SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES ACT 1975, AS AMENDED

DETERMINATION OF THE SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES TRIBUNAL

(22 SEPTEMBER 1982)

Sir Kenneth Townsing, C.M.G., I.S.O..... CHAIRMAN
Mr F. S. Cross, O.B.E..... MEMBER
Mr H. S. Lodge, O.B.E..... MEMBER

SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES ACT 1975, AS AMENDED

DETERMINATION OF THE SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES TRIBUNAL (22 SEPTEMBER 1982)

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT
BASIC SALARY

1. In our Determination of 6 July 1981 we expressed the belief that there was merit in linking the basic salary of a member of the Western Australian Parliament to the basic salary payable from time to time to a member of the House of Representatives. In pursuance of this belief, we set the basic salary of a W.A. member from 1 October 1981 at $29 032 p.a. being 90 percent of the basic salary of a Federal member as at 1 August 1980 increased in line with the national wage decisions handed down on 9 January and 8 May 1981.

2. It so transpired that the basic salary of a Federal member was increased to $33 013 p.a. from 1 July 1981 compared with an amount of $32 258 which would have applied if only the 1981 national wage increases had been granted. As a result, the basic salary of a W.A. member dropped to 87.94 percent of the Federal rate as at 1 October 1981.

3. Subsequent increases of $2 903 p.a. to W.A. members and $2 987 p.a. to Federal members lifted the basic salary of a W.A. member to 88.71 percent of the Federal rate as at 1 July 1982. However, a further increase of $2 500 p.a. to Federal members to take effect from 1 October 1982 will result in the basic salary of a W.A. member being reduced to 82.95 percent of the Federal rate at that date which we are not prepared to accept as a reasonable salary relationship.

4. We consider that a basic salary for a member of the W.A. Parliament equal to 90 percent of the Federal rate would not be inappropriate at this time particularly when the Federal rate reflects the restraint exercised by the Commonwealth Remuneration Tribunal when determining the salaries payable to members of the Federal Parliament from 1 July 1982 and 1 October 1982. In this situation, we hold that we would be justified in increasing the basic salary of a W.A. member to $32 400 from 1 July 1982 and to $34 650 from 1 October 1982 being 90 percent of the Federal rates operative from those dates.

5. However, in view of the need in prevailing economic circumstances to exercise wage restraint we have decided to defer an increase in W.A. members' salaries until 1 October 1982 and to limit such increase to 7 percent of existing rates thereby following the lead set by the Commonwealth Remuneration Tribunal. Accordingly, the basic salary of a W.A. member is to be increased to $34 170 per annum on and from 1 October 1982.

6. We also consider that as from 1 January 1983 the basic salary of a member of the W.A. Parliament should bear a constant relationship to the basic salary of a Federal member and we have therefore decided that the sum of $34 170 which is to be paid to a W.A. member from 1 October 1982 is to be increased on 1 January 1983 to 90 percent of the Federal rate payable on that date. Thereafter the basic salary of a W.A. member shall be maintained at 90 percent of the Federal rate ruling from time to time and such salary adjustments as would be necessary to achieve this objective shall be automatic unless and until we determine otherwise.

ADDITIONAL SALARIES OF MINISTERS OF THE CROWN, OFFICERS OF PARLIAMENT
AND THE PARLIAMENTARY SECRETARY OF THE CABINET

7. The additional salaries at present paid to Ministers of the Crown, Officers of Parliament and the Parliamentary Secretary of the Cabinet are to be increased by 7 percent on and from 1 October 1982.

8. It has also been decided to increase the salaries of Officers of Parliament and the Parliamentary Secretary of the Cabinet to more appropriate percentages of the additional salary paid to Ministers but having regard to the need for wage restraint, the increases resulting from the application of the following scale are not to take effect until the day following the date of the next State general election:—

	Additional salary expressed as a percentage of the Ministerial rate
	%
Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Assembly	100
President of the Legislative Council	75
Speaker of the Legislative Assembly	75
Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Council	35
Deputy Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Assembly	35
Parliamentary Secretary of the Cabinet	30
Chairman of Committees in either House	30
Government Whip in the Legislative Assembly	25
Opposition Whip in the Legislative Assembly	25
Government Whip in the Legislative Council	15
Opposition Whip in the Legislative Council	15

ELECTORATE ALLOWANCES

9. Electorate allowances have been reviewed as a result of increases in motor vehicle, accommodation and other costs incurred in the discharge of members' parliamentary duties. Several changes have also been made in the structure of these allowances.

10. In addition, it will be necessary to vary a number of allowances with effect from the date of the next general election, as a result of changes in the boundaries of certain electorates, the abolition of others and the creation of new electorates pursuant to the Electoral Districts Act 1941-1981 all as set out in the Government Gazette of 20 January 1982.

11. The allowances which are to apply on and from 1 October 1982 and the day following the date of the next general election are set out in the First Schedule to the attached Determination.

AIR CHARTER AND CAR HIRE

12. The existing provision for a Member representing an electorate of or exceeding 90 000 square kilometres to use charter transport at Government expense up to a maximum of $1 000 per quarter, has been varied to allow claims of up to $1 250 per quarter.

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES

13. Recent increases in travel costs particularly for hotel accommodation, have caused the tribunal to lift the allowances payable to Ministers and certain other Members of Parliament when travelling within Australia on official duty. The new rates are to apply from 1 October 1982.

POSTAGE ALLOWANCES

14. As a result of a review of present allowances it has been decided to increase the payments to the Leader of the Opposition both in the Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Council by 20 percent to a total of $2 674 per annum as from 1 October 1982.

OFFICERS IN THE SPECIAL DIVISION OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE AND PERSONS HOLDING PRESCRIBED OFFICES

15. On 10 September 1982 the Public Arbitrator awarded a salary increase of 6 percent with effect from 16 July 1982 to persons in the administrative and clerical divisions of the W.A. Public Service including those whose remuneration to date has been identical with that for officers in the Special Division of the Public Service and persons holding Prescribed Offices both of which groups come within the ambit of the Salaries and Allowances Tribunal. As a result, it has been necessary in order to prevent serious inequities, for the tribunal to award a salary increase of 6 percent from 16 July 1982 to the public servants and statutory office holders within its jurisdiction. The salaries and allowances attached to a number of positions have also been re-assessed.

DETERMINATION

16. Our attached Determination which is in two Schedules is to operate from the dates shown in those Schedules.
Dated at Perth this 22nd day of September 1982.
