Ordinary meetings are those held regularly in pursuance of these by-laws, for the transaction of the general business of the Board, including adjourned meetings, at which incompleting business shall be completed together with other business considered necessary. Special meetings are those called under section 131 of the Act, and shall include those called by the chairman in response to a requisition signed by three members, or on his own behalf, and the notices of such special meeting shall have such special business specified thereon, and nothing shall be discussed at any special meeting other than the special business specified on the notice of the meeting: Provided, however, that any matter of emergency may be discussed on the ruling of the chairman and with the consent of those present.

The ratepayers' meeting shall consist of one called under section 144 of the Act, and the Standing Orders, so far as the Act allows shall apply to the proceedings, but the provisions of the Act shall be first observed.

The chairman, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the ratepayers and of the Board, and in his absence, or if, after being present, he shall retire, the person to preside at a meeting of ratepayers shall be a ratepayer chosen by the ratepayers present, and the person to preside at a meeting of the Board shall be the vice-chairman or in his absence, a member chosen by the majority of those present.

10. Ordinary meetings shall be held at the chambers of the Board or at some other convenient place at 10.30 a.m. on the second Monday of each month or on such day and at such hour as may be appointed from time to time by the resolution of the Board passed at the previous ordinary meeting of the Board.

11. A special meeting may, on the requisition of three members of the Board, be called at any time in the manner prescribed by the Act, but the chairman may call a special meeting of the Board as often as he deems proper.

12. No business shall be transacted at any ordinary or special meeting, unless a quorum, as specified by the Act, shall be present.

13. At all meetings of the Board, when there is not a quorum present or when the Board is counted out (which counting out shall take place whenever there is less than a quorum present, or within 30 minutes after the time for which the meeting is called), such circumstances, together with the names of the members then present, shall be recorded in the minute book.

14. At any meeting of the Board it shall rest with the majority of the members of the Board present to exclude the public from such meeting, when in their opinion it is expedient to do so.

15. The first business at ordinary meetings of the Board shall be the consideration of the minutes of the preceding meeting, with a view to their confirmation. Reading of the minutes may be dispensed with, if members have been supplied with a copy thereof at least three days prior to the meeting at which such are to be confirmed. No discussion shall take place upon the minutes of the preceding meeting, except as to their accuracy, or for the rectification of a clerical error.

16. The minute book prescribed by the Act, shall be kept, in which any item of business transacted by the Board at the meetings shall be entered by the secretary: Provided that pasting or permanently affixing the minutes of the meeting of the Board to the leaves of a book shall be equivalent to entry therein. Minutes of both special and ordinary meetings shall be confirmed at the next ordinary meeting of the Board.

19. In the event of any member having urgent business to place before the meeting, he may move the suspension of the Standing Orders, and if agreed to by the Board, such business shall take precedence of all other business.

20. Every petition or memorial shall be respectful and temperate in its language, and shall be presented to the Board by a member only; and any member presenting a petition or memorial shall acquaint himself with the contents thereof, ascertain that it does not contain language disrespectful to the Board; the nature or prayer of any petition or memorial shall be stated to the Board by the member presenting same.

21. Tenders for work shall be opened and dealt with when the subject matter of the tenders comes on to be considered at the meeting of the Board, or by a committee appointed for that purpose. The Board may require a deposit of 5 per cent. of the amount of each tender to accompany each tender, or the Board may require two satisfactory bonds lodged with the Board.

22. A member, when speaking, shall not digress from the subject of debate.

23. All correspondence to the Board shall be addressed to the secretary and submitted to the Board: no letter addressed to the Board shall be presented or read by a member.

24. (a) If in a report of a committee distinct recommendations are made, the decision of the Board may be taken separately on each recommendation.

(b) Any report of a committee, or any portion of such report, may be amended by the Board, in any manner it may think fit or may be referred back to the committee for further consideration.

(c) The recommendation of any committee, when adopted by the Board, shall be a resolution of the Board.

25. When the chairman rises in his place during the progress of a debate any member then speaking or offering to speak shall immediately resume his seat, and every member shall preserve strict silence so that the chairman may be heard without interruption, but the member who was speaking may resume when the chairman takes his seat.

26. In the absence of any member who has placed a notice of motion on the business paper for any meeting, any other member may at such meeting move the same, or such motion may be deferred until the next ordinary meeting of the Board.

27. Except as elsewhere provided, no motion, after being placed on the business paper, shall be withdrawn without consent of the Board.

28. No motion shall be debated unless or until it has been seconded.

29. When a motion has been proposed and seconded it shall become subject to the control of the Board, and shall not be withdrawn without the consent of the Board.

30. When a motion has been proposed and seconded, any member shall be at liberty to move an amendment thereon, but no such amendment shall be debated unless or until it has been seconded. After an amendment has been moved and seconded, any member desirous of moving a further amendment may give notice of his intention so to do, and may briefly state his proposed amendment and the effect thereof.

31. No motion or amendment shall be debated unless or until it has been reduced to writing, if the chairman so directs.

32. In submitting a motion or amendment the chairman shall put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative.

33. If the amendment has been carried, the question as amended shall itself become the question before the Board, whereupon any further amendments upon such questions may be moved.

34. If an amendment, whether upon an original question or amended as aforesaid, has been negatived, then a further amendment may be moved to the question to which such firstmentioned amendment was moved, and so on until there are no further amendments, and the question is then decided by the final vote in the affirmative or in the negative: Provided that no more than one question and one proposed amendment thereof shall be before the Board at any one time.

35. No discussion shall be permitted upon any motion for the adjournment of the Board. If, upon the question being put on any such motion the same is negatived, the subject then under consideration or the next on the business paper shall be discussed, and it shall not be competent for any member to again move for adjournment until half an hour has elapsed from the time of moving the one that has been negatived.

No member shall without the consent of the Board speak more than once upon any one question, or for a period of more than ten minutes at any one time, unless when misrepresented or misunderstood, in which case he may be permitted to explain without adding any further observations than may be necessary for the purpose of explanation.

42. Upon a vote being taken all members present within the Board room unless disqualified from voting, shall, upon the question being put, record their respective votes in the affirmative or negative, as each shall deem desirable, but if a member neglects or refuses to vote, his vote shall be counted for the negative.

43. (a) All questions shall, if not otherwise decided by law, be determined thus: Upon a question being put, those in favour shall say "Aye" and those against "No," the chairman shall declare whether the "Ayes" or "Noes" have determined the question; or, if the chairman prefers, he may call for a show of hands for and against the question. The decision of the chairman shall be final and conclusive unless such decision be immediately challenged and two members rise and demand a division.

(b) Where there is only one dissentient, he may request that his name be recorded in the minutes as opposed to the motion, and it shall be so recorded.

44. Upon a division being called for, the question shall be put in the affirmative first and then in the negative, and the chairman and all members present shall vote by show of hands, and the names and the votes of the chairman and members present shall be recorded in the minutes by the secretary. Any member of the Board present when a division is called for who does not in the manner above indicated vote on such motion, not being disqualified by law from voting shall have his vote counted in the negative.

45. The chairman shall be at liberty to put any question as often as may be necessary, to enable him to form his opinion as to the result of voting, and declare the same.

Any member who at any meeting of the Board or any committee commits a breach of any by-law, or who moves or attempts to move a motion or amendment embodying any matter beyond the legal jurisdiction of the Board or committee or who in any other way raises or attempts to raise any question, or addresses, or attempts to address the Board or committee upon any subject which the Board or committee has no legal right to discuss, or who uses any language which according to the common usage of gentlemen would be held disorderly, or makes use of any expression inconsistent with good order and decorum, or who says or does anything calculated to bring the Board or committee into contempt, shall be guilty of an act of disorder.

47. The chairman, when called upon to decide a point of order or practice shall state the rule or precedent applicable to the case, without further argument or comment, and his decision shall be final in that particular case. If the ruling of the chairman be disagreed with, then the usual Parliamentary procedure may be adopted.

48. Any member having been called to order by the chairman more than once for any infringement of any of the provisions of these by-laws, or for any breach of decorum, shall upon the request of the chairman, withdraw from the Board room for the remainder of the meeting.

49. If disorder arises at any meeting the chairman may adjourn the meeting for a period of 15 minutes, and quit the chair. On resuming, the Board shall, on the question being put from the chair decide without debate whether the business be proceeded with or not.

Such petty cash account shall be kept on the imprest system, and the amount thereof shall be decided by the Board from time to time.

54. All moneys belonging to the Board shall, within 24 hours or such time as specified by the Board, after they come into the hands of any officer, servant, or clerk be paid to the secretary, or responsible officer directed by the Board to receive same.
