NOTES FOR GUIDANCE

Section 92A of the Stamp Act, 1921 as amended, requires that any person resident in Western Australia who takes out a policy of insurance on any property situated in Western Australia, in respect of which insurance a policy or renewal will be issued outside Western Australia shall furnish to the Commissioner of State Taxation, a return in Form "U". This return must be furnished within one month of the date on which the insurance is effected.

The person required to furnish the return thereupon becomes liable to pay the same amount of stamp duty as would be payable if the policy had been issued in Western Australia.

Any person who fails to lodge the required return within the time specified is liable to a fine of $100 plus the amount equivalent to the duty payable.

Any person who furnishes a return which is false or misleading is liable to a fine of $300 plus the amount equivalent to the duty evaded.

Provided that if the policy of insurance or renewal has been received in Western Australia before the expiration of the period specified for furnishing a return and such policy has been stamped in accordance with Section 94 (3) a "NIL" return must be lodged.
