Where Christmas Day falls on a Saturday or a Sunday, such holiday shall be observed on the next succeeding Monday; in such case the substituted day shall be deemed a holiday without deduction of pay in lieu of the day for which it is substituted. Provided that any worker who does not present himself for work (if required) on the working day following any of the abovementioned holidays shall not be entitled to be paid for such holiday unless he produces proof satisfactory to the employer that he was prevented by sickness from presenting himself for work on any such day and that such sickness was not due to intemperance or misconduct.

(h) If any of the holidays prescribed in subclause (g) falls during a worker's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that worker would have been an ordinary working day, the worker shall be paid one extra day at ordinary rates for that day, or at his option, have one day on full pay added to that period for each such holiday.

(i) Notwithstanding anything else herein contained an employer may require a worker to take his annual leave in not more than two periods but neither of such periods shall be less than one week.

(j) An employer may close down his operation or a section or sections thereof for the purposes of allowing annual leave to all or the majority of his workers employed generally or in any such section or sections and in the event of a worker being employed for portion only of a year he shall subject to subclause (c) hereof only be entitled to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to his length of service during that period with such employer and if such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other workers he shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other workers of such employer are on leave on full pay.

3. Clause 9—Payment for Sickness: In subclause (a) delete the words "each 23.7 shifts" and insert in lieu thereof the words "each 23.1 shifts".
