MILK ACT, 1946-1960.

Department of Agriculture,
South Perth, 24th January, 1962.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council has been pleased to approve of the regulations set forth in the schedule hereunder, made by the Minister for Agriculture pursuant to the provisions of section 62 of the Milk Act, 1946-1960.

T. C. DUNNE,
Director of Agriculture.

Schedule.
Regulations.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Milk Act, 1946-1960, Regulations No. 9, and shall be read as one with the Milk Act, 1946, Regulations No. 1, as published in the Government Gazette on the 21st February, 1947; and the Milk Act, 1946, Regulations No. 2, as published in the Government Gazette on the 18th July, 1947; and the Milk Act, 1946, Regulations No. 3, as published in the Government Gazette on the 12th December, 1947; and the Milk Act, 1946-1947, Regulations No. 4, as published in the Government Gazette on the 15th October, 1948; and the Milk Act, 1946-1948, Regulations No. 5, as published in the Government Gazette on the 18th March, 1949; and the Milk Act, 1946-1948, Regulations No. 6, as published in the Government Gazette on the 3rd June, 1949; and the Milk Act, 1946-1948, Regulations No. 7, as published in the Government Gazette on the 22nd July, 1949; and the Milk Act, 1946-1948, Regulations No. 8, as published in the Government Gazette on the 17th March, 1950; and as amended from time to time thereafter by notices published in the Government Gazette.

Part XXI.

SCHEME FOR MILK IMPROVEMENT.

386. When in pursuance of the provisions of section 62 of the Act the Governor has authorised the adoption by the Board of a scheme for milk improvement, the Board, in any case where milk sold by a dairyman has on two occasions within a period of three months been found upon analysis made in accordance with these regulations to be of a quality less than the minimum standard of quality prescribed by these regulations and is again so found on any subsequent occasion to be of such lesser quality, may by notice in writing to the dairyman prohibit him from supplying milk for consumption or treatment until he satisfies the Board that he is able to supply milk produced in his dairy that is of a quality not less than such minimum standard and the Board consents to his resuming the supplying of milk.

387. Whenever it prohibits a dairyman from supplying milk pursuant to regulation 386 of these regulations, the Board shall forthwith notify in writing the milk vendor whom that dairyman was supplying with milk, whether under a contract in writing or with the consent of the Board or under any other arrangement, that such dairyman is prohibited from supplying milk, and by such notice shall prohibit the milk vendor from purchasing or receiving milk from that dairyman until the Board by subsequent notice in writing permits the milk vendor so to do.

388. The Board may at any time by notice in writing authorise and permit a dairyman who is prohibited pursuant to these regulations from supplying milk to resume the supplying of milk to such extent as the Board approves, upon the Board being satisfied in such manner as it may require that the milk to be supplied by that dairyman is of a quality not less than the minimum standard referred to in regulation 386 of these regulations, and thereupon the Board shall notify each milk vendor who has been prohibited under these regulations from purchasing or receiving milk from that dairyman that he is no longer so prohibited.

389. (1) Any dairyman who after having been given the notice referred to in subregulation (2) of regulation 386 of these regulations supplies any milk to a milk vendor for consumption or treatment during such time as he is prohibited by the Board from so doing commits an offence against these regulations and is liable on conviction to the penalty prescribed under Part IX of these regulations.

(2) Any milk vendor who after having been given the notice referred to in regulation 387 of these regulations purchases or receives milk from the dairyman specified in that notice during such time as the milk vendor is prohibited by the Board from so doing commits an offence against these regulations and is liable on conviction to the penalty prescribed under Part IX of these regulations.
