Reg. 6

(2) (a) A certificate so granted may, by notice in writing served on a parent of the child, be cancelled by the Director-General if it appears to him that there has been an alteration of the circumstances under which the certificate was granted and that the child should not be exempted from attending a school.

(b) Upon service of the notice of cancellation, the certificate ceases to have any force or effect.

(3) A school shall not be declared efficient or placed on the list of efficient schools if it has less than eight pupils in attendance each day; but the Minister may require an officer of the Department to make a report on persons being over 18 years of age who instruct a less number of children each day, in order to decide whether the instruction is such as may provide a reasonable excuse for the children not attending a school.

9. For the purpose of this division a continuous attendance by a child of not less than two full hours' secular instruction shall be reckoned as a half day's attendance.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of subregulation (1) of this regulation—

- (a) a child whose age is not less than six years nor more than nine years, if living more than two miles by the nearest road or other reasonable means of access from a school, is not obliged to attend a school: but this paragraph does not apply to such a child if, in the opinion of the Minister, satisfactory means of conveyance are available to the child so that the distance to be travelled on foot by the child does not exceed one mile;

(b) a child whose age is not less than nine years nor more than leaving age, if living more than three miles by the nearest road or other reasonable means of access from a school, is not obliged to attend a school; but this paragraph does not apply to such a child if, in the opinion of the Minister, satisfactory means of conveyance are available to the child so that the distance to be travelled on foot by the child does not exceed two miles.

(3) A teacher shall inform a welfare officer or the Department of any child who to his knowledge is living within the area served by his school and does not attend a school, unless the child has a reasonable excuse as defined in the Act and these regulations for non-attendance.

(5) Sickness or other unavoidable cause may be regarded as a reasonable excuse for a child's absence from school if a parent of the child gives the class teacher written notice of the cause of absence within seven days after the first day of absence.

(6) Within seven days after the Minister, or a person authorised by the Minister, requires a parent to produce a medical certificate in support of a child's absence from school on the ground of sickness, the parent shall obtain and furnish the certificate to the Minister or person so authorised.

(7) (a) A teacher shall at frequent intervals, and at least once each term, revise the register of names of the children in his class so that the register contains accurate information for the welfare officer relating to the addresses of parents of the children, and in the case of those residing in the Metropolitan Area, the street numbers of their houses should where possible be shown in the register.

(4) Where the available promotions in any year do not exhaust the list, the names of the teachers who did not receive promotion for that year and whose names remain on the list shall be placed at the head of the list for the following year in order of their eligibility, if their efficiency warrants their retention.

100. (1) A teacher does not lose his place in a promotion list by his refusal to accept promotion or to apply for promotion when invited to do so.

(2) Except for special cause involving extreme hardship of which the Board is the sole judge, a teacher whose name, by reason of the refusal of another teacher to accept or apply for promotion or any other cause, moves to a position on the promotion list above the name of that other teacher, is entitled to, and shall be granted, preference so far as any transfer is concerned.

p. 2431;
G.G.
30/12/66,
p. 3467.

118. (1) Leave of absence without pay may be granted to a teacher at the discretion of the Director-General, subject to the exigencies of the service, but except as provided in subregulations (2) and (3) of this regulation a period of absence without pay exceeding a continuous period of two weeks does not count for any purpose as part of a teacher's service in the Department.

(2) As from the first day of January, 1964, where a teacher is granted leave of absence without pay for the purpose of undertaking studies that relate directly to his duties as a teacher, the Minister, on the recommendation of the Director-General, may determine that such leave of absence be regarded as part of the period of service for all purposes of that teacher.

(3) Where a married female teacher who is liable for service under an agreement entered into by her pursuant to regulation 200 of these regulations is obliged to cease duty because of her pregnancy, the Minister at his sole discretion may grant that teacher accouchement leave without pay from the date of her ceasing duty until the birth of her child, and such accouchement leave shall count as service towards the repayment of allowances received by her while undergoing a teachers' college course.

amended by
p. 2065.

119. (1) A teacher who serves in a school and does not attend the school on its re-opening after the summer vacation forfeits his salary and other remuneration for that period of the vacation commencing on the first day of January and ending on the day of the re-opening of the school, unless the Minister in his absolute discretion for such special reasons as he thinks fit, directs otherwise.

(2) (a) A teacher who does not resume work on the termination of any period of school holidays, other than the summer vacation, forfeits his salary and other remuneration for that period unless he furnishes to the Director-General a medical certificate, given by a government medical officer, of his inability to resume work on account of ill health or such other evidence of his inability to resume work as the Minister considers sufficient.

(b) A medical certificate referred to in this regulation is one given by a government medical officer in this State, but a certificate given by a medical officer outside the State may be accepted by the Director-General in exceptional cases.

120. (1) On and after the first day of January, 1954, a teacher on the permanent teaching staff of the Department is eligible to be credited with sick leave on full pay and half pay in accordance with the following table:—

	Leave on Full Pay. Working Days.	Leave on Half Pay. Working Days.
On date of permanent appointment .....	5	2
On completion of six months' service on the permanent staff .....	5	3
On completion of 12 months' service on the permanent staff .....	10	5
On completion of each additional 12 months' service on the permanent staff .....	10	5

(2) (a) The sick leave so credited is cumulative.

(b) In determining the sick leave for which a teacher is eligible, his service as a monitor and as a student in a teacher's college counts as service on the permanent staff.

(3) For the purpose of determining the sick leave to which a teacher is entitled, all periods of sick leave on full pay and on half pay respectively granted to the teacher shall be deducted from the total periods for which he is eligible as ascertained under subregulations (1) and (2) of this regulation; but where a teacher was appointed to the permanent staff before the first day of January, 1954, the periods of sick leave on full pay and on half pay respectively granted to him prior to that day shall be ascertained as follows:—

- (a) leave granted to him prior to the first day of January, 1954, shall be totalled in days inclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays under the headings of "leave on full pay," "leave on half pay" and "leave on third pay";
- (b) The total number of days, if any, of leave on third pay so ascertained shall then be multiplied by two-thirds and the result calculated to the nearest whole day added to the total number of days under the heading "leave on half pay";
- (c) The total number of days under the separate headings of "leave on full pay" and "leave on half pay" so determined shall then be multiplied by five-sevenths and the result under those respective headings is to be regarded as the periods of sick leave on full pay and half pay respectively granted during the teacher's service prior to the first day of January, 1954.

(4) Notwithstanding any provisions of subregulation (3) of this regulation—

- (a) where a teacher, who was appointed to the permanent staff prior to the first day of January, 1954, and on that day had less than six months' service, had to his credit on that day less than a basic sick leave entitlement of five working days of leave on full pay and two working days of leave on half pay after the deduction of the periods of leave granted to him prior to that day, his credit as on that day shall be increased to the number of working days of leave on full pay and the number of working days of leave on half pay constituting that basic sick leave entitlement;
- (b) where a teacher, who was appointed to the permanent staff prior to the first day of January, 1954, and on that day had not less than six months' service, had to his credit on that day less than a basic sick leave entitlement of ten working days of leave on full pay and five working days of leave on half pay after the deduction of the periods of leave granted to him prior to that day, his credit as on that day shall be increased to the number of working days of leave on full pay and the number of working days of leave on half pay constituting that basic sick leave entitlement;

but any credit or part of any credit in excess of the basic entitlement of leave under either heading of leave on full pay or leave on half pay shall be applied in reduction of any debit under the other heading or commuted to create the appropriate basic entitlement of leave under the other heading as on the first day of January, 1954.

amended by
G.G. 31/5/66,
p. 1423.

121. (1) (a) On and after the first day of January, 1954, a teacher employed as a temporary teacher is eligible to be credited with sick leave on the basis of a cumulative credit of one working day on full pay and one-half working day on half pay for each period of four weeks of continuous service, but the maximum credit in respect of any one calendar year of service for each teacher so employed is ten working days on full pay and five working days on half pay.

(b) For the purposes of this regulation—

- (i) subject to subparagraph (iv) of this paragraph any period of leave without pay or of term or summer vacation is not to be regarded as part of continuous service but no such period shall be deemed to be a break in continuity of service;
- (ii) on and after the first day of January, 1954, if the services of a temporary teacher are temporarily not required by reason of departmental exigencies, the suspension of his services is not to be regarded as a break in continuity of his service, except as provided in subparagraph (iv) of this paragraph;
- (iii) where a break in the service of a temporary teacher occurs on personal grounds for a period and leave without pay is not granted to the teacher for that period, the break is to be regarded as a break in continuity of service;
- (iv) any break in service of twelve weeks' duration or longer, whether by reason of leave without pay, suspension of services for departmental exigencies or by reason of any other cause, constitutes a break in continuity of service, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of this paragraph.

(c) Upon any break in continuity of the service of a temporary teacher all his sick leave credits prior to the break shall be deemed to be cancelled.

(2) (a) For the purpose of determining the sick leave to which a temporary teacher, other than one who has had unbroken continuity of service from a date prior to the first day of January, 1954, is entitled, all periods of sick leave on full pay and on half pay respectively granted to the teacher must be deducted from the total periods for which he is eligible in accordance with subregulation (1) of this regulation.

(b) Where a temporary teacher has had unbroken continuity of service from a date prior to the first day of January, 1954, the periods of sick leave on full pay and half pay respectively granted to him prior to that day shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of subregulation (3) of regulation 120 of these regulations for ascertaining those periods with reference to a teacher on the permanent staff and the leave granted to him as so ascertained must be deducted from the respective periods for which he was eligible as on the first day of January, 1954. If after such deduction there is a period remaining under each or either heading of leave on full pay or leave on half pay the teacher shall be deemed to be eligible to that period of leave as on that day, but if after such deduction there is a debit, that debit shall be disregarded for the purpose of ascertaining his entitlement as from that day.

(3) A teacher who is employed part-time is eligible to be granted sick leave in accordance with the provisions of regulation 120 of these regulations, but any payment to be made to him during that sick leave shall be at the part-time rate at which the teacher is employed.

121A. (1) On and after the first day of July, 1964, a teacher on the permanent or temporary staff is eligible to be credited with sick leave due to a war caused illness in accordance with the following table:—

(4) Any leave taken in accordance with this regulation shall not be debited against any leave entitlements due to a teacher in accordance with regulation 120 of these regulations.

122. (1) Where a public holiday occurs within any period of sick leave granted to a teacher on and from the first day of January, 1954, the public holiday shall be counted as a day's sick leave, but where a teacher after being absent on sick leave resumes duty on a working day immediately following a public holiday, the leave shall be regarded as having expired on the working day immediately preceding that holiday.

(2) Subject to subregulation (1) of this regulation, sick leave granted on and from the first day of January, 1954, shall be computed in terms of working days.

123. (1) If a teacher on the permanent staff is on sick leave on full pay at the time of the commencement of a term vacation or of the summer vacation, that vacation is not to be debited as sick leave against him.

(2) If a teacher is on sick leave with half pay or without pay at the time of the commencement of a term vacation, he must continue on half pay or without pay, as the case may be, for the duration of the vacation unless he resumes duty immediately after the vacation in which case he is entitled to full pay for the vacation.

- (i) who has 15 years' continuous service in the Department, long service leave for 26 weeks on full pay; and
- (ii) who has 10 years' continuous service in the Department, long service leave for 13 weeks on full pay;

(3) (a) Any long service leave due to a teacher in accordance with subregulation (1) of this regulation, but not taken because of the provisions of subregulation (2) of this regulation, shall remain credited to the teacher and shall be added to any further leave that may accrue to that teacher.

(b) Such leave shall be granted to a teacher for special circumstances approved by the Director-General or on the resignation of the teacher, or on retirement in addition to any entitlement referred to in regulation 131 of these regulations.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (2) of this regulation, until the thirty-first day of December, 1968, teachers who have a long service leave credit of 26 weeks may take the full period of such leave under conditions pertaining as at the first day of July, 1964, but thereafter periods of leave for purposes of study abroad, overseas travel or other special circumstances involving dates other than those specified in subregulation (2) of this regulation may be taken only with the approval of the Director-General having regard to the individual circumstances.

(5) Teachers, may with the approval of the Director-General, take double their period of long service leave entitlement as leave on half pay.

(3) [Deleted by G.G. 18/3/65, p. 845.]

(4) Where a person has served continuously in the Department for a period of which period a part was served as a monitor and a part as a teacher (as distinct from a monitor), his service as a monitor shall be counted only to the extent of half the number of completed weeks of that service when computing the continuous service of that person for the purposes of regulations 130 and 131 of these regulations.

(5) Long service leave on either full pay or half pay or leave without pay exceeding a continuous period of two weeks, shall not count as service towards a further period of long service leave, but shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service.

(c) A teacher who pursuant to these regulations accumulates the long service leave for which he becomes eligible until such time as he is entitled to long service leave for 52 weeks on full pay, may at his option and at the convenience of the Department take the whole or one-half of such leave, but where the teacher takes one-half only of such leave, he shall commence to take the other one-half thereof within four years from the date on which he commenced the period of long service leave so taken by him: Provided that the service of a teacher referred to in this paragraph shall not be counted towards further long service leave entitlement until the teacher has reduced the long service leave to which he is entitled to a maximum entitlement of 26 weeks on full pay.

(d) Where a teacher fails to take, in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subregulation and within the periods of time referred to in those paragraphs, any long service leave to which he is or becomes entitled by virtue of this regulation, the service of the teacher for the period from the date on which under any of those paragraphs he was required to take long service leave until the date on which he actually commences to take the long service leave, shall not be counted towards further long service leave entitlement.

(3) Where a temporary teacher is granted leave without pay, the leave does not—

- (a) break his continuity of service except as provided in subregulation (5) of this regulation; or
- (b) count as service;

for the purposes of subregulation (1) of this regulation.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (3) of this regulation, where for reasons personal to a temporary teacher a break occurs in his service, that break is to be regarded as a break in continuity of service which has the effect of cancelling all previous service for the purposes of this regulation.

6. That if from any cause other than death, disease or injury incapacitating her from teaching, or marriage as referred to in clause 7 of this agreement, the Student, after employment has been found for her by the Minister as mentioned in clause 5 of this agreement, fails to enter upon her duties as teacher, or leaves, or on account of misconduct is required to leave, the service of the Minister before the expiration of the time for which she is liable or required to serve as mentioned in clause 5 hereof, the Student and the Guarantor shall immediately forfeit and pay to the Minister, as ascertained damages and not by way of penalty for such breach or failure, a sum of money calculated as follows:—

The sum of all allowances received by the Student from the date of entering upon her Teacher Training course shall be divided by the number of weeks excluding school vacations for which the Student was bound to teach. The resultant quotient shall be payable for each week of default.

7. That if the student marries before the expiration of the time for which she is liable or required to serve as mentioned in clause 5, of this agreement—

- (a) the Minister will continue to employ her without interruption to her service until such time as she shall have served the period of time mentioned in clause 5 of this agreement and after the expiration of this time her employment will lapse;

- (c) if the Student is re-employed in the Department during the time she is liable or required to serve as mentioned in clause 5 of this agreement, she may count any full-time service as service towards repayment of allowances received by her while undergoing a Teacher Training course and the monthly payments mentioned in paragraph (b) of this clause shall be suspended while she is so employed;
- (d) from the date that the Student becomes the natural mother of a child no further claims shall be made by the Minister for repayment of the weekly amounts mentioned in paragraph (b) of this clause provided that legal evidence of the birth of the child is submitted to the Minister;
- (e) if the period of service required under clause 5 of this agreement is more than three years and the Student marries, the amount of damages due to the Minister shall be calculated on the basis that the service as stipulated in the said clause 5 was three years;
