If the Registrar so requires, the stock holder shall furnish a statutory declaration of the circumstances to support the request to amend the mistake.

Signatures of stockholders.

13. (1) The Registrar shall take all necessary steps to secure specimen signatures of all stockholders. The signatures to all forms lodged at the registry after the application for stock has been received shall be tested by comparison with the specimen signatures.

15. At the request of a stockholder the Registrar may issue a certificate of inscription of stock in a form approved by the Trust, and such certificate shall be delivered only to the person whose name is inscribed in the stock ledger as holder of the stock for which the certificate is issued, or to his attorney, or to a member of a recognised stock exchange who represents such stockholder, or to a person authorised in writing by the stockholder to take delivery of such certificate,

Part III.—Transfers and Transmissions of Stock.

16. (1) The Registrar shall keep at the office books to be called "Transfer Books" wherein all transfers of stock or any part thereof shall be entered and registered, which entries shall be numbered in such manner as the Trust shall determine. Transfers.

(2) A transfer of stock shall be in accordance with Form No. 2 in the schedule, and shall be signed or, in the case of a corporation, unless executed under power of attorney, be properly sealed, by both the transferor and the transferee, each of whom shall be notified of the completion of the transaction.

(4) Every party to the transfer shall sign the transfer of stock form in the presence of a witness, who shall be a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner of Affidavits, Commonwealth or State Commissioner for Declarations, notary public, solicitor, member of a recognised Stock Exchange, an officer of the Registry, a bank manager (who shall sign as such and add the bank stamp), or any other person approved by the Registrar. Such witness shall state the capacity in which he has attested the signature.

(5) A person (not being an officer of the Registry) shall not attest the signature to a transfer and acceptance unless the person whose signature he is attesting is personally known to him.

(6) Every transfer shall pass the right to all interest becoming due and payable after the date of registration thereof, so that the Trust shall not be under any necessity to apportion any such interest as between the transferor and the transferee.

17. The Registrar may at the request of any owner or his agent mark a form of transfer of stock, that has been properly executed by the owner, with the words "Stock held against this transfer for £..... for a period of fourteen days from.....". Where a form of transfer of stock is so marked the Registrar shall refuse to give effect to any dealing in stock to which the transfer relates, within the period of fourteen days in respect of the amount of the inscription so marked, except on completion of the marked transfer. Nothing in this regulation shall prevent the owner from surrendering to the Registrar a marked form of transfer of stock for cancellation within the period of fourteen days provided that the form of transfer of stock has not been executed by a transferee. A form of transfer of stock may be registered at any time within fourteen days after the time the Registrar has marked it, notwithstanding that the transferor after executing the transfer has died, or has become bankrupt or insolvent, but after the expiry of the period of fourteen days, the Registrar shall refuse to register the transfer if he has had notice of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of the transferor. Marking of form of transfer of stock.

18. The Registrar may, if he deems fit, forward to the stockholder a notice of dealing in the form approved by the Trust on any application received by him relating to stock inscribed in the name of such stockholder, and the Registrar shall not register the transaction unless and until sufficient time has elapsed for a reply to be received. Notice of dealing.

19. Every transfer of stock shall be lodged at the office on a transfer day; the transfer days will be Monday to Friday inclusive in each week between the hours of 10 a.m. and noon, and 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. of each day, except when any of those days falls on a bank holiday. Transfers to be lodged on a transfer day.

20. (1) As soon as possible after the registration of any transfer or transmission of stock, the amount of stock transferred or transmitted shall be debited in the proper account in the stock ledger and be forthwith credited in that ledger to the account of Entries in stock ledger.

the person or persons to whom it has been so transferred or transmitted, and the Registrar shall cause the stock ledger to be compared with the transfers and applications to ascertain that all the business transacted has been duly and properly entered and recorded.

(2) Registration shall not be made of any application for transfer, or any other transaction that would affect the balance of stock inscribed, received within fourteen days prior to the date on which interest is due, or during the period of twenty-one days immediately preceding the date of maturity of stock.

21. (1) (a) The executor, administrator or trustee of the estate of a deceased stockholder (not being one of several joint stockholders) shall be the only person recognised by the Trust as having any title to the stock inscribed in the name of the deceased stockholder.

(b) Application for transmission in relation to any such stock shall be made in accordance with regulation 22 of these regulations.

(2) (a) On the death of one of the holders in a joint account relating to stock, the survivor or survivors in the joint account shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Trust as having any title to or interest in the stock.

(b) The death of that joint holder may be proved by the production of probate of his will, letters of administration of his estate or a certificate of his death, supported if required by the Registrar by a statutory declaration that satisfies the Registrar as to the identity of the deceased as such stockholder.

(c) On completion of the proof of death of a joint stockholder in a joint account and on receipt of an application in writing from the survivor or survivors in the joint account, the stock shall be registered in the name of the survivor or survivors.

(b) The application shall be in accordance with Form No. 3 in the schedule and shall, if the Registrar so requires, be supported by a statutory declaration verifying the particulars contained in the application.

(2) The Registrar shall require the signature of a person who claims transmission of stock by virtue of his appointment as executor, administrator or trustee, to be verified to his satisfaction.

(3) The probate of the will, letters of administration of the estate, or an office copy of the adjudication or order of sequestration or vesting order, as the case may be, or any other document that authorises the transmission under this regulation shall be produced to the Registrar.

(4) The Registrar may require any document produced pursuant to this regulation to be left at the office at least two clear days before the stock to which it relates is dealt with under these regulations.

(5) The Registrar shall enter or cause to be entered particulars of such documents in a register.

Registrar to dispense with production
or re-sealing

(2) No person shall have any claim against the Trust in respect of any transmission in pursuance of this regulation, but nothing in this regulation shall relieve the person or persons to whom the stock is transmitted from any liability to account for or deal with the stock as required by law.

(3) A person is not required to re-seal in this State any probate of a will or letters of administration of an estate in order that a transmission of stock may be registered under these regulations if, in respect of the stock, the probate or letters of administration is or are produced to the Registrar together with the certificate of the Commissioner of Probate Duties of this State that no duty is payable under the Administration Act, 1903 (as amended), or his receipt evidencing that all duty payable under that Act has been paid.

24. (1) A person who becomes entitled to stock by transmission pursuant to these regulations may either himself be registered as the holder of the stock so transmitted, or instead of being himself registered may, with the approval of the Registrar, make such transfer of the stock as the stockholder from whom the same was transmitted could have made, and any such transfer shall be accompanied by such evidence in proof of the title of the transferor as the Registrar may reasonably require.

Persons entitled to be registered on transmission.

(2) Where the Registrar is satisfied that stock is inscribed in the name of the person whose property is required by law to be placed in the hands of the Public Trustee or of an officer holding a corresponding position in any other State or of any other officer charged with the duty of administering estates of deceased persons or missing persons or persons under disability (other than bankruptcy or insolvency), the Registrar may (notwithstanding the provisions of regulations 21 and 22 of these regulations) authorise the transmission of the stock to the name of the Public Trustee, the officer holding a corresponding position, or other officer, but before doing so, the Registrar may require a sufficient indemnity from the Public Trustee, the officer holding a corresponding position, or other officer.

(3) There shall be kept at the office, in a form approved by the Trust, records showing particulars of the debentures received, issued, surrendered, cancelled and on hand.

(4) Debentures may be purchased by any person, but if an owner has not attained or does not appear to the Registrar to have attained the age of eighteen years, the Registrar may deliver the debentures to the parent or guardian of the owner, and the receipt of the parent or guardian shall be a valid discharge to the Trust from all actions, suits, claims and demands in respect of the debentures so delivered.

(5) Before any debentures are issued to a purchaser, any overdue interest coupons shall be detached therefrom and cancelled.

(6) Where in any case debentures cannot be handed personally to the owner at the office the Registrar may arrange or cause to be arranged delivery of the debentures through a bank or other agency, and a receipt shall be obtained by the Registrar in exchange for all debentures delivered.

Delivery of debentures not exceeding £200 on behalf of deceased persons.

26. (1) Upon the death of a person who is entitled to receive from the Registrar any debentures not exceeding a face value of two hundred pounds, the Registrar may authorise the delivery of the debentures to such person as he thinks fit.

(2) No person shall have any claim against the Trust in respect of any debentures delivered under this regulation but nothing in this regulation shall relieve the person to whom the debentures are delivered from accounting for or dealing with the debentures as required by law.

Issue of debentures in exchange for stock.

27. (1) Upon application in a form approved by the Trust for the issue of debentures in exchange for stock and if the Trust accedes to such application, the Registrar shall debit the applicant's account in the stock ledger and issue to him or his order debentures of the same currency and rate of interest for the amount of the stock debited.

(2) Where debentures are issued in exchange for stock, the Registrar may demand the surrender of stock certificates or other relevant registry documents in exchange for those debentures.

(3) A receipt for debentures delivered shall be given to the Registrar by the applicant or his attorney or agent.

(4) Debentures shall not be issued in exchange for stock of which a person under the age of eighteen years or a person of unsound mind is the owner jointly with other persons not under legal disability, except in pursuance of an order of a Justice of the High Court or a Judge of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory.

(5) Debentures may be issued in exchange for stock inscribed in the name of a person of unsound mind jointly with other persons not under legal disability, upon receipt of an application in a form approved by the Trust, signed by the Master in Lunacy or such other person as may be authorised under the law of the Commonwealth or of any State or Territory to administer the estate on behalf of the person of unsound mind, and by the joint owners not under legal disability.

(6) Where an order has been made by a Justice of the High Court or a Judge of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory in relation to stock which is inscribed in the name of a person of unsound mind jointly with other persons not under any legal disability, it shall not be necessary for an application approved by the Trust for the issue of debentures in exchange for that stock to be signed by or on behalf of that person of unsound mind.

Issue of debentures in exchange for other debentures.

28. Upon application in a form approved by the Trust, debentures may if the Trust accedes to such application be surrendered at the office in exchange for other debentures of a like amount, of the same currency and bearing the same rate of interest.

Inscription of stock in exchange for debentures.

29. Upon application in a form approved by the Trust for the inscription of stock in exchange for debentures, and if the Trust accedes to such application, the Registrar shall inscribe stock of the same currency and rate of interest and for the amount of the debentures surrendered, and shall forward a notification of inscription to the person in whose name the stock is inscribed and shall issue a receipt for debentures so surrendered.

Interest on debentures.

31. Interest on debentures shall be paid on presentation of interest coupons at the place for payment of interest mentioned in the coupons, except that the first interest due on any debentures may be paid in accordance with the conditions of the prospectus.

32. Interest on stock shall be paid by one of the following methods:—

Payment of interest on inscribed stock.

33. The receipt of any one stockholder, or of his attorney or agent duly authorised by the stockholder in that behalf, in the case of stock inscribed in more than one name for any interest or for any document relating to such stock, shall be full and sufficient discharge to the Trust in respect thereof but with regard to the payment of principal a discharge shall be given by all stockholders in a joint account.

Receipts of joint stockholders.
