GOVERNMENT SCHOOL TEACHERS ARBITRATION AND APPEAL ACT, 1979.

Government School Teachers' Tribunal.

Misc. Appeal No. 12/80.

IN the matter of:

- (a) The Government School Teachers Arbitration and Appeal Act, 1979.
- (b) The decision of the Minister for Education, the Hon. W. Grayden, M.L.A. conveyed in his letter of 3rd July, 1980, ref. 154718 which denies Mr. Reddin salary for the position of relieving Deputy Principal until the 19th December, 1979, as stated on Mr. Reddin's appointment notice.

Decision of Tribunal.

Sitting of the Tribunal.

6th Day of August, 1980.

This appeal concerns events which occurred as a result of staffing changes at the Davallia Primary School last year.

The parties tendered to the Tribunal a statement of agreed facts in the following terms:

Statement of Facts.

The facts are as follows:—

- (1) Mr. Gary Graham Reddin is a teacher employed by the Education Department, having commenced on 15th July, 1968.
- (2) Mr. Reddin was transferred to Davallia Primary School as a Master on 1st January, 1978.
- (3) Mr. Reddin received an appointment notice dated 15th October, 1979, appointing him to the position of relieving Deputy Principal (male) from 8th October, 1979, to 19th December, 1979, at salary grade 01CR. This was to be in the absence of Mr. R. Deleo who was appointed as Relieving Principal from 9th October, 1979, to 19th December, 1979.
- (4) Mr. Reddin was paid at the relieving Deputy Principal salary rate to 31st December, 1979. The amount of $220.00 was deducted from arrears of salary adjustments due to Mr. Reddin, being part of the difference between Mr. Reddin's substantive salary and the Deputy Principal's rate for the period 23rd November, 1979, to 31st December, 1979.

- (5) The Appellant agrees that an overpayment between 20th December, 1979, and 31st December, 1979, did occur.
- (6) The substantive Principal of Davallia Primary School, Mr. Elkington resumed duty on 23rd November, 1979.
- (7) Mr. R. Lowe who relieved as a class-room teacher in Mr. Reddin's place was retained in that position until the end of the school year in 1979. ”

In 1979 the substantive position of Mr. Reddin was that of classroom teacher with a year 6 class. Due to the absence of Mr. Elkington and other staff changes the position of Deputy Principal (male) became vacant. Mr. Reddin was invited to take up the position in a relieving capacity for the period commencing on the 8th October and terminating on the 19th December, 1979. He accepted. By notice dated the 15th of October, 1979, from the office of the Director-General Mr. Reddin's appointment was confirmed. It is not in dispute that he carried out the duties of the Deputy Principal from the commencement of the period stated to the 23rd November. On that date Mr. Elkington returned to the school. Mr. Deleo was then acting as the relieving Principal. In the ordinary course Mr. Reddin would have returned to his classroom and Mr. Deleo would have resumed as Deputy Principal but that did not happen.

Mr. Elkington said that when he returned to the school he immediately took over the role of principal. As to Mr. Deleo he added

“I saw him as going back to Deputy Principal.”

In the case of Mr. Reddin, Mr. Elkington was far less certain. The Tribunal refers to his evidence.

“I saw Mr. Reddin as being relieved of class teaching for half time to suit the welfare of the children involved in the classes that had had so many changes. I had visited the school I think on the Wednesday before I took up duties—that would be 21st November. I had spoken to Mr. Deleo. I had spoken to a few teachers, and the impression I got was that although there were no complaints from parents—probably because of the situation that existed—about the change of teachers, they were concerned about it; so I rang the director of the region, Mr. Bennett, and asked him could the class situation be left as it was at that time. It was only for nineteen days. He got in touch with the department and I think probably on the day before he rang me; probably on the Thursday he rang me at home and told me that the department had agreed to do that

From memory, at the morning tea on Friday, 23rd November, I spoke briefly to the staff who were at morning tea and told them what Mr. Bennett had arranged and I said that Mr. Deleo would continue to be relieved of classroom duties and Mr. Reddin would be half time teaching, which existed. I said that this was done to save further disturbance within the classes. I also mentioned my wife's situation, but I did not at any time say that Mr. Deleo was now Deputy Principal.”

Mr. Deleo did not resume classroom teaching at all after the 23rd of November. The Tribunal was told by Mr. Reddin that he continued to carry out the duties of Deputy Principal and that no instruction was given to him to the effect that his relieving appointment had been terminated. The relieving Deputy Principal (female), at the time, Mrs. Cousins, was called by the appellant and she testified that she continued to look to Mr. Reddin as the Deputy Principal after Mr. Elkington returned to the school.

It is clear that after the 23rd November the respondent elected to retain a teacher extra to the then current staffing formula with the object of avoiding further disruption in the teaching of some of the pupils. As a result, there were three male teachers available to carry out the duties of the Principal and of the Deputy Principal (male).

Mr. Reddin was entitled to be paid the higher duties allowance if in fact he carried out those duties. The Tribunal finds that he did carry on discharging duties of the higher position. His work load no doubt lessened with the return of Mr. Elkington but the nature of his employment remained substantially the same.

The Tribunal finds that Mr. Reddin's complaint is justified. The appeal against the decision to reclaim the higher duties allowance for the period from the 23rd of November to 19th December, 1979, is upheld. The respondent is directed to repay to Mr. Reddin the amount debited against him to recoup the alleged overpayment.

Dated the 15th day of August, 1980.
