out in sub-clause (a) hereof if called upon to do so.

(c) For work on any of the days set out in sub-clause (a) hereof, workers shall be paid at the rate of double time.

(d) Day workers who work on a public holiday shall be allowed a meal break of thirty (30) minutes after each four (4) hours worked, provided that the work is to be continued for at least one and a half (1½) hours after such meal break, but the employer and the worker concerned may agree to any variation of this provision to meet the circumstances of the work in hand.

(e) The employer shall not be required to make any payment under sub-clause (a) hereof for a public holiday to a worker who, except in the case of absence due to personal sickness or accident or other reasonable cause, is absent from work on the working day immediately after such holiday.

(f) A worker who is required to work on any of the said public holidays shall be paid for a full day or shift.

Provided that this sub-clause shall not apply to—

- (i) a worker who ceases work on the holiday concerned without the authority of the employer;
- (ii) work of not more than four (4) hours' duration and of which he has received at least eight (8) hours' notice, performed by a worker immediately following or immediately preceding time worked by him on the day before or the day after such holiday as the case may be.

(g) In the following circumstances a worker shall be paid in respect of the relevant public holidays as though he had continued his employment without interruption:—

If the employer closes down the mill at which the worker is employed for a period which includes the Easter or Christmas public holidays, and—

- (i) the worker is discharged (other than for misconduct) by the employer less than fourteen (14) days before the shut down period; and
- (ii) the worker is re-engaged by the employer not more than fourteen (14) days after the shut-down period.

(h) If the employer terminates the employment of a worker other than for misconduct within one (1) week of a day on which a public holiday prescribed by this Award occurs, the worker shall be paid for such holiday; provided that such worker has been employed by the employer for a continuous period of at least one month.

(i) Where the shift roster prescribed in accordance with sub-clause (d) of Clause 11 of this Award provides for the ordinary hours for five (5)-day shift workers to commence after midnight on Sunday and finish after midnight on Friday and the employer regularly treats any part of a Tuesday following a Monday which is a holiday prescribed by sub-clause (a) hereof to be part of that holiday, the employer shall be entitled to treat an equal part of any Friday which is a holiday prescribed by sub-clause (a) hereof to be part of ordinary working hours, provided that an equal part of the following Saturday is regarded as part of that holiday and provided further that, if the majority of the workers concerned and the mill so desire, the shift roster for the week concerned shall be changed in accordance with sub-clause (e) of Clause 11 to commence at 12 midnight on the Sunday or such other time as may be mutually agreed between the employer and the Union.

18.—Maximum Rate.

Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Award, a worker shall not be entitled (except for the addition of the special rate prescribed in Clause 9 of this Award and the special allowance prescribed by sub-clause (d) of Clause 16) to any payment at a rate greater than double the appropriate ordinary rate of pay.

19.—Mixed Functions.

(a) A worker engaged for portion of a day or shift on duties which, according to the classifications in Clause 6 of this Award, carry a higher rate of pay than his ordinary classification, shall be paid at the higher rate for such day or shift; provided that payment at the higher rate shall not be made in respect of periods during which a worker is relieved during meal breaks or during other short absences.

(b) If a worker is transferred without having received at least seven (7) days' written notice, to work of a classification for which a lower rate of pay is prescribed than that for the classification in which he is usually employed, he shall be paid during such seven (7) days or any less time so employed, the rate of pay for the classification in which he was usually employed prior to the transfer.

20.—Standing By.

A worker required to hold himself in readiness for a call to work outside his ordinary working hours, shall be paid at the rate of ordinary time for all such time during which he is so required to hold himself in readiness.

21.—Meal Allowance.

(a) A worker who is required to work overtime for not less than one and a half (1½) hours immediately following his ordinary working hours, without having been notified not later than his ordinary ceasing time on the previous working day or shift that he would be so required, shall be supplied with a meal by the employer before commencing the overtime work, but if a meal is not supplied he shall be paid six shillings (6s.) in lieu thereof; provided that no payment shall be made to a worker who goes home for his meal. Where the work is continued, the worker shall receive a further meal or payment as the case may be, after each four (4) hours' overtime worked.

If a worker, pursuant to such notice, has provided a meal or meals and is not required to work overtime, he shall be paid six shillings (6s.) for each meal so provided.

(b) This clause shall apply to a worker who works on Saturday and Sunday and the public holidays prescribed by Clause 17 of this Award in respect of the time which is not less than one and a half (1½) hours in excess of the period of work of which he has been notified.

22.—Annual Leave.

(a) After completion of each twelve (12) months' continuous service (less the period of annual leave) with the employer, a worker shall be entitled to annual leave during his ordinary working hours, to the following extent:—

- (i) a shift worker for the full year—120 hours.
- (ii) a day worker for the full year—80 hours.
- (iii) a worker who for part of the year is a day worker and who for part of the year is a shift worker, a pro rata number of hours determined to the nearest two (2) hours, in accordance with the scale in paragraphs (i) and (ii).

(b) Annual leave shall be exclusive of the public holidays prescribed by Clause 17 hereof. A worker shall forfeit his right to payment for any public holiday within or immediately following his period of annual leave if he fails, without reasonable cause, to report for duty at the proper time after his period of annual leave.

(c) The annual leave to which a worker is entitled shall, except as prescribed herein or as agreed between the employer and the worker, be taken in one continuous period.

(d) A worker shall be allowed and shall take his annual leave—

- (i) at a time agreed with the employer;
- (ii) within six (6) months of his entitlement;
- (iii) after not less than two (2) weeks' notice.

(e) The employer, if he closes his mill during the Christmas/New Year and/or Easter period, shall notify workers as early as possible of the commencing date and duration of the shut down and, in any case, not later than six (6) weeks before such commencing date. He shall also notify all workers required to work during such shut down, as early as possible and, in any case, not later than three weeks before such commencing date.

(f) The employer may require all workers or any of them to take during a shut down period mentioned in sub-clause (g), the annual leave to which they are then entitled or such portion of it as may be within that period and the remainder in accordance with sub-clause (f). A worker not entitled to annual leave for portion of any shut down period may be stood down without pay for such portion, subject to there being no suitable employment available.

(g) The employer may require or allow a worker to take all or portion of his annual leave before the worker is entitled to such leave, but in no circumstances shall the operation of this sub-clause entitle the worker to annual leave in excess of that prescribed elsewhere in this clause.

(h) Unless he requests otherwise, each worker before going on annual leave shall be paid his earnings to date and in addition shall be paid at his ordinary weekly wage rate for the period during which he has then been allowed annual leave.

(i) Payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu of annual leave except that the employer shall make such a payment (calculated pro rata to the nearest two (2) hours' pay) to any worker on termination of his service.

(1) (i) For the purpose of this clause service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding—

- (a) any interruption or determination of the employment by the employer if such interruption or determination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations hereunder in respect of leave of absence;
- (b) any absence from work on account of personal sickness or accident or on account of leave lawfully granted by the employer; or
- (c) any absence with reasonable cause.

(ii) In cases of personal sickness or accident or absence with reasonable cause as referred to in paragraph (i) hereof, the worker to become entitled to the benefit of this sub-clause shall inform the employer, if practicable, within twenty-four (24) hours of the commencement of such absence, of his inability to attend for duty and as far as practicable the nature of the illness, injury or cause and the estimated duration of his absence. A notification given by a worker pursuant to Clause 23 of this Award shall be accepted as a notification under this sub-clause.

(m) In consideration of the provisions as to the annual leave in the foregoing sub-clauses of this clause and in settlement of claims for annual leave in respect of work which workers are or may be required to do on Sunday, the parties hereby mutually undertake and agree as follows:—

- (i) That workers will co-operate in every way to secure the maximum operation of the employer's mill.
- (ii) that workers shall when required to do so work during week-ends and on any of the public holidays specified in clause 17 of this Award (except in the case of workers not working a seven (7)-day shift roster, Christmas Day, Good Friday, Labour Day and Anzac Day); provided that the employer shall not require more than a reasonable amount of overtime worked from any worker during week-ends.
- (iii) That they will co-operate to ensure that week-end and overtime work will be spread over the greatest number of workers with the object of reducing the amount of such work required of individual workers.

23.—Sick Leave.

(a) A worker shall accumulate entitlement to paid sick leave throughout a period of continuous employment with the employer and in accordance with the following table:—

	Hours
For each of his first five (5) years' employment	40
For each of his next five (5) years' employment	60
For each subsequent year of his employment	80

A worker who commences his employment on a date other than the 1st day of July shall be entitled in respect of his first year of employment to forty (40) hours' sick leave. On the 1st day of July next following the date of commencement of service he shall be entitled to additional sick leave on a pro rata basis (calculated to the nearest two (2) hours, periods of less than two (2) hours being disregarded) in respect of the period from the end of his first year of employment to the next following 30th day of June.

(b) Out of such entitlement a worker who is absent from work on account of personal illness or injury shall be paid at the rate of ordinary time for such absence, subject to the following conditions:—

- (i) He shall not be eligible for such payment for any period in respect of which he is entitled to Worker's Compensation.
- (ii) He shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer that he was unable, on account of such illness or injury, to attend for duty on the day or days for which such payment is claimed.
- (iii) As far as practicable—
  - (a) prior to the commencement of his absence or, if not, within twenty-four (24) hours of such commencement, he shall advise the employer of his inability to attend for duty and state the nature of his illness or injury and the estimated duration of his absence;
  - (b) prior to his recommencement after such absence, he shall notify the employer at least sixteen (16) hours prior to his normal starting time of his intention to report for duty.
- (iv) Such payments shall be made in respect of his ordinary working hours.

(c) In the event of a worker dying, the employer shall pay to such deceased worker's estate the monetary value of all sick leave standing to his credit.

24.—Long Service Leave.

(a) Right to Leave.

A worker shall as herein provided be entitled to leave with pay in respect of long service.

(b) Long Service.

(1) The long service which shall entitle a worker to such leave shall, subject as herein provided, be continuous service with one and the same employer.

(2) Such service shall include service prior to 1st April, 1958, if it continued until such time but only to the extent of the last twenty (20) completed years of continuous service.

(3) (i) Where a business has, whether before or after the 1st April, 1958, been transmitted from an employer (herein called "the transmitter") to another employer (herein called "the transmittee") and a worker who at the time of such transmission was an employee of the transmitter in that business becomes an employee of the transmittee—the period of the continuous service which the worker has had with the transmitter (including any such service with any prior transmitter) shall be deemed to be service of the worker with the transmittee.

(ii) In this sub-clause "transmission" includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession whether voluntary or by agreement or by operation of law and "transmitted" has a corresponding meaning.

(4) Such service shall include—

- (a) any period of absence from duty on any annual leave or long service leave;
- (b) any period of absence from duty necessitated by sickness or injury to the worker but only to the extent of fifteen (15) working days in any year of his employment;
- (c) any period following any termination of the employment by the employer if such termination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations hereunder in respect of long service leave or obligations under this Award in respect of annual leave;
- (d) any period during which the service of the worker was or is interrupted by service—

- (i) as a member of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia other than as a member of the British Commonwealth Occupation Forces in Japan and other than as a member of the Permanent Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia except in the circumstances referred to in section 31 (2) of the Defence Act, 1903-1956, and except in Korea or Malaya after June 26, 1950;
- (ii) as a member of the Civil Construction Corps established under the National Security Act, 1939-1946;
- (iii) in any of the Armed Forces under the National Service Act, 1951 (as amended).

Provided that the worker as soon as reasonably practicable on the completion of any such service resumed or resumes employment with the employer by whom he was employed immediately before the commencement of such service.

(5) Service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding—

- (a) the transmission of a business as referred to in paragraph (3) hereof;
- (b) any interruption of a class referred to in paragraph (4) hereof irrespective of the duration thereof;
- (c) any absence from duty authorised by the employer;
- (d) any standing-down of a worker in accordance with the provisions of an Award, Industrial Agreement, Order or Determination under either Commonwealth or State law;

(e) any absence from duty arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute if the worker returns to work in accordance with the terms of settlement of the dispute;

(f) any termination of the employment by the employer on any ground other than slackness of trade if the worker be re-employed by the same employer within a period not exceeding two (2) months from the date of such termination;

(g) any termination of the employment by the employer on the ground of slackness of trade if the worker is re-employed by the same employer within a period not exceeding six (6) months from the date of such termination;

(h) any reasonable absence of the worker on legitimate union business in respect of which he has requested and been refused leave;

(i) any absence from duty after the coming into operation of this clause by reason of any cause not specified in this clause unless the employer during the absence or within fourteen (14) days of the termination of the absence notifies the worker in writing that such absence will be regarded as having broken the continuity of service, which notice may be given by delivery to the worker personally or by posting it by registered mail to his last recorded address, in which case it shall be deemed to have reached him in due course of post.

Provided that the period of any absence from duty or the period of any interruption referred to in placita (c) to (i) inclusive of this paragraph shall not (except as set out in paragraph (4) hereof) count as service.

(c) Period of Leave.

(1) The leave to which a worker shall be entitled or be deemed to be entitled shall be as provided in this sub-clause.

(2) Where a worker has completed at least twenty (20) years' service the amount of leave shall be—

- (a) in respect of twenty (20) years' service so completed—13 weeks' leave;
- (b) in respect of each ten (10) years' service completed after such twenty (20) years—six and a half (6½) weeks' leave.

(3) Where a worker has completed at least fifteen (15) years' service since its commencement and his employment is terminated—

- (a) by his death;
- (b) in any circumstances otherwise than by the employer for serious misconduct;

the amount of leave shall be—

(i) if such termination takes place before the worker has become entitled to leave under placitum (a) of paragraph (2) hereof such proportion of thirteen (13) weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service bears to twenty (20) years;

(ii) if such termination takes place after the worker has become entitled to leave under placitum (a) of paragraph (2) hereof the leave due under such placitum and in addition such proportion of thirteen (13) weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service after the accrual of such entitlement bears to twenty (20) years.

(4) Where a worker has completed at least ten (10) years' service but less than fifteen (15) years' service since its commencement and his employment is terminated—

- (i) by his death; or
- (ii) by the employer for any reason other than serious misconduct; or

- (iii) by the worker on account of sickness of or injury to the worker or domestic or other pressing necessity were such sickness or injury or necessity is of such a nature as to justify or in the event of a dispute is, in the opinion of the Special Board of Reference, of such a nature as to justify such termination; the amount of the leave shall be such proportion of thirteen (13) weeks' leave as the number of completed years of such service bears to twenty (20) years.

(5) In the cases to which paragraphs (3) and (4) hereof apply, the worker shall be deemed to have been entitled to and to have commenced leave immediately prior to such termination.

(d) Payment for Period of Leave.

(1) A worker shall subject to paragraph (3) hereof, be entitled to be paid for each week of leave to which he has become entitled or is deemed to have become entitled, the ordinary time rate of pay applicable to him at the date he commenced such leave.

(2) Such ordinary time rate of pay shall be the rate applicable to him for the standard weekly hours which are prescribed by this Award, but in the case of casuals and part-time workers shall be the ordinary time rate for the number of hours usually worked up to but not exceeding the prescribed standard.

(3) Where by agreement between the employer and the worker the commencement of the leave to which the worker is entitled or any portion thereof is postponed to meet the convenience of the worker, the rate of payment for such leave shall be at the ordinary time rate of pay applicable to him at the date of accrual or, if so agreed, at the ordinary time rate of pay applicable at the date he commences such leave.

(4) The ordinary time rate of pay—

- (a) shall include any deductions from wages for board and/or lodging or the like which is not provided and taken during the period of leave;
- (b) shall not include shift premiums, overtime, penalty rates, commissions, bonuses, allowances or the like.

(5) In the case of workers employed on piece or bonus work or any other system of payment by results, payment shall be at ordinary time rates.

(e) Taking Leave.

(1) In a case to which paragraph (2) of sub-clause (c) applies—

- (a) Leave shall be granted and taken as soon as reasonably practicable after the right thereto accrues due or at such time or times as may be agreed between the employer and the worker or in the absence of such agreement at such time or times as may be determined by the Special Board of Reference, having regard to the needs of the employer's establishment and the worker's circumstances;
- (b) except where the time for taking leave is agreed to by the employer and the worker or determined by the Special Board of Reference, the employer shall give to a worker at least one month's notice of the date from which his leave is to be taken;
- (c) leave may be granted and taken in one continuous period or if the employer and the worker so agree in not more than three separate periods in respect of the first thirteen (13) weeks' entitlement and in not more than two separate periods in respect of any subsequent period of entitlement;
- (d) any leave shall be inclusive of any public holidays specified in this Award occurring during the period when the leave is taken but shall not be inclusive of any annual leave;

(e) Payment shall be made in one of the following ways—

- (i) In full before the worker goes on leave;
- (ii) at the same time as his wages would have been paid to him if the worker had remained at work, in which case payment shall, if the worker in writing so requires, be made by cheque posted to an address specified by the worker; or
- (iii) in any other way agreed between the employer and the worker;
- (f) no worker shall, during any period when he is on leave, engage in any employment for hire or reward in substitution for the employment from which he is on leave, and if a worker breaches this provision he shall thereupon forfeit his right to leave hereunder in respect of the unexpired period of leave upon which he has entered, and the employer shall be entitled to withhold any further payment in respect of the period and to reclaim any payments already made on account of such period of leave.

(2) In a case to which paragraph (3) or paragraph (4) of sub-clause (c) applies and in any case in which the employment of the worker who has become entitled to leave hereunder is terminated before such leave is taken or fully taken the employer shall, upon termination of his employment otherwise than by death, pay to the worker, and upon termination of his employment by death, pay to the personal representative of the worker upon request by the personal representative, a sum equivalent to the amount which would have been payable in respect of the period of leave to which he is entitled or deemed to have been entitled and which would have been taken but for such termination. Such payment shall be deemed to have satisfied the obligation of the employer in respect of leave hereunder.

(f) Granting Leave in Advance and Benefits to be Brought into Account.

(1) Any employer may by agreement with a worker allow leave to such a worker before the right thereto has accrued due, but where leave is taken in such a case the worker shall not become entitled to any further leave hereunder in respect of any period until after the expiration of the period in respect of which such leave had been taken before it accrued due.

(2) Where leave has been granted to a worker pursuant to the preceding paragraph before the right thereto has accrued due, and the employment subsequently is terminated, the employer may deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment a proportionate amount on the basis of thirteen (13) weeks for twenty (20) years' service in respect of any period for which the worker has been granted long service leave to which he was not at the date of termination of his employment or prior thereto entitled.

(3) Any leave in the nature of long service leave or payment in lieu thereof under a State law or a long service leave scheme not under the provisions hereof granted to a worker by his employer in respect of any period of service with the employer shall be taken into account whether the same is granted before or after the coming into operation of this Award and shall be deemed to have been leave taken and granted hereunder in the case of leave with pay to the extent of the period of such leave and in the case of payment in lieu thereof to the extent of a period of leave with pay equivalent to the amount of the payment and to be satisfaction to the extent thereof of the entitlement of the worker hereunder.

(g) Records to be Kept.

(1) Each employer shall during the employment and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter, or in the case of termination by death of the worker a period of three (3) years thereafter, keep a record from which can be readily ascertained the name of each worker and his occupation, the date of the commencement of his employment and his entitlement to long service leave and any leave which may have been granted to him or in respect of which payment may have been made hereunder.

(2) Such record shall be open for inspection in the manner and circumstances prescribed by this Award with respect to the time and wages record.

(h) Special Board of Reference.

(1) There shall be constituted a Special Board of Reference for the purpose hereof to which all disputes and matters arising hereunder shall be referred and the Board shall determine all such disputes and matters.

(3) The Board of Reference shall consist of one (1) representative or substitute therefor nominated from time to time by the Western Australian Employers' Federation (Incorporated) and one (1) representative or substitute nominated from time to time by the West Australian Trade Unions Industrial Council (A.L.P.), together with a chairman to be mutually agreed upon by the organisations named in this paragraph.

(i) State Law.

(1) The provisions of any State law to the extent to which they have before the coming into operation hereof conferred an accrued right on a worker to be granted a period of long service leave in respect of a completed period of twenty (20) or more years' service or employment or an accrued right on a worker or his personal representative to payment in respect of long service leave shall not be affected hereby and shall not be deemed to be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(2) The entitlement of any such worker to leave in respect of a period of service with the employer completed after the period in respect of which the long service leave referred to in paragraph (1) hereof accrued due shall be in accordance herewith.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (1) and (2) hereof, the entitlement to leave hereunder shall be in substitution for and satisfaction of any long service leave to which the worker may be entitled in respect of employment of the worker by the employer.

(4) An employer who under any State law with regard to long service leave is exempted from the provisions of that law as at the first day of April, 1958, shall in respect of the workers covered by such exemption be exempt from the provisions hereof.

(j) Exemptions.

The Special Board of Reference may subject to such conditions as it thinks fit exempt any employer from the provisions hereof in respect of its workers where there is an existing or prospective long service leave scheme which, in its opinion is, viewed as a whole, more favourable for the whole of the employees of that employer than the provisions hereof.

(k) Liberty to Apply.

Liberty is granted to any party to this Award to apply to the Court at any time for an appropriate variation of this clause if any of the terms and conditions operating under the code of Long Service Leave being negotiated between the Australian Council of Trade Unions and the Federal Employers' Organisations is varied in any way.

26.—Payment of Wages.

(a) Wages shall be paid in cash at weekly intervals.

(b) The employer may hold not more than three (3) days' wages in hand, together with overtime earnings not calculated at the day upon which wages are paid.

(c) Upon determination of his employment, wages due to a worker shall be paid to him on the day of such determination or, if not practicable, on the next working day, but if the worker so desires shall be posted to him at his last known address.

(d) A worker kept waiting for his wages on pay day for more than a quarter of an hour after the usual time for ceasing work shall be paid at overtime rates for all time after that quarter-hour, with a minimum of a quarter of an hour.

(e) On or prior to pay day, the employer shall state to each worker in writing the amount of wages to which he is entitled, the amount of deductions made therefrom, and the net amount being paid to him.

(f) Payment of wages to shift workers shall be so arranged that they do not have to return to the employer's premises for that purpose.

Deductions from wages may be made for workers' contributions to sickness and accident funds, medical funds, group assurance or for any other purpose for the benefit of workers for which the consent in writing of the worker concerned has been obtained.

28.—Time and Wages Record.

(a) The employer shall keep a record from which can be readily ascertained the name and classification of each worker, the hours worked by him each day and the wages and allowances paid to him in respect of each pay period.

(b) The time occupied by a worker in filling in any time or other records required by the employer shall be treated as time on duty, but this shall not apply to checking in or out when entering or leaving the employer's premises.

(c) The time and wages record shall be open for inspection by a duly accredited official of the Union during the usual office hours at the employer's office or other convenient place, provided that—

- (i) an inspection shall not be demanded unless such official suspects that a breach of this Award has been committed;
- (ii) only one demand by the Union for such inspection shall be made in any one pay period.

(d) The official making such inspection shall be entitled to take a copy of the entries in the time and wages record relating to the suspected breach of this Award.

(e) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this Award, the employer may select and utilise for time keeping purposes any fractional or decimal proportion of an hour (not exceeding a quarter of an hour) and may apply such proportion in the calculation of the working time of workers who report for duty after their appointed starting times or cease duty before their appointed finishing times.

If the employer adopts a proportion for the aforesaid purpose he shall apply the same proportion for the calculation of overtime.

29.—Shop Stewards.

A worker properly appointed shop steward in the mill shall, upon written notification thereof from the Union to his employer, be recognised as the accredited representative of the Union and he shall be allowed the necessary time during working hours to interview the employer or his representative on matters affecting workers.

30.—Notice Boards.

The employer shall permit notice boards of reasonable dimensions to be erected in prominent positions in his establishment, upon which accredited Union representatives shall be permitted to post formal Union notices, signed or countersigned by such representatives.

31.—Right of Entry of Union Officials.

The employer shall permit an official of the Printing Industry Employees' Union of Australia, Western Australian Branch, to interview the shop steward or individual members or to collect subscriptions during the recognised meal hours or at changes of shifts, but such official shall not interview members in such a manner as to delay production.

32.—Board of Reference.

(b) The Board shall consist of a chairman, to be appointed by the Court and two (2) other representatives, one to be nominated by each of the parties.

No worker shall have any claim upon an employer for additional pay in the event of the age of the worker being wrongly stated either on the certificate or, if no such certificate is furnished, verbally to the employer. If any junior worker shall wilfully mis-state his age either verbally to the employer or in the certificate, he alone shall be guilty of a breach of this Award and, in the event of a worker having received a higher rate than that to which he was entitled, he shall make restitution to the employer.
