(5) Notwithstanding the filing of an affidavit in that regard, where the complainant deposes that a third party is a person whose identity or whereabouts are unknown to, and cannot reasonably be ascertained by, the complainant, the Court shall not proceed to hear the complaint, unless or until it is satisfied of that fact, whether on the day of the hearing or sooner.

(6) Where the Court, being satisfied that the identity or whereabouts of a third party are unknown to, and cannot reasonably be ascertained by, the complainant, gives leave to proceed with the complaint, if the identity and whereabouts of the third party become known during the course of the hearing, the Court may adjourn the proceedings to enable notice to be given to that party.

(5) Where all parties to a proceeding consent to a change of the venue of the hearing, the clerk may, on being satisfied as to that fact, change the venue without requiring the filing of any affidavit.

23. (1) A defendant or a third party may require particulars of the complaint and, unless the Court is of the opinion that the request is not warranted, if the required particulars are not given within a reasonable period prior to the return date or the day fixed for hearing of a complaint, the Court may, on the application of the party by whom the particulars are required, order the particulars to be given within a specified period and adjourn the hearing until a day after that period.

(2) Any party to a complaint may require any other party to give discovery of all documents which the latter has or has had in his possession or power, relating to any matter in issue and the other party shall give that discovery by letter or notice signed by him or his solicitor and therein appoint a time when, and a place where, the documents he consents to produce may be inspected.

(2) Any party to a complaint for ancillary relief may peruse the notes of evidence taken in the proceeding to which the complaint relates and may have recourse to that evidence during the course of the hearing of the complaint.

(3) On the completion of the hearing of a complaint under this rule, the file of any prior proceedings, together with a record of the latest proceeding and a copy of any order made therein shall be returned to the place of origin.

25. A cross-complaint may be heard at the same time as the original complaint, if the summons issued under the cross-complaint is served within such period prior to the original return date as the Court considers reasonable in all the circumstances of the case and shall, in any event, be heard at the same time, if all parties to the complaint consent.

26. (1) Where the parties to a complaint made under Division 1 of Part III of the Act elect that the Court be constituted by a Stipendiary Magistrate, that fact shall be indorsed upon the record of the proceeding.

(2) Where the Court is required by the Act to be constituted by a Stipendiary Magistrate and one Justice of the Peace and no Justice of the Peace can be found, within ten miles of the place where the Court is sitting, who is capable of acting and willing to act, the clerk shall, except in the circumstances mentioned in subrule (1) of this rule, certify that fact to the Court, in writing and that certificate shall be a part of the record of the proceeding.

27. Where, on the hearing of a complaint, the proceeding is adjourned sine die, a party causing it to be relisted shall give to the other party or parties a notice of the date fixed for the continuation of the hearing, at least seven days before that date; and where the other party or other parties are appearing in person, the notice shall be served on him or them personally or by registered post requiring acknowledgment of receipt.

28. Any person wishing to lead evidence at a hearing by affidavit may apply at the hearing or make an ex parte application to the Court, prior to the hearing, for leave to lead evidence in that manner; and the Court may grant leave, subject to such conditions as it thinks fit.

29. (1) Where the Court orders that a witness be examined before the Court at another place or before an examiner appointed by the Court, the Court shall cause the file and a sealed copy of the order to be sent to the clerk at that other place or to the examiner so appointed and the clerk or examiner shall appoint a time and place for the attendance of the witness and notice thereof shall be given to the witness and to each party or to his solicitor.

(2) A witness wilfully disobeying any notice requiring his attendance under this rule is guilty of contempt.

30. Where the Court, by its own summons, requires the attendance of a witness before the Court, it is not necessary for conduct money to be tendered to that witness to enforce his attendance.

31. Where the Court orders that the matters or any matter mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of section 104 of the Act be not printed or published, the order of the Court shall include a provision to that effect.

32. (1) Upon the conclusion of the hearing of a complaint containing more than one cause of complaint the Court shall record its finding on each cause of complaint.

(2) Where the Court dismisses a complaint, by reason of condonation, connivance or conduct conducing or contributing to the commission of the marital offence complained of or by reason of any marital offence on the part of the complainant, or of unreasonable delay in bringing the application, the Court shall record that reason.

(3) Notwithstanding any finding that the Court may make against the defendant to a complaint, it shall not record a finding against any third party being a person such as is mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of subrule (1) of rule 12 of these rules.

33. Where the Court makes an order containing a provision for the payment of money, the order shall specify the imprisonment, if any, to be served in the event of a default of payment.

34. An order made by the Court, other than an interlocutory order, shall be reduced to writing and a copy shall subsequently be posted by the clerk to each party to the complaint, at his lastknown address.

35. Every exhibit tendered and admitted in a proceeding shall, unless the Court extends or abridges the period, remain in the custody of the Court for a period of two months after the conclusion of the hearing.

36. Where an order is still in operation and a subsequent order is made affecting the parties to a marriage in respect of whom the former order was made, or affecting any child of that family, and the latter order, while not purporting to vary the former, has that effect, then the two orders shall be consolidated and considered as one, for the purposes of any subsequent proceeding.

37. For the purposes of record, payments and enforcement, an order shall operate in the Court at its place of origin; but the Court may, on the application of a party affected by the order, direct that the order operate in the Court at some other place, if the parties consent or if, in the opinion of the Court, it is in the interest of the parties that the Court should so direct; and an application under this rule shall be supported by affidavit and be made ex parte, in Chambers, in the Court at the place in which the order is then operating.

38. A person entitled to receive payment under a provision of an order or the grantee of a power of attorney for that purpose, when seeking to enforce payment under the order as provided by subsection (1) of section 28 of the Act (Justices Act procedure), shall file in the Court a praecipe for that purpose, together with an affidavit deposing—

- (a) to the amount whereof payment is alleged to be in default;
- (b) that no part of the amount whereof payment is alleged to be in default has been paid to the dependant or to any other person for the deponent's benefit, in money, money's worth or by any benefit given in lieu of money;
- (c) that maintenance is not sought to be enforced in respect of any period during which the defaulting party may already have been imprisoned, under the subsection in this rule mentioned;
- (d) to the deponent's names of knowledge of the amount whereof payment is in default, where payments are not made direct to the deponent;
- (e) that any child in respect of whom the order is made has not ceased to be a dependant and is not the subject of any other order for maintenance; and
- (f) that the order sought to be enforced has not ceased to have effect, by reason of any process, or decree, taken or made, under the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1959, of the Commonwealth, or for any other reason.

39. A person seeking to enforce payment under an order, as provided by subsection (3) of section 28 of the Act, (Local Court procedure) shall file in the Local Court—

- (a) a certified copy of the order under which payment is sought to be enforced;

- (b) a certificate of the clerk that there is not any warrant issued pursuant to subsection (1) of section 28 of the Act, then outstanding; and
- (c) an affidavit deposing to the facts prescribed by paragraphs (a) and (b) of rule 38.

40. Where any person is imprisoned under the provisions of subsection (1) of section 28 of the Act, the superintendent or other officer in charge of the prison wherein that person is so imprisoned shall certify to the clerk at the place whence the warrant was issued the day of the commencement, and of the termination, of that imprisonment.

41. (1) A warrant issued under the provisions of subsection (1) of section 28 of the Act shall have annexed thereto a summary of the provisions of subsection (2) of that section, a direction as to the right conferred by, and a form of election under, section 31 of the Act.

(3) A person electing to make an application under section 31 of the Act shall complete and sign the form of election in this rule mentioned and thereupon detach it from the annexure and hand it to the police officer, or where he is already committed to prison, the prison officer, in whose custody he may then be.

(4) A police or prison officer shall upon the receipt of an election made under this rule bring the person so electing before the Court or a Court of Petty Sessions as soon as practicable after receipt of the election and the election and the warrant to which it relates shall be produced to the Court before which the person is brought.

42. A Court hearing an application made under section 31 of the Act shall indorse on the reverse of the warrant the record of the proceedings taken under the application and any order that it may make thereunder and shall, thereupon, cause the warrant to be returned to the court out of which it was issued.

43. Any moneys received by a Court pursuant to a warrant shall be sent forward to the Court at the place whence the warrant was issued, as and when received.

44. The Court shall not issue a warrant under subsection (1) of section 28 of the Act, unless it is satisfied that no process of execution or enforcement is in operation under subsection (3) of that section, for the same default.

45. An interlocutory order made by the Court shall be indorsed on the application therefor and a party is not obliged to extract that order.

46. (2) The clerk shall cause such particulars of an order mentioned in subrule (1) of this rule as are prescribed for proceedings of the Court by rule 5 to be entered in the register and shall cause those entries to be distinguished from proceedings originating in the Court, in such manner as he may direct.

(3) Every order registered pursuant to this rule shall be indorsed with a certificate of registration signed by the clerk.

47. The party and party costs or registration in the Court, by virtue of the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1959, of the Commonwealth, of an order made by a superior Court or of an order of the Supreme Court, by virtue of the Guardianship of Infants Act, 1926-1965, for the payment of maintenance, are $8.40, plus disbursements.

48. 49. (1) Where a warrant has, or warrants have, been issued to enforce the making of periodical payments under an order and the person obliged to make those payments, or some person acting on his behalf, pays any amount to the officer of the Court specified in the order, prior to the execution of the warrant or, if more than one warrant, prior to the execution of any of them, the amount so paid shall be applied, firstly, for or towards any periodical payments that have become due, since the issue of the warrant or warrants, and, thereafter, the remaining amount, or, if no periodical payments have become due, the full amount, shall, subject to subrule (2) of this rule, be applied in satisfaction of the amount or amounts of which payment is sought to be enforced by the warrant or warrants, in the order in which the warrants were issued.

51. (1) Where, at any time, it becomes apparent to the clerk that any provision of an order has been duplicated or that an anomaly with respect to orders exists, then, he is empowered, of his own motion, to issue such process as may be necessary to call the parties, or any two of them, together, so that the matter may be reviewed for the purpose of eliminating the duplication or anomaly, as the case may be.
