CITY OF PERTH PARKING FACILITIES ACT 1956

By-Law Relating to Parking Facilities

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the abovementioned Act and all other powers enabling it, the Council of the abovementioned Municipality hereby records having resolved on the 20th day of February 1989 to submit for approval by the Minister and for subsequent confirmation by the Governor that By-law No. 60 be repealed and the following substituted therefor:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Repeal

1. All previous by-laws made pursuant to the City of Perth Parking Facilities Act are hereby repealed.

Citation

2. This By-law may be cited as the City of Perth Parking Facilities By-Law.

Definitions

3. In this By-Law unless the context otherwise requires:

“Act” means the City of Perth Parking Facilities Act, 1956.

“attended parking station” means a parking station attended by an officer of the Council and in respect of which fees for the parking of a vehicle are payable immediately prior to the removal of the vehicle from the station.

“coin” means any coin which is legal tender pursuant to the Currency Act 1965 (Commonwealth).

“commercial vehicle” means a vehicle which comes within the interpretation of a motor wagon in the First Schedule to the Road Traffic Act, and includes any other vehicle (not being a trailer or a vehicle to which a trailer is attached) constructed primarily for the conveyance therein or thereon of goods.

“emergency vehicle” has the same meaning as that expression in the Road Traffic Code.

“entrance ticket” means a ticket issued by an entrance ticket machine.

“entrance ticket machine” means a machine installed at an entrance to an attended parking station and from which entrance tickets are issued to vehicles entering that parking station.

“exit ticket” means a ticket issued by a fee collection machine.

“fee collection machine” means a machine installed in an attended parking station which upon the insertion therein of an entrance ticket and of a fee issues an exit ticket.

“footpath” includes a path used by, or set aside or intended for use by, pedestrians or both pedestrians and cyclists.

“kerb” means any structure, mark, marking or device to delineate or indicate the edge of a carriageway.

“loading zone” means a parking stall designated for use by commercial vehicles.

“motor cycle” means a motor vehicle designed to travel on two wheels but shall not include a motor vehicle to which a side car is attached.

“omnibus” has the same meaning as that expression in the Road Traffic Act.

“parking” has the same meaning as given to it in the Act.

“parking stall” means a section of a road or of a parking station which is marked or defined in any way to indicate where a vehicle or vehicles may stand or be parked but does not include a metered space.

“parking station” means a parking station established by the Council pursuant to the Act and includes those listed and numbered in the Third Schedule.

“parking ticket” means a ticket which is issued from a ticket issuing machine and which authorises the parking of a vehicle in a parking stall or a parking station.

"standing" has the same meaning as is given to it in the Act.

"taxi" has the same meaning as that expression in the Road Traffic Code.

"ticket issuing machine" means a machine or device which is installed in a parking facility and which upon the insertion of coins or a token, pass, card, key or device issues a parking ticket.

"ticket machine zone" means a parking facility in which ticket issuing machines are installed but does not include a parking station in which voucher validating machines are also installed.

"tourist bus" means any omnibus used solely for the carriage of tourists but does not include a public bus.

"vehicle" includes:

- (a) every conveyance, not being a train, vessel or aircraft, and every object capable of being propelled or drawn, on wheels or tracks, by any means; and
- (b) where the context permits, an animal being driven or ridden.

"voucher validating machine" means a machine which is installed in a parking station and which upon the insertion of a parking voucher validates the voucher by imprinting thereon the day of the year (by number or otherwise) and the time of validation and the number of the machine.

Application of signs

4. Where the standing or parking of vehicles in a road is regulated or prohibited by a sign then the sign shall for the purposes of this By-law apply to that part of the road which:

- (a) lies beyond the sign;
- (b) lies between the sign and the next sign beyond the sign; and
- (c) is that half of the carriageway of the road nearest to the sign.

Application of by-law

5. This By-Law shall apply to the whole of the Parking Region No. 1 constituted pursuant to the Act.

PART 2—PARKING IN ROADSParking contrary to signs

6. (1) A person shall not stand a vehicle on any part of a road:
- (a) if the standing of a vehicle on that part is prohibited at all times by a sign; or
 - (b) during a period in which the standing of vehicles on that part is prohibited by a sign.
- (2) A person shall not park a vehicle on any part of a road:
- (a) if the parking of vehicles on that part is prohibited at all times by a sign; or
 - (b) during a period in which the parking of vehicles on that part is prohibited by a sign.
- (3) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle on any part of a road whether or not that part is marked as a metered space or as a parking stall, for more than the maximum time specified by a sign.

Median strips and traffic islands

7. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle on any part of a road so that any portion of the vehicle is:
- (a) on a median strip;
 - (b) adjacent to a median strip otherwise than in a parking stall or metered space; or
 - (c) on, or within 9 metres of any portion of a carriageway bounded on one or both sides by a traffic island.

Parking position on road

8. (1) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle on a road otherwise than:
- (a) parallel to the kerb of that road;
 - (b) as close to the kerb as practicable;
 - (c) headed in the direction of the movement of traffic on the part of the road on which the vehicle is parked; and
 - (d) wholly within a parking stall if the part of the road upon which the vehicle is standing or parked is provided with parking stalls.
- (2) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a parking stall which is not set out parallel to a kerb otherwise than wholly within that parking stall.

Parking in occupied stall

9. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), a person shall not stand or park or attempt to stand or park a vehicle in a parking stall in which another vehicle is standing or parked.

(2) Sub-clause (1) shall not apply to the parking of both a bicycle and a motorcycle in a stall marked "M/C".

Intersections, hoardings and footpaths

10. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle so that any portion of the vehicle is:

- (a) within 6 metres of the nearest lateral boundary of any road intersecting the road on the side of which the vehicle is standing or parked;
- (b) alongside any hoarding, scaffolding, obstacle or impediment to traffic; or
- (c) on a footpath or a place of refuge for pedestrians.

Traffic obstructions

11. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle:

- (a) on any road so as to cause an obstruction thereof;
- (b) at any place so as to cause an obstruction to any vehicular entrance or exit of any premises;
- (c) upon an intersection except adjacent to a carriageway boundary that is not broken by an intersecting carriageway.

Double parking

12. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), a person shall not stand or park a vehicle on a road so that any portion of the vehicle is between any vehicle which is parked or standing on a carriageway of that road and the centre of that road.

(2) Sub-clause (1) shall not apply to:

- (a) a person who parks a motor cycle or a bicycle in a stall marked "M/C"; or
- (b) a person who stands or parks a vehicle in a parking stall or metered space abreast of or alongside another vehicle.

Verge parking

13. (1) Subject to sub-clauses (2) and (3), a person shall not stand or park a vehicle so that any portion of the vehicle is between the edge of the carriageway of a road and the boundary of that road nearest to that edge.

(2) The occupier of premises and any person authorised by the occupier may stand or park a vehicle on that portion of a road adjacent to the premises which is between the edge of the carriageway of the road and the boundary of the road nearest the premises unless the parking or standing of vehicles on that portion is prohibited by a sign.

(3) Nothing in sub-clauses (1) or (2) shall authorise a person to stand or park any portion of a vehicle on a footpath.

Parking near fire hydrant

14. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle on a road so that any portion of the vehicle is within one metre of a pillar fire hydrant.

Parking on pedestrian crossing

15. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2) a person shall not stand or park a vehicle on a pedestrian crossing.

(2) Sub-clause (1) shall not apply if:

- (a) the driver of the vehicle is prevented from proceeding by circumstances beyond his control; or
- (b) it is necessary for the driver of the vehicle to stop in order to avoid an accident.

No parking within one hour

16. Where:

- (a) parking in a road is restricted as to time; and
- (b) a vehicle has been parked in that road,

a person shall not park that vehicle again in that road unless:

- (c) the vehicle has been removed from the road for at least one hour; or
- (d) there is between the place where the vehicle had been parked and the place where the vehicle is subsequently parked another road that meets or intersects that road.

Parking in set aside roads

17. (1) The Council may by use of signs set aside any road or part of a road, whether marked as a metered space or parking stall or not, for the parking of vehicles by persons of a particular class.

(2) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle on a road or part of a road set aside under this clause:

- (a) unless the person is a member of the class referred to in sub-clause (1); or
- (b) except with the permission of the Council or an inspector.

Direction to move vehicle

18. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle on any part of a road, after an inspector or a member of the Police Force directs the driver of the vehicle to move the vehicle therefrom.

Loading zones

19. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), a person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a loading zone.

(2) A person may stand or park a vehicle in a loading zone:

- (a) if the vehicle is a commercial vehicle; and
- (b) if a person is continuously engaged in loading or unloading goods to or from the vehicle.

(3) A person shall not stand a commercial vehicle in a loading zone:

- (a) for more than 5 minutes unless the tare weight of the vehicle is greater than 1,000 kilograms; or
- (b) for more than 15 minutes.

(4) For the purpose of this clause the term "tare" has the same meaning as is given to it in the Vehicle Standards Regulations 1977.

Pedestrian malls

20. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), a person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a pedestrian mall.

(2) A person may stand or park a vehicle in a pedestrian mall if the vehicle is:

- (a) an emergency vehicle;
- (b) a special purpose vehicle;
- (c) a vehicle being used by a medical practitioner in the practice of his profession;
- (d) a taxi conveying a lodger to or from premises to which access is ordinarily gained from the pedestrian mall and in respect of which premises a hotel licence is in force under the Liquor Act 1970;
- (e) the subject of a written authorisation by the Board applicable to the vehicle and to the time in which the vehicle is standing or parked in the pedestrian mall; or
- (f) a service vehicle which is:
 - (i) in a loading zone;
 - (ii) during a period in which service vehicles are permitted to enter the pedestrian mall;
 - (iii) has a person continuously engaged in loading or unloading goods to or from the vehicle; and
 - (iv) standing or parking for a continuous period of not more than 15 minutes.

Public bus parking stalls

21. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), a person shall not stand or park a vehicle other than a public bus in a parking stall set aside for use by public buses.

(2) For the purpose of taking up or setting down passengers, a person may stand a vehicle other than a tourist bus in a parking stall set aside for use by public buses.

Tourist bus stalls

22. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), a person shall not stand or park a vehicle other than a tourist bus in a parking stall set aside for use by tourist buses.

(2) For the purpose of taking up or setting down passengers, a person may stand a vehicle other than a public bus in a parking stall set aside for use by tourist buses.

PART 3—METERED ZONESFees in metered zones

23. The fees payable for the standing and parking of vehicles in metered zones are as set out in Part 1 of the First Schedule.

Expired meter, parking limit and hooded meter

24. (1) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a metered space:

- (a) on any permitted day or during any permitted period if the parking meter has expired;
- (b) for longer than any maximum period; or
- (c) if the parking meter is hooded with a covering bearing the words "No Parking".

(2) A reference in this clause to:

- (a) "permitted day" or "permitted period" with respect to a metered space means any day or period stated on the parking meter during which the parking of vehicles is permitted upon insertion of coins in the parking meter;
- (b) "maximum period" with respect to a metered space means the maximum period stated on the parking meter during which the continuous parking of a vehicle in the space is permitted.

(3) For the purpose of this clause a parking meter has expired if the meter displays:

- (a) the sign "expired"; or
- (b) a series of flashing red lights.

Parking position in metered space

25. (1) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a metered space which is set out parallel to a kerb otherwise than:

- (a) parallel to the kerb;
- (b) as close to the kerb as practicable;
- (c) wholly within that metered space; and

(d) headed in the direction of the movement of traffic on the part of the road on which the metered space is situated.

(2) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a metered space which is not set out parallel to a kerb otherwise than wholly within the metered space.

Occupied metered space

26. A person shall not stand or park or attempt to stand or park a vehicle wholly or partly in a metered space in which another vehicle is standing or parked.

No parking within one hour

27. A person who removes a vehicle from a metered space shall not stand or park that vehicle in that metered space for at least one hour after such removal.

Permits in metered zones

28. (1) The Council or an inspector may upon payment of the fee prescribed in Part 2 of the First Schedule permit a person who requires to stand or park a specified vehicle or vehicles in a metered space in order to carry out urgent or essential work or services to stand or park a vehicle in the metered space for a period longer than the maximum period whether or not at any time the meter has expired or is hooded with a covering bearing the words "No Parking".

(2) A permit issued under sub-clause (1) may:

- (a) notwithstanding Clause 24, authorise the standing or parking of the vehicle continuously for a specified period or periods or between specified times or from time to time during a specified period;
- (b) be revoked or suspended at any time by the Council or an inspector before the expiration of any time or period specified in the permit without responsibility for any liability for any loss or claim.

(3) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in respect of which a permit has been issued pursuant to sub-clause (2):

- (a) except at the times or during the period specified in the permit;
- (b) for any purpose other than the purpose specified in the permit;
- (c) at any time after the cancellation withdrawal or suspension of the permit.

Vehicles in motor cycle spaces

29. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle other than a bicycle or a motor cycle to which no sidecar or side-box is attached in a parking stall or metered space:

- (a) marked with the symbol "M/C"; or
- (b) in which the parking of bicycles or motor cycles is permitted by a sign referable to that parking stall or metered space.

Parking limits for motor cycles

30. A person shall not stand or park a bicycle or motor cycle in a parking stall or metered space marked with the symbol "M/C":

- (a) for longer than the maximum period permitted for parking in that parking stall or metered space by a sign referable to that parking stall or metered space;
- (b) if there is no sign referable to that parking stall or metered space then for longer than the maximum period during which a vehicle may stand or be parked in any parking stall or metered space adjacent thereto; or
- (c) otherwise than wholly within the stall or space.

Motor cycles in M/C spaces only

31. A person shall not park a motor cycle or bicycle in a parking stall or metered space unless the stall or space is marked with the symbol "M/C".

Damage to parking meters

32. A person shall not attempt to remove, damage, deface, misuse or interfere with any parking meter.

Signs on parking meters

33. A person shall not, without the permission of the Council, affix any board sign, placard, notice, cover or other thing to or paint or write upon any parking meter.

Use of coins in parking meters

34. A person shall not insert or cause to be inserted or attempt to insert into a coin slot of a parking meter any thing other than a coin appropriate to that slot.

Operating parking meters

35. A person shall not operate or attempt to operate a parking meter except in accordance with the operating instructions appearing on the parking meter.

PART 4—TICKET MACHINE ZONESFees in ticket machine zones

36. The fees for the standing and parking of vehicles in:

- (a) a ticket machine zone described in the Second Schedule are those fees set out opposite the description of the zone in the Second Schedule;
- (b) a ticket machine zone described in Column 1 of the Third Schedule are those fees set out in Column 4 of the Third Schedule opposite the description of the zone.

Display of tickets

37. (1) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a ticket machine zone during any permitted period unless:

- (a) an unexpired ticket; and
- (b) the date and time of issue or expiry, as the case may be, and the number (if any) of the ticket printed on the ticket, are displayed inside the vehicle and are clearly visible to and able to be read by an inspector from outside the vehicle at all times while the vehicle remains standing or parked in the zone.

(2) In this clause "unexpired parking ticket" means a parking ticket on which:

- (a) a date and expiry time is printed and that time has not expired; or
- (b) a date and time of issue is printed and the period for which that ticket remains valid as stated on the parking meter from which the ticket was purchased has not expired.

(3) For the purpose of this clause, where more than one parking ticket is displayed bearing the same date and time of issue, the period for each ticket referred to in paragraph (b) of sub-clause (2) shall be aggregated and the tickets shall be deemed not to have expired until the expiry of the aggregate of those periods.

Parking limits

38. (1) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a ticket machine zone during any permitted period for longer than the maximum period.

(2) A reference in this clause to:

- (a) "maximum period" with respect to a ticket machine zone means the maximum period stated on the ticket issuing machines in the zone during which the continuous parking of a vehicle in the zone is permitted;
- (b) "permitted period" with respect to a ticket machine zone means the period stated on the ticket issuing machines in the zone during which the parking of vehicles is permitted upon purchase of a parking ticket.

Parking position in ticket machine zones

39. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a ticket machine zone:

- (a) on any part of which there are parking stalls set out parallel to a kerb otherwise than:
 - (i) parallel to that kerb;
 - (ii) as close to the kerb as practicable;
 - (iii) wholly within a parking stall; and
 - (iv) headed in the direction of the movement of traffic on the part of the road on which the parking stall is situated;
- (b) on any part of which there are parking stalls not set out parallel to a kerb otherwise than wholly within a parking stall.

Use of coins in ticket machines

40. A person shall not insert or cause to be inserted or attempt to insert into a coin slot of a ticket issuing machine anything other than a coin appropriate to that slot.

Operation of ticket machines

41. A person shall not operate or attempt to operate a ticket issuing machine except in accordance with the operating instructions appearing on that ticket issuing machine.

PART 5—PARKING STATIONS AND PARKING FACILITIESFees for parking vouchers

42. The fees payable for the purchase of parking vouchers for use in a parking station specified in Column 1 of the Third Schedule are those fees specified in Column 5 of the Third Schedule appearing opposite the description of the parking station.

Display of vouchers and tickets

43. (1) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a parking station equipped with a voucher validating machine during any permitted period unless:

- (a) an unexpired parking voucher applicable to that parking station and validated by a voucher validating machine for that day; or
- (b) an unexpired parking ticket or unexpired parking tickets applicable to that parking station and issued on that day; and
- (c) the date and the time of validation of the voucher or issue or expiry of the ticket, as the case may be, and the number of the voucher or the ticket, if any, printed thereon, are displayed inside the vehicle and are clearly visible to and able to be read by an inspector from outside the vehicle at all times while the vehicle remains standing or parking in the parking station.

(2) A reference in this clause to:

- (a) "permitted period" with respect to a parking station equipped with a voucher validating machine means the period stated on the voucher validating machines in the zone during which the parking of vehicle is permitted upon the purchase of a parking ticket or validation of a parking voucher;
- (b) "unexpired parking ticket" means a parking ticket on which:
 - (i) a date and expiry time is printed and that time has not expired; or
 - (ii) a date and time of issue is printed and the period for which that ticket remains valid as stated on the parking meter from which the ticket was purchased has not expired;
- (c) "unexpired parking voucher" means a parking voucher on which the period commencing at the time of validation printed thereon has not expired.

Use of parking tickets and vouchers

44. A person shall not:

- (a) deface, alter, add to, erase, obliterate or interfere with a parking voucher or a parking ticket or any information printing or imprint thereon;
- (b) display in a vehicle so as to be visible from outside the vehicle a parking voucher or a parking ticket which has been defaced altered added to erased obliterated or interfered with;
- (c) produce to an inspector or a person authorised by the Council to accept payment of parking fees, a parking ticket which is, or any information printing or imprint on which is defaced, altered, added to, erased, obliterated or interfered with;
- (d) use or attempt to use or validate a parking voucher in respect of any period of parking in excess of the period or periods of parking that may be authorised by that parking voucher.

Fees for motor cycles in parking stations

45. (1) In a parking station described in Column 1 of the Third Schedule:—

- (a) the fee payable for the parking of a motor cycle; and
- (b) the period in respect of which the fee is payable,

is the fee and the period specified in Columns 4 and 5 of the Third Schedule respectively.

(2) The Council shall not be obliged to accept payment of any fee referred to in this clause.

Parking position for motor cycles

46. A person shall not stand or park a motor cycle in a parking station equipped with a ticket issuing machine or a voucher validating machine unless:

- (a) wholly within a parking stall marked with the symbol "M/C" or otherwise designated as being set aside for the parking of motor cycles;
- (b) that person has paid to the Council the fee referred to in Clause 45; and
- (c) during the period for which the fee under paragraph (b) is applicable.

Attended parking stations

47. (1) A person shall not enter an attended parking station without first obtaining the permission of an inspector on duty in the station unless that person is:

- (a) employed at the parking station and is in the course of his duties;
- (b) a police officer and is in the course of his duties; or
- (c) the driver of or a passenger in a vehicle standing or parked in that station.

- (2) A person shall not remove a vehicle from an attended parking station:
- (a) without first paying the applicable fee to an inspector or a person authorised to accept the fee or to a fee collection unit in the parking station; or
 - (b) at any time other than during the hours of operation unless with the permission of an inspector and on payment of the applicable fee and the fee specified in the Third Schedule for the opening of the parking station.
- (3) For the purposes of this clause:
- (a) the "applicable fee" with respect to an attended parking station described in the Column 1 of the Third Schedule means the fee specified in Column 3 of the Third Schedule appearing opposite the description of the parking station;
 - (b) the "hours of operation" with respect to an attended parking station described in Column 1 of the Third Schedule means the hours on the days specified in Column 2 of Third Schedule appearing opposite the description of the parking station;
 - (c) where no entrance ticket is produced by the driver of a vehicle which is being removed from a parking station, the applicable fee shall be calculated as if the vehicle had entered the parking station when it opened for operation on the day the vehicle was parked in the parking station.

Set aside parking stations

48. (1) The Council may by use of signs set aside any parking station or any space in a parking station for the parking of vehicles by persons authorised by the Council.

(2) Where the Council authorises a person pursuant to sub-clause (1) the Council:

- (a) shall issue a written permit to the person; and
- (b) may revoke the permit at any time.

(3) A person shall not park or stand a vehicle in a parking station or space set aside under this clause unless a permit issued with respect to the vehicle is displayed inside the vehicle and is clearly visible and readable by any inspector requiring to examine the permit from outside a vehicle.

Restrictions and time limits in parking stations

49. (1) A person shall not stand a vehicle on any part of a parking station or parking facility:

- (a) if the standing of a vehicle on that part is prohibited at all times by a sign; or
- (b) during a period in which the standing of vehicles on that part is prohibited by a sign.

(2) A person shall not park a vehicle on any part of a parking station or parking facility:

- (a) if the parking of vehicles on that part is prohibited at all times; or

(b) during a period in which the parking of vehicles on that part is prohibited by a sign.

(3) A person shall not park or stand a vehicle on any part of a parking station or parking facility for more than the maximum time specified by a sign.

Maximum parking period in parking stations

50. Where in relation to a parking station described in the Third Schedule a maximum parking period is specified a person shall not stand or park a vehicle in that parking station:

- (a) continuously for longer than that period; or
- (b) again in that parking station within one hour after removing that vehicle from that parking station.

Parking station 20B

51. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2), a person shall not stand or park a vehicle in Parking Station 20B as described in the Third Schedule:

- (a) unless the vehicle is a service vehicle;
- (b) other than in a parking stall set aside for use by commercial vehicles;
- (c) other than during a time when such vehicles are permitted to enter the parking station as specified by signs at the entrance of the parking station; and
- (d) unless a person is continuously engaged in loading or unloading goods to or from the vehicle; and
- (e) for more than 30 minutes.

(2) Sub-clause (1) shall not apply to a vehicle which is:

- (a) an emergency vehicle;
- (b) a special purpose vehicle; or
- (c) a vehicle in respect of which the Board constituted under the Act has issued its approval in writing authorising the standing or parking of the vehicle in that parking station.

Parking restrictions for vehicles with multiple occupants

52. (1) The Council in respect of any period or time may set aside any parking station or any part of a parking station and prohibit entry thereto by vehicles other than vehicles carrying in addition to the driver at least one other person.

(2) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in any parking station or part of a parking station which has been set aside under sub-clause (1) at the times or within such period specified pursuant to sub-clause (1) unless the vehicle is carrying at least one other person.

Special event parking

53. (1) The Council may by use of signs set aside, for any period specified on the signs, any parking station or parking facility for the parking of vehicles by persons attending a special event.

(2) A person shall not park or stand a vehicle in a parking station or parking facility set aside under sub-clause (1) during the period for which it is set aside unless a ticket purchased from the Council with respect to the special event is clearly visible to and readable by an inspector from outside the vehicle.

(3) For the purpose of this clause a "special event" means any event or occurrence considered by the Council to be special and likely to attract a substantial number of persons driving vehicles.

(4) During the period referred to in sub-clause (1) the provisions of clauses 43, 49(1)(b), 49(2)(b), 49(3) and 52 shall not apply to the parking station or parking facility.

Direction to move vehicle

54. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle on any part of a parking station or parking facility after an inspector or a member of the Police Force directs the driver of the vehicle to move the vehicle therefrom.

Selling and hiring in parking stations

55. A person shall not without the written permission of the Council park or stand a vehicle on any part of a parking station or any parking facility otherwise than in compliance with the following condition:

No goods, wares or merchandise, or any article or thing of whatsoever nature or kind shall be sold, hired or given away or offered or exposed for sale or hire in or upon that part of a parking station or that parking facility.

Obstruction of parking stations

56. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a parking station so as to obstruct any entrance, exit, carriageway, passage or thoroughfare of the parking station.

Behaviour in parking stations

57. (1) A person shall not remain in or on a parking station or parking facility after having been required to leave that parking station or parking facility by a member of the Police Force or an inspector.

(2) A person shall not loiter in a parking station or parking facility.

Damage to parking stations and facilities

58. A person shall not, and shall not attempt to, remove, damage, deface, misuse or interfere with any part of a parking station or parking facility.

Affixing signs and notices

59. A person shall not without the permission of the Council affix any board, sign, placard, notice, cover or other thing to or paint or write upon any part of a parking station or parking facility.

Council may lock parking stations

60. At the expiration of the hours of operation the Council whether or not any vehicle remains parked in a parking station may lock the parking station or otherwise prevent the movement of any vehicle within or to or from the parking station without the Council being responsible for any loss of or damage to any such vehicle or its accessories or contents or for any other loss, claim or liability.

PART 6—RESIDENTIAL PARKINGDefinitions

61. In this Part of this By-Law, unless the context otherwise requires:

“dwelling unit” means premises lawfully used for self-contained living quarters;

“eligible person” means a single house occupier or a unit owner;

“residential parking permit” means a permit issued by the Council pursuant to the provisions of this part of this By-Law;

“residential unit” means a dwelling unit which is part of a building adjacent to a part of a road on which road the standing or parking of vehicles is prohibited for more than a specified period and which building contains:

(a) two or more dwelling units with or without; or

(b) one dwelling unit with one or more non-residential units;

“single house” means a dwelling unit constructed on its own lot and used for self contained living quarters and which is adjacent to a part of a road on which the standing or parking of vehicles is prohibited for more than a specified period;

“single house occupier” means an occupier of a single house;

“unit owner” means a person who is an owner and occupier of a residential unit.

Exemption for permit holders

62. (1) Where on any part of a road the standing or parking of vehicles is prohibited by a sign for more than a specified period or where any part of a road is a metered space, the holder of a valid residential parking permit is exempted from such prohibition or from the requirements of clauses 6, 24 and 37 as the case may be.

(2) The exemption conferred by sub-clause (1) shall apply only:

(a) to the part of a road specified in the residential parking permit or to the metered space or spaces specified in the residential parking permit;

(b) to the motor vehicle specified in the residential parking permit;

- (c) if the residential parking permit is displayed in the vehicle or affixed to the windscreen of the vehicle as to be clearly visible and able to be read by an Inspector from outside the vehicle;
- (d) if the residential parking permit is valid.

(3) The exemption conferred by sub-clause (1) shall not apply during any period in which the standing or parking of vehicles is prohibited in the road or the part of a road specified in the residential parking permit.

Fees for residential parking permits

63. (1) The Council may upon the written application of an eligible person and upon payment of the fee referred to in sub-clause (2) issue a residential parking permit in the form in the Fourth Schedule.

(2) The fees payable for the issue of a residential parking permit pursuant to this clause are:

- (a) where the applicant is a person eligible for a deferment of rates under the Pensioners (Rates Rebates and Deferments) Act 1966: $5.00;
- (b) in all other cases: $10.00.

Restrictions on issue of permits to single house occupiers

64. The Council shall not issue:

- (a) more than 2 residential parking permits to any single house occupier where the single house is situated on land where no parking can be provided;
- (b) more than one residential parking permit to any single house occupier where the single house is situated on land where parking for one vehicle only can be provided;
- (c) a residential parking permit to any single house occupier where the single house is situated on land where parking for 2 or more vehicles can be provided.

Restrictions on issue of permits to unit owners

65. (1) Where no parking can be provided to a unit owner on the land upon which the residential unit is situated the Council shall not issue more than 2 residential parking permits to the unit owner.

(2) Where parking for one vehicle only can be provided to a unit owner on the land upon which the residential unit is situated the Council shall not issue more than one residential parking permit to the unit owner.

(3) Where parking for 2 or more vehicles can be provided to a unit owner on the land upon which the residential unit is situated the Council shall not issue a residential parking permit to the unit owner.

Restrictions on number of permits

66. The Council shall not issue more than 2 residential parking permits in respect of any single house or residential unit.

Validity of permit

67. Every residential parking permit shall cease to be valid:
- (a) upon the expiry of a period 12 months from and including the date on which it is issued; or
 - (b) upon the holder of the permit ceasing to be an eligible person.

Removal of permit from vehicle

68. The holder of a residential parking permit shall forthwith upon that permit ceasing to be valid remove the permit from the vehicle in which it is displayed or to which it is affixed.

PART 7—MISCELLANEOUSParking without consent

69. A person shall not stand or park a vehicle on land which is not a road or parking facility without the consent of the person in occupation of that land.

Disabled persons

70. (1) In this clause:

“ACROD sticker” means a sticker issued by ACROD Limited (WA Division) for the purpose of identifying vehicles driven by or carrying a disabled person or persons;

“disabled parking stall” means a part of a road, parking station or parking facility which is identified or marked out by painted lines, symbols, inscriptions or signs as a stall either for or restricted to the parking of vehicles driven by or carrying a disabled person or persons.

(2) A person shall not stand or park a vehicle in a disabled parking stall unless an ACROD sticker is displayed on a front windscreen of the vehicle and is clearly visible and able to be read by an inspector from outside the vehicle.

Compliance with signs

71. A person shall comply with every sign displayed, marked, placed or erected pursuant to the Act.

Inspector's certificate of appointment

72. An inspector shall be furnished with a certificate of his appointment in the form of the Fifth Schedule.

Personation of inspector

73. A person who is not an inspector shall not assume or attempt to assume the duties of an inspector.

Obstruction of inspector

74. A person shall not obstruct or hinder an inspector in the execution of his duties.

Removal of notices

75. A person other than the driver of the vehicle shall not remove from such vehicle any notice affixed thereto or left therein or thereon by an inspector or a member of the Police Force.

Display of signs

76. A person shall not, without the permission of the Council, display, mark, set up or exhibit any sign purporting to be or resembling a sign marked, set up or exhibited by the Council pursuant to the Act or this By-Law.

Marking tyres

77. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining whether or not a parked vehicle has been or may be parked in contravention of any provision of this By-Law an inspector may mark a tyre or tyres of such vehicle with chalk or any other non-indelible substance.

(2) A person shall not remove or interfere with any such mark referred to in sub-clause (1) so that the purpose of affixing the same is or may be defeated.

Exemption when complying with directions

78. A person who complies with a direction given by a member of the Police Force or an inspector under Section 18 of the Act does not commit an offence against this By-law while complying with that direction.

PART 8—OFFENCES AND MODIFIED PENALTIESOffence

79. A person who commits a breach of any provision of this By-Law commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200.

Modified penalties

80. (1) A person who:

- (a) receives a notice served or left pursuant to sub-section (1) of Section 19A of the Act; or
- (b) does not contest an allegation that he committed any offence against this By-law, may, within the time specified in the notice, pay to the Council the modified penalty payable with respect to that offence.

(2) The modified penalties prescribed, with respect to offences against this By-law shall be as specified in the Sixth Schedule.

(3) The prescribed form of the notice referred to in section 19A (2) of the Act is set out in the Seventh Schedule.

(4) The production of an acknowledgement from the Council of the payment of a modified penalty is a defence to a charge of the offence in respect of which that penalty was paid.

(5) If it appears to the Council that an alleged offence cannot be adequately punished by the payment of the modified penalty then the Council may refrain from accepting the modified penalty and may in lieu take proceedings against the alleged offender in a Court of Petty Sessions.
