LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1960-1966.

Local Government Department,
Perth, 11th August, 1967.

L.G. 15/66.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the powers conferred by the Local Government Act, 1960-1966, has been pleased to make the uniform general by-laws set out in the Schedule hereunder.

R. C. PAUST,
Secretary for Local Government.

Schedule.

Uniform Building By-laws.

Principal by-laws. 1. In these by-laws the Uniform Building By-laws, 1965, published in the Government Gazette on the 15th October, 1965 and amended by notices published in the Government Gazette on the 11th March, 1966, 18th January, 1967 and 14th June, 1967, are referred to as the principal by-laws.

By-law 2008 substituted. 2. By-law 2008 of the principal by-laws is revoked and the following by-law substituted:—

2008. Veneers, Facings and Tiles. (1) In this by-law—
“facing” means stone, synthetic stone, architectural terra cotta or other approved material which is applied to a wall and contributes to the strength of a wall;
“non-corrosive metal” means phosphor bronze, aluminium bronze, stainless steel, brass or copper;
“veneer” means—

- (a) stone, synthetic stone, architectural terra cotta or ceramic slabs of not less than $\frac{3}{8}$ in. thickness;
- (b) pre-cast reinforced concrete slabs; or
- (c) other approved materials, that are applied or affixed to, but do not form part of the structural walls, columns, beams or frame.

(2) (a) Each unit of veneer applied to or affixed to the outer face of a reinforced concrete or masonry wall shall be tied to the structural walling with substantial wall ties or cramps or with bolts of not less than $\frac{1}{2}$ in. in diameter, the ties, cramps or bolts being of non-corrosive metal.

(b) The pull out force on the total number of wall tiles, cramps or bolts per unit of veneer shall be not less than five times the dead weight of that unit.

(c) The spacings of the wall ties or cramps shall be at such centres as are determined by the Building Surveyor but, in any event, the centres shall be not further apart than 18 in., horizontally or more than 3 ft. vertically and in the case of bolts supporting pre-cast reinforced concrete slabs the centres shall be determined by structural computations.

(d) A bolt carrying part of the dead weight of a veneer slab shall have a diameter of not less than $\frac{1}{2}$ in. and be of non-corrosive metal.

(e) A structural frame or member carrying part of the dead weight of the veneer and the bolts used in connection therewith shall be of non-corrosive metal, unless the Building Surveyor is satisfied that the frame or member and the bolts used will remain dry, in which case heavily galvanised steel of a minimum thickness of $\frac{3}{8}$ in. may be used for the frame, in conjunction with bolts of at least $\frac{3}{8}$ in. in diameter.

(f) All structural elements supporting veneer shall have a fire rating of 3 hours or be protected by a wall having a fire rating of 3 hours, except where the veneer forms part of a wall in a structure not requiring a fire rating.

(g) Veneer shall be continuously supported, at each floor level, on structural concrete or non-corrosive metal with a maximum distance of 12 ft., vertically, between supports.

- (3) (a) Facings shall—
- (i) be not less than 4 in. in thickness, in every part;
 - (ii) be built concurrently with the wall and be bonded into the backing for not less than 4 in. in every third course; and
 - (iii) have an ultimate compressive strength at least equal to that of the masonry wall to which they are bonded.
- (b) Facings may be considered as part of a wall in computing the thickness and strength of the wall.
- (4) (a) Tiles shall—
- (i) be not more than 1 in. in thickness or more than 12 in. square;
 - (ii) have a keyed back;
 - (iii) be anchored to a backing wall with a cement mortar, that has a shearing stress of 50 lb. per square inch, or by other approved cementing materials; and
 - (iv) not be used at a height exceeding 11 ft.
- (b) The provisions of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this sub-by-law does not apply to—
- (i) tiles that do not exceed 40 sq. in. in area and $\frac{1}{4}$ in. in thickness, if adequate protection is provided, by means of a continuous projecting hood or similar protection, in the event of tiles dropping from the wall; and
 - (ii) mosaic tiles that are less than 1 in. square.
- (5) (a) Expansion joints shall be provided for—
- (i) tiles fixed on a reinforced concrete wall, at intervals of not more than 5 ft. both horizontally and vertically, if not already provided by the actual tile jointing; and
 - (ii) veneer, at intervals of not more than 12 ft. both vertically and horizontally.
- (b) All expansion joints shall be filled with an approved mastic.
- (6) (a) Flashings to prevent the penetration of moisture and additional fixings for the support of veneers, facings and tiles shall be provided as may be required by the Building Surveyor.
- (b) All veneers other than pre-cast concrete slabs shall be filled at the back with a strong mortar,

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1960.

The Municipality of the Shire of Irwin.

By-laws Relating to Buildings.

L.G. 152/53.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the abovementioned Act and of all other powers enabling it, the Council of the abovementioned Municipality hereby records having resolved on the 12th day of July, 1967, to revoke building by-laws passed by the Irwin Shire Council on the 14th day of January, 1959, and published in the Government Gazette on the 12th day of May, 1959.

Dated this 19th day of July, 1967.
The Common Seal of the Shire of Irwin was hereunto affixed in the presence of—

[L.S.]

A. J. GILLAM,

L. A. LOGAN,
Minister for Local Government.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council this 10th day of August, 1967.

W. S. LONNIE,
Clerk of the Council.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1960.
The Municipality of the City of Perth.
By-law No. 1—Standing Orders.

L.G. 227/58.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the abovementioned Act and of all other powers enabling it the Council of the abovementioned Municipality hereby records having resolved on the 15th day of May, 1967, to make and submit for confirmation by the Governor the following By-law No. 1: That By-law No. 1 which was published in Government Gazette No. 78 dated 24th September, 1958, be repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

STANDING ORDERS.

1. The proceedings and business of the Council shall be conducted according to this by-law, the clauses of which shall be referred to as "The Standing Orders".

Interpretation.

2. In this by-law, unless the context otherwise requires—
"Act" means the Local Government Act, 1960;
"clause" means a clause of this by-law.

Mayor to Preside.

3. The Lord Mayor, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Council and, in his absence, or if, after being present, he retires, the Deputy Lord Mayor shall preside, but if he is not present, or after being present retires, then one of the Councillors chosen by the Councillors then present shall preside.

Quorum.

4. (1) The number of Councillors necessary to form a quorum—
(a) where the total number of Councillors is an even number is one half of that total,
(b) where the total number of Councillors is an odd number is the integer nearest to but greater than one half of that total.
(2) Subject to Clause 5, every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated in the summons as a quorum is constituted.

Absence of Quorum.

5. If at any meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour after the time appointed for such meeting, the Lord Mayor, or in his absence the Deputy Lord Mayor, if present, the majority of the Councillors present, or any one Councillor if only one be present or the Town Clerk if a Councillor is not present, may adjourn the meeting to any date not later than seven (7) days from the date of such adjournment.

6. If at any time during any meeting of the Council a quorum is not present the Lord Mayor shall thereupon suspend the proceedings of the meeting for a period of two (2) minutes, and if a quorum be not present at the expiration of such period, the meeting shall be deemed to have been counted out, and the Lord Mayor shall adjourn it to some future date.

7. At any meeting at which there is not a quorum of Councillors present, or at which the Council is counted out for want of a quorum, the names of the members then present shall be recorded in the Minute Book.

Open Doors—Except as Provided.

8. (1) The business of the Council shall be conducted with open doors except upon such occasions as the Council may by resolution otherwise decide.

(2) Upon the carrying of such a resolution as is mentioned in subclause (1) of this clause, the Lord Mayor shall direct all persons other than Councillors and servants of the Council to leave the Council Chambers and every person shall forthwith comply with such direction.

(3) Any person failing to comply with such direction made pursuant to subclause (2) of this clause may, by order of the Lord Mayor, be removed from the Council Chambers.

(4) After carrying of a resolution made under subclause (1) of this clause the business at that meeting of the Council, shall proceed behind closed doors until the Council shall by resolution decide to proceed with open doors.

(5) While a resolution made under subclause (1) of this clause is in force the operation of clause 26 hereof shall be suspended unless the Council, by resolution, otherwise decides.

(6) Any resolution mentioned in this clause may be moved without notice.

Disturbance by Strangers.

9. (1) A person, not being a Councillor, shall not at any meeting of the Council by expressing approval or dissent or conversing or otherwise howsoever interrupt the proceedings of the Council.

(2) Any person so offending shall, when so directed by the Lord Mayor, forthwith leave the Council Chambers.

(3) Any person being so ordered to leave and failing to do so may, by order of the Lord Mayor, be removed from the Council Chambers.

Order of Business at Ordinary Meeting.

10. The order of business at an ordinary meeting of the Council shall be as follows, or as near thereto as shall be practicable, but for the greater convenience of the Council at any particular meeting thereof it may be altered by resolution to that effect:—

- (i) Prayer.
- (ii) Confirmation of minutes.
- (iii) Announcements by the Lord Mayor without discussion.
- (iv) Questions of which due notice has been given without discussion.
- (v) Correspondence.
- (vi) Petitions and memorials.
- (vii) Notices of intention to move the suspension of Standing Orders at the close of the meeting.
- (viii) Reports of Committees.
- (ix) Orders of the day, including considering and ordering upon any business left over from the previous meeting and any business the Lord Mayor may think desirable to bring under the notice of the Council and may have directed to be entered as an order of the day.
- (x) Motions of which previous notice has been given.
- (xi) Notice of motions for consideration at the following meeting, if given during the meeting.

Order of Business at Special Meeting.

11. The order of business at any special meeting of the Council shall be the order in which such business stands in the notice thereof.

Confirmation of Minutes.

12. The minutes of any preceding meeting, whether of an ordinary or a special meeting, not previously confirmed, shall be submitted as the first business at all meetings of the Council in order to proceed to their confirmation, and discussion shall not be permitted thereon except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings and when confirmed the Lord Mayor shall sign and date each page of the minutes in confirmation of the fact that they have been found correct.

Questions.

13. Any Councillor desiring to ask a question at any meeting of the Council shall give notice thereof in writing to the Town Clerk at least four hours before the hour fixed for the commencement of the meeting.

14. All questions and answers shall be submitted as briefly and concisely as possible, and discussion shall not be allowed thereon.

Reception of Correspondence.

15. Discussion shall not be permitted on any motion that any correspondence be received or not received, or that any correspondence or any part thereof be referred to any Occasional Committee of the Council.

Notices of Motion.

16. (1) A Councillor may bring forward at a meeting such business as he considers advisable, in the form of a motion, of which notice has been given in writing to the Town Clerk, either at the last previous meeting or at any time thereafter, being not less than three clear days before the meeting at which it is brought forward.

(2) Every notice of motion shall relate to some question affecting the constitution, administration, or condition of the City.

(3) The Lord Mayor shall rule out of order any motion which does not comply with subclause (2) of this clause.

17. Every such motion as is mentioned in clause 16 shall lapse, unless the Councillor who gave notice thereof, or some other Councillor authorised by him in writing, is present to move the motion when called on.

18. Deputations wishing to be received by the Council shall in the first instance send in a memorial in writing, and the Town Clerk shall bring the memorial before the Committee concerned, which shall if it sees fit receive the deputation and report to the Council. If the Committee is of the opinion that the memorial is one which should be brought before the Council the Committee shall so report, and if the Council shall so order the deputation shall be invited to attend.

19. A deputation shall not exceed ten in number and only two members thereof shall be at liberty to address the Council or a Committee of the Council, except in reply to questions from members of the Council or Committee and the matter shall not be further considered by the Council or the Committee until the deputation has withdrawn.

Councillors to Address Lord Mayor.

20. (1) Any Councillor moving a motion or amendment, or taking part in the discussion thereon, shall rise and address the Lord Mayor.

Point of Order.

(2) A Councillor who is addressing the Lord Mayor shall not be interrupted except upon a point of order, when he shall resume his seat until the Councillor raising the point of order has been heard thereon and the question of order has been disposed of, whereupon the firstmentioned Councillor may proceed.

(3) A Councillor rising to express a difference of opinion with, or to contradict, a speaker shall not be recognised as raising a point of order.

(4) A violation of any provision of these Standing Orders shall be a breach of order.

Substance of Motion to be Stated.

21. Any Councillor desirous of proposing an original motion or amendment shall state the substance of the same before he addresses the Council thereon and, if so required by the Lord Mayor, shall put the motion or amendment in writing.

Motions and Amendments to be Seconded.

22. A motion or amendment shall not be discussed or put to the vote of the Council unless seconded, but a Councillor may require the enforcement of any Standing Order of the Council by directing the Lord Mayor's attention to the infraction thereof.

Titles to be Used.

23. A speaker in referring to any other present, shall designate him by the title of Lord Mayor or Councillor, as the case may be.

Priority of Speaking.

24. Where two or more Councillors rise to speak at the same time, the Lord Mayor shall decide who of them is entitled to priority.

Lord Mayor to be Heard.

25. Whenever the Lord Mayor rises during a debate any Councillor then speaking or offering to speak shall sit down and the Council shall be silent so that the Lord Mayor may be heard without interruption.

Speaking Twice.

26. Subject to Clause 27, a Councillor shall not speak twice on the same question except—

- (a) in reply, upon an original motion of which he was the mover;
- (b) in reply, upon an amendment last debated of which he was the mover;
- (c) by way of personal explanation.

27. The Council may, by resolution moved without notice, suspend the operation of Clause 26 hereof and thereupon such clause shall be suspended until such time as the Council shall, by similar resolution, otherwise decide.

Personal Explanation.

28. A Councillor making a personal explanation shall confine it to a succinct explanation of a material part of his former speech which may have been misunderstood, and to the explanation itself. He shall not advert to matters not strictly necessary for that purpose nor seek to strengthen his former argument by new matter or by replying to other Councillors.

29. The Lord Mayor shall forthwith call to order any Councillor committing a breach of Clause 26 hereof.

No Speech after Certain Events.

30. A Councillor shall not speak on any motion or amendment—
- (a) after the mover has replied;
 - (b) after the question has been put.

Mover and Seconder have Spoken.

31. A Councillor moving or seconding a motion or amendment is deemed to have spoken thereon.

Limit of Speeches.

32. A Councillor shall not speak upon any motion or amendment or in reply for a longer period than ten minutes without the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without debate.

Speaking in Reply.

33. A Councillor speaking in reply shall not introduce any new matter but shall confine himself strictly to answering previous speakers.

Division of Motions.

34. The Lord Mayor may, at his discretion, or the Council may, by motion without debate, order a complicated motion to be divided and put in the form of several motions.

Withdrawal of Motions.

35. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without debate; and it shall not be competent for any Councillor to speak upon the motion or amendment after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal unless such permission is refused.

Production of Documents.

36. Any Councillor may of right require the production of any of the documents of the Council relating to the question or matter under discussion.

No Digression.

37. A Councillor shall not speak otherwise than upon, or digress from, the question then before the Council, except to make a personal explanation.

No Adverse Reflection on Council.

38. A Councillor shall not reflect adversely upon a resolution of the Council, except on a motion that such resolution be rescinded.

No Adverse Reflection on Councillor.

39. A Councillor shall not reflect adversely upon the character or actions of another Councillor, unless the Council shall resolve without debate, that the question then before the Council cannot otherwise be adequately considered.

40. Any Councillor may require the Town Clerk to take down any particular words used by a Councillor immediately upon the same being used.

Demand for Withdrawal.

41. If any Councillor commits a breach of Clause 38 or 39 the Lord Mayor may require him unreservedly to withdraw any offending comment and to make a satisfactory apology; and, if the Councillor declines or neglects to do so, the Lord Mayor may direct such Councillor to cease speaking and resume his seat and may call on the next speaker.

Disturbance by Councillors.

42. A Councillor shall not make any noise or disturbance or, except to raise a point of order, converse aloud while any other person is addressing the Council.

43. The Lord Mayor may call the attention of the Council to continued irrelevance, tedious repetition, unbecoming language, or any breach of order or decorum on the part of a Councillor and may direct such Councillor, if speaking, to discontinue his speech, and thereupon the Councillor shall cease speaking and shall resume his seat.

44. When the Lord Mayor is putting any question, a Councillor shall not walk out of or across the Chamber; and shall not, whilst any other Councillor is speaking, pass between the speaker and the chair.

45. The Lord Mayor shall preserve order, and may call any Councillor to order, whenever, in his opinion, there is cause for so doing.

46. Every Councillor shall be entitled to direct the attention of the Lord Mayor to any infraction of the Standing Orders by any other Councillor.

Rulings by Lord Mayor.

47. The Lord Mayor, when deciding a point of order or practice, shall give his decision and argument or comment shall not be permitted thereon and his decision shall be final, in that particular case, unless a majority of the Councillors then present shall, upon motion made forthwith, without discussion, dissent therefrom.

48. Whenever the Lord Mayor has decided that any motion, amendment or other matter before the Council is out of order, the same shall be rejected; and whenever anything said or done in the Council, by any Councillor, is similarly decided to be out of order that Councillor shall be called upon by the Lord Mayor to make such explanation, retraction or apology, as the case may require.

49. Where a Councillor persists in any conduct which the Lord Mayor decides is out of order or refuses to make any explanation, retraction or apology required by the Lord Mayor under Clause 48, the Lord Mayor may direct such Councillor to refrain from taking any further part in the then meeting of the Council, other than by recording his vote; and the Councillor shall comply with such direction.

Serious Disorder.

50. (1) If at a meeting of the Council the Lord Mayor is of opinion that by reason of disorder or otherwise the business of the Council cannot effectually be continued, he may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen (15) minutes, whereafter the Council shall re-assemble and decide whether business shall be proceeded with; and that question shall be forthwith decided without debate.

(2) If thereafter the Lord Mayor is again of opinion that the business of the Council cannot be effectually continued he may close the meeting.

All Councillors to Vote.

51. (1) At all meetings of the Council, save where the Act otherwise provides, all the Councillors present shall vote, and if any Councillor who is entitled to vote fails to vote, the Lord Mayor shall call upon him to vote.

(2) Where there is any equal division of votes upon any question, the Lord Mayor has and may exercise a casting vote.

Permissible Motions During Debate.

52. (1) Subject to subclause (2) of this clause, when a motion is under debate, no further motion shall be moved except the following:—

- (a) that the motion be amended;
- (b) that the Council do adjourn;
- (c) that the debate be adjourned;
- (d) that the question be now put;
- (e) that the Council do proceed with the next business;
- (f) that the Council do sit behind closed doors; or
- (g) that the meeting be now closed.

(2) Where the question before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee of the Council, a Councillor may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor, move without notice that the question be referred back to the Committee. On such motion, the mover may speak for not more than five (5) minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding, and the Chairman of the Committee concerned, or in his absence a member thereof, may speak for not more than five (5) minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

Amendment to Relate to Motion.

53. Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion on which it is moved.
54. Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

One Amendment at a Time.

55. Only one amendment at a time shall be discussed but as often as an amendment is lost, another amendment may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote. Provided that when an amendment is carried, one further amendment to the original motion as amended, and no more, may be moved.

56. When an amendment is carried, the original motion as amended shall, for all purposes of subsequent debate and subject only to clause 55, be treated as an original motion.

“That Council Adjourn.”

57. A Councillor may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor or on the conclusion of any business, move without notice that the Council do now adjourn. Such motion shall state the time and date to which the adjournment is to be made. On a motion to adjourn, the mover may speak for not more than five (5) minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and the mover of the motion (if any) which was then under debate may speak for not more than five (5) minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

58. If a motion for the adjournment of the Council be negatived, a similar motion shall not be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the notice paper or any other which may be allowed precedence shall have been disposed of.

59. (1) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move the adjournment of the Council.

(2) A Councillor shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the Council.

60. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when that motion was moved shall be continued immediately upon the Council resuming after the adjournment.

61. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration at the time of the adjournment and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject. Provided that this clause shall not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

62. The Lord Mayor may at any time adjourn the Council to such time and date as the motion specifies, or where no time and date is specified to such time and date as he shall then declare.

“That Debate be Adjourned.”

63. (1) A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move, without notice, that the debate be adjourned to a later hour of the same meeting or to a subsequent meeting of the Council.

(2) On such motion that the debate be adjourned, the mover may speak for not more than five (5) minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and no other debate shall be allowed. Provided that if the question then before the Council is a recommendation from a Committee, the Chairman of the Committee concerned, or, in his absence, a member thereof may speak for not more than five (5) minutes.

64. (1) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then under debate shall not move the adjournment of the debate.

(2) A Councillor shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the same debate.

65. On resuming an adjourned debate the Councillor who moved its adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.

66. On a motion for the adjournment of a debate being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under debate and they shall not be permitted to speak on any resumption of the debate on that subject, but this clause does not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

67. If the debate on any motion, moved and seconded, be interrupted by Council being counted out, such debate may, on motion without notice be resumed at the next meeting, at the point where it was so interrupted.

“That Question be Put.”

68. A Councillor may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor, move without notice and without comment, that the question under consideration be now put, and upon such motion being formally seconded, the same shall immediately be put, without debate.

69. A motion that the question under consideration be put shall not be moved by a Councillor who has already spoken on the question, and such motion shall not be carried without the consent of two-thirds majority of the Councillors then present.

70. When it is decided by the Council that the question under consideration be put, the mover of the question under consideration shall, if debate has ensued and if otherwise entitled to do so, be permitted to speak in reply for not more than five (5) minutes before the question is put, but subject thereto, the question shall at once be put.

71. Whenever it is decided by the Council that the question shall be put, the question to be so put shall include the main question as well as any amendment thereto.

“That Council Proceed with Next Business.”

72. A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move, without notice and without comment, that the Council do proceed with the next business and, upon such motion being formally seconded, the same shall be immediately put, without debate.

73. Where the Council decides to proceed with the next business, the question which was then under discussion shall be considered as dropped.

74. During the same debate on any question, a motion that the Council do proceed with the next business shall not be moved within one (1) hour after a similar motion has been negatived.

“That Meeting be Closed.”

75. A Councillor may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor or on the conclusion of any business, move, without notice, that the meeting of the Council be now closed. On such motion that the Council be closed, the mover may speak for not more than five (5) minutes, the seconder shall not speak beyond formally seconding and the mover of the motion (if any) then under debate may speak for not more than five (5) minutes; but no other debate shall be allowed.

76. If a motion that the meeting of the Council be closed be negatived, a similar motion shall not be moved until after the question then under discussion or the next on the motion paper or any other which may be allowed precedence shall have been disposed of.

77. (1) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move that the meeting be closed.

(2) A Councillor shall not at the same meeting of the Council, move or second more than one motion that the meeting be closed.

78. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when such motion was moved shall stand adjourned to its place on the notice paper for the next meeting of the Council.

79. On a motion that the meeting be closed being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration up to the closing of the meeting and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject: Provided that this clause shall not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

Confidential Business.

80. All matters dealt with by, or brought before the Council sitting otherwise than with open doors, or any Committee of the Council, shall be treated as strictly confidential, and shall not without the authority of the Council or of the Committee (as the case may be) be disclosed to any person other than the Lord Mayor, Councillors or servants of the Council (and in the case of servants only so far as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of such servants) prior to the discussion of such matters at a meeting of the Council held with open doors.

Motions Affecting Expenditure.

81. Where a motion or amendment would have the effect of incurring expenditure not provided for in the estimates, that motion or amendment shall not be moved other than in the form of a reference of the question to the Finance Committee for consideration and report.

Rescission of Resolution.

82. (1) The Council may, at the same meeting at which it is passed, rescind or alter a resolution if all the members of the Council who were present in their seats at the time the resolution was passed were also present in their seats at the time the rescission or alteration is proposed.

(2) The Council may, at a meeting after that at which it was passed, rescind or alter a resolution—

(a) where notice of the motion to rescind or alter is not given, if a motion to that effect is carried by an absolute majority of the members of the council; or

(b) where the member intending to propose the rescission or alteration has, through the Town Clerk, given written notice of his intention to each of the other members of the Council at least seven days before the meeting, if a motion to that effect is carried by a majority of the members voting on the proposal at the meeting;

but not otherwise.

Negatived Motions.

83. A motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived by the Council shall not again be entertained within a period of three (3) months, except with the consent of the absolute majority of the Council.

Suspension of Standing Orders.

84. In cases of urgent necessity any Standing Order of the Council may be suspended on motion duly made and seconded. Provided that—

(a) no such motion shall be made until all business appearing on the notice paper has been disposed of;

(b) a motion shall not be declared carried unless an absolute majority of the Council, or two-thirds majority of those present and voting on the question, whichever is the lesser number, have voted in favour of the motion;

(c) no such motion shall be permitted unless notice thereof in writing shall have been given at the time prescribed by clause sixteen hereof unless the Lord Mayor shall be satisfied that this requirement could not reasonably have been complied with.

85. Any Councillor moving the suspension of a Standing Order shall state the object of such motion, but discussion shall not otherwise take place thereon.

Method of Taking Vote.

86. The Lord Mayor shall, in taking the vote on any motion or amendment, put the question, first in the affirmative and then in the negative, and he may do so as often as is necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion as to whether the affirmative or the negative has the majority on the voices or by a show of hands.

87. (1) The Council shall vote on the voices, or by a show of hands as may, in each case, be directed by the Lord Mayor, but any Councillor may call for a division on any question.

(2) Upon a division being called for, the division bell shall be rung, and after the lapse of one-half of a minute from the bell ceasing to ring a Councillor shall not be permitted to enter or leave the chamber, until after the division has been taken.

(3) The division shall be taken by those voting in the affirmative passing to the right of the chair and those voting in the negative to the left of the chair.

(4) The names of the Councillors who voted on the question on which there is a division shall be recorded by the Town Clerk in respect of every division together with details of whether they voted in the affirmative or negative together with the names of those Councillors who abstained from voting.

Committees.

Standing Committees.

88. (1) In addition to such occasional committees as may from time to time be appointed there shall be ten standing committees of the Council, namely (i) Finance, (ii) Works, (iii) General Purposes, (iv) Health, (v) Town Planning, (vi) Endowment Lands, (vii) Electricity and Plant, (viii) Buildings, (ix) Vehicle Parking and (x) Library.

(2) Each standing committee shall comprise the Lord Mayor and nine Councillors being one Councillor from each ward: Provided that the General Purposes Committee shall, when occasion arises, be increased by one member pursuant to clause 89 (iii) hereof.

(3) The members of each standing committee shall be appointed for each year at the first meeting of the Council held after the annual election and shall hold office until the 31st day of May then next ensuing: Provided that the Council may by resolution change the membership of any committee or appoint substitutes for Councillors absent pursuant to leave granted by the Council.

(4) In default of agreement the members of the standing committees shall be elected by ballot and in the event of an equality of votes for two or more Councillors the Lord Mayor shall have a casting vote.

89. Subject to any resolution of the Council passed after the coming into operation of these Standing Orders the standing committees shall have the oversight of the following matters:—

- (i) Finance Committee: (a) The finances of the Council; (b) items of expenditure recommended by any Committee; (c) estimates of receipts and expenditure for each financial year; (d) loans; (e) the Council's official staff, provided that any Standing Committee shall make a recommendation to the Finance Committee concerning an appointment to the official staff of an applicant whose principal duties pertain to matters the oversight of which has been entrusted by the Council to such Committee, and if the Finance Committee does not accept such recommendation it may be made to the Council.
- (ii) Works Committee: (a) Construction and maintenance of streets, ways, drains, bridges and other public places; (b) sweeping and watering of streets; (c) fencing vacant lands; (d) construction of street shelters and street signs; (e) construction of crossings over footpaths, and any constructional matters in connection with streets; (f) siting of all works buildings.
- (iii) General Purposes Committee: (a) Parks, reserves and playgrounds; (b) enclosed recreational areas, including ovals, other than on the Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate. Providing that recommendations to the Council affecting the charges and allocations for use of ovals or areas in the Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate shall be made by the General Purposes Committee; (c) street trees and road verges; (d) the letting and rental of all town halls and all buildings the property of the Council except that where recommendations to the Council are to be considered affecting the establishment, alteration, maintenance or use of any premises used in connection with matters over which any other Committee has oversight the Chairman of such other Committee shall be a member of the General Purposes Committee when such recommendations are being considered; (e) swimming pools, including the management and control thereof; (f) acquisition of land for recreational areas, but only after receipt of a recommendation from the Town Planning Committee as to the location thereof; (g) civic functions (with power to act); (h) power to make a donation to an organisation for the cost of the rental of town halls, swimming pools or other buildings.

- (iv) Health Committee: (a) Matters affecting or relating to the health of the citizens; (b) immunisation; (c) location, construction and maintenance of Infant Health Clinics and Dental Clinics; (d) administration of the Health Act and By-laws and Regulations made thereunder; (e) public conveniences, and the erection and supervision of the cleaning of conveniences in Parks and Reserves and Parking Areas; (f) Rest and Welfare centres; (g) rubbish and sanitary services; (h) hawkers, dogs and goats, impounding, etc.; (i) street photographers.
- (v) Town Planning Committee: (a) All matters, including acquisition or resumption of land relating to zoning and town planning generally, including in the Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate; (b) location of metropolitan and regional roads including those in the Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate.
- (vi) Endowment Lands Committee: The City Endowment Lands and Limekilns Estate except where otherwise herein provided.
- (vii) Electricity and Plant Committee: With the exception of matters involving expenditure under the City of Perth Parking Facilities Act and Office Equipment (a) the provision of electricity services equipment and fittings for the lighting of streets, ways, reserves and public places, and matters relating thereto; (b) the purchase, sale, replacement, control and maintenance of all Council vehicles, plant and machinery; (c) the purchase of all necessary supplies for the foregoing.
- (viii) Buildings Committee: (a) Control of buildings and building operations and of verandahs, signs, hoardings and similar matters, otherwise than in connection with the property of the Council, but plans must be submitted for inspection; (b) storage of inflammable materials.
- (ix) Vehicle Parking Committee: (a) Control and management of the parking facilities scheme; (b) the definition and allocation for use of street kerbside space; (c) parking areas and shuttle services, and all matters relating thereto, but as to the location thereof subject to first obtaining a recommendation from the Town Planning Committee.
- (x) Library Committee: Matters relating to the control and management of libraries.

Occasional Committees.

90. (1) The Council may appoint Occasional Committees to perform any duty which may be lawfully entrusted by it to a Committee.

(2) An Occasional Committee may comprise any number of Councillors not exceeding the largest minority of the total number of Councillors.

(3) A Standing Committee shall not interfere in any matter which has for the time being been entrusted to an Occasional Committee.

(4) An Occasional Committee shall not be appointed except on a motion which states—

- (a) the duties proposed to be entrusted to such Committee; and
- (b) either—

- (i) the names of the Councillors of whom, with the Lord Mayor, it is intended to constitute the Committee;
- (ii) the number of Councillors intended to constitute the Committee and that they be elected by ballot.

90. (5) If the members of an Occasional Committee are elected by ballot then, in the event of an equality of votes, for two or more Councillors, the Lord Mayor shall have a casting vote.

Calling Committee Meetings.

91. The Town Clerk shall call a meeting of any committee when requested so to do by the Lord Mayor or the Chairman or any two members of that committee.

92. These Standing Orders shall be observed at meetings of committees except insofar as they limit the number of times a member may speak and except insofar as they require meetings to be conducted with open doors.

Quorum of Committees.

93. (1) At any meeting of a committee, a quorum shall consist of not less than four Councillors and the Chairman.

(2) Every meeting shall proceed to business so soon after the time stated in the summons providing there shall be a sufficient number of Councillors present to constitute a quorum but if a quorum is lacking fifteen (15) minutes after the appointed time of the meeting, the meeting shall lapse.

Minutes of Committees.

94. (1) Each Standing Committee shall cause to be kept a minute book in which shall be entered minutes of all its proceedings and transactions.

(2) The minutes of each meeting shall be confirmed at the next meeting of the committee and shall be signed by the chairman thereof.

Representation on Public Bodies.

95. Whenever it becomes necessary to appoint a Councillor to represent the Council on a public body or a State instrumentality, notice of the necessity to make that appointment shall be given at the meeting of the Council next preceding the meeting at which it is intended to make such appointment.

Meetings of Electors.

96. (1) Standing Orders apply, so far as is practicable, to any meeting of electors, but where there is any inconsistency between the provisions of this by-law and the provisions of section 171 of the Act, the latter prevails.

(2) A person who is not an elector is not entitled to vote at a meeting of electors, and he may not take any part in any discussion at the meeting, unless the meeting, by a motion, requests him to do so.

Meetings of Ratepayers.

97. (1) The Standing Orders apply, so far as is practicable, to any meeting of ratepayers, but where there is inconsistency between the provisions of this by-law and the provisions of section 171 of the Act, the latter prevails.

(2) A person who is not a ratepayer is not entitled to vote at a meeting of ratepayers and he may not take any part in any discussion at that meeting unless the meeting, by a motion, requests him to do so.

Penalty.

98. Any person committing a breach of these Standing Orders is liable to a penalty not exceeding forty dollars ($40).

Enforcement.

99. The Lord Mayor is authorised and required to enforce the Standing Orders and to prosecute for any breach thereof.
