ment.
Amended by
G.G. 14/8/81,
p. 3314.

3. (1) In these regulations unless the context otherwise requires—

“bus” means a motor omnibus;

“cash fare” means a fare payable in cash;

“conductor” means a person employed by the Trust or the Commission who has a duty to perform upon or in connection with a vehicle;

“fare” means the amount of money fixed by the Trust under regulation 6 that is payable in respect of a journey undertaken on a vehicle;

“pass” means a pass issued under regulation 10;

“passenger” means a person travelling on a vehicle but does not include an employee of the Trust or Commission travelling on a vehicle for the purpose of carrying out his duties;

“periodical ticket” means a ticket issued under regulation 9;

“permit” means a permit issued under regulation 10;

“regulation” means one of these regulations;

“section” means such portion of a route as is defined as a section pursuant to regulation 5;

“the Act” means the Metropolitan (Perth) Passenger Transport Trust Act 1957, as amended;

“ticket” means a ticket issued in relation to a journey, and, for such period after the endorsement of the voucher as is fixed pursuant to regulation 5, includes a voucher of an appropriate type that has been endorsed in relation to a journey, and, for the purpose of any provision that relates to the issue of a ticket, where the ticket is a voucher the endorsement of the voucher shall be taken to be the issue of the ticket;

“train” means a train or railcar operated by the Commission on behalf of the Trust for the purposes of suburban railway passenger services;

“voucher” means a voucher sold under regulation 8A;

“zone” means a portion of the metropolitan area declared as a zone under regulation 5.

Interpretation.
Amended by
G.G. 14/8/81,
p. 3314.

(2) Subject to subregulation (3) of this regulation, in these regulations “vehicle” means a bus, trailer, ferry boat, train or other conveyance operated by or on behalf of the Trust for the carriage of passengers.

(3) In Part IV of these regulations “vehicle” does not include a train.

Part II—General.

Liability of Trust.

4. (1) Any notice or timetable relating to times or routes of vehicles published by the Trust is only a notice for the purposes of public information and is not intended to be a term, condition or warranty of any contract between the Trust and any passenger or intending passenger.

(2) The Trust is not liable for any delay, breakdown or stoppage of a vehicle.

Trust may declare zones etc.
Amended by
G.G. 14/8/81,
p. 3314.

5. The Trust may from time to time—

- (a) declare zones for the purpose of fixing the fare to be paid in respect of a journey by a passenger;
- (b) mark or declare sections on vehicle routes for the purpose of fixing the fare to be paid in respect of a journey by a passenger;
- (c) fix stopping places for vehicles; and
- (d) fix the period during which a ticket issued for a cash fare, or by way of endorsement of a voucher under regulation 8A, is valid.

Trust may fix fares.

6. Subject to these regulations, the fare to be paid by or in respect of a passenger shall be the amount fixed by the Trust from time to time in relation to a journey undertaken on a vehicle but where—

- (a) a passenger is a child who has not attained the age of five years and is accompanied by an adult passenger, no fare is payable unless he occupies a seat to the exclusion of an adult;
- (b) a passenger is a child who has attained the age of five years but has not attained the age of fifteen years, the fare payable shall be such lesser amount as may be fixed by the Trust from time to time in relation to such a passenger;
- (c) a passenger is a student who attends a Government school, or efficient school in the Education Act 1928, or other educational institution approved by the Trust for the purposes of this paragraph, has attained the age of fifteen years and is travelling to or from a school referred to in the paragraph at the times specified for the purposes of this paragraph by the Trust the fare payable shall be such lesser amount as may be fixed by the Trust from time to time in relation to such a passenger.

Cash fares.

7. Subject to these regulations, all fares are cash fares.

Passenger entitled to a ticket.

8. On payment of a cash fare the passenger in respect of whom it is paid is entitled to the issue of a ticket indicating the fare paid and where the ticket is not issued on payment of the fare the passenger shall demand its issue.

Vouchers.
Inserted by G.G. 14/8/81,
p. 3314.

8A. (1) The Trust or the Commission on behalf of the Trust may sell vouchers at such rates as the Trust may from time to time determine and a voucher may, subject to this regulation, be endorsed under this regulation as many times as is indicated on the voucher.

(2) A voucher may be sold for use only by a class of person, or for a category of travel, specified in the voucher, and a person shall not travel or attempt to travel using a voucher that is not of a type appropriate for the purpose.

(3) A voucher is endorsed by causing an entry to be made on the voucher, by a device provided by the Trust for that purpose, and thereupon the cash fare appropriate to the type of travel authorized by the voucher is deemed to have been paid in respect of a person in respect of whom the voucher is so endorsed.

Periodical
tickets.

9. (1) The Trust or the Commission on behalf of the Trust may issue periodical tickets at such rates and on such terms and conditions as the Trust may from time to time determine.

(2) A periodical ticket is valid for the period stated therein.

(3) Presentation of a valid periodical ticket shall be accepted as proof of payment of the cash fare.

10. (1) The Trust may issue passes and permits entitling the holders thereof to travel on such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the Trust from time to time in relation to such passes and permits. Passes and permits.

(2) A pass or permit is valid only while the holder thereof is travelling in accordance with the terms and conditions fixed by the Trust in relation to the pass or permit.

(3) The Trust may allow the holder of a certificate issued by another public authority to travel on a vehicle on such terms and conditions as are determined from time to time by the Trust.

(4) In subregulation (3) of this regulation—

“public authority” means any department, instrumentality or body of the State or the Commonwealth approved by the Trust for the purposes of this regulation.

11. (1) In this regulation “special vehicle” means a vehicle operated by the Trust pursuant to this regulation either as a private special vehicle or a public special vehicle. Special vehicles.

(2) A private special vehicle is a vehicle hired by or on behalf of a person pursuant to a contract between that person and the Trust, on which is displayed the word “Special” and which is available for travel only to the persons specified in the contract.

(3) A public special vehicle is available for travel to any person desiring to travel along the route or to the place or event specified on that vehicle on payment of the cash fare specified by the Trust in relation to the journey travelled by that special vehicle.

12. The Trust or the Commission on behalf of the Trust may operate a minimum fare vehicle (on which is displayed the words “Minimum Fare”) along any route or to any place and the minimum fare payable in respect of a journey on such a vehicle is such amount as is fixed by the Trust from time to time in relation to a journey on that vehicle. Minimum fare vehicles.

Part III—Tickets.

13. In this Part “ticket” includes a pass and a permit. Interpretation.

14. A ticket is valid only in respect of the person in respect of whom it is issued and not transferable. Tickets not transferable.

15. (1) A person shall not travel or attempt to travel on a vehicle by producing a ticket that is not valid. Ticket to be a valid ticket.

(2) Subject to subregulation (2a) of this regulation, a person in respect of whom a ticket is issued shall not cause, permit or suffer another person to use that ticket for the purposes of travelling on a vehicle or for the purposes of enabling that other person to travel on a vehicle or to travel on a vehicle at a lower fare than the fare that would otherwise be payable by that other person. Amended by G.G. 14/8/81, pp. 3314-15.

(2a) A voucher may be endorsed in respect of, and used for the purposes of travelling by, a person notwithstanding that for the whole or a part of the period for which the endorsement of the voucher is valid an endorsement entered on the voucher in respect of any other person is also valid, but only if each person in respect of whom the voucher is validly endorsed can, whenever using the voucher for the purposes of travelling, produce the voucher or cause the voucher to be produced upon request, and a reference in these regulations to producing a ticket shall, where the ticket is a voucher validly endorsed in respect of, and being used for the purposes of travelling by, more than one person at the same time, include causing the voucher to be produced.

(3) A ticket—

(a) which is torn or defaced;

(b) which is in such a condition that the printing or writing thereon is not readily legible;

(c) on which the printing has been altered, added to, erased or obliterated; or

(d) the period of duration of which has expired, is not valid.

6

(4) A person shall not travel or attempt to travel on a vehicle by producing a ticket other than a ticket issued in respect of that person.

(5) A person shall not obtain a ticket or attempt to obtain a ticket by means of a false statement or representation.

(6) A person shall not travel or attempt to travel on a vehicle by using a ticket that has been obtained by means of a false statement.

Passenger
to obtain and produce a valid ticket.

Amended by
G.G. 14/8/81,
p. 3315.

16. (1) A passenger, other than a passenger who has produced to the conductor a valid ticket shall, at the earliest opportunity, tender an amount in satisfaction of the cash fare.

(2) A passenger, other than a passenger who has produced to the conductor a valid ticket shall not leave or attempt to leave the vehicle without having paid the correct cash fare.

(3) Subject to subregulation (2) of this regulation a passenger or intending passenger who fails to produce a valid ticket when requested to do so by a conductor or other person authorized by the Trust or the Commission shall thereupon pay such additional fare fixed by the Trust under this subregulation in addition to the fare fixed by the Trust in respect of the journey being undertaken by him or that has been undertaken by him.

(4) Where a passenger who holds, or for whom there is held, a valid ticket in respect of a journey being undertaken by him on a vehicle notifies the conductor either before or on arrival at the farthest point of the journey for which his ticket is valid, that he intends to continue to travel on the vehicle the fare payable by the passenger in respect of the continuation of his journey shall be a fare that is equal to the difference between the fare fixed by the Trust under regulation 6 in respect of the journey to be travelled by the passenger on the continuation of his journey and the fare already paid in respect of the ticket.

ticket.

17. A person shall not alter, add to or obliterate any writing or marking on a ticket.

Child fares.

18. A passenger who is in charge of a child travelling on a vehicle, and in respect of whom a fare is payable, shall, at the earliest opportunity, tender, or ensure that the child tenders, an amount in satisfaction of the cash fare to the conductor, and neither of them shall leave, or attempt to leave, the vehicle unless the correct cash fare for that child has been paid.

Seats to be yielded up.
Transferred to Part 111 by
G.G. 14/8/81,
p. 3315.

19. A passenger who is the holder of a scholar's permit or who travels on a vehicle on payment of the fare referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of regulation 6 shall not, if he is requested by the conductor to yield up a seat he occupies, continue to occupy that seat to the exclusion of an adult passenger unless he pays the full fare fixed by the Trust under regulation 6 in relation to the journey being travelled by him.

Part IV—Conduct on Vehicles and Trust Premises.

20. (1) A person who has any infectious or contagious disease shall not enter any vehicle or Trust premises, or travel or attempt to travel on any vehicle.

(2) A person in charge of any child who has any infectious or contagious disease shall not bring that child into or upon any vehicle or Trust premises.

21. (1) A person shall not travel upon the roof, step, mudguard, bonnet, bumper bar or other external fitting of a vehicle.

(2) A passenger shall not stand on the step or entrance of any vehicle whilst that vehicle is in motion.

Amended by
G.G. 14/8/81,
p. 3315.

22. (1) A person who is not an employee of the Trust shall not operate, move or interfere with the steps, automatic doors, emergency doors, any part of the mechanism, destination signs or any other equipment of, or fitted to, a vehicle.

(2) Subregulation (1) of this regulation does not apply to the proper operation, for the purpose of endorsing a voucher, of a device provided by the Trust for that purpose and fitted to a vehicle.

23. (1) A person who is not a passenger on a vehicle shall not take and keep hold of any part of the vehicle whilst it is in motion.

(2) A rider or driver of a bicycle, motor cycle or other vehicle shall not take hold of or attach himself or his bicycle or motor cycle to, any vehicle whilst that vehicle is in motion.

24. (1) A person shall not board or quit any vehicle whilst it is in motion or attempt to do so.

(2) Any person who boards or alights or attempts to board or alight any vehicle whilst it is in motion does so at his own risk and the Trust shall not be put in peril by any happening consequent to that act.

25. A person shall not obstruct a passenger from lawfully boarding or quitting any vehicle.

26. (1) For the purpose of effecting a proper distribution of the loading of any vehicle, a conductor may require any passenger to move from one part of the vehicle to another.

(2) A passenger shall not fail to move from one part of a vehicle to another after he has been required so to do by a conductor.

(3) Except with the permission of a conductor, a person shall not enter a vehicle except by the door nearest the front of the vehicle.

27. (1) A person shall not enter a vehicle after having been informed by a conductor that the vehicle is full, or if the vehicle bears a sign indicating that it is full.

(2) Where any person enters a vehicle which, in the opinion of a conductor, is full, the conductor may require that person to quit the vehicle.

(3) A person shall not fail to quit a vehicle after a conductor has informed him that the vehicle is full and has requested him to quit it.

28. (1) A person who is in a state of intoxication shall not enter a vehicle or Trust premises or, having entered, shall not remain in or upon a vehicle or Trust premises.

(2) Any person in or upon a vehicle, who, in the opinion of a conductor, is in a state of intoxication shall, at the request of the conductor, immediately leave the vehicle and forfeit his fare, if paid.

29. A person whose dress or person might soil or damage any part of a vehicle or the dress of any passenger, or whose presence or dress would, in the opinion of a conductor, be offensive to passengers, shall not enter a vehicle or having entered, remain in or upon a vehicle, if requested by the conductor not to enter or (as the case may be) to leave such vehicle.

30. Where a conductor being of the opinion that a person, if remaining in his position on a vehicle, is likely to interfere with the operator thereof, in the performance of his duties, requires that person to move to another position, the person so required shall change his position in the manner indicated by the conductor.

31. A person not being a passenger, intending passenger or an employee of the Trust shall not enter any vehicle.

32. A person shall not project or lean any portion of his body out of a vehicle.

33. (1) A person shall not smoke in or upon any portion of a vehicle not set apart for smoking.

(2) A person shall not smoke in or upon any part of Trust premises in respect of which a notice is displayed that smoking is prohibited.

34. A person shall not spit on, in, or from a vehicle.

35. (1) A person shall not place or rest his foot or feet on or against a seat of a vehicle.

(2) A passenger shall not permit any child under his charge to stand upon or place its feet on any seat of a vehicle.

36. (1) Except with the written consent of the Trust, a person shall not sell any article or thing or offer any article or thing for sale in or upon any vehicle.

(2) An unauthorized person shall not distribute any handbill, advertisement or printed matter of any kind in or upon any vehicle or any premises.

(3) A person shall not beg in or upon any vehicle or Trust premises.

37. A passenger whilst upon a vehicle shall not place or carry an umbrella, walking stick, box, bag, case, basket, parcel or luggage in such a position or manner as to interfere with the ingress, egress or comfort or endanger the safety of another passenger.

38. A person whilst in or upon a vehicle or any Trust premises shall not commit any nuisance, gamble, swear, use obscene, profane, indecent, insulting or abusive language, shout, or sing, or in any way interfere with the comfort of any passenger or intending passenger.

39. Except where authorized by the Trust, a person shall not blow or play upon any musical instrument or operate any wireless set whilst in or upon any vehicle, or Trust premises.

40. A person shall not enter any part of Trust premises set apart for persons of a sex other than his own.

41. A person unless authorized in writing by the Trust shall not post, stick, paint or write or cause to be posted, stuck, painted or written, any placard, handbill, or advertisement, or other document or thing within or upon any vehicle or any Trust premises, or upon any post, pole, fence, gate or wall owned by the Trust.

42. A person, other than an employee of the Trust who has been authorized to do so, shall not—

- (a) damage, break, deface, interfere with or remove any fitting or part of a vehicle or notice, advertisement or other thing in or upon a vehicle;
- (b) extinguish any lamp in or upon any vehicle, Trust premises or on or about any works being carried out by order of the Trust; or
- (c) damage, or interfere with or remove any recording clock, telephone box, light switch or other property of the Trust whether of the kind mentioned in this paragraph or not.

43. A person whilst in or upon any vehicle or Trust premises shall not—

- (a) consume any liquor, without the consent of the Trust; or
- (b) consume any food, after being required by a conductor or other competent person not to do so.

44. A person whilst in or upon a vehicle shall not throw any article from the vehicle.

45. (1) A person shall not drive or ride any vehicle within any Trust premises unless he is authorized to do so by the Trust.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subregulation (2) of regulation 3 in this regulation, "vehicle" has the same meaning as is given to that expression by the Road Traffic Act 1974.

46. (1) A pedestrian not being an employee of the Trust shall not enter or leave the Bus Station at any place set apart by the Trust for use by vehicles only and designated as such by road markings, signs, or other means.

(2) In this regulation "the Bus Station" means the Perth Central Bus Station situated in Wellington Street, Perth.

47. A person having the control of a child under the age of five years, shall not cause or permit that child to travel in a vehicle unless under the charge of another passenger of at least 15 years of age.

48. Any person finding any lost or forgotten property in or upon any vehicle or Trust premises shall, before leaving that vehicle or those premises, deliver that property to the conductor in charge of the vehicle or to an officer of the Trust.

49. (1) A person shall not bring, or cause to be brought, into a vehicle any animal, bird or reptile, or being in charge of an animal, bird or reptile, suffer it to remain in any vehicle.

(2) A conductor may remove any animal, bird or reptile from a vehicle.

(3) A guide dog in the company of a blind person is not an animal for the purposes of this regulation.

50. A person, having been so required by a conductor shall not fail to remove from any gangway, or passage of a vehicle any parcel, bag or other article brought by him into that vehicle.

51. A person, other than an employee of the Trust, shall not enter a private special vehicle as defined by regulation 11 without the consent of the person by or on whose behalf the private special vehicle has been hired.

52. (1) Where, at or near any stop or terminus, the Trust exhibits by a sign the word "Queue" or some recognizable abbreviation thereof, such as the letter "Q", any person intending to board a vehicle at that stop or terminus shall take up a position in a queue (if any) formed by intending passengers.

(2) Where intending passengers are required to form a queue, whether pursuant to this regulation or on the instruction of a conductor, and a queue is formed, a person shall not—

- (a) join that queue other than at the rear or end thereof;
- (b) having joined that queue take up or attempt to take up a position therein, in advance of the position originally taken up by him;
- (c) pass through or attempt to pass through that queue;
- (d) board or attempt to board any vehicle for which that queue is formed, except in his proper turn, according to his position in the queue; or
- (e) fail to observe a reasonable direction, given by a conductor, for the regulation of that queue.

53. (1) A person shall not bring or cause to be brought, into a vehicle any package or luggage which, in the opinion of a conductor—

- (a) exceeds 16 kg in weight;
- (b) is of dimensions exceeding 720 millimetres by 460 millimetres by 260 millimetres;
- (c) cannot readily be accommodated in the vehicle; or
- (d) is likely to damage the vehicle or interfere with the comfort or convenience of any passenger.

(2) A person shall not place any package or luggage in such a position as would cause it to interfere with the ingress or egress of passengers and, where a conductor has indicated a position for the placing of that package or luggage, a person shall not place it in any other position.

54. (1) A person shall not carry a perambulator or pusher on any vehicle, other than by means of hooks (if any) provided at the rear of the vehicle, and then only on such of those hooks as is not already taken up by a perambulator or pusher.

(2) A perambulator or pusher will not be carried by the Trust if it contains goods or parcels or unless it is accompanied by an adult passenger.

(3) Any perambulator or pusher carried by the Trust is carried free of charge but at the risk of the owner.

55. On any route where no alternative satisfactory parcels service exists, the Trust may accept parcels for carriage at such times and on such conditions as may, from time to time, be determined by the Trust.

56. A person shall not bring, or cause to be brought into any vehicle or consign for carriage by the Trust, any package containing any flammable or explosive substance or any dangerous thing.

57. The Trust is not responsible for the loss of or damage to any luggage, package or parcel, carried pursuant to regulations 55 and 56 of these regulations.

58. Any person offending against regulations 20 to 22 (both inclusive), 25 to 46 (both inclusive), 49 or 51 may in addition to any penalty prescribed for the offence, be removed, by or under the direction of a conductor or other authorized person, from the vehicle or premises in or upon which the offence was committed.

Part V—Miscellaneous.

Transferred to Part V by G.G. 14/8/81,
p. 3315.

59. (1) Every passenger whilst travelling upon a vehicle or upon quitting a vehicle shall, if so required by a conductor give to that conductor his full name and address.

(2) A passenger required to give his full name and address, pursuant to this regulation shall not give a false name or false address.

(3) Where a conductor requires a passenger to identify himself with the name and address given by him, pursuant to this regulation, the passenger shall produce any evidence of his identity then and there available.

60. (1) Any article or thing found or left unclaimed in any Trust premises or upon any vehicle and subsequently deposited at a lost property office of the Trust shall be delivered to the person only who proves ownership thereof to the satisfaction of the officer in charge of that office and upon payment of such charges, as may from time to time be determined by the Trust.

(2) The Trust is not required to keep any lost article of a perishable nature longer than twenty-four hours.

61. (1) A person who fails to comply with or contravenes any of these regulations commits an offence.

(2) A person who commits an offence against any of these regulations other than regulation 19, 35, 37, 39, 47 or 54 of these regulations is liable to a minimum penalty of ten dollars and to a maximum penalty of one hundred dollars.

(3) A person who commits an offence against regulation 19, 35, 37, 39, 47 or 54 of these regulations is liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars.
