ROAD TRAFFIC ACT 1974.

ROAD TRAFFIC (INFRINGEMENTS) REGULATIONS 1975.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Road Traffic (Infringements) Regulations 1975. Citation.

2. In these regulations, unless a contrary intention appears— Interpretation.
  - “Act” means the Road Traffic Act 1974;
  - “Schedule” means a Schedule to these regulations.

3. The offences described in the First Schedule are those prescribed for the purposes of section 102 of the Act and the amount appearing in the final column of that Schedule, directly opposite an offence, is the prescribed penalty in respect of that offence, if dealt with under that section. Offences and penalties.

4. For the purposes of subsections (3) and (5) of section 102 of the Act, a prescribed officer is any commissioned officer of Police serving with the Road Patrol and, in a district to which section 110 of the Act applies, the traffic inspector, or where there is more than one, the senior traffic inspector for the district. Prescribed officers.

5. (1) Subject to subregulation (2) of this regulation, an officer specified in an infringement notice as an officer to whom payment of a prescribed penalty may be made shall not accept payment of the prescribed penalty unless it appears to him that the number and particulars of the offender's motor driver's licence have been indorsed on the infringement notice by a patrolman, an officer of the Crown Law Department authorized in that behalf by the Authority or an officer of the Authority. Payment of penalties
not to be accepted in respect of incomplete
infringement
notices.
