CHIROPRACTORS ACT, 1964.

Department of Public Health,
Perth, 6th November, 1968.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Chiropractors Act, 1964, has been pleased to approve of the rules made by the Chiropractors Registration Board pursuant to section 18 of that Act and set forth in the schedule hereto.

W. S. DAVIDSON,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Schedule.

CHIROPRACTORS REGISTRATION BOARD RULES.

Principal rules.

1. In these rules the Chiropractors Registration Board Rules as published in the Government Gazette on the 9th May, 1966, are referred to as the principal rules.

Rules 10A
to 10C
added.

2. The principal rules are amended by adding after rule 10 the following rules:—

10A. (1) A chiropractor shall not cause or permit any advertisement to be published relating to his profession or the practice thereof other than beyond an announcement of change of address, commencement or resumption of practice.

(2) Every advertisement by a chiropractor shall be continuous without spacing or display and shall be in the type not larger than that used for the regular articles of the newspaper in which the advertisement is inserted and no more space shall be given to the advertisement than that required for its printing.

(3) Advertisements shall not contain any information other than the following:—

A.B. (qualifications approved by Board) has commenced practice as a Chiropractor at.....
Phone—Hours ; or

A.B. (qualifications approved by Board), Chiropractor, has changed his address from.....
to..... Phone—Hours ; or
A.B. (qualifications approved by Board), Chiropractor, has resumed practice at..... Phone—Hours.

The words "in partnership with....." or "as assistant to....." or "in association with" may be added where appropriate.

(4) The number of insertions of any advertisement which may be inserted pursuant to this regulation shall not exceed the following unless the Board otherwise approves—

(a) commencement of practice—twenty insertions;

(b) change of address—ten insertions;

(c) resumption of practice—after an absence therefrom of not less than four weeks—six insertions.

(5) Where a chiropractor changes his address from one place to another in the same town, no more than one such change of address shall be advertised in any one year without permission of the Board, and there shall not be more than ten insertions of any such advertisement.

10B. (1) A chiropractor may exhibit at the place at which he carries on his profession, plates bearing only his name, the word "Chiropractor", his approved qualifications, any registered business name and his hours of attendance. He may also exhibit such notice boards or illuminated signs as the Board may approve.

(2) Where the sign is exhibited on the ground floor level of any premises, the letters and figures shall not exceed 4 in. in size, and when exhibited upon floors above the ground floor level shall not exceed 6 in. in size.

(3) A chiropractor shall not use any descriptive advertising other than that permitted by subrules (1) and (2) of this rule.

(4) A chiropractor shall not cause or permit his name and address and telephone number to appear in a telephone directory except in ordinary type.

(5) Stationery used by a chiropractor shall not contain any headings other than—

- (a) the name of the chiropractor or chiropractors;
- (b) Registered Business Name;
- (c) "Chiropractor";
- (d) Qualifications approved by the Board;
- (e) Place of practice;
- (f) Hours of practise and telephone number.

(6) Except as provided in these rules a chiropractor shall not be a party to any other form of advertisement or display relating to his profession as a chiropractor without the permission of the Board.

10C. (1) A chiropractor shall not describe himself by—

- (a) the title "Doctor" or use any abbreviation of that title; or
- (b) in any other way describe himself or hold himself out to be other than a chiropractor, except with the consent of the Board.

(2) A chiropractor shall not.

- (a) tout or canvass for patients;
- (b) pay, or offer to pay, commission for the introduction of new patients;
- (c) practise, or offer to practise, for donations in lieu of fees;
- (d) depart from his scale of fees and charges except in bona fide necessitous cases.

(3) Except with the written consent of the Board and subject to any conditions imposed by the Board a chiropractor shall not—

- (a) publish or distribute any information or literature concerning chiropractic;
- (b) take part in any radio or television programme concerning chiropractic.

(4) Except with the written consent of the Board, a Chiropractor shall not—

- (a) have any financial interest in any health studio, massage establishment, gymnasium or like business;
- (b) associate himself professionally in any way, directly or indirectly or by imputation with any health studio, massage establishment, gymnasium or like business.

(5) A chiropractor shall not give a certificate that is false, misleading or improper.

(6) Modesty of patients must be respected at all times. Where it is necessary for female patients to undress, facilities must be provided for this to be done in private. Gowns opening down the back must be used for female patients if it is necessary for any clothing to be removed.

Passed by resolution of the Chiropractors Registration Board at a meeting held on the 21st. day of August, 1968.

F. ACKLAND,
Chairman.
W. E. ASPINALL,
Registrar.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor in Executive Council this 6th day of November, 1968.

TAXI-CARS (CO-ORDINATION AND CONTROL) ACT, 1963-1968.

Department of Transport,
Perth, 6th November, 1968.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council acting pursuant to the provisions of the Taxi-cars (Co-ordination and Control) Act, 1963-1968, has been pleased to make the regulations set out in the schedule hereunder.

H. R. IRVINE,
Deputy Commissioner of Transport.

Schedule.

Regulations.

- Principal regulations. 1. In these regulations the Taxi-cars Regulations, 1964 published in the Government Gazette on the 3rd September, 1964 and amended thereafter from time to time by notices so published are referred to as the principal regulations.
- Reg. 5 substituted. 2. The principal regulations are amended by revoking regulation 5 and substituting a regulation as follows:—
5. (1) The several forms set out in the First Schedule are the prescribed forms for the respective purposes therein indicated.
- (2) Where a form prescribed by these regulations requires completion by the insertion of particulars or other matters referred to in the form or sets out conditions in respect of an act being performed or to be performed or includes directions for its completion those particulars or other matters and those conditions are prescribed as those required by these regulations and the form shall be completed in accordance with those directions.
- Reg. 6A added. 3. The principal regulations are amended by adding after regulation 6 a regulation as follows:—
- 6A. (1) An applicant for a taxi-car licence shall support by a statutory declaration the information supplied in his application.
- (2) An applicant for a taxi-car licence shall be a person—
- (a) who is not, or whose spouse is not, the holder of another taxi-car licence and who has not, or whose spouse has not, been such a holder for a period of five years prior to the date of his application;
- (b) who is registered as a full-time driver pursuant to section 22B of the Act; and
- (c) who is engaged full-time as a taxi-car driver and has been so engaged for a period of five years prior to the date of his application.
- (3) Where, pursuant to subsection (2) of section 16 of the Act, the Board is, subject to subregulation (5) of this regulation, satisfied in respect of a number of applications for a taxi-car licence and that number exceeds the number of such licences to be issued, the Board shall hold a ballot to decide the name of each applicant to whom the Board shall, subject to subregulation (5) of this regulation, issue such a licence.
- (4) On making its decision on an application for a taxi-car licence the Board shall serve on the applicant a notice in writing stating that the Board—
- (a) shall, subject to subregulation (5) of this regulation, issue the licence to him; or
- (b) shall not issue the licence to him.

(5) The Board shall not issue a taxi-car licence to any applicant unless—

- (a) he has, within thirty days of receiving a notice pursuant to paragraph (a) of subregulation (4) of this regulation, a motor vehicle equipped and available to operate as required by the Act and the regulations; and
- (b) he has executed a binding agreement between himself and the Board in terms that on the issue of the licence—
 - (i) he shall, if the Board has fixed a premium in respect of the licence, pay the premium in the manner determined by the Board;
 - (ii) he shall operate the taxi-car at least five days in each week and forty hours in each week for at least forty-five weeks of each year;
 - (iii) he shall not lease the taxi-car;
 - (iv) he shall not permit another person to operate the taxi-car for any period without the written consent of the Board; and
 - (v) he shall comply with such other conditions as the Board has, pursuant to the Act or the regulations, imposed on the licence, and that, on default of any of the terms mentioned in subparagraphs (i) to (v), inclusive of this paragraph the Board may suspend, cancel, or refuse to renew the licence.

First Schedule amended. Form No. 1 substituted.

4. The First Schedule to the principal regulation is amended by substituting for Form 1 a form as follows:—

EDUCATION ACT, 1928-1967.

Education Department,
Perth, 6th November, 1968.

THE Minister for Education, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Education Act, 1928-1967, has been pleased to make the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereunder.

J. H. BARTON,
Acting Director-General of Education.

Schedule.
Regulations.

1. In these regulations the Education Act Regulations, 1960 as reprinted in the Government Gazette on the 21st February, 1968 and as subsequently amended by notices published in the Government Gazette are referred to as the principal regulations. Principal regulations.
2. Regulation 4 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for the word, "training", in line three of the definition, "Director", the word, "education". Reg. 4 amended (Amendment No. 21).
3. Regulation 67 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for the word, "training" in line two, the word "arts". Reg. 67 amended (Amendment No. 22).
4. Subregulation (1) of regulation 85 of the principal regulations is amended—
 - (a) by deleting the subparagraph designation, "(a)", in line one; and
 - (b) by deleting subparagraph (b).Reg. 85 amended (Amendment No. 23).
5. The principal regulations are amended by adding after regulation 85 the following regulation:—

85A. (1) A female teacher on the permanent staff intending to marry shall notify the Director-General in writing not later than one month before the proposed date of her marriage and if she desires to continue as a teacher on the permanent staff shall, at the same time, make an application to that effect.

(2) On receipt of an application referred to in subregulation (1) of this regulation, the Director-General, on the recommendation of the Director of the appropriate division, may, if he thinks fit, approve of the teacher remaining on the permanent staff.

(3) Notwithstanding subregulation (2) of this regulation, no female teacher who marries shall continue on the permanent staff unless she undertakes to accept employment and serve the Department in any part of the State.

(4) Where a married female teacher who is approved for continued employment on the permanent staff applies for a transfer, the Director-General may transfer her to another position if that position is vacant and the Director-General is satisfied that that position would be suitable for that teacher.

(5) Where the Director-General is unable to grant a transfer pursuant to subregulation (4) of this regulation to a married female teacher who has applied for such a transfer, the married female teacher may be given leave without pay for a period not exceeding twelve months and if, after the expiration of a period of twelve months, the Director-General is still unable to grant such a transfer, the teacher will be required to resign.

Reg. 85A added. (Amendment No. 24).
6. Subregulation (2) of regulation 95 of the principal regulations is amended by adding after the word, "College" in line eight of paragraph (a), the words, "or The Western Australian Institute of Technology". Reg. 95 amended (Amendment No. 25).
7. Subregulation (4) of regulation 96 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for the words, "the Perth Technical College", in line one of paragraph (e), the word "college". Reg. 96 amended (Amendment No. 26).

Reg. 101
amended.
(Amendment No. 27).

8. Regulation 101 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for subregulation (1) a subregulation as follows:—

(1) (a) Permanent positions, other than those to which appointments are made from promotion lists in accordance with Section B or Section D of this Division, which are newly created positions or which are existing positions which have or may become vacant by reason of the death, retirement, resignation, transfer or promotion of the incumbent or from some other cause, and for appointment to which a teacher is required, either by these regulations or in the opinion of the Director-General, to possess special qualifications, or which entitle an appointee to a permanent responsibility allowance in addition to basic salary, shall be advertised as directed by the Director-General.

(b) The special qualifications described in paragraph (a) of this subregulation shall, if not defined in these regulations, be referred to in the advertisement.

(c) Subject to paragraph (e) of this subregulation, the Director-General, upon being satisfied that the permanent position referred to in paragraph (a) of this subregulation is still required and, if so, that a vacancy does in fact exist in such office, shall fill the same after the Director of the relevant division has duly made his recommendation from the eligible applicants.

(d) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of this subregulation, appointments to lectureships in teachers' colleges which are for a term of years, shall be deemed permanent appointments.

(e) If it appears to the Director-General, in any particular case, that the processes of filling a vacancy and of hearing appeals against a recommendation for appointment thereto are unlikely to be completed by the 31st December preceding the year from which the appointment is to take effect, he may refrain from making the appointment, to fill the position by a temporary appointment and to re-advertise the position in the following year.

(f) When applying for more than one advertised position, a teacher must state which position he prefers and list the other positions for which he applies in order of his preference for appointment thereto.

amended
(Amendment No. 28).

9. Regulation 108 of the principal regulations is amended—

(a) by substituting for the passage, "twelve dollars ($12)" in line four of subregulation (2), the passage, "sixteen dollars ($16)"; and

(b) by adding after the word, "appointment" in line two of paragraph (b) of subregulation (2), the words, "except where the Minister approves payment of the allowance for a longer period".

Reg. 111
amended
(Amendment No. 29).

10. Subregulation (1) of regulation 111 of the principal regulations is amended—

(a) by deleting the words, "or technical" in line eleven;

(b) by adding after the word, "principal" in line twelve, the words, "or a deputy principal of a technical college"; and

(c) by adding after the word, "school" in line thirteen, the passage, "or college, as the case may be," .

amended
(Amendment No. 30).

11. Regulation 112 of the principal regulations is amended by substituting for the word, "District" in line three of subregulation (6), the words, "or Goldfields Districts".

Reg. 118
amended
(Amendment No. 31).

12. Regulation 118 of the principal regulations is amended by deleting subregulation (3).

13. The principal regulations are amended by adding after regulation 118 the following regulation:—
- 118A. (1) A female teacher who has become pregnant may, on application to the Director-General, be granted accouchement leave for a period not exceeding twelve months.
- (2) Every application made in accordance with subregulation (1) of this regulation shall be supported by the certificate of a duly qualified medical practitioner and such certificate shall indicate the expected date of confinement.
- (3) The minimum period of accouchement leave which may be granted a teacher in accordance with subregulation (1) of this regulation is a period commencing eight weeks before the expected date of her confinement and ending at the expiration of eight weeks from the day on which her pregnancy terminates.
- (4) A teacher who has made application under subregulation (1) of this regulation may, at any time while she is on leave in accordance with this regulation, make further application so as to extend or reduce the period referred to in the original application, but so that the amended period complies with the requirements of subregulations (1) and (3) of this regulation, and the Director-General may vary the leave in accordance with the amended application.
- (5) Accouchement leave granted in accordance with this regulation shall be leave without pay.
- (6) Accouchement leave granted in accordance with the provisions of this regulation shall not be deemed sick leave for the purposes of regulation 120 of these regulations.
- (7) A female teacher who is liable for service under an agreement entered into by her pursuant to regulation 200 of these regulations and who has been granted accouchement leave in accordance with this regulation may count such accouchement leave as service towards the repayment of allowances received by her while undergoing a teachers' college course.
- (8) Notwithstanding subregulation (5) of regulation 85A of these regulations, if at the expiration of the period of accouchement leave granted under this regulation, the Director-General is of the opinion that there is no suitable vacancy to which the female teacher can be appointed, he may grant her leave without pay for a further period not exceeding six months.
14. Subregulation (1) of regulation 121 of the principal regulations is amended—
- (a) by substituting for the passage, "paragraph," in the last line of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (b), the passage, "paragraph;" ; and
- (b) by adding after subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (b) the following subparagraph—
- (v) no break in the continuity of service occurs if a teacher resigns from the permanent staff but continues without a break, except for any break occasioned by term or summer vacations, as a temporary teacher in the employ of the Department and such teacher shall retain any sick leave credits accumulated while he was on the permanent staff.
15. Subregulation (1) of regulation 122 of the principal regulations is amended by adding after the word, "leave", in line four, the words, "or accouchement leave".
16. Regulation 123 of the principal regulations is amended by adding after the words, "without pay" where occurring in line one in subregulation (2) and again in line one in subregulation (3), the words "or on accouchment leave", in both cases.
17. Subregulation (1) of regulation 124 of the principal regulations is amended by adding after the words, "service leave" in line one, the passage, ", accouchment leave".

amended.
(Amendment No. 35).

Reg. 124
amended
(Amendment No. 36).

- Reg. 131 amended (Amendment No. 37).
18. Subregulation (1) of regulation 131 of the principal regulations is amended—
- (a) by deleting the word, "or" appearing immediately after paragraph (c);
 - (b) by substituting for the passage, "made." in the last line of paragraph (d), the passage, "made;"; and
 - (c) by adding after paragraph (d) the following paragraphs—
 - (e) to a female teacher who, having been continuously employed for at least four years marries and, in accordance with the provisions of regulation 85A of these regulations, continues on the permanent staff but no payment shall be made until the teacher produces her marriage certificate; or
 - (f) to a female teacher who, not having been continuously employed for four years at the time of her marriage, continues on the permanent staff and completes four years of continuous service and shall be calculated having regard for her salary rate as at the date on which she completes four years of continuous service.
- Reg. 143 amended (Amendment No. 38).
19. Subregulation (4) of regulation 143 of the principal regulations is amended by deleting the passage, "working in accordance with the hours specified in subregulation (5) of this regulation", in lines one and two.
- Reg. 145 amended (Amendment No. 39).
