- Clause 12A added. 4. The principal by-law is amended by adding after clause 12, the following clause:—
 12A. A person carrying on or conducting a caravan park that is not owned by the council may make on-site caravans available there, but—
 (a) he shall not, at any time, make on-site caravans available in any number exceeding 40 per centum of the number of caravans for which the caravan park is registered;
 (b) he shall not, without the express authority of the Minister, make any one or more on-site caravans available for hire and use by the same person for any period exceeding, or any periods exceeding in the aggregate, three months, within the space of one year; and
 (c) he shall, upon an on-site caravan being vacated, remove it to a place that has been approved by the council for the keeping of on-site caravans that are not in use.
- Clause 15 amended. 5. Clause 15 of the principal by-law is amended by substituting for the word, "A", at the beginning of the clause, the passage, "Subject to clause 12A of this by-law, a"
- Clauses 18 and 19 substituted. 6. Clauses 18 and 19 of the principal by-law are revoked and remade as follows:—
 18. A person who contravenes any provision of this by-law commits an offence and is liable to a penalty not exceeding $100 and to a daily penalty of $10 for every day that the offence continues after conviction.
 19. (1) Where the person carrying on or conducting a caravan park has been convicted of an offence against this by-law and, thereafter, again contravenes any provision of it, the council may, by notice in writing served upon him, and, where he is not the owner of the caravan park, upon the owner, cancel the registration of the premises as a caravan park and, subject to the succeeding provisions of this clause, those premises shall thereupon cease to be used as a caravan park.
 (2) A person aggrieved by the cancellation of the registration of a caravan park pursuant to subclause (1) of this clause may, within 14 days after the service of the notice of the cancellation, appeal to the Minister against the cancellation and, pending the decision of the Minister, those premises may continue to be used as a caravan park.
 (3) The decision of the Minister on an appeal under this clause is final and where the appeal is dismissed the premises shall forthwith cease to be used as a caravan park, until a further registration is granted by the council in respect of them, pursuant to this by-law.

Schedule.

Statute 5.

ELECTION OF ACADEMIC STAFF TO COUNCIL.

1. This Statute applies to elections of members of academic staff to the Council pursuant to paragraph (g) of subsection (1) of Section 9 of the Act other than the first such election.
2. In this Statute unless the contrary intention appears—
“candidate” means a member of the full time academic staff seeking election to the Council;
“elector” means a member of the full time academic staff.
3. After the year 1969 elections shall be held in each third year on a day in March, not earlier than the first Tuesday of that month, appointed by the Council.
4. The Administrative Secretary is the Returning Officer for elections.
5. The Returning Officer shall send to each elector notice of an election at least sixty days before the day appointed for the election and shall include in the notice the conditions of nomination pursuant to section 6.
6. A nomination of a candidate shall not be accepted unless it is signed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer not earlier than forty-two days and not later than twenty-eight days before the day appointed for the election.
7. If the number of candidates does not exceed the number of vacancies the Returning Officer shall, in the manner provided in section 16, declare that each candidate is elected.
8. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies the election shall be by ballot.
9. Where a ballot is required, the Returning Officer shall, not later than seven days after the last day for receiving nominations, send to each elector—
  - (a) a voting paper containing the names of the candidates arranged in alphabetical order of their surnames; and
  - (b) notice of the place or places where voting papers may be lodged.
10. The ballot closes at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the day appointed for the election.
11. Each candidate may, in writing delivered to the Returning Officer at least two days before the day appointed for the election, appoint from electors one scrutineer to represent him at the scrutines of the voting papers and counts of the votes at each place where such scrutines and counts are conducted.
12. To vote in a ballot an elector shall—
  - (a) mark the voting paper by placing the numerals 1, 2, 3, and so, as the case requires, opposite the names of the candidates, so as to indicate by such numerical sequence the order of his preference; and
  - (b) address his completed voting paper to the Returning Officer in a sealed envelope marked “Council Voting Paper” and, before the close of the ballot, lodge it at the place or one of the places named by the Returning Officer in the notice sent pursuant to paragraph (b) of section 9.

13. (1) As soon as practicable after the close of the ballot, the Returning Officer shall, with the assistance of such other officers as the Director may appoint, ascertain the result of the ballot by scrutinies of the voting papers and counts of the votes.

(2) Candidates and scrutineers may be present at scrutinies and counts.

(3) Scrutineers may inspect all proceedings at scrutinies and counts.

14. (1) In a ballot the vacancies shall be filled separately.

(2) After each vacancy has been filled it shall be deemed that the name of the successful candidate has been erased from each voting paper and that the remaining names have been renumbered 1, 2, and so on, as the case requires, according to the numerical sequence on the paper.

15. In any scrutiny and count, if a candidate has an absolute majority of first preferences as shown on the voting paper or as deemed to be renumbered, the Returning Officer shall, in the manner provided in Section 16, declare him elected but if no candidate has such a majority the procedure shall be—

(a) the number written opposite the name of a candidate shall be deemed to be a vote or votes against him;

(b) the number obtained by dividing the total of such votes against all candidates by the number of candidates shall be the average;

(c) a candidate with a total of such votes not less than the average shall be rejected;

(d) if all the candidates have the same total of such votes the Returning Officer shall by a casting vote reject one of them;

(e) if more than one candidate has not been rejected there shall be a further scrutiny and count for which it shall be deemed that the name of each candidate already rejected has been erased from each voting paper and that the remaining names have been renumbered 1, 2, and so on, as the case requires, according to the numerical sequence on the paper; and

(f) if all the candidates but one have been rejected the Returning Officer shall, in the manner provided in Section 16, declare him elected.

16. Within the period of two days after the result of an election is known, the Returning Officer shall declare each successful candidate elected by giving notice to that effect in writing to the Director and posting a copy of the notice on the notice board which the Institute shall provide outside the main entrance to the Administration Block.

The Common Seal of the Western Australian Institute of Technology was hereto affixed on the 19th day of March, 1969, by the direction of the Council in the presence of—

  - (b) use abusive, insulting, obscene, blasphemous, or indecent language;
  - (c) behave in any offensive, indecent or improper manner; or
  - (d) damage or deface any furniture or furnishings.
20. An authorised officer may remove from the land any person contravening by-law 19 of these by-laws.
21. A person shall not throw, place, deposit, or leave on the land any rubbish, paper, bottle, can, glass (broken or otherwise), or litter except in a receptacle specifically provided by the Council for the receipt of the particular material.
22. A person shall not, without the permission of the Council—
- (a) mark or affix any matter to any part of the land or any fixture, movable, or growth on the land; or
  - (b) distribute or give out any placard, handbill, notice, advertisement or any matter in writing.
23. Where posters are permitted by the Council they may be placed only on notice boards approved by the Council.
24. The Council may prohibit the holding of any meeting.
25. Where the Council prohibits the holding of a meeting a person shall not conduct, promote or take part in such a meeting.
26. A person shall not interrupt a class, lecture, or meeting by noisy or unseemly behaviour.
27. Except at such times and on such parts of the land as the Director may authorise in writing, a person shall not bring intoxicating liquor onto, or keep or consume it on, the land.
28. A person shall not—
- (a) gamble;
  - (b) play a game of hazard or chance; or
