No worker shall be dismissed or in any way prejudiced in his employment by reason of his refusal to work overtime where he has satisfied the company he is not free to work.

- (ii) No organisation a party to this agreement or worker or workers covered by this agreement shall in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subsection.

Subject as hereinafter provided the employment of a worker may be terminated by a week's notice on either side and such notice may be given at any time during the week, to take effect one week after the day on which it is given. In the case of a casual worker, one (1) hour's notice of termination shall suffice.

(b) The company shall be under no obligation to pay a worker for any shift upon which such worker being required to present himself for duty, does not work, except in cases where absence from work is due to illness for which the company is liable under the provisions of clause 15 hereof or where such absence is on account of holidays to which the worker is entitled under the provisions of this agreement.

15.—Absence Through Sickness.

(a) A worker absent through sickness shall be paid full wages for the first week of absence, after which the legal liability of the company shall cease, but this shall not be deemed to exclude any right of the worker under the Workers' Compensation Act. Provided that if a worker who has been absent through sickness returns to work so insufficiently recovered as to necessitate, within fourteen (14) days of such return, his again absenting himself from work because of the effects of the original sickness, such subsequent absence shall be deemed to be a continuance of the original absence.

(b) A worker shall not be entitled to receive any wages from the company for any time lost through the result of an accident not arising out of or in the course of his employment or for any accident, wherever sustained, arising out of his own wilful default, or for sickness arising out of his own wilful default.

(c) No worker shall be entitled to the benefits of this clause unless he produces proof satisfactory to the company of sickness. After two (2) days' absence on account of sickness, a worker shall be required to produce a doctor's certificate as to the nature of the sickness and its probable duration, and the company may at its own expense arrange for a doctor to examine the worker and to make a report to the company.
