UNLEADED PETROL ACT 1984

I HEREBY notify for general information that under section 8 of the Unleaded Petrol Act 1984 I authorize that where at any site a petrol retailer sells a quantity of unleaded petrol of a higher octane rating than 91 octane that petrol retailer shall be exempt at that site in respect of that petrol from any price constraint imposed by section 8 of the Act provided always that at the time of that sale the petrol retailer has also available for sale at the site unleaded petrol of the same quantity of at least 91 octane at a price not exceeding that of petrol that is not unleaded sold at the same site.

This exemption may be varied or revoked by future notice published in the Gazette.

GAVAN TROY,
Minister for Transport.
