MINING ACT, 1904-1971.

Iron Ore Reserves.

1. Applications are invited for rights of occupancy for iron ore over the land temporarily reserved from occupation pursuant to the provisions of section 276 of the Mining Act, 1904-1971, and contained in the reserves specified in the schedule hereto.

2. In respect of reserves that are grouped with brackets in the schedule, applications may be made for such reserves either separately or in the specified groups.

3. Details of the locations of the reserves and the conditions under which rights of occupancy may be granted are available for inspection on the 1st Floor of the Mines Department, Mineral House, 66 Adelaide Terrace, Perth, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

4. Applications are also invited for rights of occupancy for iron ore over existing Crown land north of the 26° South parallel of latitude, such land to be temporarily reserved from occupation pursuant to the provisions of section 276 of the Mining Act, 1904-1971. Applications should be in respect of blocks of land, each block not to exceed 50 square miles in area.

5. Subject to the provisions of sections 276 and 277 of the Mining Act, 1904-1971, the Minister may authorise any person to temporarily occupy all or any of the reserves in the schedule hereto, and the land to be reserved from occupation referred to in paragraph 4 herein. Rights of occupancy will not necessarily be granted in respect of any of the specified reserves or the land referred to in paragraph 4.

6. Successful applicants will be granted occupancy rights for a period of one year. Applications for renewal of rights of occupancy may be considered in the light of the past performance of the applicant on the reserve in question and will be subject to the provisions of section 277 of the Mining Act, 1904-1971.

7. It is anticipated that a new Mining Bill will be introduced into the Parliament of Western Australia during 1972 and that it will contain transitional provisions which will enable holders of rights of occupancy of temporary reserves whose performance in respect of such reserves is satisfactory to take advantage of the benefits of the new legislation.

8. All applications should reach the Under Secretary for Mines, 66 Adelaide Terrace, Perth, by 18th February, 1972, and should incorporate full details of proposed exploration programmes, including expenditure, and of the relationship of those programmes to present mining operations, where appropriate.

Dated this 23rd day of December, 1971.
