Department of Public Health,
Perth, 31st July, 1970.

P.H.D. 326/65; Ex. Co. 2090.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Poisons Act, 1964-1969, has been pleased to make the regulations set forth in the schedule to the attached notice.

W. S. DAVIDSON,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Schedule Regulations.

Principal regulations. 1. In these regulations the Poisons Act Regulations, 1965, published in the Government Gazette on the 29th June, 1965 and amended from time to time thereafter by notices published in the Government Gazette, are referred to as the principal regulations.

Reg. 51A added. 2. The principal regulations are amended by adding after regulation 51 the following regulation—

51A. (1) In this regulation—

“registered patient” means a person for the time being registered by the Commissioner under subregulation (2) of this regulation as a person to whom the supply of a substance to which this regulation applies is authorized;

“substance to which this regulation applies” means any of the substances—

Amphetamine
Dexamphetamine
Methyl amphetamine
Methyl phenidate
Phenmetrazine,

the salts of any of those substances and any preparation or admixture containing any proportion of any those substances.

(2) The Commissioner—

(a) may authorize the supply of a substance to which this regulation applies to a person suffering from the medical condition of narcolepsy or a child suffering from brain damage;

(b) may at any time vary or revoke any authority previously given by him pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subregulation; and

(c) shall cause a register to be kept of persons to whom the supply of a substance to which this regulation applies has been authorized and shall cause—

(i) a number to be allocated in the register to each person whose name appears therein; and

(ii) any variation or revocation of an authority previously given by him under this regulation to be entered in the register.

(3) A medical practitioner shall not give, administer, sell or supply any substance to which this regulation applies to a person unless that person is a registered patient.

(4) A medical practitioner shall not on any single occasion—

(a) give, sell or supply to a registered patient;

or

(b) prescribe for a registered patient,

a quantity or amount of any substance to which this regulation applies which exceeds the quantity or amount of the substance that is required for the treatment of the condition of the registered patient for a period of three months.

- (5) A person shall not knowingly sell or supply to a registered patient a quantity or amount of a substance to which this regulation applies which exceeds the quantity or amount of the substance that is required for the treatment of the condition of the registered patient for a period of three months.
- (6) A person other than a medical practitioner shall not—
- (a) prescribe a substance to which this regulation applies; or
  - (b) dispense, give, sell, supply or use any substance to which this regulation applies except in accordance with a written prescription for the substance, on which there are written, apparently in the hand writing of the medical practitioner who gave the prescription, the words, "Registered Approved Patient" or the initials "R.A.P.", followed, in either case, by the registered number allocated under subregulation (2) of this regulation to the registered patient for whom the prescription was written.
- (7) Nothing in this regulation applies to—
- (a) the sale by wholesale of any substance to which this regulation applies by a licensed manufacturer or licensed wholesale seller of drugs of addiction in accordance with the provisions of these regulations other than this regulation; or
  - (b) the use in the manner directed of any substance to which this regulation applies by a registered patient who has been lawfully supplied with the substance in accordance with this regulation.
- (8) The provisions of this regulation are in addition to and not in derogation of any other prohibition, condition, restriction or limitation imposed by or under the Act or these regulations with respect to drugs of addiction generally or the substances to which this regulation applies.

“election” means an election of the elective members of the Board;

“elector” means a producer whose name appears on the roll of producers referred to in regulation 11;

“electoral roll” means the roll of producers referred to in regulation 11;

“form” means a form in the Schedule to these regulations;

“regulation” means one of these regulations; and

“the Act” means the Marketing of Linseed Act, 1969.
4. The returning officer may appoint other officers to assist him in the conduct of an election. Assisting officers.
5. (1) The returning officer shall be paid fifty per centum of the fees prescribed by regulations made under the Electoral Act, 1907, as amended, for returning officers at parliamentary elections; and the officers employed by him shall, while engaged on the scrutiny and count of votes, be paid for their services the fees prescribed for similar duties by those regulations for presiding officers at parliamentary elections, Fees of returning officer and other officers.

(2) Officers employed by the returning officer in the preparation and distribution of voting material shall be paid at the rate prescribed by regulations made under the Electoral Act, 1907, as amended, for presiding officers engaged on the scrutiny and count of votes.
6. (1) For the purpose of the first election the returning officer shall fix a day to be the nomination day and cause a notice, in the form of Form 1, to be published in the Government Gazette and in at least three newspapers circulating in the State. Notice of first election.

(2) The day fixed as nomination day shall be not less than fourteen days, nor more than thirty days, after the latest of the publications of the notice.

Notice of subsequent elections.

7. (1) For the purpose of every subsequent election of a member or members of the Board, the Chairman shall, not less than three months prior to the expiration of the term of the office of an elected member, and not less than fourteen days after the occurrence of a casual vacancy in the office of elected member, direct the returning officer to fix a day to be the nomination day and the returning officer shall thereupon fix a nomination day and cause a notice of the day to be published as provided by regulation 6.

(2) The day fixed as nomination day under this regulation shall be not less than twenty-one days, nor more than forty-five days after the latest of the publications of the notice.

Date of election.

8. Every election day shall be not less than twenty-one days, nor more than forty-five days, after the nomination day and shall be fixed by the returning officer.

Close of poll.

9. When fixing an election day the returning officer shall fix an hour for the closing of the poll at that election.

Lists of producers.

10. (1) For the purpose of the first election the Director shall, not less than fourteen days before the nomination day for the election, furnish the returning officer with lists that are certified by an officer of the Department of Agriculture and contain the full names and addresses of persons who are producers, including each person who is a party to a share farming or partnership agreement by virtue of which the persons who are parties are producers.

(2) For the purpose of each election after the first election the Board shall, not less than twenty-one days before the nomination day for the election, furnish the returning officer with lists that are certified by the Chairman and contain the full names and addresses of persons who are producers, including each person who is a party to a share farming or partnership agreement by virtue of which the persons who are parties are producers.

(3) Where a person who is a producer and whose name and address is not included in the lists furnished in accordance with subregulation (1) or (2) of this regulation makes an application in the form of Form 2 to the Director or the Board, as the case requires, not less than seven days before the day fixed for the election in respect of which the lists were so furnished, the Director or the Board may, forthwith, furnish the returning officer with a further list that is certified in accordance with the sub-regulation under which the earlier lists were furnished and contains that name and address.

Electoral roll.

11. The lists furnished in accordance with regulation 10 shall be the roll of producers for the election in respect of which those lists are so furnished and shall be signed on each page by the returning officer.

Corporate body as producer.

12. (1) Where any producer on the electoral roll is a corporate body, the board of directors or other management authority thereof may authorise any director, trustee, or other member of the board or management authority or its manager, secretary, or other officer (being a person not already enrolled or entitled to be enrolled on the electoral roll) to represent the corporate body as an elector, and, upon receipt of an application for enrolment in the form of Form 2 from such a representative, not later than seven days before an election, together with a certificate in writing evidencing the representative's authority in that behalf under the hand of the managing director, or the president or chairman of the management authority, of the corporate body, as the case may be, the Director or the Board, as the case requires, may, subject to all other requirements of these regulations being satisfied, enrol that representative on the electoral roll for the election in accordance with his application.

(2) No person shall be entitled to be enrolled on the electoral roll more than once, whether as an elector in his own right or as the representative of a corporate body or as a party to a share farming or partnership agreement, or otherwise.

(3) Every authority given under subregulation (1) of this regulation shall remain effective for all subsequent elections and electoral rolls until written notice of revocation is sent or delivered to the Director or the Board, as the case requires.

(4) Any corporate body may cancel or revoke any authority given by it under this regulation by notice in writing under the hand of the said board of directors or other management authority sent or delivered to the Director or the Board, as the case requires, but such a cancellation or revocation shall not invalidate any vote given by the representative person enrolled and voting by virtue of such authority at an election held previously to such cancellation or revocation.

(5) Upon receipt of cancellation or revocation of authority as aforesaid, the Director or the Board, as the case requires, shall forthwith remove from the electoral roll the name of the representative person whose authority has been so cancelled or revoked.

13. A nomination may be in the form of Form 3, but a nomination is not valid unless it— Nomination.

- (a) sets out the full name and address of the candidate and the election for which he is nominated;
- (b) is signed by two or more electors for the election for which the nomination is made;
- (c) contains a statement, signed by the candidate, that—
  - (i) he consents to his nomination; and
  - (ii) he is an elector for the election for which the nomination is made and is still a producer; and
- (d) is addressed to the returning officer and is delivered to him, or forwarded so as to reach him before the hour of twelve noon on the day fixed for the close of nominations.

14. A candidate may, by notice, signed by him, witnessed by an elector and addressed to, and lodged with, the returning officer before the hour of twelve noon on the nomination day, withdraw his consent to his nomination; and that candidate shall, thereupon, be deemed not to have been nominated. Withdrawal of nomination.

15. Where the number of candidates duly nominated does not exceed the number of persons to be elected the candidate or candidates shall be declared elected. Unopposed candidates.

16. (1) Where the number of candidates duly nominated exceeds the number of persons to be elected, the returning officer shall, as soon as practicable after the close of nominations— Ballot.

- (a) cause the full names of the candidates and the day and hour fixed for the close of the poll to be published in the Government Gazette and in at least three newspapers circulating in the State;
- (b) cause ballot papers and counterfoils to be printed, in accordance, respectively, with Forms 4 and 5, setting out in the ballot papers the full names of the candidates in alphabetical order of their surnames; and
- (c) send by post, or otherwise, to each elector—
  - (i) one ballot paper, initialed by the returning officer or a person authorised by him in that behalf;
  - (ii) one counterfoil;
  - (iii) one ballot paper envelope; and
  - (iv) one envelope addressed to the returning officer.

(2) Each ballot paper, counterfoil, ballot paper envelope and addressed envelope, shall be enclosed by the returning officer in a covering envelope which shall be fastened, addressed and forwarded to the person for whom it is intended.

Further
papers.

17. If an elector makes, and sends, to the returning officer a statement in writing setting out his full name, correct address and former address (if any) and stating that he has not received a ballot paper or that the ballot paper received by him has been lost or destroyed and that he has not already voted, the returning officer may issue to the elector a ballot paper, counterfoil and envelopes, or a further ballot paper, counterfoil and envelopes, as the case may require.

Voting.

18. (1) Voting shall be by means of a preferential ballot and a person, having received a ballot paper and counterfoil and wishing to vote, shall record his vote on the ballot paper, in the manner following:—

- (a) Where only one candidate is to be elected and there are not more than two candidates, the elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper by placing the numeral, "1", opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes.
- (b) Where only one candidate is to be elected and there are more than two candidates, the elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper by placing the numeral, "1", opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference, and he shall give contingent votes for all the remaining candidates by placing the numerals, "2", "3", and so on (as the case may require) opposite their names, so as to indicate by numerical sequence the order of his preference.
- (c) Where two candidates are to be elected, the elector shall mark his vote on the ballot paper by placing the numeral "1", opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference and the numeral, "2", opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his second preference, and he shall give contingent votes for all the remaining candidates by placing the numerals, "3", "4", and so on (as the case may require) opposite their names so as to indicate by numerical sequence the order of his preference.

(2) An elector having marked his ballot paper in the manner prescribed by subregulation (1) of this regulation, shall, thereupon—

- (a) enclose the ballot paper alone in the envelope marked "ballot paper" and fasten the envelope;
- (b) complete and sign the counterfoil in the presence of an adult witness who shall also sign it; and
- (c) return the ballot paper envelope, containing the ballot paper together with the completed counterfoil to the returning officer, by post or otherwise, in the envelope addressed to the returning officer, so as to be received by him not later than the day and hour fixed by the notice of election for the closing of the poll at that election.

Scrutiny and count.

19. (1) The returning officer shall place, and keep, in a locked and sealed ballot box, all envelopes received by him purporting to contain ballot papers, until the close of the poll.

(2) An envelope containing a ballot paper received after the close of the poll shall not be admitted to the scrutiny.

(3) As soon as practicable after the hour fixed for the close of the poll, the returning officer shall, in the presence of any scrutineer appointed under subregulation (4) of this regulation who is present, proceed with the scrutiny, count the votes received and ascertain and declare the result of the poll.

(4) Each candidate at an election is entitled to appoint, in writing, one scrutineer who may be present when the envelopes containing ballot papers relating to the election are being opened at the commencement of the scrutiny and who may remain during the scrutiny.

Method of counting.

20. (1) Where two candidates are to be elected, the count of votes shall proceed as provided by subregulation (3) of regulation 19 of these regulations, until one candidate has received an absolute majority, whereupon he shall be declared elected.

(2) The first candidate elected pursuant to subregulation (1) of this regulation shall be eliminated from the count and, to proceed with the election of the second member, all the ballot papers shall be brought into operation and again sorted into first preference votes.

(3) The first preference votes of the eliminated successful candidates shall be disturbed, according to the second preference markings shown thereon, to the remainder of the candidates, and when added to their respective first preference votes, shall constitute the first count for the second member.

(4) The procedure following the distribution provided by subregulation (3) of this regulation shall be similar to that obtaining for the election of the first member.

21. (1) Where the right of a person to vote is not established, or the counterfoil is not signed by the elector and by a witness, the returning officer shall replace the counterfoil and the envelope marked "ballot paper" in the envelope in which they were received, endorse the latter envelope "rejected", and set it aside for safe keeping together with any others that may have been rejected. Informal votes.

(2) A ballot paper is informal, if—

- (a) it does not bear the initials of the returning officer or a person authorised by him to initial ballot papers;
- (b) the voter has not marked it as prescribed by these regulations; or
- (c) it is not marked.

22. (1) At any time before the publication of the result of an election, as prescribed by these regulations, the returning officer may, on the written request of a candidate setting out the reasons for the request, or of his own motion, make a recount of the ballot papers. Recount.

(2) Where the returning officer refuses the request of a candidate to make a recount of ballot papers, the candidate may, prior to the publication of the result of the election, appeal in writing to the Minister to direct a recount and the Minister may allow or dismiss the appeal.

(3) Where the Minister allows an appeal under this regulation, he shall direct the returning officer to make a recount and the returning officer shall comply with that direction.

23. Where on any count two or more candidates receive an equal number of votes and one of them must be declared defeated, the returning officer shall decide, by lot, which of them is defeated. Equal votes.

24. Any dispute arising out of the conduct of an election shall be referred by the returning officer to the Minister and the decision of the Minister in that regard shall be final and conclusive. Disputes.

25. (1) On completion of the scrutiny and count of votes, the returning officer shall enclose in one packet all ballot papers that were admitted to the count, in another packet all counterfoils relating to those ballot papers and in a third packet all rejected votes; and thereupon seal the several packets and indorse on each of them the date of the election and the description and number of the contents and sign the indorsement. Security of ballot papers.

(2) The returning officer shall hold the sealed packets referred to in subregulation (1) of this regulation in his custody together with all other documents used at, or in connection with, an election, until the election may no longer be questioned when the packets and documents shall be destroyed.

26. The returning officer shall prepare and forward to the Minister a statement showing the result of each election and the name or names of the candidate or candidates elected, and shall cause the result of the election to be notified in the Government Gazette and in at least three newspapers circulating in the State. Result of election.

False statements prohibited.

27. A person shall not make a false statement in any application to be an elector, or in any nomination or voting paper, in respect of any election that is held, or that is to be held, under these regulations.

Penalty: One hundred dollars.
