Reprinted pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act, 1954, by authority of the Minister dated 26th August, 1963.

Marketing of Eggs Act, 1945-1960.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Marketing of Eggs Regulations.

Preliminary.

2. In the regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—
 “the Board” means the Western Australian Egg Marketing Board constituted under the Act;
 “the Act” means the Marketing of Eggs Act, 1945.

Part I.

Elective Members—Qualification.

Heading
 Part I.
 Added by
 G.G. 31/12/47,
 p. 2376.

3. No person shall be qualified for election as an elective member of the Board unless at the time when he is nominated as a candidate for election he is a commercial producer within the meaning of that term as contained in section 5 of the Act, and is not—

- (a) of unsound mind; or
- (b) an undischarged bankrupt within the meaning of the laws relating to bankruptcy; or
- (c) a person who has been convicted of an indictable offence for which a sentence of imprisonment for 12 months or longer may be imposed.

Elections.

4. For the purposes of elections of elective members of the Western Australian Egg Marketing Board:—

- (a) There shall be a Returning Officer who shall be such person as the Board may from time to time appoint.
- (b) The Board may cancel the appointment of any person as Returning Officer.
- (c) The Board shall by public notice fix a day for the election by the commercial producers of the first elective members of the Board.
- (d) The day so fixed shall not be less than two months nor more than three months after the date of the publication of the day fixed for the election.
- (e) The nomination day for the nomination of candidates for such election shall be not less than 14 days nor more than one month preceding the day fixed for the said election.
- (f) Only persons who are commercial producers within the meaning of the Act will be eligible to be registered as electors and unless and until so registered will not be entitled to vote at such election.
- (g) Within seven days after the said publication, the Returning Officer shall by public notice inform commercial producers—
 - (i) of the intention to hold the election;
 - (ii) of the date fixed for the election;
 - (iii) of the nomination day fixed for such election; and
 - (iv) of the address of the Returning Officer.

- (h) As soon as reasonably may be after the said publication, the Returning Officer shall prepare a roll of electors for use at the elections.
- (i) Any person who is eligible for enrolment upon the said roll of electors and wishes to be enrolled thereon, shall make application for such enrolment in writing in accordance with Form No. 1 in the Appendix to the regulations, and shall send or deliver the same to the address of the Returning Officer as notified in accordance with paragraph (g) hereof; and so that such application shall be in the hands of the Returning Officer by 12 o'clock noon 21 days before the nomination day so fixed.
- (j) Such application shall be accompanied by evidence satisfactory to the Returning Officer of the eligibility of the applicant for enrolment as an elector upon the said roll of electors.
- (k) When the application is sent by post and sufficient postage has not been prepaid thereon, the Returning Officer shall reject the same; and, when any application is received by the Returning Officer after 12 o'clock noon 21 days before nomination day, the Returning Officer shall reject the same.
- (l) When the Returning Officer has prepared the roll of electors as aforesaid, he shall sign each page thereof, and thereafter such roll shall be the electoral roll to be used at the said election.
- (m) Only persons whose names appear on the said electoral roll shall be entitled to vote at the said election.

5. When, after the first elective members of the Board have been elected, any extraordinary vacancy arises or any vacancy is about to rise by effluxion of time in relation to the membership of an elective member of the Board, the following provisions shall apply:—

Reg. 5
amended by
G.G. 8/2/57,
p. 233.

- (a) In the case of an extraordinary vacancy, the Returning Officer shall notify the Board thereof by writing under his hand as soon as possible after such extraordinary vacancy has arisen.
- (b) In the case of vacancies occurring by effluxion of time, the Returning Officer shall, at least three months before the term of office of an elective member will expire by effluxion of time, inform the Board by writing under his hand of the name of the elective member whose term of office is about to expire, and of the date upon which such term of office will expire.
- (c) As soon as reasonably may be after the receipt of a notification from the Returning Officer under paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) hereof, the Board shall fix the date for the holding of the election to fill the vacancy or vacancies of which it has been notified, and shall forthwith notify the Returning Officer of the date so fixed.
- (d) The date so fixed shall be not less than two months and not more than three months after the date of the publication by the Returning Officer of the notice to be published by him in accordance with paragraph (e) hereof.
- (e) Upon receipt by him of the notice from the Board fixing the day for the holding of the election, the Returning Officer shall by public notice inform the commercial producers—
 - (i) of the intention to hold the election;
 - (ii) of the date fixed for the election;
 - (iii) of the nomination day; and
 - (iv) of the address of the Returning Officer.

- (f) The nomination day shall be not less than 14 days nor more than one month prior to the day fixed for the election.

Electoral Roll.

amended by
G.G. 8/2/57,
p. 233.

6. (1) For the purposes of elections to be held for the election of elective members of the Board, after the first elective members have been elected, the Returning Officer shall, on the 31st day of December next following the date of the election of the said first elective members, or as soon as reasonably may be thereafter, and on the 31st day of December in each succeeding year, or as soon as reasonably may be thereafter, prepare an electoral roll for use at all elections, whether to fill extraordinary vacancies or ordinary vacancies, during the currency thereof.

(2) Such electoral roll, when prepared, shall be signed on each page thereof by the Returning Officer, shall be the electoral roll for all the elections aforesaid, and shall continue current and in force until the next electoral roll has been prepared in accordance with these regulations. Provided that—

- (a) during the currency of an electoral roll that roll may, in accordance with these regulations, be amended by the Returning Officer by the inclusion of the names of persons who since the preparation of the roll have become eligible for enrolment and registered as electors and by the removal of the names of persons enrolled who since the preparation of the roll have ceased to be eligible for enrolment as electors or to vote at an election;
- (b) any person whose name is not enrolled as an elector on the electoral roll then in existence and who would be entitled to apply for enrolment on such electoral roll under these regulations, if a new electoral roll were then being prepared under these regulations and who desires to vote as an elector in any election about to be held may, at any time before 12 o'clock noon 21 days before the last day for the receipt of nominations of candidates for such election, make application in accordance with regulation 4 of these regulations for enrolment as an elector upon the said electoral roll, and, subject to the requirements of these regulations, the Returning Officer shall enrol the name of the applicant upon such electoral roll, and upon the applicant being so enrolled he shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a duly registered elector.

7. (1) Where any commercial producer eligible for enrolment on the electoral roll is a limited liability company or other corporate body, the board of directors or other management authority thereof may authorise any director, trustee, or other member of such board or management authority or its manager, secretary, or other officer (being a person not already enrolled or entitled to be enrolled on the electoral roll) to represent the company or other body aforesaid as an elector, and, upon receipt of an application for enrolment from such representative, together with a certificate in writing of such authority aforesaid under the hand of the managing director of the company or the president or chairman of the management authority of such other corporate body, as the case may be, the Returning Officer may, subject to all other requirements of these regulations being satisfied, enrol such representative person on the electoral roll in accordance with his application.

(2) In the case of a partnership, either one of the partners, but not more than one, at any one time may apply for enrolment and be enrolled on the electoral roll upon which the partnership is entitled to be enrolled.

(3) No person shall be entitled to be enrolled on the electoral roll more than once, whether as an elector in his own right or as the representative of a limited liability company or other corporate body, or as a partner in a partnership, or otherwise.

(4) Every authority given under paragraph (1) hereof shall remain effective for all subsequent elections and electoral rolls until written notice of revocation is sent or delivered to the Returning Officer.

(5) Any company or other corporate body may cancel or revoke any authority given by it under this regulation by notice in writing under the hand of the said Board of Directors or other management authority, as the case may be, sent or delivered to the Returning Officer.

Provided that any such cancellation or revocation shall not invalidate any vote given by the representative person enrolled and voting by virtue of such authority at an election held previously to such cancellation or revocation.

(6) Upon receipt of notice of cancellation or revocation of authority as aforesaid, the Returning Officer shall forthwith remove from the electoral roll the name of the representative person whose authority has been so cancelled or revoked.

Nominations.

8. (1) Every nomination of a candidate for election as a member of the Board shall be made in writing, in the Form No. 2 in the Appendix to these regulations, and shall be signed by the candidate himself and also by a proposer and seconder, both of whom shall be persons enrolled on the electoral roll to be used at the election.

Reg. 8
amended by
G.G. 8/2/57,
p. 233.

(2) Every nomination of a candidate shall be sent or delivered to the Returning Officer so as to be in his hands not later than 12 o'clock noon of the nomination day for the election.

(3) Every nomination form received by the Returning Officer after the time aforesaid shall be rejected by him.

(4) Where any nomination is sent by post, but the postage thereon is wholly unpaid or insufficiently prepaid thereon, the Returning Officer shall refuse to accept such nomination, and such nomination shall be deemed not to have been sent or delivered to the Returning Officer within the meaning of these regulations.

(5) Forthwith, after 12 o'clock noon of the nomination day, the Returning Officer shall examine all the nominations received by him and satisfy himself that the candidates whose names appear on the nomination forms are eligible for election, and that the persons who have signed the said forms as proposer and seconder are entitled under these regulations so to sign the same.

(6) The Returning Officer shall reject any nomination form which, in his opinion, is not in order as required by these regulations, and any such rejection shall be final and conclusive as against the candidate.

(7) An election shall be held for the first elective members, but in subsequent elections where the number of candidates nominated does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected, the Returning Officer shall forthwith certify that fact, together with the names, addresses and occupations of the candidates nominated in accordance with Form No. 3 in the Appendix to these regulations to the Board, and such certificate, when received by the Board, shall be the final and conclusive evidence of the election of the said candidates as members of the Board.

(8) As soon as reasonably may be after the receipt by it from the Returning Officer of the certificate mentioned in paragraph (7) hereof, the Board shall cause the result of the election to be published in the Government Gazette and in a newspaper published in Perth.

(9) When the number of candidates nominated exceeds the number to be elected, the Returning Officer shall hold an election in accordance with these regulations, as hereinafter provided.

Polling.

9. (1) When after the receipt of nominations of candidates an election is necessary to elect an elective member or elective members of the Board, the Returning Officer shall, as soon as practicable after the closing time for the receipt of such nominations, but within seven days thereafter, cause ballot papers to be printed in accordance with Form No. 4 in the Appendix to these regulations containing the names of all the candidates in alphabetical order.

(2) The ballot paper shall set forth in a space provided for the purpose notice of the day fixed for the closing of the poll.

10. (1) When the ballot papers have been printed as aforesaid, the Returning Officer shall send by prepaid letter post to each person, whose name appears as an elector on the electoral roll, to his postal address as shown on his application for enrolment, one ballot paper, with the initials of the Returning Officer, or of some other person authorised in that behalf by the Returning Officer, indorsed on the back thereof, together with an envelope marked "Ballot Paper Envelope", and another envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and a form of statement in the Form No. 5 in the Appendix to these regulations, to be completed and signed by the elector.

(2) The Returning Officer may, before sending the statement aforesaid to an elector, fill in the particulars to be furnished therein so that the same will be ready for signature and completion by the elector when marking his ballot paper.

11. (1) For the purpose of casting his vote at the election, the elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper received by him as aforesaid in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall then place the same in the envelope marked "Ballot Paper Envelope", and seal the envelope. He shall then sign and complete the statement in accordance with the directions stated therein and then place the sealed envelope, with the ballot paper enclosed therein and the statement signed and completed in the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer, and seal such lastmentioned envelope.

(2) The elector may then send by prepaid letter post or may deliver the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer, with its said enclosures, to the Returning Officer at his address shown on the envelope, but so that such envelope shall be in the hands of the Returning Officer not later than 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the day fixed for the closing of the poll.

(3) Where any envelope containing the ballot paper is sent by post to the Returning Officer, but the postage thereon is wholly unpaid or insufficiently paid thereon, the Returning Officer shall refuse to accept the same, and such envelope, with its enclosures, shall be deemed not to have been sent or delivered to the Returning Officer within the meaning of these regulations.

12. If, prior to the closing of the poll, an elector satisfies the Returning Officer that he has not received a ballot paper and is entitled to vote at the election, or that the ballot paper or envelopes received by him have been lost or destroyed, and that he has not already voted at the poll, the Returning Officer may post or give personally to such elector a ballot paper and envelopes or a further ballot paper and envelopes, as the case may be.

Reg. 11,
amended by
G.G. 8/2/57,
p. 233.

Preferential Voting.

13. (1) Voting shall be by means of a preferential ballot.

(2) When only one candidate is to be elected and there are not more than two candidates, the elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper by placing the numeral 1 opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes.

(3) When only one candidate is to be elected and there are more than two candidates, the elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper by placing the numeral 1 opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference, and he shall give contingent votes for all the remaining candidates by placing the numerals 2, 3 and so on (as the case requires) opposite their names, so as to indicate by such numerical sequence the order of his preference.

(4) When two candidates are to be elected, the elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper by placing the numeral 1 opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference and the numeral 2 opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his second preference, and he shall give contingent votes for all the remaining candidates by placing the numerals, 3, 4 and so on (as the case requires) opposite their names so as to indicate by such numerical sequence the order of his preference.

Ballot Papers.

14. (1) The Returning Officer shall keep a locked and sealed ballot box, with the words "Egg Marketing Board Ballot Box" marked thereon, and, as and when the envelope containing the ballot paper and the statement is received by him from an elector, he shall open the outer envelope and extract therefrom the statement and the sealed envelope containing the ballot paper.

(2) He shall thereupon examine the statement and satisfy himself that the same is in order and that the elector who signed the statement is enrolled on the electoral roll and entitled to vote.

(3) If and when he is so satisfied, he shall place the statement in some place of security for safe keeping and shall immediately place the envelope containing the ballot paper unopened in the said ballot box and so leave the same until the close of the poll.

(4) If, upon examining the statement as aforesaid, the Returning Officer is not satisfied that the statement is in order, or that the person who signed the same is enrolled on the electoral roll and entitled to vote, he shall retain such statement and the envelope containing the ballot paper unopened in a safe place and at once notify the elector in writing that his ballot paper has not been accepted for the reasons to be stated in the notice.

(5) If, before the closing of the poll, a voter who has received notice as provided for in paragraph (4) hereof satisfies the Returning Officer that he is an elector and entitled to vote at the election, the Returning Officer shall forthwith place the sealed envelope containing such voter's ballot paper unopened in the said ballot box and so leave the same until the closing of the poll.

(6) If a voter who has received notice as provided for in paragraph (4) hereof fails to satisfy the Returning Officer in the manner required by paragraph (5) hereof, the Returning Officer shall reject the ballot paper received from such voter. Upon such rejection he shall indorse on the envelope containing the ballot paper the word "rejected," and sign the same, and then place such envelope unopened in some place of security for safe keeping until after the election.

Scrutineers.

15. (1) Each candidate at an election shall be entitled to appoint, in writing, one scrutineer to be present when the envelopes containing ballot papers relating to such election are being opened at the commencement of the scrutiny and to remain during the scrutiny.

(2) Every scrutineer shall, before he acts, make and sign, before the Returning Officer, declaration in accordance with Form No. 6 in the Appendix.

The Scrutiny.

Reg. 16,
amended by
G.G. 8/2/57,
p. 233.

16. (1) The counting of votes cast at an election shall be carried out by the Returning Officer, in the presence of the scrutineers, at the office of the Returning Officer, and shall not commence until after 4 o'clock in the afternoon on the election day. The Returning Officer may from time to time adjourn the scrutiny to a day and hour fixed by him and notified to the scrutineers.

(2) The Returning Officer may appoint such officers as he deems necessary to assist in the conduct of an election and count thereof.

(3) Subject as hereunder provided, the method of conducting the count shall be the same as that prescribed under the Electoral Act, 1907-1936,¹ for the counting of the votes taken at an election of members of the Legislative Assembly.

Provided that—

(a) When two candidates are to be elected the count of the votes will proceed until one candidate has received an absolute majority, when he shall be declared elected. The first elected candidate shall then be eliminated from the count, and to proceed with the election of the second candidate, all the ballot papers, including those which have been set aside as exhausted, shall be brought into operation and again sorted into first preference votes. The first preference votes of the eliminated successful candidate shall be distributed according to the second preference markings shown thereon to the remainder of the candidates, and when added to their respective first preference votes shall constitute the first count for the second candidate. The procedure from then on shall be the same as in the counting of votes for the election of one candidate.

(b) Votes shall not be deemed to be informal except in the case hereinafter mentioned.

(4) As soon as practicable after the closing of the poll, the Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the scrutineers—

(a) open the ballot box and remove therefrom the envelopes containing the ballot papers; and

(b) open the envelopes containing the ballot papers and extract the ballot papers therefrom; and

(c) examine every ballot paper and satisfy himself that the same bears his or the authorised officer's initials indorsed thereon and decide whether such ballot paper is formal or informal; and

(d) count all formal ballot papers and reject all informal ballot papers.

(5) The Returning Officer shall be the sole and final judge as to whether a ballot paper is informal.

(6) Any candidate may attend and be present at the counting of the votes.

17. (1) A ballot paper shall be informal—
- (a) if it is not initialed by the Returning Officer or the other officer authorised in that behalf; or
 - (b) if, subject as hereinafter provided, it is marked in any other manner than prescribed in regulation (11) of these regulations; or
 - (c) if it has upon it any mark or writing not authorised by these regulations, which in the opinion of the Returning Officer will enable any person to identify the elector; or
 - (d) if it does not indicate the elector's vote, or, if when there are more than two candidates it is not marked so as effectively to indicate the elector's preference as regards all candidates; or
 - (e) if no mark is indicated on it.

(2) A ballot paper shall not be informal for any reason other than the reasons stated in paragraph (1) hereof, but shall be given effect to according to the elector's intention so far as his intention is clear, and, in particular when only one candidate is to be elected and there are only two candidates, a ballot paper shall not be informal by reason only of the elector having indicated his vote or first preference by a cross instead of the numeral 1.

18. As and when the Returning Officer shall have completed the counting of the votes, he shall declare the result of the election in the presence of the scrutineers and of any candidates who may be present at the time.

19. (1) When the result of an election has been ascertained and declared, the Returning Officer shall forthwith furnish to the Board a certificate of such result in accordance with Form No. 7 in the Appendix to these regulations, and state therein the names, addresses, and occupations of the candidates who have been elected; and such certificate, when received by the Board, shall be final and conclusive evidence of the election of the said candidates as members of the Board.

Reg. 19,
amended by
G.G. 8/2/57,
p. 233.

(2) As soon as reasonably may be after the receipt by it from the Returning Officer of the certificate mentioned in paragraph (1) hereof, the Board shall cause the result of the election to be published in the Government Gazette and a newspaper published in Perth.

20. Where any person whose name appears on the electoral roll to be used at any election has since such enrolment ceased to be a commercial producer within the meaning of the Act, such person shall not be entitled to vote at any election held subsequently to his ceasing to be a commercial producer as aforesaid merely because his name appears as an elector on the said electoral roll, and in any such case the Returning Officer, upon it coming to his knowledge that the person is no longer a commercial producer shall cause his name to be struck off such roll.

21. The Returning Officer shall retain all ballot papers and statements received by him in connection with any election held under these regulations until the expiration of three months after the declaration of the result of such election, and may then cause the same to be destroyed.

22. Any person who, not being entitled to be enrolled as an elector for the purpose of an election held under the Act and these Regulations, makes a claim to be enrolled, and any person who makes any statement which is to his knowledge false in any application for enrolment, or in any statement accompanying a ballot paper verifying the voter's right to vote, shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

23. Subject to subsection (2) of section 8 of the Act, all costs, charges, and expenses as incurred by the Returning Officer in connection with the publication of notices, the receipt of nominations of candidates for election, application for enrolment by commercial producers, preparation of electoral rolls, and the conduct of elections, including any fee that may be allowed, or in connection with any other matters incidental thereto and is certified in writing by the Returning Officer under his hand, and communicated by the Returning Officer to the Board, shall be borne and paid by the Board or reimbursed to the Returning Officer by the Board out of moneys from time to time in his hands.

Provided that the Board may at its own expense have the accounts of the Returning Officer audited by the Auditor General, whose decision thereon shall be final as between the parties concerned.

26. (a) All accounts due and payable by the Board other than salaries, wages or accounts due to producers in respect of the delivery of eggs to the Board shall be passed by the Board. Provided that in cases of necessity payments may be made out of a Chairman's Advance Account which may be established for the purpose without such prior approval in anticipation of and subject to the confirmation of the Board at its next regular meeting following any such payment or payments.

(b) The Chairman's Advance Account shall not exceed £200.

(c) All accounts paid out of the Chairman's Advance Account shall be by cheque signed by any two of the following persons: The Chairman, the manager, the secretary, or the accountant.

(d) Subject to the provisions of subclause (c) of this regulation:—

(i) All accounts exceeding one pound due by the Board shall be paid by cheque signed by any two of the following persons: The chairman, the manager, the secretary, the accountant, and one member of the Board. Such other bank accounts as may be required may be established by the Board from time to time.

(ii) All accounts not exceeding one pound due by the Board may be paid from a petty cash account, the standing balance of which shall not at any time exceed the sum of five pounds (£5).

Reg. 27,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2377.

27. The Board may, in every sale or agreement for sale of eggs by the Board to any person, insert conditions and fix a sum as and by way of liquidated damages for any breach of conditions, which damages shall be recoverable accordingly.

Reg. 28,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,

28. The Board may authorise all contracts and agreements and other documents requiring execution by the Board to be signed for and on behalf of the Board by the chairman of the Board and by the secretary, or by the chairman and by one other member of the Board.

29. The common seal of the Board shall not be affixed to any document except with the authority of the Board. The secretary shall have the custody of the seal, which shall be kept under lock and key in such place as the Board directs.

Reg. 29,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2377.

In every case where the common seal is authorised by the Board to be affixed to any document, such seal shall be affixed only in the presence of at least two members of the Board, who shall sign every such document, which shall be countersigned by the secretary.

30. The certificate to be issued by the Board to the producer in accordance with section 26 of the Act shall be in or to the effect of Form No. 8 in the Appendix.

Reg. 30,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,

added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2377.

32. A person to whom a certificate has been issued under section 26 of the Act may assign his rights under the certificate by endorsement of a memorandum on the certificate and by delivering to the assignee a notice signed by him in or to the effect of Form No. 9 in the Appendix. The notice of assignment shall be forwarded to the Board or to the Board's agent before the end of the week in which the eggs, in respect of which the said notice was given, were delivered to the said agent. The Board shall not be obliged to recognise any such notice which is not forwarded to the Board's agent within the time specified in this regulation.

Reg. 32,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2377.

33. (a) No assignment of moneys owing by the Board for eggs delivered to the Board or any of its agents shall be recognised by the Board or any of its agents unless such assignment has been effected in accordance with regulation 32 hereof, provided that any person to whom the Board owes money for eggs delivered to the Board or to its agent may give to any other person a procuration order addressed to the chairman of the Board in the form contained in Form No. 10 in the Appendix to these regulations.

Reg. 33,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2377.

(b) Payment in accordance with any such procuration order may be made at the absolute discretion of the chairman of the Board, provided that no payment shall be made in accordance with such a procuration order unless the procuration order is delivered to the Board or to its agent during the week in which the eggs in respect of which the order is given are delivered to the Board's agent.

34. For the purpose of ascertaining the basis of payments to producers in accordance with subsection (1) of section 32 of the Act, the periods of time shall be the periods commencing on the first Monday in the month of July in each year and terminating upon the Saturday next preceding the first Monday in the month of July in the next following year.

Egg Pulp.

58. (a) No person shall prepare or pack egg pulp otherwise than in accordance with the following conditions:—

Reg. 58,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2379.

- (i) That the eggs to be pulped have been graded in accordance with regulations made under the Agricultural Products Act, 1929-1940, and are of one of the qualities or grades specified in such regulations and are of merchantable quality.
- (ii) That the eggs are broken by hand or by a machine approved by the Board into a receptacle, any such machine or receptacle being free from impurities and foreign matter, and constructed of materials which will not taint the egg pulp.
- (iii) That the egg pulp is properly blended, emulsified, and strained.
- (iv) That the egg pulp in the case of liquid whole eggs shall contain not more than 75 parts per centum moisture.
- (v) That the egg pulp be packed only in clean containers, free from impurities and foreign matter, and of a kind that the containers will not taint the egg pulp.
- (vi) That the egg pulp be hard frozen within 24 hours after being placed in the refrigeration chamber, the temperature of which shall not exceed five degrees Fahrenheit.
- (vii) That the preparation of egg pulp be carried out under sanitary conditions.

(b) This regulation shall not apply to egg pulp for export in accordance with Commonwealth regulations dealing with the export of egg pulp.

Settlement of Conflicting Claims.

59. (a) When the Board receives conflicting claims in respect of payments to be made in respect of any eggs delivered to the Board, the Secretary of the Board shall give notice in writing to each of the claimants in the Form No. 13 in the Appendix to these regulations.

Reg. 59,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2379.

(b) At the expiration of 14 days after the date of service of such notice on the claimants the Board may, if a notice has not been lodged in accordance with the next succeeding regulation requesting that the dispute be referred for decision by the Local

Court, forthwith proceed to settle and adjust the conflicting claims and the decision of the Board shall thereupon be binding on all the parties to the dispute.

Reg. 60,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
pp. 2379-80.

60. (a) Any claimant to whom notice has been given in accordance with the preceding regulation may, within 14 days after the date of service of such notice lodge at the office of the Board a notice, in duplicate, in accordance with the Form No. 14 in the Appendix to these regulations requesting that the dispute be referred for decision by the Local Court held nearest to the office of the Board in accordance with subsection (3) of section 32 of the Act.

(b) The claimant shall pay to the secretary of the Board at the time of lodging such notice the fee prescribed under the Local Court Rules for filing the duplicate copy of the notice in the Local Court as hereinafter provided.

(c) A copy of the notice shall also be served by the claimant on all the other parties to the dispute within seven days after the date of lodgment of such notice at the office of the Board and an affidavit of service of such notice shall be filed in the Local Court prior to the hearing of such application.

(d) Upon receipt of such notice in duplicate the secretary of the Board shall forthwith file one copy of such notice at the office of the Local Court held nearest to the office of the Board.

Reg. 61,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2380.

61. The Clerk of the Local Court in which the notice mentioned in the preceding regulation has been filed shall forthwith fix a date for the hearing which shall not be less than 14 days after the filing of such notice and shall send to every party to the dispute a notice of day of hearing in accordance with the Form No. 15 in the Appendix to these regulations.

Reg. 62,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2380.

62. At the hearing of the dispute and with the consent of the magistrate the parties may appear in person, or by counsel or solicitor, or by their representatives.

Reg. 63,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2380.

63. (a) If any element fails to appear at the hearing of the dispute the magistrate may adjourn the hearing or proceed to hear and determine the dispute on such evidence as is adduced by the claimant or claimants present at the hearing.

(b) If none of the claimants appears at the hearing, the magistrate may adjourn or strike out the proceedings.

Reg. 64,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2380.

64. On the termination of the hearing, the magistrate may make such order as he thinks fit and may order costs to be paid by any party to the proceedings.

Reg. 65,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2380.

65. Any such order as the magistrate makes shall be deemed to be an order of the Court and shall be given effect to by the Board according to the tenor thereof and any order made as to costs may be enforced in like manner as other orders of the Court.

Reg. 66,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2380.

66. The hearing shall follow as near as practicable the practice, procedure, and rules of evidence relating to a trial of proceedings in a Local Court and the rules and practice in operation in the said Court shall, insofar as they are not inconsistent with these regulations, apply to applications for hearing disputes hereunder.

Reg. 67,
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2380.

67. Any person who commits a breach of, or fails to comply with, any of these regulations, or gives any incorrect information to the Board or any of its servants or agents, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Reg. 68
added by
G.G. 31/12/47,
p. 2380.

68. The Board may, for the purposes of carrying out the duties and functions imposed on it by the provisions of the Marketing of Eggs Act, 1945, institute prosecutions under the Agricultural Products Act, 1929-1940, and regulations made thereunder in respect of eggs.
