PART II—PUPILS

*Division 1—Admission and Transfer—Primary and Secondary SchoolsAdmission of child

5. (1) Before a child is admitted to a school, a parent of the child, on being requested so to do by the principal of the school, shall fill in and sign the appropriate admission form, and shall produce for inspection by the principal a duly authenticated birth certificate or extract from the birth certificate relating to that child.

(2) A parent who, on being so requested, fails or refuses to fill in and sign the form or to produce the certificate or extract, or who furnishes to the principal, or enters in the form, information relating to the child which he knows is false, commits an offence.

Penalty, on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction: $40.

(3) Upon admission of a child to a school the principal shall enter the name of the child and all appropriate and necessary information in the admission register.

[Regulation 5 amended in Gazette 27 June 1975 p. 2163.]

Transfer of child

6. (1) A child may be transferred from one school to another—

(a) during the first fortnight of a school year; or

(b) at any time, if the child's parent changes his residence to one in a locality in or near which the other school is situated;

but a child shall not be admitted to a school specially set apart to serve a particular district unless the child lives within that district.

(2) Where a parent desires to have his child transferred from one school to another in circumstances other than those set out in subregulation (1) (a) or (b), the parent shall obtain the written consent of the chief executive officer to the transfer and produce that consent to the principal of the school to which the transfer is desired.

(3) The principal of a school to which a parent desires to transfer his child in the circumstances referred to in subregulation (2), shall not admit the child to that school unless the written consent of the chief executive officer to the transfer is produced.

[Regulation 6 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 27 June 1975 p. 2163; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Transfer note

7. Where a child transfers from one school to another school, the principal of the school to which the child is admitted shall send a transfer note to the principal of the school that the child has left.

[Regulation 7 inserted in Gazette 11 August 1964 p. 2895; amended in Gazette 27 June 1975 p. 2163.]

*Division 2—Compulsory AttendanceCertificate of exemption

8. (1) Where a parent of a child who has not reached leaving age informs a welfare officer or the chief executive officer that the child is under regular and efficient instruction at home or elsewhere, a Superintendent may after examining the child, grant that child a certificate exempting him from attending a school.

(2) (a) A certificate so granted may, by notice in writing served on a parent of the child, be cancelled by the chief executive officer if it appears to him that there has been an alteration of the circumstances under which the certificate was granted and that the child should not be exempted from attending a school.

(b) Upon service of the notice of cancellation, the certificate ceases to have any force or effect.

(3) A school shall not be declared efficient or placed on the list of efficient schools if it has less than 8 pupils in attendance each day; but the Minister may require an officer of the department to make a report on persons being over 18 years of age who instruct a less number of children each day, in order to decide whether the instruction is such as may provide a reasonable excuse for the children not attending a school.

[Regulation 8 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Reckoning of half day attendance

9. For the purpose of this division a continuous attendance by a child of not less than 2 full hours' secular instruction shall be reckoned as a half day's attendance.

Child to attend school

10. (1) Except as otherwise provided in these regulations, or unless in possession of a certificate exempting him from attending a school, a child who is not less than 6 years of age nor more than leaving age shall attend school.

[(2) repealed]

(3) A teacher shall inform a welfare officer or the department of any child who to his knowledge is living within the area served by his school and does not attend a school, unless the child has a reasonable excuse as defined in the Act and these regulations for non-attendance.

[Regulation 10 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 14 September 1973 p. 2484; 13 December 1974 p. 5371; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Absenteeism

11. (1) If a child on the roll of a school is absent, a parent of the child, on being required by the class teacher, or the principal, shall forward a written excuse for the absence of the child.

(2) A teacher shall forward to a parent of any child who is absent for one half day or longer an absentee note which shall be despatched within 2 days of the first half day's absence of the child.

(3) The principal of a school shall obtain from the department and maintain in his school a supply of absentee notes for use by teachers as required.

(4) (a) A teacher shall file for reference all letters of excuse received by him for a child's absence from school.

(b) Where a parent fails or refuses to furnish a letter of excuse when required, the principal of the school in which the child is enrolled shall make an entry in the appropriate compulsion form stating the periods of the child's absence from the school.

(c) The principal of a school shall notify the chief executive officer immediately a serious case of default in attendance occurs, or if a child without a reasonable excuse as defined in section 14 of the Act or in this regulation, fails or neglects to attend school.

(d) When notifying the chief executive officer as required by paragraph (c), the principal shall after carefully verifying the same give the name and address of each child who is mentioned in the notification.

(5) Sickness or other unavoidable cause may be regarded as a reasonable excuse for a child's absence from school if a parent of the child gives the class teacher written notice of the cause of absence within 7 days after the first day of absence.

(6) Within 7 days after the Minister, or a person authorized by the Minister, requires a parent to produce a medical certificate in support of a child's absence from school on the ground of sickness, the parent shall obtain and furnish the certificate to the Minister or person so authorized.

(7) (a) A teacher shall at frequent intervals, and at least once each term, revise the register of names of the children in his class so that the register contains accurate information for the welfare officer relating to the addresses of parents of the children, and in the case of those residing in the metropolitan area, the street numbers of their houses should where possible be shown in the register.

(b) The principal of a school shall withdraw from the school roll the name of any child who—

(i) leaves the district and goes to another school;

(ii) by reason of being exempted from attending school on account of his age, has left the school;

(iii) leaves the state; or

(iv) resides beyond the compulsory radius and does not attend the school for one term or longer.

[Regulation 11 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 11 August 1964 p. 2895; 27 June 1975 p. 2163; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

School Welfare Returns

12. School Welfare Returns in respect of each month shall be forwarded to the department by the principal of a government or non-government school within 7 days after the end of each month in respect of which the return is made up.

[Regulation 12 amended in Gazettes 27 June 1975 p. 2163; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Division 3—Assistance in Conveyance of Children to School

Grants for transport

13. (1) The Minister may make a grant to a parent or guardian of a child or student who is transported to a Government school or to an efficient school included in the list of "efficient" private schools published from time to time in the Government Gazette provided the child or student is punctual and attends the full day.

(2) (a) Where public transport is available the grant shall be equal to the amount by which the fares or cost of conveyance by public transport exceed or exceeds the sum of 40c per school day for each child or student subject to the fares on public transport being those approved by the Transport Commission of Western Australia.

(b) Where a public transport system is available in an area not served by the Metropolitan (Perth) Passenger Transport Trust and the Minister is of the opinion that, if that public transport were not available, a departmental school bus service would be approved, the Minister may, notwithstanding paragraph (a), make a grant to the proprietor of that public transport system equal to the fares or cost of conveyance for such children or students as the Minister is satisfied are resident more than 5 kilometres from the nearest school of the appropriate class and those children or students shall be conveyed to school without charge to their parents or guardians.

(c) Where public transport is not available to a child or student and the child is driven by the shortest practicable route from his residence to the school or to the nearest practicable point on the closest departmental bus service to the residence a distance exceeding 4½ kilometres the Minister may make a grant of 5.2 cents per kilometre subject to the provision that the grant made under this subregulation in respect of any one vehicle shall not exceed the rate per kilometre referred to regardless of the number of children or students driven in that vehicle.

(3) (a) No payment under this regulation (other than a payment to a proprietor of a public transport system pursuant to subregulation (2) (b) shall be made until an application in writing signed by the parent or guardian has been duly certified as correct by the principal of the school or by a teacher authorized to give a certificate and the application has been approved by the Minister.

(b) No grant shall be made in respect of a period prior to a date approved by the Minister.

(c) No grant under this regulation shall be made by the Minister in respect of any student beyond the end of the year in which the student attains the age of 19 years.

PART III—GENERAL

Division 1—Discipline and Conduct of Teachers and Pupils Generally

Teachers to acquaint themselves with the regulations and administrative instructions

24. (1) Every teacher shall make himself acquainted with the regulations and administrative instructions supplied to his school.

(2) A teacher is bound by and shall comply with all administrative instructions which apply to him.

Teachers to observe departmental orders and directions of Superintendent

25. (1) A teacher shall obey and strictly observe all departmental orders and every direction given to him by the Superintendent in the course of his employment as a teacher.

(2) If a teacher is aggrieved by an order or direction referred to in subregulation (1), he may appeal to the Minister for such redress as the Minister deems fair and reasonable: But pending the hearing of his appeal the teacher shall comply with the order or direction.

(3) Where a teacher appeals to the Minister under the provisions of subregulation (2), the Minister may, after due inquiry, dismiss the appeal, or cancel or vary the order or direction appealed against.

Prohibition on political material

26. A teacher shall not—

- (a) use in a school any sectarian or denominational publication or party political propaganda of any kind whatsoever; or
- (b) inculcate or attempt to inculcate in a student any sectarian, denominational or party political propaganda.

Prohibition of certain things, matter and behaviour

27. (1) The principal of a school shall not permit or suffer any matter or thing which is of an advertising nature to be distributed or exhibited in the school unless the name of the advertiser is obliterated; but this provision shall not apply where in any case the Minister is satisfied that the matter or thing is genuinely serviceable as a school requisite or is of an educational or useful nature for the purpose of teaching.

(2) A teacher shall not without the express permission of the chief executive officer allow collecting cards, raffle tickets or subscription lists to be given to or used by the children in a school for raising money from the public or from one another.

(3) A teacher shall not permit or suffer a child who is on the roll of a school, when in the school premises, to solicit or beg for money for any purpose or to trade with, or sell any article to, any person for money, or seek by any means to promote the sale of any article.

(4) A child shall obey and give effect to every order given by a teacher in the course of his duties, or in exercise of his powers, as a teacher.

[Regulation 27 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 27 June 1975 p. 2163; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Discipline of child

28. (1) For the purpose of disciplining a child a teacher may detain him in the school after the hours laid down in the time table, on the grounds of—

- (a) idleness in school;
- (b) unpunctuality;
- (c) disobedience; or
- (d) any other similar fault, other than inability to learn.

(2) Subject to these regulations and any directions received from time to time from the chief executive officer, a teacher has authority to secure the good behaviour of his pupils both within the school and in the school playground and when a child comes to or returns from the school.

[Regulation 28 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Exceptions from regulations 28 and 34

29. (1) Except as provided in regulation 28 and 34, a teacher shall not detain a child at the school after the hours laid down in the time table.

- (2) (a) Subject to regulation 34, a teacher shall not detain a child at the school—
 - (i) during a lunch recess;
 - (ii) during a recess in the middle of the morning or afternoon session, except in exceptional circumstances and for such period of time as is approved by the principal; or
 - (iii) after the afternoon session for a period exceeding half an hour, except in exceptional circumstances.
- (b) Where a teacher detains a child at the school for a period exceeding half an hour, he shall enter particulars of the period and the circumstances of the detention in the school punishment book which shall be kept by the principal of the school for the purpose.

[Regulation 29 amended in Gazettes 31 January 1975 p. 315; 27 June 1975 p. 2163; 24 July 1987 p. 2829.]

Supervision of children

30. The principal of a school shall make proper provisions for the supervision of the children attending the school when such children are at play both in the recesses during school hours and in the recess for dinner.

[Regulation 30 amended in Gazette 27 June 1975 p. 2163.]

Duties of teacher

31. A teacher shall be present in a primary or secondary school at least 15 minutes before the school commences in order to prepare the materials for his work and to secure good behaviour among his pupils.

(2) A teacher shall not fail to carry out his normal teaching duties in respect of his pupils.

Prohibition on certain actions by teachers

31A. (1) A teacher shall not encourage, counsel or incite a parent to withhold his child from attending school.

(2) A teacher shall not during normal school hours encourage, counsel or incite another teacher from a school other than the school to which the first-mentioned teacher is appointed not to carry out his normal teaching duties.

[Regulation 31A inserted in Gazette 16 July 1981 p. 2863.]

Discipline to be mild but firm

32. The discipline enforced in a school shall be mild but firm, and any degrading or injurious punishment shall be avoided.

Restraining child

33. A teacher on the staff of a school may take such physical action as is appropriate to prevent or restrain a child from acting in a manner which places at risk the safety of that child, any other child or a member of the staff of the school.

[Regulation 33 inserted in Gazette 24 July 1987 p. 2829.]

Child may be isolated

34. (1) Notwithstanding regulations 29, 174, 175 and 192, the principal of a school may, for the purpose of disciplining a child, direct that while the child is at school he be isolated from other children attending the school for a period not exceeding 10 days.

(2) A direction under subregulation (1) may provide—

- (a) that the child continue with such educational programme as is specified;
- (b) that the child attend at the school at such times as are specified;
- (c) that the child have such lunch recess and recess in the middle of the morning or afternoon session as is specified; and
- (d) that the child be restricted from engaging in such school activities as are specified.

[Regulation 34 inserted in Gazette 24 July 1987 p. 2829.]

Child may be suspended from school

35. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), the principal of a school may, pursuant to section 20G of the Act, suspend a child from attendance at that school for a period not exceeding 10 days.

(2) A period of suspension shall terminate at the end of the term in which it is imposed.

(3) Where a principal of a school suspends a child from attendance at that school he shall—

- (a) give notice in writing of the suspension to the child;
- (b) forward, by means independent of the child, a copy of the notice referred to in paragraph (a) to a parent of the child; and
- (c) forthwith report the suspension to an officer of the department holding a position not lower than Superintendent.

(4) The notice referred to in subregulation (3) (a) shall contain the following information—

- (a) the term of the suspension; and
- (b) short reasons for the suspension.

Suspension of child for 30 days or more

35A. (1) Where a period of suspension imposed pursuant to section 20G of the Act will result in a child being suspended for a total of 30 days or more in any school year, whether in one or more schools, the principal imposing that period of suspension shall recommend to the Minister that the child be excluded from attending the school of which he is principal.

(2) Where a principal of a school recommends to the Minister that a child be excluded from attending that school he shall give notice, in writing, of that recommendation to the child and shall forward, by means independent of the child, a copy of that notice to a parent of the child.

(3) The panel referred to in section 20G (3) of the Act shall consist of 3 members appointed by the chief executive officer of whom—

- (a) one shall be a teacher, officer or employee of the department;
- (b) one shall be a person nominated by The Western Australian Council of State School Organizations; and
- (c) one shall be a person who is not a teacher, officer or employee of the department.

(4) Nothing contained in subregulation (1) affects or limits the power of the principal of a school to recommend the exclusion of a child from that school pursuant to section 20G (2) of the Act.

(5) In this regulation and in regulation 35 "day" means a school day.

- (a) establish and conduct within the premises of the school an oslo lunch centre, canteen, cafeteria or other amenity not being conducted by the principal of a school, where such amenity is likely to facilitate, assist or be of advantage to the teachers and instructors in their professional duties and to students at the school in the course of their studies, as the case may be;
- (b) organize and conduct such activities approved by the chief executive officer and seek voluntary contributions from parents, such contributions together with money raised by approved activities to form a fund to be known as the "Parents and Citizens' Fund".

(3) Where a library, book-shop, book hire scheme, school fund or other amenity is established and conducted on school premises in accordance with this regulation, the principal of the school shall, at the end of each school year, furnish or cause to be furnished to the Director of Schools a report in writing concerning the conduct, management and activities of or in connection with that amenity for that school year, together with a certified statement of receipts and expenditure showing the financial transactions during that year of all amenities other than those for which the Parents and Citizens' Association has financial responsibility, and shall also forward at the same time a copy of such statement to the Secretary of the Parents and Citizens' Association of the school.

(4) A committee comprising the principal and 2 members of the staff of a school in the premises of which an amenity is established and conducted under this regulation, may dispose to the best advantage, as the committee sees fit, of such voluntary contributions and of the profits that arise from the conduct of that amenity.

(5) Where the assistance of the Parents and Citizens' Association of the school has been enlisted, the Association shall be represented on the committee established under subregulation (4) by not more than 2 of the office bearers of the Association.

(6) Where the Parents and Citizens' Association is conducting the amenity under this regulation the Association may dispose to the best advantage, as it sees fit, of such voluntary contributions and of the profits that arise from the conduct of that amenity, and the principal or his representative shall be on the appropriate committee of the Association.

(7) Unless the chief executive officer directs otherwise, the books of account and supporting receipts and other documents relating to amenities or school funds conducted by the principal shall be retained in the school and made available for examination as and when required by the departmental auditor who shall submit a report on his findings to the appropriate director.

(8) The chief executive officer may at any time order the closure or abolition of any amenity established or conducted under this regulation and the principal or Parents and Citizens' Association shall give effect to the order according to the tenor thereof.

Payment of grants pursuant to section 27C of the Act

57E. (1) This regulation applies, pursuant to section 27C of the Act, to the payment of grants to pre-school centres in relation to the number of children enrolled therein.

(2) When a pre-school centre wishes to apply for grants under this regulation, the teacher in charge of the pre-school centre shall apply therefor to the Minister at such time and in such form as the Minister from time to time determines.

(3) There shall be payable to a non-profit pre-school centre by way of recurrent funding in respect of every child attending the pre-school centre who is a permanent resident in Australia the moneys specified in subregulation (3a) (referred to as "recurrent funds").

(3a) Recurrent funds shall be payable according to the classification of the pre-school centre determined by the Minister on a scale commencing from a base amount of $264 per child to a maximum amount of $306 per child and the amount so payable shall be increased—

- (a) in accordance with movements in the School Prices Index issued by the Commonwealth Department of Employment, Education and Training; and
- (b) in respect of the years 1990 and 1991, by a percentage amount on a scale commencing from 1.0% to a maximum of 3% according to the classification of the school determined by the Minister, but so that the percentage variation in a year subsequent to 1989 shall be calculated on the total amount payable in respect of the preceding year.

(3b) Payment of moneys under subregulations (3) and (3a) shall be as follows—

- (a) subject to this regulation payments shall be made according to the attendance of children during the school year;
- (b) payments shall be made in the months of February, May, August and September;
- (c) the February payment shall be made according to the number of children in attendance during the second semester of the year immediately preceding;
- (d) the May payment shall be increased or decreased according to the number of children in attendance during the first semester of that year;
- (e) where the first semester enrolment figures indicate any surplus or deficit in the February payment the May payment shall be adjusted by decreasing or increasing that payment accordingly; and
- (f) the August and September payments shall be according to the number of children in attendance during the second semester of that year.

(3c) Where a pre-school centre has not had a previous enrolment the amounts of money payable in respect of children attending the pre-school centre shall be calculated on the basis of actual enrolments at the pre-school centre and for this purpose payments may be made in arrears.

(4) Subject to this regulation, the Minister—

- (a) may pay grants under this regulation in the form of—
 - (i) money;
 - (ii) goods and services supplied by the Minister to the pre-school concerned;
 - (iii) goods and services supplied by a person other than the Minister to the pre-school concerned but paid for by the Minister; or
 - (iv) any combination of 2 or 3 of the forms referred to in subparagraphs (i) to (iii);
- (b) shall not pay a grant under this regulation in respect of a child—
 - (i) who is not a pupil at the pre-school centre which applied for the grant;
 - (ii) who does not attain the age of 5 years during the calendar year in which the grant is applied for;
 - (iii) none of whose parents is a permanent resident of Western Australia.

(5) In subregulation (3)—

“applicant pre-school centre” means pre-school centre which applied under subregulation (2) during the current calendar year for grants.

PART IV—TEACHERS

Division 1—Admission and Appointment

Classes to be conducted by duly appointed teachers

58. The principal of a school shall ensure that no person is allowed to conduct a class in the school, whether on payment of remuneration or not, unless that person has been duly appointed a teacher of the school or has received from the chief executive officer permission to conduct that class.

[Regulation 58 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 27 June 1975 p. 2163; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Criteria for appointment as teacher

59. (1) An applicant for appointment as a teacher—

- (a) shall satisfy the chief executive officer of his good character, his relevant attainments, his practical or potential skill in teaching and his physical ability to perform the duties of a teacher without risk to himself or the students; and
- (b) may be required to pass such examinations and undergo such courses of training as are prescribed or as the chief executive officer may require.

(2) The chief executive officer may refuse to recommend a person for permanent appointment to the teaching staff if that person does not undertake to accept employment in any part of the State.

[Regulation 59 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 16 November 1979 p. 3623; 4 December 1987 p. 4351; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Teachers who may be employed without further examination

60. (1) (a) A person who—
- (i) holds a certificate from an approved teachers' training institution;
 - (ii) is a University graduate and has had experience as a teacher; or
 - (iii) holds a teacher's certificate of the Education Department of the United Kingdom or of a British Dominion, may be employed as a teacher in a school without further examination, if the chief executive officer is satisfied as to the teaching experience or ability of that person.

- (b) In this regulation "approved" means recognized by the chief executive officer as of a sufficiently high standard.

(2) A person may be appointed or employed as a teacher in the Technical Education Division or in a Senior College if, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, he has special qualifications for such appointment or employment.

[Regulation 60 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 23 July 1971 p. 2735; 16 July 1982 p. 2760; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Teacher to be appointed at a certain classification

61. The chief executive officer may appoint a person as a teacher on such classification as the chief executive officer thinks fit, subject to an appeal by that person to the Minister against the classification.

[Regulation 61 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Appointment to the department

62. (1) A person may be appointed to the department as a teacher—
- (a) on a temporary basis, which may be—
 - (i) for a fixed term; or
 - (ii) at the discretion of the chief executive officer; or
 - (b) on a permanent basis which may be on probation.
- (2) Where a teacher is appointed under subregulation (1) (b)—
- (a) the probation period shall be for such period not exceeding 2 years in the first instance as may be determined by the chief executive officer;
 - (b) as soon as practicable before the period of probation has expired—
 - (i) the appointment shall be confirmed;
 - (ii) the teacher shall continue on probation for a further period as the chief executive officer thinks fit but not exceeding 2 terms; or
 - (iii) the appointment shall be terminated.
- (3) Where a direction is made under subregulation (2) (b) (ii) before that further period expires the appointment shall be—
- (a) confirmed; or
 - (b) terminated.

(4) A teacher appointed under subregulation (1) (a) or whose period of probation has not yet expired is not eligible—

[(a) deleted]

(b) to apply for an advertised vacancy.

(5) Paragraph (4) (b) does not apply to or in relation to a vacancy in respect of which applications are not restricted to teachers employed in the department.

(6) Notwithstanding subregulations (1) to (5) a person may be appointed as a teacher in a permanent capacity if the position to which he is appointed is a position established for the purposes of Part X.

[Regulation 62 inserted in Gazette 6 December 1985 p. 4583; amended in Gazettes 4 July 1986 p. 2320; 30 October 1987 p. 4056; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Teacher on probation

62A. Where a teacher has been appointed to the permanent staff on probation before 1 January 1977, and the period of probation continues after 1 January 1977, the teacher is liable while he is on probation to have his appointment cancelled if unsatisfactory written reports of his teaching skill are received.

[Regulation 62A inserted in Gazette 20 May 1977 p. 1544; amended in Gazette 4 August 1978 p. 2836.]

[63. Regulation 63 repealed in Gazette 22 October 1976 p. 3996.]

Commencement of duty at school

64. A teacher when appointed to a school shall notify the chief executive officer of the date when he commences duty in that school.

[Regulation 64 amended in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Stock and inventory to be checked

65. A teacher, on taking charge of a school, shall check the stock and inventory of the school left by his predecessor and shall notify the chief executive officer of any discrepancies ascertained in so checking.

[Regulation 65 amended in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

[66. Regulation 66 repealed in Gazette 20 December 1974 p. 5658.]

Person holding one or more certificates in manual arts or in home economics

67. A person who holds one or more certificates in manual arts or in home economics from any institution approved by the chief executive officer may be appointed a teacher without examination and may be classified according to the certificate or certificates and his skill in teaching.

[Regulation 67 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 12 November 1968 p. 3339; 6 February 1969 p. 486; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Teacher employed as Tradesman Instructor

68. A teacher who has been employed as a Tradesman Instructor in the primary or secondary service, or in both the primary and the secondary service, shall be granted the Teachers' Certificate (Conditional) and an allowance in accordance with the appropriate rate prescribed under the classification of teachers' salaries, until the teacher fulfils the requirements for the Teachers' Certificate.

*Division 2—TransfersInterpretation

69. For the purposes of this Division—

“Group A school” means a high school or senior high school within the prescribed area;

“Group B school” means a high school or senior high school outside the prescribed area;

“prescribed area” means the portion of the State included in the Cities of Belmont, Canning, Cockburn, Fremantle, Gosnells, Melville, Nedlands, Perth, South Perth, Stirling, Subiaco, the Towns of Bassendean, Claremont, Cottesloe, East Fremantle, Kwinana, Mosman Park, the Shires of Bayswater and Peppermint Grove, included within the red coloured boundary marking on Plan No. 1 held in the office of the chief executive officer and such portions of the municipal districts of the Town of Armadale and the Shires of Kalamunda, Mundaring, Rockingham, Serpentine-Jarrahdale, Swan and Wanneroo as are included within the red coloured boundary marking on that plan;

[Regulation 69 inserted in Gazette 18 July 1980 p. 2439; amended in Gazettes 8 August 1980 p. 2692; 30 December 1988 p. 5113 (erratum 27 January 1989 p. 321); 23 June 1989 p. 1859.]

Teacher may be transferred

70. Subject to the Act and these regulations, a teacher may be transferred to any position on the teaching staff.

[Regulation 70 inserted in Gazette 18 July 1980 p. 2439.]

Vacancies to be filled by transfers before promotion

70A. Without derogating from section 7 (3) of the Act, vacant positions on the teaching staff shall be filled by the transfer of teachers who are eligible to be transferred to those positions before those positions are filled by promotion except where the chief executive officer is of the opinion that in relation to a particular case there are special circumstances that apply.

[Regulation 70A inserted in Gazette 30 October 1987 p. 4052; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Application for transfer to be in writing

71. (1) A teacher who desires to be transferred shall apply in writing.

(2) An application made pursuant to subregulation (1) shall be in the form of Form 3, Form 4, or Form 5 in Schedule 1 (whichever is applicable) and shall be made in the manner directed in the form.

[Regulation 71 inserted in Gazette 18 July 1980 p. 2439.]

Transfer under amended title

72. Where the title of a position on the teaching staff is amended but the status of the position otherwise remains unchanged the occupant of the position may be transferred to the position under its amended title.

[Regulation 72 inserted in Gazette 18 July 1980 p. 2439.]

Teacher may apply for position of lower status

73. A teacher may apply for a position of a status lower than the status held by him at the time of his application and, if his application is granted, may, subject to these regulations, again apply for a position of a status equivalent to the position held by him at the time of his first mentioned application and in any case he shall be credited with service according to his service in those positions.

Restraint on eligibility to apply for positions

74. (1) Subject to this regulation and to any direction given by the chief executive officer, a teacher who has applied for and obtained a promotion or transfer to a position specified in column 1 of the Schedule is not eligible to apply for a transfer to a position specified opposite and corresponding to that position in column 2 of the Schedule unless he has fulfilled the requirements set out opposite and corresponding to those positions in column 3 of the Schedule.

(2) The requirements imposed in items 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 10 of the Schedule operate only in respect of the transfers referred to therein applied for after 1 January 1981, but a teacher who was transferred or promoted to any position referred to in column 1 of those items before that date is bound only by the requirements applicable in relation to that position in force immediately before 18 July 1980.

Division 3—Certification

Teacher qualified may be awarded a certificate

76. (1) (a) A teacher appropriately qualified may be awarded a certificate of a class specified in paragraph (b).

(b) Teachers' Certificates are designated—

- Teachers' Higher Certificate;
- Teachers' Higher Certificate (Conditional);
- Teachers' Certificate;
- Teachers' Certificate (Technical);
- Teachers' Certificate (Conditional).

(c) A teacher who holds the classification "A3 Special" which was awarded because of service in the 1939-1945 war is entitled to the Teachers' Higher Certificate (Conditional).

(2) Certification of a teacher depends upon attainments based on examinations as prescribed together with satisfactory service.

[Regulation 76 amended in Gazettes 25 March 1970 p. 884; 23 December 1971 p. 5359; 23 April 1976 p. 1271.]

Minimum satisfactory service required

77. In order to qualify for higher certification, the following minimum periods of satisfactory service are required:—

[(1) repealed.]

(2) From Teachers' Certificate or its equivalent to Teachers' Higher Certificate—minimum of 6 years' satisfactory service, except that—

- (a) a teacher, whose course of training has been approved by the chief executive officer as being of 5 years' duration, may qualify after 3 years' satisfactory service;
- (b) a teacher, whose course of training has been approved by the chief executive officer as being of 4 years' duration, may qualify after 4 years' satisfactory service;
- (c) a teacher, whose course of training has been approved by the chief executive officer as being of 3 years' duration, may qualify after 5 years' satisfactory service.

(3) From Teachers' Certificate (Technical) to Teachers' Higher Certificate—

- (a) a teacher who holds an honours or higher degree may qualify after 3 years' service with a Teachers' Certificate (Technical);
- (b) a teacher who holds a degree or equivalent qualification may qualify after 3 years' service with a Teachers' Certificate (Technical);
- (c) a teacher who holds a diploma of the Technical Education Division or equivalent qualification may qualify after 5 years' service with a Teachers' Certificate (Technical);
- (d) other technical teachers may qualify after 6 years' service with a Teachers' Certificate (Technical); and

- (e) a teacher who does not hold a Teachers' Certificate (Technical) is required to have 2 years of experience in addition to the period specified in paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) according to the qualifications which that teacher holds.

[Regulation 77 amended in Gazettes 15 February 1962 p. 474; 28 March 1962 p. 815; 4 October 1962 p. 3274; 16 June 1964 p. 2430; 16 December 1965 p. 4184; 30 December 1966 p. 3466; 14 June 1967 p. 1603; 12 October 1967 p. 2877; 25 March 1970 p. 884; 28 September 1973 p. 3632; 23 April 1976 p. 1271; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Date of promotion to higher certification

78. Promotion to higher certification of a teacher who satisfies the requirements of these regulations dates from the day on which the satisfactory service required under the appropriate regulation is completed.

[Regulation 78 amended in Gazette 25 March 1970 p. 884.]

Date of entitlement of certificate

79. (1) No teacher is entitled, as a result of the completion of an examination, to be granted the Teachers' Certificate or the Teachers' Certificate (Technical) before 1 January following the year in which he completes the examination.

(2) Where a teacher completes the academic requirements applicable in respect of a Higher Teachers' Certificate he is not entitled to the grant of the certificate unless he has completed the service requirements prescribed in respect of the certificate under these regulations.

(3) A teacher is not entitled to be granted a Teachers' Higher Certificate under these regulations until—

- (a) in the case of a teacher who completes the service requirements under these regulations before the academic requirements whether he completes the academic requirements in the same year or not, 1 January next following the completion of the academic requirements;
- (b) in the case of a teacher who completes the academic requirements before 1 January of the year in which he completes the service requirements under these regulations, the day that he completes the service requirements;
- (c) in the case of a teacher who completes the academic requirements and then the service requirements under these regulations in the same calendar year, 1 January next following the completion of both requirements.

[Regulation 79 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2066; 14 June 1967 p. 1603; 25 March 1970 p. 885; 24 December 1980 p. 4404.]

Division 4—Examination

Examinations may be written or oral

80. (1) The attainments of a teacher shall be tested by written examinations or oral examinations, or by both such examinations.

(2) A teacher may sit for an annual examination, but is not entitled to sit for any part of an examination for a higher certificate so long as his examination for a lower certificate is incomplete.

[Regulation 80 amended in Gazette 11 August 1964 p. 2895.]

Examination for Certificate in parts

81. (1) (a) A teacher wishing to take an examination for a Teachers' Certificate in parts shall offer at least 3 complete subjects for each part.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) do not apply to an examination for the Teachers' Certificate (Technical), or to a case where the teacher has less than 3 complete subjects remaining to complete the examination.

(2) In this regulation "complete subject" means all that is included under one heading in the syllabus for the examination.

(3) Where it appears to the chief executive officer from the results of an examination that a teacher has clearly neglected to prepare sufficiently for the subjects offered by him at the examination, the chief executive officer may refuse the teacher permission to sit again for that examination the following year.

Examinations to be held annually

82. Teachers' examinations, other than examinations for the Teachers' Higher Certificate, shall be held annually and the syllabuses and the conditions pertaining to those examinations and for the Teachers' Higher Certificate examination shall be published from time to time as occasion requires in the Education Circular or in the Teachers' Handbook.

Travelling expenses to be reimbursed

83. (1) A teacher is entitled to be reimbursed his travelling expenses necessarily incurred by him in attending that sitting of the departmental examinations held at the centre nearest to his school at which he is successful in completing the full and final requirements of the certificate for which he is being examined.

(2) In this regulation "travelling expenses" means the appropriate fares and allowances according to section 2 of the minister's determination of allowances payable to teaching staffs and shall relate only to the period covered by the actual journey to and from the centre nearest to the teachers' school.

[Regulation 83 amended in Gazettes 16 June 1964 p. 2430; 20 December 1974 p. 5658.]

Candidate who has passed in a part only

84. (1) A candidate who has passed in a part only of an examination need not sit again for the subjects in which he has passed.

(2) A candidate is, on making application within one month of the publication of the results of an examination and payment of a fee of $1.05, entitled to secure a special report on any paper for which he sat at the examination.

*Division 5—Resignation and RetirementResignation

85. (1) Subject to this regulation, a teacher who desires to resign from the department may do so at any time if he gives written notice of his resignation to the chief executive officer not less than one month (including at least 20 working days) before the date that his resignation takes effect but the chief executive officer may at his discretion in special circumstances accept a notice of resignation given in a shorter period.

(2) A teacher shall not resign from the department at any time within the period commencing on 1 January and ending on the day immediately preceding the first term vacation or 31 March in any year whichever is the earlier unless—

- (a) he commenced his employment with the department within the period commencing on 2 January and ending on 30 March; and
- (b) his resignation takes effect only on a date subsequent to the anniversary of the date on which he began the continuous service which is terminated by the resignation.

(3) Where the period of the notice of resignation given by a teacher pursuant to subregulation (1)—

- (a) includes—
 - (i) any day or part of a day in the period commencing on any day in the first term and ending on the 7th day of the second term, the chief executive officer may at his option accept the resignation as being effective from the last day of the first term or 31 March of that year, whichever is the earlier;
 - (ia) any day or part of a day in the period commencing on a day in the second term and ending on the 7th day of the third term, the chief executive officer may at his option accept the resignation as being effective from the last school day immediately preceding the second term vacation;
 - (ib) any day or part of a day in the period commencing on a day in the third term and ending on the 7th day of the fourth term, the chief executive officer may at his option accept the resignation as being effective from the last school day immediately preceding the third term vacation.
- (b) includes any period during the summer vacation, the chief executive officer may at his option accept the resignation as being effective as from the 31 December during that vacation.

(4) Subject to subregulation (5), the employment of a temporary teacher may be terminated at any time upon the giving of one week's notice of termination of employment.

(5) Where a temporary teacher is employed to fill a short term vacancy his employment with the Department lapses from the date that the chief executive officer determines that the vacancy filled by the temporary teacher no longer exists.

(6) Where a teacher (including a temporary teacher) does not give the appropriate notice of resignation to the chief executive officer that is applicable in relation to him under this regulation the chief executive officer may direct that the teacher shall not be paid in respect of—

- (a) the period of notice that is applicable in relation to the teacher under this regulation; or

- (b) such portion of the period that is applicable in relation to the teacher under this regulation as is determined by the chief executive officer, and if any moneys have already been paid to the teacher for a period in respect of which the chief executive director has directed that the teacher shall not be paid the moneys so paid may be recovered by the Minister in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Leave without pay

85A. (1) Where following application from a teacher the chief executive officer is of the opinion that by reason of special circumstances connected with the family of the teacher, a teacher is unable to—

- (a) accept a transfer to another position; or
(b) continue in the position held by the teacher, the chief executive officer may approve of the teacher taking leave without pay for such period not exceeding 12 months as is approved by the chief executive officer.

(2) Where a teacher having taken leave without pay for the period approved by the chief executive officer, does not accept the position in which the chief executive officer requires the teacher to be employed, the teacher's employment is deemed to be terminated on the date of the expiration of the period of leave without pay.

[Regulation 85A inserted in Gazette 4 December 1987 p. 4351; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Retirement

86. (1) The Minister may, on a report from the chief executive officer, require a teacher or employee on the permanent staff to retire on or after reaching the age of 60 years.

(2) A teacher or employee so required shall be advised by the chief executive officer of the reasons for his retirement and is entitled to have one month's clear notice prior to the date when his retirement becomes effective.

(3) Upon reaching the age of 65 years a teacher or employee, by force of this regulation, vacates his appointment unless, due to the exigencies of the department, the Minister approves of the teacher or employee continuing in his position for any period until, but not longer than, the end of the school year in which that teacher or employee attains the age of 65 years; but this regulation does not preclude a teacher or employee from receiving pay for holidays to which he is entitled by virtue of his service with the department.

*Division 5A—Dismissal for Inefficiency[Heading inserted in Gazette 9 November 1979 p. 3582.]Penalties for inefficiency

86A. (1) Subject to this regulation, a teacher who is inefficient is liable to be—

- (a) reduced to a position carrying a lower salary or remuneration; or
- (b) dismissed.

(2) Where the chief executive officer receives no less than 2 reports that a teacher is inefficient the chief executive officer shall forward a copy of the reports to the teacher and request that the teacher submit a written explanation on the reports within the time specified in the request.

(2a) Each of the reports referred to in subregulation (2) shall come from—

- (a) the principal of the school at which the teacher is employed; or
- (b) a person holding or acting in a position of Superintendent or a higher position, and may be given by the same person or by different persons.

(3) Where after considering the reports made under subregulation (2) in relation to a teacher and the written explanation (if any) given by the teacher in respect of the reports the chief executive officer is satisfied that the teacher is inefficient the chief executive officer may—

- (a) direct that the teacher be reduced to a position carrying a lower salary or remuneration; or
- (b) recommend to the Minister that the teacher be dismissed.

(5) Upon considering the—

- (a) reports made pursuant to subregulation (2) that a teacher is inefficient;
- (b) explanation (if any) given by the teacher pursuant to subregulation (2) in respect of the reports; and
- (c) recommendation made by the chief executive officer pursuant to subregulation (3) (b), the Minister may by order in writing dismiss the teacher and the order has effect accordingly.

*Division 6—Appointments and PromotionSection A—General*Promotion to be in accordance with regulations

87. Subject to these regulations, an appointment or a promotion to a promotional position shall be made in accordance with such of the provisions of these regulations as apply in relation to the position in question.

[88. Regulation 88 repealed in Gazette 25 March 1970 p. 885.]

When position raised to higher class, position deemed vacant

89. (1) Where by reason of a school being raised to a higher class, or for any other reason, a position becomes altered to a higher class, that position shall be deemed vacant and action shall be taken to fill it in accordance with these regulations.

(2) Where by reason of a school being reduced to a lower class, or for any other reason, a position becomes altered to a lower class, the teacher is, if his service has been satisfactory in the opinion of the chief executive officer, entitled to retain his salary as it was prior to the alteration until he is offered a school or position corresponding to that salary; but if he is permitted to decline the transfer, his salary shall then be reduced to that which corresponds to the position in the lower class.

Female teacher required to fill position higher in status

90. (1) Where—

- (a) a female teacher has been required to fill a position that is higher in status than any position that her qualifications entitle her to fill;
- (b) that female teacher has filled that position for a period of at least 2 years; and
- (c) on advertisement of that position during that period no teacher having the qualifications required for that position has applied for that position, the chief executive officer may appoint that female teacher permanently to that position.

(2) Where the chief executive officer has appointed a female teacher permanently to a position, pursuant to subregulation (1) that female teacher shall not—

- (a) be eligible to obtain a transfer to another position of equal status; or
- (b) be appointed to a position of a higher status, until she has obtained the qualifications required for that other or higher position.

(3) Subregulation (1) ceases to have effect on and after 1 January 1977 but a teacher who has been appointed to a position pursuant to that provision prior to that date shall continue to be bound by the provisions of subregulation (2).

Teachers Promotions and Review Advisory Board

90A. (1) There shall be a board to be known as the Teachers Promotions and Review Advisory Board.

(2) Subject to these regulations the Board shall consist of the following members—

- (a) one person appointed by the Minister who shall be chairman;
- (b) 2 persons nominated by the chief executive officer; and
- (c) 2 persons nominated by the Union.

(3) The Minister may appoint a person to be deputy of the person appointed under subregulation (2) (a).

(4) A nomination for the purposes of subregulation (2) (b) or (c) may be made from time to time and may be expressed to operate for a period or in such circumstances as are specified in the instrument of nomination.

[Regulation 90A inserted in Gazette 24 April 1986 p. 1491; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Functions of the Board

90B. (1) Subject to these regulations, the functions of the Board shall be—

- (a) to make recommendations relating to appointments, promotions and promotion lists in relation to promotional positions and special positions as required under these regulations; and
- (b) to consider and determine appeals with respect to any recommendation for an appointment or promotion in relation to which an appeal may be made to the Board under these regulations.

(2) For the purposes of these regulations the chief executive officer may declare any position on the teaching staff to be a special position.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in these regulations, where under subregulation (2) a position on the teaching staff is declared to be a special position the relevant provisions of these regulations that apply in relation to special positions of that class apply to and in relation to that position in lieu of any other provisions of these regulations that, but for that declaration, would have applied in relation thereto.

[Regulation 90B inserted in Gazette 24 April 1986 p. 1491; amended in Gazette 30 October 1988 p. 5114.]

Proceedings of the Board

90C. (1) The Board shall meet at such times and places as are appointed by the Chairman.

(2) Except to the extent that they are prescribed the Board shall determine the procedures to be adopted at any meetings thereof.

(3) At any meeting of the Board a quorum shall consist of the Chairman or deputy of the Chairman and one member appointed under regulation 90A (2) (b) and one member appointed under 90A (2) (c).

(4) A member shall not take part in any proceedings of the Board in which that member or any person related to that member has an interest.

(5) A nomination for the purposes of regulation 90A (2) (b) or (c) may be withdrawn by the nominator at any time.

(6) The Minister may for reasonable cause remove a member at any time.

(7) For the purposes of subregulation (4), a person is related to a member if that person—

- (a) is married to the member or is living with the member in a de facto relationship; or
- (b) is the father or mother or a brother or sister of the member.

Section C—Advertised Vacancies

Vacancies to be advertised

101. (1) (a) Subject to the Act and these regulations, vacancies in positions on the teaching staff that are to be filled by promotion shall be advertised as directed by the chief executive officer.

(b) An advertisement under a direction given by the chief executive officer shall specify the qualifications required to be held by any applicant for the position referred to in the advertisement.

[(c) and (d) deleted]

(e) If it appears to the chief executive officer, in any particular case, that the processes of filling a vacancy and of hearing appeals against a recommendation for appointment thereto are unlikely to be completed by 31 December preceding the year from which the appointment is to take effect, he may refrain from making the appointment, to fill the position by a temporary appointment and to re-advertise the position in the following year.

(f) When applying for more than one advertised position, a teacher must state which position he prefers and list the other positions for which he applies in order of his preference for appointment thereto.

(2) (a) A full-time teacher on the permanent staff who is eligible in accordance with these regulations and has the required qualifications and service may apply for any position so advertised, except that a teacher who holds a position in the metropolitan area for which he had applied may not apply for another advertised position in that area identical in status and remuneration with that already held by him if appointment to such new position would mean that he had served less than 2 years in his present position.

(b) For the purposes of this subregulation the metropolitan area means the portion of the State included within the prescribed area as defined in regulation 69.

(3) The chief executive officer shall give written notice to a teacher who is an unsuccessful applicant for an appointment within 14 days of a recommendation being made.

Matters to be considered when recommendations made

102. (1) The Director of Staffing in making his recommendations to the chief executive officer shall take into consideration the particular circumstances of the vacant position in question and the particular fitness of the applicants to discharge the duties of that position, and shall be bound by the ordinary rules of seniority only if the fitness of 2 or more of the applicants to discharge those duties is not capable, in the opinion of the Director, of clear distinction.

(2) Before giving advice or making a recommendation to the chief executive officer on any position, the Director of Technical Education shall seek and consider the advice of the appropriate professional or trade advisory committee, if any, as to the qualifications and standing of the applicants for appointment to the teaching staff.

(3) Where by reason of a determination of the Tribunal or for any other cause, an applicant recommended by the Director is not available for the appointment for which he is recommended, the Director shall make another recommendation from the original list of applicants.

Division 8—Salaries and Allowances

[Heading amended in Gazette 20 December 1974 p. 5658.]

Proportion of school vacations, increments and responsibility allowance

109. [(1) repealed]

(2) A temporary teacher who—

- (a) does not work a full school year; and
- (b) is employed for a continuous period of 4 weeks or more,

shall be entitled to payment for the same proportion of a teacher's annual vacations as the period he has worked bears to a full school year's work.

(2a) For the purposes of subregulation (2) (b) the school vacation periods shall not be included as service, but shall not constitute a break in a teacher's continuity of service.

(2b) Subject to regulation 118 and without affecting regulation 110—

- (a) a permanent teacher on probation who does not work a full school year; or
- (b) a permanent teacher granted leave without pay for a period not exceeding the full school year, shall be entitled to payment for the same proportion of a teacher's annual vacations as the period he has worked bears to a full school year's work.

(3) A teacher who is employed part-time shall work for such period of time as is in inverse proportion to his part-time hours of duty before being eligible for an increment in basic salary or in responsibility allowance.

Proportion of school vacation when period of maternity leave taken

110. (1) Where a teacher does not work a full school year because a period of maternity leave commences or expires, or both commences and expires, during that year she is entitled to payment for the same proportion of a school vacation in that year as the period worked during that year bears to a full school year.

(2) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), a teacher who has received payment for any school vacation in a year is not required to repay any part of that payment if, on account of maternity leave subsequently taken in that year, the payment exceeds the amount to which she is entitled under that subregulation.

(3) Where a teacher will be on maternity leave on the first day of a school term, she is not entitled to payment for any part of the immediately preceding school vacation except to the extent that an entitlement arises from work performed before the commencement of that vacation.

(4) A teacher shall be paid at the commencement of maternity leave any sum to which she is entitled under this regulation for any school vacation which falls during the period for which maternity leave has been approved.

(5) In this regulation "maternity leave" means maternity leave granted under regulation 119.

[Regulation 110 inserted in the Gazette 29 November 1985 p. 4505.]

Teacher temporarily filling position

111. (1) (a) A teacher who is continuously employed for more than 2 weeks in temporarily filling a position the salary for which is higher than that prescribed for his permanent position shall, subject to paragraph (b), be paid for the full period during which he holds the temporary position the salary to which he would be entitled if he held that position permanently.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c), a teacher referred to in paragraph (a) who is so employed—

(i) for a full calendar year, shall be paid the higher salary for the whole of that period;

(ii) within 2 weeks of the commencement of the school year and remains so employed for the remainder of the full school year, shall be paid the higher salary from the date he commences to be so employed until the end of the calendar year;

(iii) within 2 weeks of the commencement of the school year and for a lesser period than the remainder of the full school year, shall be paid the higher salary for the period during which he is so employed including any vacations which may fall within that period;

(iv) more than 2 weeks after the commencement of the school year, shall be paid the higher salary for the period during which he is so employed including any vacations which may fall within that period.

(c) A teacher referred to in paragraph (a) shall not be paid the higher salary for any period of absence on long service leave or on sick leave of more than 2 weeks' duration.

Resumption of duty

117. A teacher who, not being on leave, does not resume duty immediately following—

- (a) the summer vacation—shall be regarded as having been absent from duty during the period commencing on 1 January of that year and ending with the day that he resumes duty;
- (b) a term vacation—shall be regarded as having been absent from duty during that period and until he resumes duty, unless the Minister is satisfied as to the reasons for the inability of the teacher to resume duty immediately following that vacation and directs that the teacher shall be regarded as having been on leave until the day that he in fact resumes duty.

[Regulation 117 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4114.]

Leave without pay

118. (1) The chief executive officer may at his discretion grant a teacher leave without pay.

(2) Any continuous period of leave without pay exceeding working days granted under this regulation—

- (a) does not count as service;
- (b) does not constitute a break in continuous service, under these regulations.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this regulation the Minister may on the recommendation of the chief executive officer declare that leave granted to a teacher on and after 1 January 1964 for the purpose of undertaking studies directly related to his duties as a teacher constitutes service for the purposes of these regulations.

[Regulation 118 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4114; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Maternity leave

119. (1) Subject to subregulation (8), a pregnant teacher shall apply for, and the chief executive officer shall grant, maternity leave in accordance with this regulation.

(2) Subject to subregulation (8), if a pregnant teacher does not apply for maternity leave in accordance with this regulation she shall be deemed to have resigned 6 weeks before the date of birth.

(3) The period of maternity leave shall be—

- (a) not less than the period commencing 6 weeks before the expected date of birth and expiring 6 weeks after the actual date of birth; and
- (b) not greater than 12 months commencing 6 weeks before the expected date of birth, but in the case of a teacher appointed for a fixed term shall not extend beyond that term.

(4) Except as provided in regulation 110 (1) maternity leave is leave without pay.

(5) The application for maternity leave shall—

- (a) be made not later than 20 working days before the last day on which, under subregulation (3) (a), leave may commence;
- (b) be accompanied by a certificate of a registered medical practitioner showing the expected date of birth.

(6) Where application is made for a period of maternity leave or for an amended period under subregulation (7), not being the minimum period referred to in subregulation (3) (a), the chief executive officer may in granting leave determine that it shall expire on the last day of a school vacation.

(7) The chief executive officer may, on application, at any time amend a grant of maternity leave but so that the amended period is not contrary to subregulation (3).

(8) Nothing in this regulation shall be read so as to prevent long service leave being taken by a teacher, in accordance with these regulations, for any period, or part of a period, referred to in subregulation (3) (a).

(9) For the purpose of these regulations maternity leave—

- (a) does not constitute a break in continuous service;
- (b) does not count as service, except for any part of the leave for which payment is made under regulation 110; and
- (c) subject to subregulation (10), where a provision of these regulations prescribes a qualifying period for promotion, does not constitute a break in the qualifying period for promotion if that period has commenced at the time that maternity leave is taken.

(10) The provisions of subregulation (9) (c)—

- (a) apply only in relation to a qualifying period for promotion required to be served by a teacher for promotion after 1 January 1987; and
- (b) do not apply in relation to—
 - (i) more than 1 period of maternity leave taken while qualifying for a particular promotional position;
 - (ii) a qualifying period for promotion that was completed before 1 January 1987.

(11) In subregulations (9) and (10) the term “qualifying period for promotion” includes any requirement under these regulations that is expressed as a requirement to have a period of experience of a particular kind for a specified promotion.

Short leave

120. (1) The chief executive officer may grant a teacher leave with pay (in this regulation referred to as “short leave”) for absence not exceeding a total of 3 days in any year to conduct urgent personal business which cannot reasonably be transacted outside hours of duty.

(2) The chief executive officer shall not grant short leave in respect of any day—

- (a) immediately preceding or immediately following a school vacation or the Easter holiday period; or
- (b) immediately preceding leave granted to attend examinations.

[Regulation 120 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4114; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Sick leave

121. Subject to these regulations the chief executive officer may grant a teacher leave on full pay, leave on half pay or leave without pay because of illness or disability (in these regulations referred to as “sick leave”).

[Regulation 121 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4114; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Application for sick leave

122. (1) An application for sick leave shall be made by a teacher not later than the day on which he resumes duty following his absence because of sickness.

(2) The chief executive officer shall not grant sick leave unless the application therefor is supported by the certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner approved of by the chief executive officer stating—

- (a) the nature of the teacher’s illness or disability; and
- (b) the period during which the teacher is unfit for duty, unless he is satisfied that in the circumstances of a particular case it is not possible for the teacher to obtain such a certificate and where the chief executive officer is so satisfied he may instead require the applicant to produce the certificate of a person specified by him.

(3) The chief executive officer may grant a teacher non-cumulative sick leave with pay without the production of a medical certificate for absence not exceeding a total of 3 days in any year except that he shall not grant such leave on any day—

- (a) immediately preceding or immediately following a school vacation or the Easter holiday period; or
- (b) immediately preceding leave granted to attend examinations.

[Regulation 122 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4114; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Cumulative credit in working days towards sick leave

123. (1) Subject to these regulations in respect of service on and after 1 January 1954, a permanent teacher is entitled to a cumulative credit in working days towards sick leave on full pay and half pay (referred to in these regulations as a "sick leave credit") as follows:—

	Credit towards leave on full pay	Credit towards leave on half pay
On permanent appointment	5	2
On completion of 6 months' continuous service from permanent appointment	5	3
On completion of 12 months' continuous service from permanent appointment	10	5
On completion of each additional 12 months' continuous service.....	10	5

(2) In respect of service on and after 1 January 1954, a temporary teacher is entitled to a cumulative credit of one day towards sick leave on full pay and of one half day towards sick leave on half pay for each completed period of 4 weeks of continuous service to a maximum in any one calendar year of 10 days towards sick leave on full pay and of 5 days towards sick leave on half pay.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in subregulation (2), a person appointed as a temporary teacher on a full-time basis immediately following completion of initial teacher training at an approved teacher training institution in Western Australia is entitled to the sick leave credits referred to in subregulation (1) as if he were a permanent teacher, and the references in that subregulation to permanent appointment were references to his appointment as a temporary teacher.

(4) A teacher employed on a fractional-time basis is entitled to that proportion of the entitlement towards sick leave on full or half pay of a teacher employed full-time as the proportion his employment bears to full-time employment.

[Regulation 123 inserted in Gazette 11 November 1977 p. 4115 amended in Gazettes 4 August 1978 p. 2836; 8 December 1978 p. 4658.]

Sick leave to be granted where teacher has appropriate credit

124. (1) The chief executive officer shall not grant a teacher sick leave with pay unless the teacher has an appropriate sick leave credit.

(2) Sick leave with pay taken by a teacher shall be deducted from his sick leave credit at the rate of one day for each working day including public holidays that the teacher is on sick leave with pay.

(3) Where a teacher's sick leave credit on full pay becomes exhausted, the chief executive officer may, on application by the teacher, grant a credit towards sick leave on full pay of one day for each 2 days that the teacher is entitled to a credit towards sick leave on half pay and the credit towards sick leave on half pay shall be reduced accordingly.

(4) When a teacher's credit towards sick leave with pay becomes exhausted, the chief executive officer may grant a credit towards sick leave on full pay of one day for each day that the teacher is entitled to long service leave and the entitlement to long service leave shall be reduced accordingly.

[Regulation 124 inserted in Gazette 11 November 1977 p. 4115 amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Interpretation of service and when teacher not entitled to sick leave

- 125. (1) For the purposes of regulations 121-129 "service" includes—
- (a) any period of leave except—
 - (i) subject to regulation 118 (3), leave granted without pay in excess of 10 working days; and
 - (ii) any continuous period of sick leave without pay in excess of 3 months;
 - (b) service before 1 January 1975 as a monitor or as a student with allowances in a teachers college.
- (2) A teacher is not entitled to sick leave with pay in respect of an illness or disability—
- (a) caused by that teacher's misconduct; or
 - (b) caused by circumstances within that teacher's control.

[Regulation 125 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 pp. 4115-16 (correction in Gazette 11 November 1977 p. 4269).]

Re-appointment following resignation in relation to sick leave

125A. (1) Subject to this regulation, the re-appointment of a teacher following his resignation shall, in relation to his entitlement to a credit towards sick leave with pay, be deemed to be a first appointment.

- (2) Where a teacher—
- (a) resigns from the permanent staff;
 - (b) is appointed a temporary teacher; and
 - (c) his temporary appointment is, exclusive of school vacations, continuous with his service as a permanent teacher, he shall be credited with any sick leave to which he was entitled on the date of his resignation.

(3) Where a teacher who retires on medical grounds is subsequently re-appointed a teacher he shall be credited with any sick leave credit to which he was entitled as of the date of his retirement.

(4) Where a temporary teacher is appointed to the permanent staff and his permanent appointment is continuous with his service as a temporary teacher he shall retain any sick leave credit to which he was entitled as a temporary teacher immediately before his appointment as a permanent teacher.

- (5) Where a temporary teacher ceases service he loses his sick leave credit unless—
- (a) the cessation is due to a term vacation; or
 - (b) his services are not required for a period that does not exceed 12 weeks.

[Regulation 125A inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4116.]

Sick leave whilst on leave

125B. (1) Subject to this regulation the chief executive officer shall not grant sick leave with pay to a teacher who is on leave.

(2) Where the chief executive officer is satisfied that the sick leave sought by a teacher—

- (a) arises from illness during the teacher's long service leave; and
- (b) results in the teacher being confined to his residence or a hospital for a period of 14 days or more, he may grant the teacher sick leave in respect of the period during which he was sick while on leave and where he does so the period shall not be reckoned as long service leave for the purposes of these regulations.

[Regulation 125B inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4116; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Sick leave on last working day before a school vacation

126. (1) Where a teacher is on sick leave on the last working day before the beginning of a school vacation or public holiday and resumes duty on the first working day following the vacation or public holiday his period of sick leave shall be deemed to have ended on the last working day before the vacation or public holiday.

(2) Where a teacher is on sick leave on the last working day before the beginning of a school vacation and continues on sick leave on the first working day following the vacation he shall—

- (a) in relation to the summer vacation, receive full pay for the period of the vacation; and
- (b) in relation to a term vacation—
 - (i) receive full pay for the period of the vacation if on sick leave on full pay;
 - (ii) receive half pay for the period of the vacation if on sick leave on half pay;
 - (iii) receive no pay for the period of the vacation if on sick leave without pay, but the period of the vacation shall not form part of the period of sick leave.

[Regulation 126 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4116 (correction in Gazette 11 November 1977 p. 4269).]

Where long service leave may be taken as sick leave

127. Where a teacher—

- (a) applies for sick leave with pay because of an illness or disability in respect of which he is not required to be confined to his house or a hospital; and
- (b) is entitled to a period of long service leave, the chief executive officer may require the teacher to apply for and take all or part of the period of long service leave to which he is entitled in place of an equivalent period of sick leave.

[Regulation 127 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4116 (correction in Gazette 11 November 1977 p. 4269); amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Appointment of Commonwealth or State employee

128. (1) In this regulation the terms "Commonwealth employee", "Commonwealth instrumentality", "State employee", and "State instrumentality" have the same meaning as in regulation 132.

(2) A Commonwealth or State employee whose appointment as a teacher is continuous with his employment by a Commonwealth or State instrumentality is entitled, on appointment, to be credited with a sick leave credit equal to any entitlement to sick leave with pay to which he was entitled, under the sick leave conditions of the Commonwealth or State instrumentality, on the date of his leaving the employment of the instrumentality.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, the employment of a person with a Commonwealth or State instrumentality shall be regarded as continuous with his service as a teacher if the period commencing with the date he ceases his employment with the instrumentality and ending with the date of his appointment as a teacher does not exceed 4 weeks, or such longer period as the Minister, in special circumstances, determines.

[Regulation 128 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4116 (correction in Gazette 11 November 1977 p. 4269).]

War-caused injury or disability

129. (1) A teacher who is absent from duty because of a war-caused injury or disability is entitled, in addition to any other sick leave credit under these regulations, to an additional credit in working days towards sick leave on full pay as follows—

- (a) in respect of service before 1 July 1967—
 - (i) on the date of appointment—10 days;
 - (ii) on completion of 12 months' continuous service—10 days;
 - (iii) for each 12 months' of continuous service after the first 12 months' of continuous service and any further service up to his fifth year of service—10 days for each year but with no accumulation in excess of 60 days and no re-accumulation;
- (b) in respect of service on and after 1 July 1967—
 - (i) on the date of appointment—15 days;
 - (ii) on completion of 12 months' continuous service—15 days;
 - (iii) for each 12 months' continuous service after the first 12 months' of continuous service—15 days.

(2) A teacher's additional sick leave credit under the provisions of subregulation 1 (a) or (b) shall be reduced by one day for each working day including public holidays the teacher is on sick leave with pay because of war-caused injury or disability.

(3) A war-caused injury or disability is an injury or disability which is certified by the Department of Veterans' Affairs of the Commonwealth to be war-caused.

[Regulation 129 inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4116 (correction in Gazette 11 November 1977 p. 4269).]

Long service leave

130. (1) A teacher who has completed—

- (a) 10 years of continuous service as a permanent teacher; or
- (b) 10 years of continuous service as a temporary teacher within a period of 11 calendar years, is entitled to 13 weeks of long service leave.

(2) A teacher who has completed—

- (a) 15 years of continuous service as a permanent teacher; or
- (b) 15 years of continuous service as a temporary teacher within a period of 16 calendar years, and who has not, within such period of continuous service, taken long service leave or long service leave on half pay, is entitled to 26 weeks of long service leave.

(3) A teacher may, with the approval of the chief executive officer take double the period of entitlement or any part of the period of entitlement to long service leave on half pay.

(4) Long service leave shall be taken—

- (a) in the period commencing with the date of the beginning of the school year and ending with the date of the second Friday in July; or
- (b) in the period commencing with the date of the Monday immediately following the second Friday in July and ending with the date of the end of the school year, except that the chief executive officer may in special circumstances direct that the provisions of this subregulation shall not apply in a particular case.

(5) Where a portion of the long service leave to which a teacher is entitled cannot be taken because of the provisions of subregulation (4), that portion shall remain credited to the teacher and—

- (a) may be added to any further leave that may accrue to that teacher; or
- (b) may, or any part of it may, be taken at any time if in the opinion of the chief executive officer there exist special circumstances which justify the taking of such leave.

(6) For the purposes of determining the period of long service leave—

- (a) where the period of long service leave commences before and ends after the summer vacation, the period of the vacation shall not form part of the long service leave;
- (b) where the period of long service leave commences before and ends after a term vacation, the period of the vacation shall form part of the period of long service leave, but where—
 - (i) a teacher is granted any leave credited towards long service leave or any part thereof, pursuant to subregulation (5); and
 - (ii) the leave so granted is continuous with a 13 week period of long service leave and commences before and ends after a term vacation, the period of the vacation shall not form part of the period of long service leave.

(6a) In these regulations the term “continuous service” when applied to or used in relation to long service leave shall be read and construed in accordance with subregulation (7).

(7) For the purpose of determining rights and entitlements in respect of long service leave under these regulations—

- (a) any interruption in the service of a teacher shall not count as service and shall break his continuity of service except that—
 - (i) any continuous period of leave without pay exceeding 2 weeks;
 - (ii) any period of long service leave;
 - (iii) any period of long service leave on half pay;
 - (iv) any continuous period of sick leave without pay in excess of 3 months;
 - (v) any interruption in the service of a temporary teacher for a period of under 3 months because the teacher’s services are for the time being not required;

- (vi) any period spent by a teacher as a student at a teachers' college; and
 - (vii) as of 1 January 1960, any period commencing with the date of the expiration of 4 years from the date a teacher becomes entitled to 26 weeks of long service leave and ending with the date of the completion of such leave, shall not count as service but shall not break the continuity of service;
 - (b) any period of leave without pay determined under the provisions of regulation 118 (2) (relating to leave without pay for the purpose of undertaking studies) to be part of the service of a teacher for all purposes shall count as service and shall not break the continuity of service;
 - (c) where the continuous service of a teacher consists of service as a monitor and service as a teacher his period of service as a monitor shall be reduced by one-half.
- (8) (a) The chief executive officer shall cause a notice regarding the taking of long service leave, hereinafter referred to as "the notice" to be published in The Education Circular in March of each year.
- (b) The notice shall require teachers who wish to take long service leave on full pay or half pay to make application for such leave and shall specify the time limits within which such an application may be made.
 - (c) A teacher may make an application under this subregulation if he—
 - (i) is entitled to long service leave; or
 - (ii) will be entitled to long service leave during the school year immediately following that in which the notice is published.
 - (d) An application under this subregulation—
 - (i) shall be in writing in such form as the chief executive officer directs;
 - (ii) shall state whether the leave applied for is leave on full pay or leave on half pay;
 - (iii) shall state the period of long service leave on full pay or half pay for which the applicant is applying;
 - (iv) shall state the date on which the teacher wishes the leave to commence;
 - (v) shall be in respect of a period of long service leave on full or half pay to commence within the school year immediately following that in which the notice is published; and
 - (vi) shall be made within the time limits specified in the notice.
 - (e) As soon as practicable after the receipt of an application under this subregulation, the chief executive officer—
 - (i) shall, in the case of an application for leave on full pay, approve the taking of the leave for which the application has been made;
 - (ii) may, in the case of an application for leave on half pay, approve the taking of the leave for which the application has been made, except that he may order that the leave commence on a date other than that contained in the application, provided that the substituted date is within the same school year as the requested date.

Lump sum payment

131. (1) A lump sum payment for the money equivalent of any long service leave entitlement of a teacher under the provisions of regulation 130, and any proportional long service leave credit of a teacher under the provisions of this regulation shall be made—

- (a) as of the date of his retirement, to a teacher who is retired because of age or incapacity, provided that he has completed at least 12 months of continuous service prior to the date of his retirement;
- (b) as of the date of his retirement, to a teacher who retires voluntarily at or over the age of 55 years provided that he has completed at least 3 years of continuous service prior to the date of his retirement;
- (c) as of the date of his death, in respect of a teacher who dies—
 - (i) to his estate if he is not survived by a spouse or other person legally dependent on him;
 - (ii) to his spouse if he is survived by a spouse legally dependent on him; or
 - (iii) where he is not survived by a spouse legally dependent on him to such person legally dependent on him as the Minister approves, provided that the teacher has completed not less than 12 months of continuous service prior to the date of his death.

(2) A lump sum payment for the money equivalent of any long service leave entitlement of a teacher under the provisions of regulation 130 shall be made, as soon as practicable after the date of his resignation or dismissal, to a teacher who—

- (a) resigns;
- (b) is dismissed.

(3) The proportional service leave credit of a teacher, for each period of continuous service less than that required to entitle the teacher to long service leave—

- (a) shall be for a period of less than 10 years, that proportion of 13 weeks as the period bears to 10 years; and
- (b) shall be for a period in excess of 10 years but less than 15 years, that proportion of 13 weeks as the period bears to 5 years.

Long service leave credit for Commonwealth or State employee

132. (1) In this regulation—

“Commonwealth employee” means a person who is appointed as a teacher and whose appointment is continuous with his employment with a Commonwealth instrumentality;

“Commonwealth instrumentality” means—

- (a) any department of the Australian Public Service;
- (b) any body constituted under an Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth; or
- (c) any body subject to the administration of a Minister of the Crown in right of the Commonwealth, as the Minister declares by notice in the Government Gazette to be a Commonwealth instrumentality for the purposes of this regulation;

“period of accrued long service leave” means a period of long service leave—

- (a) to which, under the long service leave conditions of, and by virtue of his service with, a State instrumentality, a State employee is entitled as of the date he ceases to be employed by that instrumentality;
- (b) which he has not taken as long service leave; and
- (c) for which he has received no benefit in lieu of long service leave;

“State employee” means a person who is appointed as a teacher and whose appointment is continuous with his employment with a State instrumentality;

“State instrumentality” means any body within the State which is, or is capable of being declared to be, a department for the purposes of the Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938.

(2) (a) A Commonwealth or State employee is entitled to a credit towards an entitlement to long service leave under regulation 130, hereinafter referred to as a “long service leave credit”, in respect of his service with a Commonwealth or State instrumentality, calculated according to the prescribed formula.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) the prescribed formula is the formula—

$$A = \frac{B}{C} \times D$$

where

- A represents the long service leave credit, in days;
 - B represents the period, in days, of continuous service with the instrumentality which—
 - (i) ended on the date the employee left the service of the instrumentality;
 - (ii) was, under the long service leave conditions of the instrumentality—
 - (1) countable as service towards entitlement to a period of long service leave; and
 - (2) less than the period of service required to entitle an employee to a period of long service leave; and
 - (iii) in respect of which the employee has not taken long service leave or received from the instrumentality any benefit in lieu of long service leave;
 - C represents the period, in days, of continuous service with the instrumentality which, under the long service leave conditions of that instrumentality, would have entitled the employee to a period of long service leave had he remained in the employ of the instrumentality; and
 - D represents the period, in days, of long service leave to which the employee would have been entitled under the long service leave conditions of the instrumentality had he completed the period of continuous service with the instrumentality represented by B.
- (c) A Commonwealth or State employee credited with a long service leave credit shall be deemed to be entitled to long service leave under the provisions of regulation 130 on the day after he has completed the period of service from the date of his appointment as a teacher calculated according to the prescribed formula.
- (d) For the purposes of paragraph (c) the prescribed formula is—
- (i) in respect of an entitlement to a period of long service leave of 13 weeks, the formula—

$$E = (91-A) \times 40; \text{ and}$$

- (ii) in respect of an entitlement to a period of long service leave of 26 weeks, the formula—

$$E = (182-A) \times 30$$

where

E represents the period of service, in days, a Commonwealth or State employee must complete, from the date of his appointment as a teacher, in order to be entitled to long service leave; and

A represents, in days, the employee's long service leave credit.

(3) Where a State employee is entitled to a period of accrued long service leave, he shall be deemed to be entitled, as of the date of his appointment as a teacher, to that period of long service leave as long service leave under these regulations.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation, the employment of a person with a Commonwealth or State instrumentality shall be deemed to be continuous with his service as a teacher if the period commencing with the date he ceases his employment with the instrumentality and ending with the date of his appointment as a teacher does not exceed 4 weeks, or such longer period as the Minister, in special circumstances, determines.

(5) A Commonwealth employee shall not proceed on long service leave until he has completed a period of over 3 years of continuous service as a teacher.

Division 10—Misconduct and Complaints

Complaint

135. (1) (a) Where a complaint is made against a teacher by a parent of a pupil or by some other person, the chief executive officer shall cause a copy of the complaint as so made to be referred to the teacher for his remarks.

(b) After receipt of the teacher's remarks, the chief executive officer shall, if he considers the complaint worthy of investigation, inform the complainant that an investigation of the complaint will be made upon receipt by the chief executive officer of the complaint in writing on a departmental form and signed by the complainant before a Justice of the Peace and that upon the application of the complainant the appropriate departmental form shall be supplied to him.

(c) If the complaint so signed differs in substance from the original complaint referred to in paragraph (a) no further action shall be taken by the chief executive officer and the complainant shall be informed accordingly; but if the complaint so signed does not differ in substance from the original complaint, the chief executive officer may cause an inquiry to be held, and notice of that inquiry shall be given to the teacher against whom the complaint was made, and to the complainant, at least a week before the date fixed for the inquiry.

(2) If it appears to the chief executive officer that the complaint is of a nature which would admit of a settlement between the parties, without a formal inquiry, every assistance shall be given to the parties to reach a settlement.

(3) (a) At an inquiry referred to in this regulation, the officer holding, or presiding over, the inquiry may permit a member of the Parents and Citizens' Association or one other person, who is not a legal practitioner, to be present.

(b) The teacher against whom the complaint was made may, if he so desires, have a friend or an adviser present, and the complainant may, if he so desires, have a friend or an adviser present; but the friend or adviser shall not be a legal practitioner or a person employed by a legal practitioner.

(c) Except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b), no person, other than those whose attendance is necessary, shall be present at an inquiry.

[Regulation 135 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Inquiry to be relevant to complaint

136. An inquiry shall be confined only to matters relevant to the complaint notice of which shall be given to the teacher against whom the complaint was made.

PART VI—DUTIES OF SUPERINTENDENTS

Functions and duties of Superintendents

146. (1) The duties and functions of a Superintendent include the following:—

- (a) To advise and assist teachers, and make themselves available when possible for consultation and discussion;
- (b) to evaluate the work of the school as an educational institution, and to indicate whether it is adequately meeting departmental requirements either as a whole or in particular fields of instruction; and
- (c) to report on the nature of the service of departmental teachers as required by the chief executive officer.

(2) During any advisory visit a Superintendent may make such reports, either oral or written, as he deems necessary; but those reports are solely for the guidance and information of the teaching staff, and are not required to be forwarded to the department.

[Regulation 146 amended in Gazettes 29 August 1963 p. 2604; 25 March 1970 p. 888; 30 December 1988 p. 5114; 30 December 1988 p. 5115.]

School visits within district

147. Every Superintendent shall, if possible, pay at least 2 visits per year to each government school in his district.

[Regulation 147 amended in Gazettes 25 March 1970 p. 888; 2 May 1980 p. 1426.]

Report on school and individual report on a teacher

148. (1) A Superintendent shall make a report on each school as directed by the chief executive officer.

(2) On completing the evaluation of a school, the Superintendent shall make out a report on the work of the school as a whole and as many of the individual classes as he considers necessary.

(3) The school report shall be handed to the principal who shall forward it to the department after he has ensured that an accurate copy has been made and is retained in the school.

(4) A teacher who wishes to appeal against the whole or any part of the report shall do so within 7 days of its receipt.

(5) When a Superintendent considers it necessary to make an individual report as to a teacher, a copy of the report shall be handed to the teacher concerned and be retained by him.

[Regulation 148 amended in Gazettes 16 December 1965 p. 4184; 25 March 1970 p. 888; 29 November 1974 p. 5191; 27 June 1975 p. 2163; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Criteria for Superintendent to use when evaluating school

149. (1) In the course of making a report a Superintendent shall be free to employ whatever procedures he deems necessary to enable him to form an accurate estimate of the effectiveness of the teaching and to evaluate the work of the school in the broadest possible terms.

(2) A Superintendent should devote a considerable part of his visits to observing the conduct of the ordinary work of the school in order that he might become acquainted with its government and organization and with the character of the training and instruction, and with a view to conducting whatever tests he considers necessary to assist him in making a fair evaluation.

(3) He should take into consideration the methods of government in the school and the training of the children in social co-operation and citizenship, and should also consider the condition of buildings, furniture and grounds and the part taken by the children in caring for them.

(4) He should take an interest in all institutions and agencies of an educational character connected with the school, such as the school library, savings bank, museum, gardens, clubs and sport, etc.

[Regulation 149 amended in Gazette 25 March 1970 p. 888.]

Superintendent to confer with school staff

150. A Superintendent should confer with the principal and other members of the staff upon points that arise during his visit and each staff member should be given the opportunity to discuss with the Superintendent any professional or personal problems he may have.

[Regulation 150 inserted in Gazette 25 March 1970 p. 888; amended in Gazette 27 June 1975 p. 2163.]

Complaint by teacher

151. Any teacher who has reason to complain of the manner in which a visit has been conducted by a Superintendent shall report the circumstances to the department within 48 hours of the conclusion thereof.

[Regulation 151 amended in Gazettes 25 March 1970 p. 888; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Appointment of temporary Superintendent

152. The Minister may from time to time appoint any person temporarily to perform the duties of a Superintendent at such remuneration as he may deem fit, and the person so appointed shall have all the powers of a Superintendent under these regulations.

PART VII—PRIMARY SCHOOLS

Division 1—Establishment

Minister may establish a primary school in any locality

159. (1) Subject to subregulation (2), a full-time government primary school may be established in any locality where in the opinion of the Minister—

- (a) the permanence of settlement is sufficiently assured and there is a reasonable prospect of a continued average attendance of not less than 10 children between the ages of 6 years and 14 years; or
- (b) there is a reasonable prospect of an average attendance of 8 children, a suitable school room is available, and there is no other government school within 5 kilometres of the locality; or
- (c) there is a reasonable prospect of an average attendance of 8 children within 12 months, the school is in a remote area where settlement is in progress, and a suitable school room is made available by the parents.

(2) A primary school shall not be established in a locality referred to in subregulation (1) (a), which locality is within 5 kilometres of an existing government primary school, if the average attendance of the proposed school is likely to be less than 20 pupils.

(3) (a) Where a school is established pursuant to subregulation (1) (a), the department shall provide the necessary buildings, furniture and equipment for that school.

(b) Where a school is established pursuant to subregulation (1) (b) or (c), the department shall provide the necessary furniture and equipment for that school.

(4) A primary school established in a locality referred to in subregulation (1) (b) or (c)—

(a) shall have not less than 1.1 square metres of floor space for each pupil, a boarded floor and adequate lighting and ventilation;

(b) shall be equipped with satisfactory sanitary arrangements and a suitable and adequate supply of drinking water; and

(c) shall provide suitable accommodation for the teacher at a rental approved by the department.

[Regulation 159 amended in Gazettes 14 September 1973 p. 3484; 13 December 1974 p. 5371; 16 November 1979 p. 3623; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Correspondence school

160. (1) A child who resides beyond the compulsory radius of a school may apply for admission to the Western Australian Correspondence School, and on such application may be admitted to that school without payment of a fee and be taught by correspondence as a full time student.

(2) A student, not being a child to whom subregulation (1) applies, who is not in full time attendance at a school may apply for admission to the Western Australian Correspondence School for any course conducted by that school and on such application and upon payment of the prescribed fees may be enrolled in that school and be taught by correspondence.

(3) Every student enrolled in the Western Australian Correspondence School pursuant to subregulation (2) shall pay fees in accordance with the scales set out in Schedule 5, and the full annual fee shall be paid in one payment upon enrolment.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this regulation the Minister may, upon application made to him in any case, permit payment of the annual fee by such instalments and at such times as he may determine, and may in any case where in his opinion it is inequitable to require payment of the prescribed fees, waive payment of the whole or any part of those fees.

Notification in Gazette of established primary school

161. The chief executive officer shall cause to be published in the Gazette notification of the establishment of every primary school established in accordance with this division.

[Regulations 161 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

*Division 2—ClassificationClassifications of full-time primary school

162. (1) Subject to the provisions of regulations 163 and of subregulation (3), full time primary schools are classified as follows—

Class IA—schools having an average daily enrolment of not less than 500 pupils;

Class I—schools having an average daily enrolment of not less than 300 but less than 500 pupils;

Class II—schools having an average daily enrolment of not less than 100 but less than 300 pupils;

Class III—schools having an average daily enrolment of less than 100 pupils and to which not less than 2 full-time teachers are assigned;

Class IV—schools to which less than 2 full-time teachers are assigned.

(2) A school may be declared a “special school” if, in the opinion of the chief executive officer it carries additional responsibilities.

(3) The classification of a special school, shall be determined by the chief executive officer in accordance with the particular circumstances of the school.

[Regulation 162 inserted in Gazette 31 August 1961 p. 2591; amended in Gazettes 10 May 1974 p. 1542; 17 February 1978 p. 529; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Review of classification of school

163. (1) The classification of a school shall be reviewed once every 2 years and the school may be raised to a higher, or reduced to a lower, class upon the figures for the year if the chief executive officer is satisfied that the alteration is likely to be permanent.

(2) An alteration of classification of a school may be made at any time other than that referred to in subregulation (1) if the chief executive officer considers that special circumstances render the alteration necessary or advisable.

[Regulations 163 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

School may be closed

164. If a school does not maintain an average attendance of 8 pupils, the Minister may, if he thinks fit, cause it to be closed.

[165. Regulation 165 repealed in Gazette 10 May 1974 p. 1542.]

*Division 3—Age of Admission to Primary SchoolsAge of admission

166. (1) At the beginning of each school year any child who will attain the age of 6 years on or before 31 December of that year may be admitted to a primary school, but a child who has attained the age of 6 years may be admitted at any time.

(2) Where the enrolment in a primary school does not exceed 10 pupils and the school is likely to close because of an insufficient number of pupils, a child who has attained the age of 4 years may be admitted to the school.

*Division 4—StaffingBasis of assigning teachers to primary schools

- 167. (1) Teaching staff shall be assigned to primary schools on the following basis—
- (a) in each primary school—one principal or, in the case of a one-teacher school, one teacher in charge;
 - [(b) deleted]
 - (c) in each Class I and Class IA primary school not being a junior primary school—one deputy principal (male) and one deputy principal (female);
 - (d) in each Class I junior primary school and Class IA junior primary school—one deputy principal (female) and one deputy principal (male);
 - (e) in such Class II primary schools as are from time to time specified by the chief executive officer—one senior assistant; and
 - (f) such teachers as are required, appointed in accordance with the Act and these regulations.

(2) In addition to the teaching staff referred to in subregulation (1) there shall be assigned to a primary school such teaching and other staff as are determined by the chief executive officer.

(3) Where the chief executive officer considers that the enrolment in a primary school of years 1 to 7 is likely to be maintained at not less than 276 pupils, he may relieve the principal of full-time responsibility for any class.

[Regulation 167^a amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 31 August 1961 p. 2591; 14 June 1967 pp. 1604-05; 23 December 1971 p. 5359; 10 May 1974 p. 1542; 6 September 1974 p. 3413; 20 December 1974 p. 5658; 27 June 1975 pp. 2163-64; 20 May 1977 p. 1545; 2 December 1977 p. 4459; 17 February 1978 p. 529; 4 August 1978 p. 2836; 15 August 1985 p. 975; 24 May 1985 p. 1796; 30 December 1988 p. 5114; 23 June 1989 p. 1859.]

shall be deemed to have an equivalent status and experience for the purposes of any promotion to a position of deputy principal of a high school or deputy principal of a senior high school to take effect on or after 1 January 1983.

- (d) A person who is a principal of a Class II district high school is eligible to apply for the position of deputy principal of a high or senior high school only if that person has completed at least 2 years as a principal of a district high school and has served as a—
- (a) deputy principal, district high (secondary); or
 - (b) senior teacher in a senior high or high school.

[(da) deleted]

(e) To be eligible to apply for a position of principal of a Class I district high school a teacher shall—

- (i) have the qualifications specified in paragraph (a); and
- (ii) have satisfactorily completed—
 - (I) 2 years' service as principal of a Class II primary school or principal of a Class II district high school;
 - (II) 2 years' service as a deputy principal of a high or senior high school or as a deputy principal of a district high school but only if the classification applicable to the position held by the teacher is, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, equivalent to the position of deputy principal of a high school or a senior high school; or
 - (III) 10 years' service as a teacher in a Government school at either or both of the primary and secondary levels and a further—
 - (A) 2 years' service as a senior education officer; or
 - (B) 2 years service as a district guidance officer.

(ea) A teacher who accepts promotion to the position of principal of a Class IA or Class I primary school is not eligible to apply for promotion to the position of principal of a Class I district high school.

(f) To be eligible to apply for a position of principal of a Class II district high school a teacher shall—

- (i) have the qualifications specified in paragraph (a); and
- (ii) have satisfactorily completed 8 years' service as a teacher in a Government school at either or both of the primary and secondary levels, including—
 - (I) 2 years' service as principal of a Class III primary school or appointment to the substantive position of principal of a Class III primary school on either 1 January 1973 or 1 January 1974;
 - (II) 2 years' service as a deputy principal of a Class 1A primary school;
 - (III) 2 years' service as a deputy principal of a district high school;
 - (IV) 2 years' service as a senior teacher;
 - (V) 2 years' service as an education officer, Grade 1;
 - (VA) 2 years' service as deputy principal (female) of a high school or senior high school; or
 - (VI) an aggregate of 2 years' service in more than one of the positions referred to in items (I) to (VA).

(1a) Subregulation (1) does not apply in relation to the position of principal of an agricultural college.

[(2) repealed]

(3) An applicant for the position of teacher in a secondary school shall hold a degree approved by the chief executive officer or associateship approved by the chief executive officer, or its equivalent, and where the appointment is made to take effect—

- (a) on or before 31 December 1981, hold the Teachers' Certificate and have completed 2 years' satisfactory teaching service; or
- (b) on or after 1 January 1982, hold the Teachers' Higher Certificate.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in subregulation (3), a teacher of art, home economics, manual arts or music is eligible to be appointed a senior teacher, if the applicant—

Scholarships

194. (1) Scholarships may be awarded to students undertaking courses of teacher education at approved teacher training institutions.

(2) The number of scholarships and the value thereof to be awarded in each year shall be determined by the Minister.

[Regulation 194 inserted in Gazette 31 January 1975 p. 315.]

Teacher Education Scholarship Board

195. (1) There shall be established a “Teacher Education Scholarship Board” which shall consist of—

- (a) the Director of Staffing, or his nominee;
- (b) a Superintendent of Education; and
- (c) a representative of the Union, nominated by the Union.

(2) The Board shall select students to whom scholarships are to be awarded.

(3) The Board, in selecting students for scholarships, shall take into account—

- (a) the academic achievements of the student;
- (b) the aptitude of the student for teaching; and
- (c) such information as may from time to time be considered necessary by the chief executive officer to be taken into account.

(4) An applicant for a scholarship shall submit to the department—

- (a) an application on the prescribed form containing the required information and particulars;
- (b) such information as may from time to time be considered necessary by the chief executive officer.

(5) Before the offer of a scholarship to a student is confirmed by the Board, the selected student shall—

- (a) complete the appropriate agreement form and make the necessary declaration; and
- (b) pass a medical and x-ray examination to the satisfaction of a Government Medical Officer.

(6) In this regulation the “Board” means the “Teacher Education Scholarship Board” established by this regulation.

Board to hear complaints

198. (1) The Board shall hear complaints with respect to the conduct of students who hold a Teacher Education Scholarship and shall make recommendations to the chief executive officer as to whether any scholarship should be terminated.

(2) (a) Where, a Superintendent (who shall not be a member of the Board), appointed by the chief executive officer to liaise with teacher training institutions, is of opinion that because—

- (i) of idleness, disobedience, irregular, unpunctual or non-attendance, unsuitability or lack of interest in his work by a student; or
- (ii) a teacher training institution has terminated the course of teacher training of a student, the Teacher Education Scholarship of that student should be terminated, the Superintendent shall make a complaint as to the conduct of that student by notice in writing to the Chairman of the Board.

- (b) The Chairman shall, within 21 days of the receipt of a complaint convene a meeting of the Board and shall give the student and his guarantor 7 days' notice in writing of the date of the meeting, together with a written statement of the grounds of the complaint and notice of liability of the termination of the student's Teacher Education Scholarship.
- (c) (i) The student may attend the meeting, call witnesses and address the Board on his own behalf and may have a friend or an adviser present, but the friend or adviser shall not be a legal practitioner or a person employed by a legal practitioner.

- (ii) The Board may hear and determine the complaint notwithstanding the absence of the student.
- (iii) A member of the Board may examine the student and cross-examine any witness called by the student.
- (iv) The guarantor of the student may—
 - (a) attend the meeting;
 - (b) be called as a witness; and
 - (c) be cross-examined by any member of the Board, but otherwise shall take no active part in the proceedings of the meeting.

- (v) The Board shall keep a true and faithful record of every meeting and the proceedings thereof which shall be signed by each member present.

(3) (a) After the hearing of a complaint, the Board—

- (i) may dismiss the complaint; or
- (ii) may recommend to the chief executive officer that the Teacher Education Scholarship of the student be terminated.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) (ii), the Board shall not make a recommendation that a scholarship be terminated unless the decision of the Board was unanimous.

(4) (a) A recommendation of the Board that a scholarship be terminated shall be forwarded immediately to the chief executive officer, who, if he approves of the recommendation shall submit the recommendation to the Minister for his decision.

(b) If the chief executive officer does not approve of the recommendation of the Board, the recommendation shall lapse and be of no effect.

(5) Where a recommendation has been submitted to the Minister for his consideration he shall notify the student and his guarantor in writing of his decision and where the decision is that the scholarship be terminated, the reasons for that termination.

(6) In this regulation the “Board” means the “Teacher Education Scholarship Termination Board” established by regulation 197.

[Regulation 198 inserted in Gazette 31 January 1975 pp. 316-17; amended in Gazettes 27 June 1975 p. 2162; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Division 2—Teacher Education Scholarship Agreement

[Heading inserted in Gazette 31 January 1975 p. 317.]

Student to enter into agreement before scholarship is confirmed

199. Before the offer of a scholarship to a student is confirmed, the student shall enter into an agreement with the Minister—

- (a) that he will, on completion of his course of training, serve under that agreement in one or more schools for the period stated in the agreement; or
- (b) that he will repay the amount of the assistance received in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the agreement.

Agreement conditions

200. (1) An agreement for service entered into under regulation 199 (a) shall contain a guarantee to which the student and a person approved by the Minister are parties and shall—

- (a) where the course of training commenced before 1 January 1971, in the case of a male student, be in the Form No. 1A in Schedule 1; and in the case of a female student, be in the Form No. 2A in that Schedule;
- (b) where the course of training of a male student commenced on or after 1 January 1971, be in the Form No. 1 in that Schedule;
- (c) where the course of training of a female student commenced on or after 1 January 1971, but before 1 January 1973, be in the Form No. 2 in that Schedule;
- (d) where the course of training of a female student commenced on or after 1 January 1973, be in the Form No. 2B in that Schedule; or
- (e) where a course of training of a student commenced on or after 1 January 1976, be in the Form No. 2D in that Schedule.

(2) An agreement entered into under the provisions of regulation 199 (b) shall, if the Minister so requires, contain a guarantee or indemnity to which the student and a person approved by the Minister are parties and shall be in the Form No. 2C in Schedule 1.

- (3) (a) A student may, during his course of training transfer from an agreement—
- (i) made pursuant to regulation 199 (a) to an agreement made pursuant to paragraph (b) of that regulation; or
 - (ii) made pursuant to regulation 199 (b) to an agreement made pursuant to paragraph (a) of that regulation, on the condition that he enters into a further agreement with the Minister (which the Minister may require to contain a guarantee) to take effect on and from 1 January specified therein, making provision for the repayment of assistance received and the adjustment of service, that is satisfactory to the Minister.

- (b) A student who has transferred from one agreement to another agreement pursuant to paragraph (a) during his course of training shall not be eligible to transfer back to his original agreement.

(4) The amount of financial assistance payable to a student who enters into an agreement made pursuant to regulation 199 (b) shall comprise—

- (a) a basic allowance on a scale determined by the Minister;
- (b) a living away from home allowance (if applicable) on a scale determined by the Minister,

by way of grant; and

- (c) an annual loan, variable at the election of the student in multiples of $50 up to a maximum on a scale determined by the Minister, repayable from the day of graduation from the teacher training institution, or sooner termination of the course of training.

(5) Notwithstanding subregulation (4) (c), financial assistance by annual loan shall be limited to male and female students (other than dependent wives) who—

- (a) have been resident in Western Australia for at least 2 years immediately prior to commencing the course;
- (b) are not in receipt of any other scholarship; and
- (c) are not under any obligation or contract to an employer, unless the Minister otherwise determines.

(6) The Minister may, in his absolute discretion mitigate the terms of any agreement entered into under this regulation.

(7) Repayment of financial assistance shall be made by equal monthly instalments over 4 years but shall become immediately due and payable where—

- (a) the course of training is not completed and the Minister requires repayment; or
- (b) the provisions of the agreement entered into require repayment.

(8) Interest, at a rate to be determined by the Under Treasurer shall, subject to the provisions of the agreement entered into, be payable only on the proportion of the moneys repayable for the time being in arrear.

PART X—TECHNICAL INSTITUTIONS

Division 1—Establishment

Establishment of technical institutions

206. The Minister may, on the recommendation of the chief executive officer, establish within the State such regional colleges of technical and further education, technical colleges, evening technical schools, centres and services as are, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, necessary for the technical education of persons.

[Regulation 206 inserted in Gazette 20 December 1967 p. 3521; amended in Gazettes 24 September 1976 p. 3533; 3 May 1985 p. 1591; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Technical college to average 3 000 student hours per week

207. (1) (a) The chief executive officer shall not make a recommendation for the establishment of a technical college under regulation 206 unless he is of the opinion that there is a reasonable prospect of an average attendance at a college during a college year of more than 3 000 student hours per week being maintained.

- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), the chief executive officer may recommend the establishment of a technical college in a region where, in his opinion, special circumstances exist.

(2) Technical colleges shall be classified as follows—

- (a) Grade 1 being technical colleges in which, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, there is a reasonable prospect during a school year of an average attendance of more than 12 000 student hours per week being maintained in day and evening classes combined;
- (b) Grade 2 being technical colleges in which, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, there is a reasonable prospect during a school year of an average attendance of more than 6 000 but less than 12 000 student hours per week being maintained in day and evening classes combined;

- (c) Grade 3 being technical colleges in which, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, there is a reasonable prospect during a school year of an average attendance of more than 3 000 but less than 6 000 student hours per week being maintained in day and evening classes combined.

(3) (a) The chief executive officer shall not make a recommendation for the establishment of an evening technical school under regulation 206 unless he is of the opinion that there is a reasonable prospect of classes being maintained according to the average weekly student hours as set out in paragraph (b).

(b) Evening technical schools shall be classified as follows:—

- (i) Class 1 being a school having over 3 000 average weekly student hours of instruction after 5 p.m.; or over 1 500 average weekly student hours of instruction but including 300 student hours of instruction before 5 p.m.;
- (ii) Class 2 being a school having more than 1 500 but less than 3 000 average weekly student hours of instruction after 5 p.m.; or more than 750 but less than 1 500 average weekly student hours of instruction but including 200 student hours of instruction before 5 p.m.

(4) (a) The chief executive officer shall not make a recommendation for the establishment of a technical centre under regulation 206 unless he is of the opinion that there is a reasonable prospect of classes being maintained according to the average weekly student hours as set out in paragraph (b).

(b) Technical centres shall be classified as follows—

- (i) Class 1 being a centre having more than 750 but less than 1 500 average weekly student hours of instruction after 5 p.m.; or more than 300 but less than 750 average weekly student hours of instruction but including 100 student hours of instruction before 5 p.m.;
- (ii) Class 2 being a centre having more than 300 but less than 750 average weekly student hours of instruction;
- (iii) Class 3 being a centre having more than 100 but less than 300 average weekly student hours of instruction;
- (iv) Class 4 being a centre having more than 40 but less than 100 average weekly student hours of instruction.

(5) For the purpose of this regulation, the attendance for instruction at a technical college, school or centre of one student for one hour shall be regarded as representing one student hour.

(6) A technical service shall be classified as being equivalent to a technical college, school or centre as determined by the chief executive officer.

[208. Regulation 208 repealed in Gazette 31 August 1961 p. 2593.]

Subject groups

209. (1) The subjects taught in the Technical Education Division of the department shall be grouped as follows:—

Group IV.—Year 8, 9 and 10 level subjects and subjects which, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, are equivalent to subjects of that level;

Group III.—Year 11 and 12 level subjects and subjects which, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, are equivalent to subjects of that level;

Group II.—Early tertiary (post matriculation) level subjects and subjects which, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, are equivalent to subjects of that level;

Group I.—Advanced tertiary level subjects and subjects which, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, are equivalent to subjects of that level.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (1), subjects forming part of trade apprentice courses and taught by a senior lecturer (trades) or lecturer (trades) shall not be grouped.

Full-time and part-time officers may be in charge

212. Full-time officers may be appointed to be in charge of evening technical schools and part-time officers may be appointed to be in charge of technical centres.

[Regulation 212 inserted in Gazette 24 September 1976 p. 3534.]

Adjustment of salary

213. Where the average weekly number of student hours in a particular centre during a school year exceeds the minimum number required for any classification above that in which the centre had been placed at the beginning of the year, the salary of the part-time officer in charge of that centre shall be adjusted at the end of the year to be in accordance with the salary provided for a part-time officer in charge of a centre classified in the class within which falls the average weekly number of student hours of the particular centre.

Division 2—Admission and Fees

Subdivision 1—Admission

Application for admission

214. (1) A person who desires to be admitted to a course of instruction in a technical course shall apply to the chief executive officer.

(2) An application under subregulation (1)—

- (a) shall be in writing; and
- (b) where the applicant is in full-time attendance at a secondary educational institution, shall be accompanied by the written permission of the principal of the educational institution at which he is in attendance authorizing him to undertake the course of study applied for.

(3) A person shall not be admitted to a course of technical instruction unless his application for admission has been approved by the chief executive officer.

[Regulation 214 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 16 June 1964 p. 2432; 18 March 1965 p. 845; 24 October 1980 p. 3668; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Correspondence instruction

215. An applicant may be admitted to correspondence instruction if he fulfils the requirements of regulation 214 and—

- (a) is resident in Western Australia and unable to obtain tuition in existing technical classes because of distance from a technical school at which the desired course is available, lack of suitable transport to that school, sickness or infirmity, occupational disability, or any other reason approved by the Director, Technical and Further Education; or
- (b) is resident outside Western Australia and there is no adequate provision for the relevant tuition in his own State or Territory.

Applicant without educational requirements

216. An applicant who has not the educational requirements for entry to the desired course may be admitted provided that he takes such preliminary subjects as may be directed by the principal or officer in charge of the college, school, service or centre to which admission is sought.

Admission may be refused

217. A student may be refused admission—

- (a) if all classes in the subject in which he seeks instruction are already full;
- (b) if application is made after the first month of the school year; except that enrolment for correspondence instruction may be effected at any time of the year; or
- (c) if, in the opinion of the principal or officer in charge of the college, school, service or centre to which admission is sought, the student is not fitted for the work of the subject.

Enrolment and preferences

218. In the enrolment of students preference shall be given to those whose occupations indicate that the class work will be of particular value to them.

Student to provision himself

219. A student may be required to provide himself with such apparatus, equipment or materials as may be prescribed by the principal or officer in charge and approved by the Director, Technical and Further Education.

[Regulation 219 amended in Gazettes 12 October 1967 p. 2877; 24 July 1981 p. 3110.]

Correspondence texts remain property of the department

220. (1) All correspondence lesson texts issued by the Technical Extension Service remain the property of the department.

(2) Such lesson texts are supplied to students as required only for their course of studies, and shall be neither sold nor given away by any student.

(3) On demand the lesson texts shall be returned to the service by the student at the termination of his enrolment.

(4) All reproduction rights of these courses either wholly or in part are reserved by the department.

[Regulation 220 amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114; 30 December 1988 pp. 5114-15.]

Termination of enrolment in Extension Service

221. (1) Correspondence enrolment shall normally terminate at the end of the calendar year immediately following that in which the fee is paid, but extension of time for such enrolment may be granted because of illness or any other reason acceptable to the Principal of the Extension Service.

(2) The Principal of the Technical Extension Service may terminate the enrolment of any correspondence student on the grounds of inactivity or failure to profit by the instruction given, if he notifies the student in writing of his intention to do so and receives no reply within a period of 30 days thereafter giving satisfactory reasons for the student's inactivity or failure to profit by the instruction given.

(3) Any student may withdraw at any time from a course by notifying the Principal in writing of his intention so to do.

Subdivision 2—FeesFees

222. (1) (a) Unless these regulations provide otherwise, fees are payable in advance by students in accordance with the scales set out in Schedule 2 and the full fee shall be paid in one payment except where on application made to him in any case the Minister determines otherwise.

Examination fee

226. A person permitted to sit for an examination in a subject without attendance at classes, or to sit for a supplementary examination, shall pay the relevant examination fee.

Admission form and numbered receipt form

227. A student eligible for entry to a class or classes without payment of fees (or without further payment of fees if currently enrolled in the division) shall be issued with an admission form as an authority for entry to classes, but in cases where fees are payable the student shall be issued with a numbered receipt form.

*Division 3—Hours of Instruction, Vacations and AttendanceTeaching year and term vacations

228. (1) The teaching year shall normally consist of 36 weeks divided into terms of 12 weeks, 13 weeks and 11 weeks respectively.

(2) The term vacations shall consist of 2 weeks at the end of each of the first and second terms.

[Regulation 228, inserted in Gazette 12 May 1965 p. 1483; amended in Gazette 25 March 1970 p. 889.]

Summer vacation

229. (1) Subject to subregulation (2a), the summer vacation for teachers in the Technical Division shall consist of 8 weeks and the respective dates upon which vacations shall commence and terminate shall be as declared by the Minister who shall fix those dates at least 3 years in advance.

(2) Notwithstanding regulation 228, the Minister may reduce, extend or otherwise vary the vacation period for any college or school, where in his opinion the same is necessary either because of conditions peculiar to the industries served by the college or school or teaching department, or because of the nature of the training being given in that college or school or teaching department.

(2a) A Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education is entitled to annual leave as follows—

- (a) where the college is situate above the 26th parallel of south latitude—5 weeks' annual leave;
- (b) where the college is situate below the 26th parallel of south latitude—4 weeks' annual leave.

(2b) A Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education shall not proceed on leave without the approval of the Director of Technical and Further Education.

(3) Technical colleges and schools shall be closed on Public Service holidays.

[Regulation 229⁵ inserted in Gazette 12 May 1965 p. 1484; amended in Gazette 3 May 1985 p. 1591.]

Weekly tour of duties

230. (1) Subject to subregulation (3) (c), the weekly tour of duties for all full time members of the teaching staff shall be the equivalent of 30 hours at such times as required by the Director, Technical and Further Education.

(2) Subject to subregulation (3) (d), the hour of class instruction which teachers are required to take as part of their normal duties and which falls after 5.30 p.m. on any day, or on Saturday morning, shall count as equivalent to one and one-half hours in the weekly total.

(3) (a) The allocation of duty hours for each teacher as between teaching and other duties shall be at the discretion of the Director, Technical and Further Education within limits determined by the chief executive officer, with a maximum average of 24 equivalent teaching hours per week over the year, but no additional part-time payment shall be made on any excess above the allocated duty hours of a teacher up to half an hour per week.

(b) Part-time payments for periods in excess of the allocated duty hours of a teacher shall commence with the completion of the first half hour per week, and additional payments shall be in multiples of half an hour.

(c) Subregulation (1) and paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply to the position of Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education.

(d) The hours of duty for a Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education shall be not less than 37½ hours per week.

Division 4—Awards and Examinations

[Heading inserted in Gazette 28 October 1971, p. 4218 (erratum in Gazette 5 November 1971 p. 4313).]

Awards

231. (1) Subject to the succeeding provisions of this Division, students of the Technical Education Division may be awarded an Associateship, Diploma or Certificate of the Technical Education Division on the completion of the appropriate course of study.

(2) Subject to subregulation (3) a student shall not be entitled to be awarded an Associateship, Diploma or Certificate in respect of any course unless—

- (a) he has been admitted as a candidate in the course of study for that award;
- (b) he has received tuition within the Division and has entered and passed the prescribed examinations in all the subjects in the course of study;
- (c) he has made application for such award by a prescribed date on a prescribed form; and
- (d) he has paid the prescribed fee.

(3) The Director, Technical and Further Education on sufficient cause being shown may exempt a student from class attendance or from entering and passing the prescribed examinations, or both in one or more subjects, or allow a student to substitute for any subject in the prescribed course any other subject of appropriate content, but except where in special circumstances the Director, Technical and Further Education determines otherwise, a student shall be required to complete at least one third of the number of subjects scheduled for the course or the approved equivalent of that one third and these required subjects shall include an advanced subject which is scheduled in the final stage of the course and which is related to the major content of study appropriate to the award.

(4) Where it is claimed that the original award has been lost or destroyed, the lawful holder on application shall be issued with either a statement affirming the original issue in which case no fee will be payable, or a replacement award for which the prescribed fee shall be payable, and the application shall be accompanied by a statutory declaration attesting to the loss of the original award and including an undertaking that if the original is recovered the replacement award will be returned to the Director, Technical and Further Education.

Application for entry to examinations

232. (1) (a) An enrolled student may be required to make application on a prescribed form by a due date for entry to the examinations of the Technical Education Division in the subjects for which he is enrolled, and may sit for such examinations subject to the approval of the principal or officer-in-charge of the institution at which he receives tuition.

(b) A student may be required to have made 75 per cent of the possible attendances for the year, or have completed 75 per cent of the requirements of a correspondence course, in order to sit for the annual examinations concerned.

(2) Where application for entry to examinations is required on a prescribed form by a due date and has not been received by the principal or officer-in-charge by that date, then a late entry may be accepted on payment of a prescribed fee within the twenty-eight (28) day period immediately following that date, and entries after that period shall only be accepted by the Director, Technical and Further Education after consideration of the special circumstances involved, and in such cases a statutory declaration stating the circumstances may be required.

(3) A student who is prevented from sitting for the annual examinations in subjects for which he has been enrolled and has made application as required to be examined, may make application to the Director, Technical and Further Education to sit for a deferred examination; the application shall be supported by documentary evidence or by a statutory declaration and shall be made within seven (7) days of the corresponding annual examination and if the application is approved then the prescribed fee shall be payable.

Statement of results and statement of completion

233. (1) On application a statement of results will be issued to a student who—

(a) has made the required attendances or completed the required number of correspondence lessons under regulation 232 (1) (b); and

(b) has passed the prescribed annual examinations or has received an accredited pass on his year's work.

(2) On application, a statement of completion will be issued to a student who satisfactorily completes all lessons in a correspondence subject and who passes all tests set as part of that subject.

[Regulation 233 inserted in Gazette 28 October 1971 p. 4219.]

Examination fees may be exempted

234. After considering the circumstances of each case the Minister may exempt a student or group of students from payment of prescribed examination fees.

[Regulation 234 inserted in Gazette 28 October 1971 p. 4219.]

*Division 5—Day Classes for Registered ApprenticesDay classes to be established

235. Day classes for registered apprentices may be established at the instance of the Director, Technical and Further Education and shall be held at such times as may be necessary to comply with the appropriate industrial award or agreement.

Employer to be advised of school particulars

236. (1) On receipt of advice from The Western Australian Industrial Commission of the registration of an apprentice, the Director, Technical and Further Education shall give the employer of the apprentice particulars of the school, and the days on which and the times at which the apprentice is required to attend the school.

(2) The apprentice shall be enrolled by the principal or officer in charge in the classes most appropriate for his trade, regard being had also to his educational standard and year of apprenticeship.

Time book

237. A time book shall be provided for each classroom or workshop where day trade apprentice classes are held and the instructors of such classes shall see that each apprentice signs the time book on commencing and finishing classwork.

Report on apprentice

238. (1) (a) The principal or officer in charge shall send a report to the employer of an apprentice who fails to attend on his appropriate class period, or who arrives after the commencement of classes, or leaves before the termination of classwork, or fails to apply himself diligently to his classwork.

(b) The report shall be despatched not later than the day following that on which the breach of discipline occurred.

(2) Where an apprentice attending day trade classes is summarily suspended under regulation 35 during normal working hours, he should be instructed to return immediately to his place of employment, and the employer shall be advised of this action in accordance with the procedure laid down in Administrative Instructions.

(3) Class rolls and other apprentice records shall be available for inspection by the Industrial Registrar or by members of the appropriate advisory committee on application to the principal or officer in charge.

(4) The principal or officer in charge shall, at the request of the Industrial Registrar, supply the examiners appointed by The Western Australian Industrial Commission with a schedule showing the number of possible and actual attendances, and the annual examination results, for each apprentice.

(5) The Director of Technical and Further Education shall forward to the employer at the end of the teaching year a report on the attendance and progress and the annual examination results of his apprentice and shall also provide the parent of the apprentice with a copy of the report.

Division 6—Self Supporting Activities

Self supporting activities, conduct of and purpose for

239. (1) Self supporting activities may be established and conducted for—

- (a) the purpose of giving instruction supplementary to that otherwise provided by the Technical Education Division of the department; or
- (b) such other purposes as the Minister may from time to time determine.

(2) The activities to be conducted under these provisions are such as may be, from time to time, determined by trustees appointed under regulation 240.

[Regulation 239 amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 pp. 5114-15.]

Trustees vested with control of self supporting activities

240. (1) The control of the self supporting activities is vested in trustees who shall be known as Trustees of the Technical Education Division Self Supporting Activities.

(2) There shall be 5 trustees appointed by the Minister of whom 3 shall be internal and 2 external, as follows:—

Internal:

- (a) the Director, Technical and Further Education who shall act as chairman;
- (b) a principal of a technical college, school or service;
- (c) a nominee of the State School Teachers' Union of W.A. Incorporated;

External:

- (d) the Under Treasurer or a deputy nominated by him;
- (e) a nominee of the Minister.

(3) In the case of prolonged absence from duty of any trustee or of a deputy so nominated, the Minister may appoint a deputy for him.

(4) A fee at the rate of $30 for each meeting attended by a trustee is payable to that trustee if he is not a permanent member of the Government Service, but the total amount payable to a trustee in any one year shall not exceed $150.

[Regulation 240 amended in Gazettes 16 June 1964 p. 2432; 30 March 1966 p. 829; 12 October 1967 p. 2877; 28 November 1975 p. 4345; 24 July 1981 p. 3110.]

Meetings and duties of trustees

241. (1) The trustee shall hold meetings at least once during each term and shall consider and make determinations or recommendations as required concerning existing and proposed activities, alterations in fees payable, remuneration of instructors and all other matters which may be deemed necessary for the efficient working of the classes.

(2) The organization, administration and supervision of the classes shall be the responsibility of the internal trustees.

Power of trustees

242. Subject to the approval of the Minister, the trustees shall have power—

- (a) to grant exemption from payment of fees in necessitous cases if the funds to the credit of a class so permit; and
- (b) to grant refunds of fees to any student where—
 - (i) classes have to be discontinued; or
 - (ii) the student is unable, by virtue of his employment or other cause, adjudged by the trustees to be beyond his control, to continue to take advantage of the classes; and
- (c) to write off fees due which the trustees are satisfied are non-collectable.

Account shall be kept of each activity

243. (1) An account shall be kept for each activity or group of activities in a form determined by the trustees and in accordance with the requirements of the Auditor General.

(2) (a) All fees received on behalf of the trustees shall be paid into the Technical Education Trust Fund Account at the Commonwealth Bank.

(b) This account shall be operated by such persons as may be authorized from time to time by the trustees.

(3) Each activity or group of activities shall be debited with the following charges, which shall be paid to Consolidated Revenue at the close of each term, viz., an administrative charge of 5 per cent on all fees received and, where appropriate, a charge for depreciation and a charge also for light and power, or for light or power, as occasion requires, or other services provided by the department in connection with the activity.

(4) (a) An account for each activity or group of activities shall be finalized at the end of each year and the balance transferred to a suspense account for the particular activity or group of activities.

(b) The financial results of each activity shall be reported to the trustees, who may transfer the surplus standing in a suspense account to the credit of an activity to a general suspense account which shall be used by the trustees to meet general administration costs, audit fees, insurance, printing, telephone charges, stationery, advertising, supplies of equipment and in any way which, in the opinion of the trustees, will increase the efficiency and scope of the self supporting activities generally.

(5) All equipment purchased by the trustees for the self supporting activities shall at the end of the session in which it is purchased be recorded on the stock sheets of the division and become the property of the Minister.

(6) The trustees of the self supporting classes have authority to invest such funds as they deem surplus to immediate requirements in such investments as trustees are by law authorized to invest trust funds in their hands.

[Regulation 243 amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Rates paid for instruction of self supporting classes

244. The rates paid for the instruction of self supporting classes shall be determined annually by the trustees appointed under regulation 240.

[Regulation 244 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 4 November 1988 p. 4416.]

*Division 7—StaffingStaff classification

245. The members of the staff of the Technical Education Division of the department, other than those employed under the *Public Service Act 1978*⁶ (as amended) are classified as follows—

- (a) permanent full time teaching staff;
- (b) temporary and part time teachers;
- (c) laboratory, maintenance and wages staff.

[Regulation 245 amended in Gazettes 31 August 1961 p. 2593; 20 December 1962 p. 4060; 10 June 1971 p. 1923; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Vacancies, new offices, appointments, etc.

246. (1) Vacancies or new offices in the permanent full time teaching staff shall be advertised and appointments filled as provided in regulations 101 and 102, and regulations 102E to 102H (both inclusive)⁷ and regulations 252A to 252E, but a vacancy or new office may also be advertised outside the teaching service where in any case the chief executive officer considers such advertisement necessary.

(2) Appointments to vacancies or new offices mentioned in categories (b) and (c) of regulation 245 shall be made by the chief executive officer.

(3) The position of Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education is deemed to be an office in the permanent full time teaching staff notwithstanding the fact that an appointment to such a position is made for a fixed term.

(4) An appointment or promotion to the position of Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education may be made for a period not exceeding 5 years.

(5) Where a teacher is appointed or promoted to the position of Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education and that position is abolished or that term expires by effluxion of time, other than by the teacher attaining the retiring age, and the teacher is not re-appointed to an office of Director of a College of Technical and Further Education, the teacher is entitled to be appointed to a position not lower in status than the position which the teacher occupied immediately prior to his appointment to that position.

In-service course for untrained teacher

248. A teacher entering the Technical Education Division who is not a trained teacher shall be required to undertake the in-service course for the Teachers' Certificate (Technical).

[Regulation 248 amended in Gazettes 20 December 1962 p. 4060; 23 July 1976 p. 2566.]

Qualifications and promotions

249. (1) No teacher shall be appointed senior lecturer, senior counsellor or head of department unless he has obtained the Teachers' Certificate (Technical) or its equivalent and a satisfactory report on teaching skill.

(2) No teacher shall be appointed officer-in-charge (full-time), deputy-principal, principal or Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education unless he has obtained the academic requirements of the Teachers' Higher Certificate and has received a satisfactory report on teaching skill.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (2)—

(a) a head of department appointed prior to 31 December 1969, officer-in-charge (full-time), deputy principal, or principal, is eligible to be appointed to other promotional positions provided he holds professional or higher technical qualifications which are at least equivalent to a diploma of the Technical Education Division;

(b) a technical teacher who at 31 December 1968, held or had held a position as senior lecturer or senior counsellor is eligible to be appointed to other promotional positions provided he holds professional or higher technical qualifications which are at least equivalent to a diploma of the Technical Education Division and has had on 31 December 1968, at least 10 years' service with the Technical Education Division;

- (c) a senior lecturer or senior counsellor is eligible to be appointed to other equivalent promotional positions as senior lecturer or senior counsellor; and
- (d) any technical teacher, who has partially satisfied the conditions of the Teachers' Higher Certificate to the extent that he has only to complete either the Theory of Education requirements as set out in paragraph 17.04 (13) of the Administrative Instructions or one special subject area of the Teachers' Higher Certificate, and who has undertaken studies towards completing these requirements in at least one of the 2 years immediately prior to the year in which the application for promotion is made, shall be eligible until 31 December 1972, to apply for a promotional position provided he has not already gained a promotion under this provision.

(4) For promotion within the Technical Education Division positions shall be ranked in status order as follows, Category A1 being the highest status and the positions listed in each category being of equal status:—

- (a1) Category A1. Director of a Regional College of Technical and Further Education.
- (a) Category 1. Principal of a technical college or service; principal of a senior college who served in the Technical Education Division immediately prior to his appointment to a senior college.
- (b) Category 2. Officer-in-charge of an evening technical school, class 1, if appointed officer-in-charge of a technical centre, class 1, before 1 January 1971; deputy principal of a technical college, grade 1.
- (c) Category 3. Officer-in-charge of an evening technical school, class 2, if appointed officer-in-charge of a technical centre, class 2, before 1 January 1971; officer-in-charge of an evening technical school, class 1; deputy principal of a technical college, grade 2; head of department, grade A; deputy principal of a senior college who served in the Technical Education Division immediately prior to his appointment to a senior college.

Division 8—Advisory Boards

Minister may establish Advisory Committees

253. (1) The Minister may establish Professional Trade and other Advisory Committees to advise the Director, Technical and Further Education, in respect to the following matters concerning a specified course or related courses of instruction conducted within the Technical Education Division—

- (a) syllabus of instruction;
- (b) qualifications and professional standing of applicants for appointment to the teaching staff;
- (c) application from members of the teaching staff to engage in consultative work; and
- (d) such other matters relating to the efficiency of training in that course as may be brought forward by, or referred to, the members of the committee.

(2) At meetings of an advisory committee the majority of voting members shall form a quorum and in the event of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a casting vote.

(3) Advisory committees shall meet at the times appointed by the chairman who may, when he deems it desirable, and who shall, upon receipt of a requisition signed by at least 3 voting members, call a meeting of the committee.

(4) The committees may, with the permission of the Director, Technical and Further Education, visit a particular class at a specified time.

Members of Advisory Committees

254. (1) An Advisory Committee, other than a Trade Advisory Committee, established pursuant to regulation 253, shall consist of the following voting members who shall be appointed by the Minister—

- (a) the Director, Technical and Further Education, or a deputy appointed by the Minister, who shall be the Chairman of the Committee;
- (b) the principal of the appropriate technical college, school or service;
- (c) a person or persons nominated by an institute, association or board which is an appropriate institute, association or board having regard to the particular matters the Committee may have to advise upon; and
- (d) any other person or persons who may be nominated by the Minister.

(2) Members mentioned in subregulation (1) (c) and (d) shall hold office for 2 years but are eligible for reappointment.

(3) The Committee or the Chairman of the Committee may invite other persons, including members of the teaching staff of the Technical Education Division, to attend any particular meeting of the Committee, but a person so invited shall act only in an advisory capacity to the Chairman and is not entitled to vote.

Members of Trade Advisory Committee

255. (1) (a) A Trade Advisory Committee established pursuant to regulation 253 shall consist of the following members who shall be appointed by the Minister—

- (i) the Director, Technical and Further Education, or a deputy appointed by the Minister, who shall be Chairman of the Committee;
- (ii) an equal number of representatives of appropriate employer and employee organisations; and
- (iii) such other person or persons as the Minister nominates.

(b) The voting members of the Committee shall be only those referred to in paragraph (a) (ii).

(2) Members referred to in subregulation (1) (a) (ii) and (iii) shall hold office for 2 years but are eligible for reappointment, and each member shall have a deputy appointed by the Minister for the same period, who may attend the meetings of the Committee and exercise the powers of the member for whom he is deputy if the member is unable to attend those meetings.

(3) The chief executive officer may appoint an officer of the Technical Education Division to act as Secretary of the Committee and Convener of meetings.

(4) The Chairman, on the recommendation or approval of the Committee, may invite other persons, including members of the teaching staff of the Technical Education Division, to attend any meeting of the Committee, but a person so invited shall act only in an advisory capacity to the Chairman in connection only with the immediate business before the meeting and shall not be entitled or allowed to vote.

[Regulation 255 amended in Gazettes 29 June 1961 p. 2065; 16 June 1964 p. 2432; 24 July 1981 p. 3110; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Technical Colleges, Schools or Centres Advisory Committees

256. (1) Technical Colleges, Schools or Centres Advisory Committees may be established by the Minister to foster technical education in the areas served by the colleges, schools or centres and to advise the Director, Technical and Further Education concerning classes or courses conducted or to be conducted by the colleges, schools or centres having regard to the needs of the respective areas.

(2) In particular the Committees may make recommendations in respect to—

- (a) establishment of courses;
- (b) classes and attendance therein;
- (c) equipment; and
- (d) such other general matters of development as are necessary to ensure that the school meets the requirements of the area.

[Regulation 256 amended in Gazettes 16 June 1964 p. 2432; 12 October 1967 p. 2878; 24 July 1981 p. 3110.]

Members of Technical College, School or Centre Advisory Committees

257. (1) A Technical College, School or Centre Advisory Committee shall be composed of not more than 15 persons who shall be appointed for a period of 2 years but shall be eligible for reappointment.

(2) The Committee shall elect a Chairman from among its number at the first meeting of the biennial period.

(3) The principal or officer in charge of the college, school or centre concerned shall act as Secretary to the Committee and Convener of meetings.

(4) The Director, Technical and Further Education or his deputy may attend any meeting of the Committee but shall not be entitled to vote.

(5) The majority of voting members shall constitute a quorum and the Chairman, if not a departmental officer, may cast a deliberative vote.

(6) The Committee may at its time of meeting visit classes in the school and on prior arrangement with the principal visit the school at other times.

(7) The principal of the school or college shall, not less than 14 days before a meeting, forward notification of such meeting together with an agenda to all members of the School or College Advisory Committee, and shall within 14 days next following the meeting of the Committee forward a copy of the minutes together with such comments as he may deem necessary to the Director, Technical and Further Education.

[Regulation 257 amended in Gazettes 16 June 1964 p. 2432; 12 October 1967 p. 2878; 24 July 1981 p. 3110.]

Members of any Advisory Committee shall be appointed in an honorary capacity

258. The members of any Advisory Committee, or any other advisory body to the Technical Education Division appointed by the Minister, shall be appointed in an honorary capacity and shall not be paid for attendance at meetings but the Minister may reimburse:—

- (a) The actual fares of any member; and
- (b) the actual loss of wages of any member who, in order to attend, is obliged to obtain leave without pay from his regular employment.

Technical Teacher Training Advisory Committee

259. (1) A Technical Teacher Training Advisory Committee is constituted and established to advise the chief executive officer.

(2) The Committee shall consist of the following members—

- (a) the Director, Technical and Further Education who shall be chairman;
- (b) an officer nominated by the chief executive officer;
- (c) a Superintendent nominated by the chief executive officer;
- (d) a representative, elected by a ballot conducted by the State School Teachers' Union of W.A. Incorporated, of the trade teacher members of that Union; and
- (e) a representative, elected by a ballot conducted by the State School Teachers' Union of W.A. Incorporated, of the technical teacher members of that Union other than trade teachers.

(3) The Committee shall have power to co-opt.

(4) The Committee shall advise the chief executive officer on the organization of training courses conducted for technical teachers.

(5) (a) If a representative referred to in subregulation (2) (d) and (e) is unable to attend a meeting of the Committee, a deputy representative elected by ballot conducted by the State School Teachers' Union of W.A. Incorporated pursuant to this subregulation may take the place of that representative.

(b) The representatives in office on 1 March 1966, shall continue to hold office until 31 May 1968, but thereafter the representatives elected shall hold office for a period of 3 years from the date of election and shall be eligible for re-election.

(c) The deputy representatives in office on 1 August 1972, shall continue to hold office until 31 May 1974 and thereafter shall hold office for a period of 3 years from the date of election and shall be eligible for re-election.

(d) If the office of a representative or deputy representative becomes vacant before the expiration of the period for which he is entitled to hold that office the Union referred to in this sub-regulation shall conduct a further election to appoint a representative or deputy representative, as the case may require, who shall hold office only until the expiration of that period.

(e) Every election shall be held at the time and in the manner provided by, and in other respects in accordance with, rules made by the Union for that purpose.

Allowance to be paid to regularly constituted group

262G. (1) Where a regularly constituted group of persons provides a teacher for the instruction of a group of less than 6 children needing special education, the Minister may approve an allowance at the rate of two hundred and sixty-one dollars ($261) per annum per pupil to be paid to the group.

(2) The chief executive officer must be satisfied that the person employed by the group as a teacher is a person capable of providing the proper training of the pupils under his control.

(3) The group of persons responsible for the formation and administration of such a group of children shall provide classroom accommodation acceptable to the chief executive officer.

[Regulation 262G inserted in Gazette 26 November 1976 p. 4821; amended in Gazettes 24 May 1985 p. 1797; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

PART XIB—SPECIAL EDUCATION

[Heading inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4117.]

Interpretation

262H. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires—

“child” means a child of compulsory school age;

“direction for exclusion” means a direction of the Minister, under the provisions of section 20B of the Act, directing the parent of a child to refrain from causing the child to attend any Government school;

“direction to special education” means a direction of the Minister, under the provisions of section 20A of the Act, requiring the parent of a child to cause the child to attend such school or schools as is or are specified in the direction;

“special educational facility” means a special class designated by the chief executive officer to be a special educational facility for the purposes of this Part.

[Regulation 262H inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 p. 4117; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5113.]

Arranging a conference

262I. (1) Where the principal of a school or the parent of a child is of the opinion—

- (a) that the child suffers from a mental or physical disorder or disability; and
- (b) that by reason of the disorder or disability the child is having extreme difficulty in adjusting to the regular educational programme of the school, the principal shall arrange a conference (in these regulations referred to as an “initial conference”) for the purposes of ascertaining the educational programme best suited to the needs of the child and inform the parent of the child of the date and time of the conference.

(2) An initial conference shall consist of—

- (a) the parents of the child;
- (b) the principal of the school;
- (c) the teacher or teachers of the child; and
- (d) where the parents so desire, an interpreter, friend or relative of the parents, brought to the conference by the parents.

(3) For the purposes of convening an initial conference the principal shall—

- (a) set a reasonable time for the conference after, if practicable, discussion with the parents of the child;
- (b) invite the parents to attend the conference;
- (c) advise the parents that they may be accompanied by a friend, relative or interpreter;
- (d) require the teacher or teachers of the child to attend the conference; and
- (e) give written notification to the parents of the date and time of the conference and inform them that they may be accompanied by a friend, relative or interpreter.

(4) An initial conference shall take place in the presence of both parents of the child unless one or both parents refuse or neglect to attend the conference or one parent is unable to attend a conference at any reasonable time.

(5) The aims of an initial conference are—

- (a) to ensure the maximum co-operation between the parents of the child and the school regarding the provision of an educational programme that is in the best interests of the child;
- (b) to discuss the educational programmes offered by the school and their adequacy, in the light of the child’s disorder or disability, to meet his educational needs;
- (c) to agree, where possible, on an educational programme for the child at the school; and
- (d) to discuss possible alternatives to the educational programmes available at the school.

[Regulation 262I inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 pp. 4117-18.]

Specialist assessment to be made

262J. (1) Where an initial conference has taken place and the principal of the school is of the opinion—

- (a) that it is not possible adequately to determine whether the school is able to provide a suitable educational programme for the child without further advice; or
- (b) that it is not possible for the school to provide a suitable educational programme for the child, he shall arrange forthwith for a specialist assessment of the educational needs of the child.

(2) The assessment referred to in subregulation (1) shall be made by any or all of the following persons—

- (a) an officer or officers of the Guidance Branch or other specialist branches of the department;
- (b) any person or agency generally approved by the chief executive officer as suitable for the assessment of children;
- (c) at the request of the parents of the child, and if approved by the chief executive officer, by any person or agency not comprised in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(3) Where an assessment of a child has been made under the provisions of this regulation, the principal shall forthwith convene an assessment conference to discuss the results of the assessment.

(4) An assessment conference shall consist of—

- (a) the principal of the school;
- (b) the teacher or teachers of the child; and
- (c) where practicable, the person or persons who made the assessment.

(5) An assessment conference shall consider the report or reports of the person or persons making the assessment and shall recommend to the principal that the child—

- (a) remain in the school under that school's regular programme;
- (b) remain in the school under a modified programme;
- (c) be placed in a special educational facility; or
- (d) be excluded from attending any Government school.

[Regulation 262J inserted in Gazette 4 November 1977 pp. 4117-18; amended in Gazettes 30 December 1988 p. 5114; 30 December 1988 pp. 5114-15.]

Principal to decide whether child to remain at school or whether child cannot be accommodated at school

262K. (1) Where, after an assessment conference, the principal of the school decides that the child should remain in the school under the regular or a modified programme, he shall forthwith—

- (a) inform the parents of the child in writing of the decision explaining the reasons for the decision and the nature of the programme the child will undertake; and
- (b) attempt to enlist the co-operation of the parents in implementing the programme decided upon.

(2) Where, after an assessment conference, the principal of the school is of the opinion that it is not practicable, by modification in facilities, staff, or programmes, to provide a suitable educational programme for the child at the school and that the child should be placed in a special educational facility he shall forthwith—

- (a) recommend to the chief executive officer that the child be made subject to a direction to special education; and
- (b) inform the parents of the child, in writing, that he has made such a recommendation.

(3) Where the chief executive officer does not approve the recommendation he shall—

- (a) direct that the suspension of the child, if any, be terminated;
- (b) direct that the child continue to be enrolled in the school; and
- (c) inform the parents of the child in writing of his decision.

(4) Where the chief executive officer approves the recommendation he shall—

- (a) recommend to the Minister that the procedures of the Act relating to a direction to special education be implemented; and
- (b) inform the parents of the child in writing of his decision.

(5) Where the Minister approves the recommendation of the chief executive officer, he shall forthwith convene an advisory panel under the provisions of the Act and inform the parents of the child in writing of his decision.

(6) Where the Minister does not approve the recommendation of the chief executive officer, the Minister shall—

- (a) direct that the suspension of the child, if any, be terminated;
- (b) direct that the child continue to be enrolled at the school;
- (c) inform the parents of the child in writing of his decision.

[Regulation 262K inserted in Gazette 4 November 1976 pp. 4118-19; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Principal may decide that child may disrupt the normal operation of the school

262L. (1) Where, after an assessment conference, the principal of a school is of the opinion that the child suffers from a physical or mental disorder or disability of so severe a nature that the presence of that child in any Government school would disrupt the normal operation of the school he shall forthwith—

- (a) recommend to the chief executive officer that the child be made subject to a direction for exclusion; and
- (b) inform the parents, in writing, that he has made such a recommendation.

(2) Where the chief executive officer does not approve the recommendation, he shall—

- (a) direct that the suspension of the child, if any, be terminated;
- (b) direct that the child continue to be enrolled in the school; and
- (c) inform the parents of the child in writing of his decision.

(3) Where the chief executive officer approves the recommendation he shall—

- (a) recommend to the Minister that the provisions of the Act relating to a direction for exclusion be implemented; and
- (b) inform the parents of the child in writing of his decision.

(4) Where the Minister approves the recommendation of the chief executive officer he shall forthwith convene an advisory panel under the provisions of the Act and inform the parents of the child in writing of his decision.

(5) Where the Minister does not approve the recommendation of the chief executive officer, he shall—

- (a) direct that the suspension of the child, if any, be terminated;
- (b) direct that the child continue to be enrolled at the school; and
- (c) inform the parents of the child in writing of his decision.

PART XII—PARENTS AND CITIZENS' ASSOCIATIONS

[Heading inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2073.]

Reproduction of sections 22, 23, 26 and 27 of the Act

263. For the purpose of easy reference the provisions of sections 22, 23, 26 and 27 of the Act are reproduced as follows:—

22. (1) The parents or guardians of children attending any Government school, or group of schools, together with other persons being over the age of 18 years who are interested in the welfare of such schools, may, in the prescribed manner, form a "Parents and Citizens' Association," hereinafter referred to as an association.

(2) An association desirous of doing so may affiliate with the body known as The Western Australian Council of State School Organizations upon such terms and conditions as shall from time to time be determined by that body.

23. The objects of an association shall be to promote the interests of the Government school or group of Government schools in relation to which it is formed, by endeavouring to bring about closer co-operation between the parents or guardians of the pupils attending the school or the group, other citizens, the teachers at the school or the group, and those pupils and by providing facilities and amenities for the school or group, including buildings, swimming pools and any type of recreational or educational facilities and amenities, and generally to endeavour to foster community interest in educational matters.

26. (1) An association shall expend or invest all amounts received by it that are in excess of expenditure for the benefit of the children who are attending any Government school.

(2) All property of whatsoever estate, interest or kind purchased by an association for the use of a Government school whether purchased with or without any financial assistance from the Minister or the department shall by force of this section be vested in the Minister for the purposes of this Act.

27. An association shall not exercise any authority over the teaching staff, or interfere in any way with the control or management of any Government school.

[Regulation 263 inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2073 amended in Gazettes 12 November 1968 p. 3342; 15 February 1974 p. 400; 30 December 1988 pp. 5114-15.]

Minister may accept assistance of Parents and Citizens Associations

264. The Minister shall have the control through departmental officers of the internal management of schools, but subject thereto he may accept the assistance of Parents and Citizens' Associations.

[Regulation 264 inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2073.]

Rules of an association

265. (1) Subject to these regulations, the rules of an association shall be determined by the association.

(2) The rules of an association and any amendment or revocation thereto shall not take effect unless and until approved by the Minister.

[Regulation 265 inserted in Gazette 22 July 1977 p. 2388.]

Annual subscription

266. The annual subscription for membership of an association may be fixed by an association, but shall not exceed $1 per member.

[Regulation 266 inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2074; amended in Gazettes 30 March 1966 p. 829; 19 September 1980 p. 3295.]

Election of office bearers

267. (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (aa), when an association has been established its members shall, at their first meeting and at each annual general meeting to be convened thereafter for the purpose, elect from among their members a president, 2 vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer and not less than 5 committee members.

(aa) When an association has been established for a school or group of schools having an average daily enrolment of less than 100 pupils, its members may at their first meeting and at each annual general meeting to be convened thereafter for the purpose, elect from among their members a president, a vice president, a secretary-treasurer and not less than 2 committee members.

(b) The principal shall be ex officio a member of the committee.

(2) The teachers of such Government schools or group of schools for which the association is formed shall, ex officio, be members of the association and may be elected to any office in the association.

(3) Only financial members and ex officio members of the association shall have the right to vote.

(4) A financial member shall be one whose subscription is not more than 3 months in arrears.

[Regulation 267 inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2074; amended in Gazettes 27 June 1975 p. 2164; 25 October 1985 p. 4154.]

Bus Advisory Committee

268. (1) Where the chief executive officer has required the principal of a school to have local control and supervision of a school bus service and an association has been formed at that school, a Bus Advisory Committee may be formed.

(2) A Bus Advisory Committee shall comprise—

- (a) the president of the association (or his deputy) who shall be chairman;
- (b) the shire clerk (or his nominee);
- (c) the principal (or his nominee);
- (d) 2 members of the association, who shall be parents of children travelling on school buses; and
- (e) the secretary or secretary-treasurer of the association, as the case may be (or his nominee) who shall be secretary to the Committee.

(3) At meetings of the Committee a majority of voting members shall form a quorum.

[Regulation 268 inserted in Gazette 28 November 1975 pp. 4345-46; amended in Gazettes 25 October 1985 p. 4154; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Ex-officio members of Bus Advisory Committee

269. (1) The shire clerk or engineer of, or any other person nominated for the purpose by, the council of a shire having within its municipal district any school at which a school bus route terminates shall be ex officio a member of the Bus Advisory Committee established under regulation 268.

(2) Where a municipal district that is a shire is divided into wards any member of the council of that shire elected for a ward into or through which a school bus route enters or passes, or into or through which it is proposed that a school bus shall enter or pass, shall be entitled to attend any meeting of the Bus Advisory Committee and take part in any discussion, or vote on any motion, in any way concerning or having relation to any school bus route which enters or passes through, or which it is proposed shall enter or pass through, the ward of that member.

Functions of Bus Advisory Committee

270. The functions of a Bus Advisory Committee are—

- (a) to consider—
 - (i) applications to inaugurate contract bus services or other means of conveying children to school;
 - (ii) applications for alterations, deviations, spurs, extensions, etc., on bus services;
 - (iii) other matters affecting the efficient running of bus services;
- (b) to report to the department in an advisory capacity the views and recommendations of the Committee on any of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a) and in the event of disagreement an indication should be given of the dissident's views.

[Regulation 270 inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2074; amended in Gazettes 28 November 1975 p. 4346; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

[271. Regulation 271 repealed in Gazette 28 November 1975 p. 4346.]

Names of office bearers and committee members to be advised

272. (1) The department and the Council if the association is affiliated with the Council shall be advised of the names of office bearers and committee members as soon as possible after the election.

(2) In this regulation and in regulation 273, "Council" means the body known as The Western Australian Council of State School Organizations.

Audit

273. An audited statement of receipts and expenditure shall be presented at each annual general meeting of an association, and the association shall forward a copy of such statement to the department as soon as possible after its adoption and also to the Council if the association is affiliated therewith.

[Regulation 273 inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2075 amended in Gazettes 15 February 1974 p. 400; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Department to issue receipts

274. The department shall, through the principal, issue receipts for any donations of buildings, plant and equipment and shall ensure that necessary action is taken to have nonconsumable items recorded in the schools' inventories.

[Regulation 274 inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2075; amended in Gazettes 27 June 1975 p. 2164; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Association may use some equipment

275. Public address systems and projectors, which have been provided for a school by its association shall be available for use by the association at times when they are not required by the school and when such use is approved by the principal on behalf of the department.

[Regulation 275 inserted in Gazette 29 June 1961 p. 2075; amended in Gazettes 27 June 1975 p. 2164; 28 August 1981 p. 3597; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

PART XV—SCHOLARSHIPS

Division 1—Government Tertiary Exhibitions

[Heading to Division 1 amended in Gazette 19 September 1975 p. 3642.]

Competition for exhibitions

296. Thirty exhibitions which are to be awarded annually on the results of the tertiary examination, shall be open for competition to any candidate who is under the age of 19 years on 31 December in the year in which the candidate sits for the tertiary examination, but the candidate's parents must be permanent residents of Australia.

[Regulation 296 amended in Gazettes 29 August 1963 p. 2605; 16 December 1965 p. 4186; 17 December 1969 p. 4151; 19 September 1975 p. 3642.]

Classification of exhibitions

297. Of the exhibitions referred to in regulation 296—

- (a) 20 are to be known as General Exhibitions each of which has a value of $80; and
- (b) 10 are to be known as Special Subject Exhibitions each of which has a value of $40.

[Regulation 297 amended in Gazette 30 March 1966 p. 829.]

Candidate to nominate

298. (1) Every candidate for a Government Tertiary Exhibition shall signify on his entry form for the Tertiary Admissions Examination that he is a candidate for such an exhibition.

(2) An exhibition is awarded on condition—

- (a) that the successful candidate becomes enrolled as an undergraduate of an Australian Tertiary Education Institution; and
- (b) that he enters on a full course of study leading to a degree or its equivalent.

(3) Subject to regulation 301 a candidate who qualifies for an award of one or more than one exhibition shall, upon proof that he has so enrolled as an undergraduate and has entered on a full course of study, be entitled to receive from the department the amount which is equal to the value of the exhibition or the aggregate value of the exhibitions, as the case may be.

[Regulation 298 inserted in Gazette 19 September 1975 p. 3642; amended in Gazette 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Awards of General Exhibitions

299. (1) General Exhibitions shall be awarded to candidates who obtain the highest aggregate marks in any 5 subjects of those listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subregulation (1) of regulation 3 of the University of Western Australia Matriculation Regulations, but not those listed in paragraph (d) of that subregulation.

(2) The marks referred to in subregulation (1) shall be the standardized marks supplied by the Tertiary Admissions Examination Committee of the Western Australian Tertiary Education Commission.

[Regulation 299 inserted in Gazette 19 September 1975 p. 3642.]

Awards of Special Subjects Exhibitions

300. (1) A Special Subject Exhibition shall be awarded to the candidate who is placed first in order of merit in accordance with the provisions of subregulation (2) in the Tertiary Admissions Examination in any of the following subjects:—

- (a) English Literature;
- (b) Mathematics;
- (c) Physics;
- (d) Chemistry;
- (e) Biology;
- (f) Geography;
- (g) History;
- (h) French;
- (i) German; and
- (j) Economics.

(2) In each of the subjects referred to in subregulation (1) the worked papers of the 3 candidates gaining the highest marks shall be referred to the Chairman of the examining panel of that subject, and he shall place those candidates in order of merit.

[Regulation 300 amended in Gazettes 29 August 1963 p. 2606; 16 December 1965 p. 4186; 17 December 1960 p. 4151; 19 September 1975 p. 3642.]

Limit on exhibitions

301. A candidate may gain more than one exhibition, but is not entitled to an aggregate value of exhibitions exceeding $120.

[Regulation 301 amended in Gazette 30 March 1966 p. 829.]

Declaration by parents or guardian

302. The parent or guardian of a successful candidate shall make and furnish to the chief executive officer a statutory declaration that his child or ward, as the case may be, is a permanent resident of Australia, and was under the age of 19 years on 31 December in the year when the examination at which he gained an exhibition was held.

[Regulation 302 inserted in Gazette 31 May 1966 p. 1424; amended in Gazettes 17 December 1969 p. 4151; 30 December 1988 p. 5114.]

Division 2—Financial Assistance for Students Enrolled with the Technical Education Division

[Heading inserted in Gazette 21 May 1968 p. 1433.]

Financial assistance

303. (1) Students enrolled in classes conducted by the Technical Education Division who are in need of financial assistance to pursue their courses may be granted financial assistance for that purpose.

(2) Applications must be made on the prescribed form to the Director of Technical Education and should reach him not later than 21 January of each year.

(3) Notwithstanding subregulation (2) in exceptional circumstances, applications for assistance may be made at other times during the year.

[Regulation 303 inserted in Gazette 21 May 1968 p. 1433.]

Committee may be appointed

304. (1) The Minister may appoint a committee to consider and make recommendations regarding applications for financial assistance.

(2) In making its recommendations, the committee shall consider an applicant's need for financial assistance to enable him to proceed with his course of studies and such reports as it requires concerning the applicant's educational attainments, previous progress and his aptitude for the course of study to be undertaken.

(3) The committee may recommend cancellation, reduction or increase of the financial assistance awarded in accordance with regulation 303 if it considers that a student's financial circumstances or his progress in his course of studies warrants such action.

[Regulation 304 inserted in Gazette 21 May 1968 p. 1433.]

Composition of committee

305. The committee constituted under regulation 304 shall consist of—

- (a) the Director of Technical Education, or his deputy, who shall act as chairman of the committee;
- (b) the principal of a technical college or school; and
- (c) a representative of the Treasury Department.

[Regulation 305 inserted in Gazette 21 May 1968 p. 1434.]

Exemption of tuition and examination fees

306. Students in receipt of financial assistance recommended in accordance with regulation 304 shall be exempted from tuition and examination fees.

[Regulation 306 inserted in Gazette 21 May 1968 p. 1434.]

- (d) of.....
the (e)..... of the Student (hereinafter called "the Guarantor") of the second part;

AND

The MINISTER FOR EDUCATION (hereinafter called "the Minister") of the third part:

Whereas the Minister has agreed to admit the Student to a course of Teaching Training subject to the regulations governing Teacher Training for the time being in force.

Now the Minister hereby agrees with the Student and the Guarantor—

1. To admit the Student into the course of Teacher Training, and if after a period of 12 calendar months from the commencement of his course of training (which period is hereinafter referred to as "the probationary period"), it appears to the Minister that the Student is worthy of further training, to provide instruction for him for the term of including the probationary period.

And the Student and the Guarantor hereby jointly and severally agree with the Minister—

2. That the Student shall as soon as the Minister may require enter the Teacher Training course for the purposes aforesaid and remain therein for such course and of such duration as the Director of Teacher Education approves.

3. That if, after the Student commences the course of Teacher Training, that course is terminated either by the Minister or by the Student then, subject to clause 4, the Student and the Guarantor shall immediately forfeit and pay to the Minister, as ascertained damages and not by way of penalty for breach or failure—

- (a) the sum of all allowances received by the Student during his course of Teacher Training; and
- (b) if the Student has been granted a bursary, the sum of all allowances received by him by reason of the grant of that bursary.

4. That notwithstanding clause 3—

- (a) no claim will be made by the Minister for repayment of the allowances referred to in that clause, or any part of those allowances, in the event of the death of the Student during the term of his course of Teacher Training, or in the event of the Minister terminating that course because of the Student being incapacitated from teaching by reason of disease or injury;

- (b) the liability for the repayment of allowances received as a bursar shall be reduced by one twenty-fourth part of the total of those allowances for each complete calendar month spent by the Student in his course of Teacher Training, including the probationary period;
- (c) if the course of Teacher Training of the Student is terminated during the probationary period by reason of his being judged by the chief executive officer to be unsuitable for training as a teacher, no claim will be made by the Minister for repayment of allowances or any part thereof received by the Student as a bursar or during his course of Teacher Training.

5. That if within 6 calendar months after the expiration of the time of the Student's training in the course, the Minister finds employment for him as a teacher in any school or schools in this State, under the control of the Minister, then the Student shall and will teach in such school or schools under the direction of the Minister for the period of _____ years, at the remuneration and in the manner for the time being provided in that behalf by the regulations made by the Minister under the Education Act 1928, and its amendments.

6. That if from any cause other than death, disease or injury incapacitating him from teaching, the Student, after employment has been found for him by the Minister as mentioned in clause 5, fails to enter upon his duties as teacher, or leaves, or on account of misconduct is required to leave, the service of the Minister before the expiration of the time for which he is liable or required to serve as mentioned in clause 5 hereof, the Student and the Guarantor shall immediately forfeit and pay to the Minister, as ascertained damages and not by way of penalty for such breach or failure, a sum of money calculated as follows:—

The sum of all allowances received by the Student from the date of entering upon his Teacher Training course shall be divided by the number of weeks for which the Student was bound to teach. The resultant quotient shall be payable for each week of default.

7. The Student agrees to pay such fees as may be determined by the chief executive officer for membership of Clubs and Societies associated with Teachers' College.

8. That if at the end of the course, in the opinion of the Director of Teacher Education, the Student is not competent to take up an appointment as a teacher, he may be informed that the Minister does not intend to offer him any appointment, whereupon this agreement shall determine and be of no force and effect and the determination of this agreement shall not give rise to any claim for damages, compensation or expenses or otherwise by or in respect to any of the parties thereto.

9. In and for the purposes of this agreement the term "allowances" shall refer to those allowances payable to a Student living at home.

- (d) of
- the (e)of the Student
(hereinafter called "the Guarantor") of the second part; and the Minister for Education (hereinafter called "the Minister") of the third part;

Whereas the Minister has agreed to admit the Student to a course of Teacher Training subject to the regulations governing Teacher Training for the time being in force.

Now the Minister hereby agrees with the Student and the Guarantor—

1. To admit the Student into the course of Teacher Training, and if after a period of 12 calendar months from the commencement of his course of training (which period is hereinafter referred to as “the probationary period”), it appears to the Minister that the Student is worthy of further training, to provide instruction for him for the term of 2 years, including the probationary period.

And the Student and the Guarantor hereby jointly and severally agree with the Minister—

2. That the Student shall as soon as the Minister may require enter the Teacher Training course for the purposes aforesaid and remain therein for the period aforesaid.

3. That if, after the Student commences the course of Teacher Training, that course is terminated either by the Minister or by the Student then, subject to clause 4, the Student and the Guarantor shall immediately forfeit and pay to the Minister, as ascertained damages and not by way of penalty for breach or failure—

- (a) the sum of all allowances received by the Student during his course of Teacher Training; and
- (b) if the Student has been granted a bursary, the sum of all allowances received by him by reason of the grant of that bursary.

4. That notwithstanding clause 3—

- (a) no claim will be made by the Minister for repayment of the allowances referred to in that clause, or any part of those allowances, in the event of the death of the Student during the term of his course of Teacher Training, or in the event of the Minister terminating that course because of the Student being incapacitated from teaching by reason of disease or injury;
- (b) the liability for the repayment of allowances received as a bursar shall be reduced by one twenty-fourth part of the total of those allowances for each complete calendar month spent by the Student in his course of Teacher Training, including the probationary period;
- (c) if the course of Teacher Training of the Student is terminated during the probationary period by reason of his being judged by the chief executive officer to be unsuitable for training as a teacher, no claim will be made by the Minister for repayment of allowances or any part thereof received by the Student as a bursar or during his course of Teacher Training.

5. That if within 6 calendar months after the expiration of the time of the Student's training in the said course, the Minister finds employment for him as a teacher in any school or schools in this State, under the control of the Minister, then the Student shall and will teach in such school or schools under the direction of the Minister for the period of 3 years, at the remuneration and in the manner for the time being provided in that behalf by the regulations made by the Minister under the Education Act 1928, and its amendments.

6. That if from any cause other than death, disease or injury incapacitating him from teaching, the student, after employment has been found for him by the Minister as mentioned in clause 5, fails to enter upon his duties as teacher, or leaves, or on account of misconduct is required to leave, the service of the Minister before the expiration of the time for which he is liable or required to serve as mentioned in clause 5 hereof, the Student and the Guarantor shall immediately forfeit and pay to the Minister as ascertained damages and not by way of penalty for such breach or failure, a sum of money calculated as follows:—

The sum of all allowances received by the Student from the date of entering upon his Teacher Training course shall be divided by the number of weeks for which the Student was bound to teach. The resultant quotient shall be payable for each week of default.

7. The Student agrees to pay such fees as may be determined by the chief executive officer for membership of Clubs and Societies associated with Teachers' College.

8. That if at the end of the course, in the opinion of the Director of Teacher Education, the Student is not competent to take up an appointment as a teacher, he may be informed that the Minister does not intend to offer him any appointment, whereupon this agreement shall determine and be of no force and effect and the determination of this agreement shall not give rise to any claim for damages, compensation or expenses or otherwise by or in respect to any of the parties thereto.

9. In and for the purposes of this agreement the term "allowances" shall refer to those allowances payable to a Student living at home.

 - (c) the Student ceases to reside in or proposes to cease to reside in the State of Western Australia for a continuous period exceeding () months;
 - (d) default is made by the Student and the Guarantor or either in the due and punctual performance and observance of other the terms and conditions herein contained and on their respective parts to be performed and observed;

then and in any of such cases and immediately thereupon or at any time thereafter the whole of the principal moneys shall at the option of the Minister forthwith become immediately due and payable to the Minister at the principal office for the time being of the department in Perth on demand and it is hereby agreed and declared that the acceptance of any moneys whether on account of the principal moneys or interest as hereinafter provided then or thereafter due and payable or to become due and payable shall not operate as a waiver of the rights of the Minister under this clause.

3. To pay to the Minister as and when demanded or if not demanded then on the days of and per centum (%) per annum) for the time being determined (either generally or in the particular case) by the Under Treasurer of the State of Western Australia on so much of the principal moneys as have become due and payable in accordance with the provisions in that behalf hereinbefore contained from the due date for payment thereof until the same shall be paid in full.

4. A statement in writing signed by any of the persons mentioned in clause 7 of the amount due and owing to the Minister pursuant to this Agreement and (if the case shall so require) of the rate of interest payable shall be prima facie evidence that such amount is so due and owing and conclusive evidence of the rate of interest payable.

5. If and when required by the Minister so to do to sign and give to the Minister or as he shall direct a procuration order in favour of and in a form satisfactory to the Minister authorizing the deduction of the payments referred to in clause 1 from the salary payable to the Student if at any time during the period in which such payments are payable the Student is employed in a school under the control of the Minister.

6. Notwithstanding that as between the Student and the Guarantor the relationship is or may be that of principal and surety as between the Minister and the Guarantor the Guarantor shall be deemed to be a principal debtor for the principal moneys and interest payable pursuant to this Agreement and accordingly the liability of the Guarantor under the covenants on his part hereinbefore contained shall not be affected by an extension of time for payment or other indulgence being granted or shown to the Student or by any modification to this or any other agreement or arrangement between the Student and the Minister or any other matter or thing whereby the liability of the Guarantor to the Minister would but for this provision have been discharged.

7. Any demand or notice to be made or given by the Minister hereunder may be signed on behalf of the Minister by the chief executive officer and may be served in manner authorized by section 135 of the Property Law Act 1969.

AGREEMENT FOR A TEACHER EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP

THIS AGREEMENT under seal is made theday of19.....

BETWEEN:

- (a)
- (b) of.....
("the Student") of the first part;
- (c)
- (d) of.....
- the (e)of the Student
("the Guarantor") of the second part;

—AND—

The MINISTER FOR EDUCATION (with his successors in office called "the Minister") of the third part:

WHEREAS the Minister has agreed to grant the Student a Teacher Education Scholarship ("the Scholarship") provided that the Student enters a Teacher Education Course ("the course") subject to the regulations governing such scholarships for the time being in force.

NOW the Minister hereby agrees with the Student and the Guarantor—

1. To grant the Student the Scholarship upon the Student entering upon and continuing the course as approved by the chief executive officer⁶ for the time being.

AND the Student and the Guarantor hereby jointly and severally agree with the Minister—

2. That the Student shall forthwith enter the course and remain therein for the duration of the course unless otherwise permitted or directed by the chief executive officer for the time being.
3. That if, after the Student commences the course, the Scholarship is terminated by the Minister (which, and it is expressly agreed by the parties hereto, the Minister may do) or the Student resigns from the course then, subject to clause 4, the Student and the Guarantor shall immediately forfeit and pay to the Minister, as ascertained damages and not by way of penalty for breach or failure the sum of all amounts received by the Student under the Scholarship or the sum of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1 000) (whichever is the lesser amount).
4. That notwithstanding clause 3—
 - (a) no claim will be made by the Minister for repayment of the ascertained damages referred to in that clause or any portion thereof in the event of the death of the Student or by reason of the Student being incapacitated from continuing the course because of disease or injury;
 - (b) from the date that the Student, being a female, becomes the natural mother of a child (evidence of which must be produced to the satisfaction of the Minister by the Student or Guarantor) whilst either undergoing the course or having completed the course but before the expiration of the period during which the Student is liable or required to teach pursuant to clause 5 the Student may terminate the Scholarship whereupon no claim will be made by the Minister for repayment of the ascertained damages referred to in clause 3 or any portion thereof.
5. That if within 6 calendar months after the expiration of the course the Minister finds employment for the Student as a teacher in any school or schools in the State, under the control of the Minister, then the Student shall and will teach in such school or schools under the direction of the Minister for a period of TWO (2) years immediately following the finding of such employment at the remuneration and in the manner for the time being provided in that behalf by the regulations made by the Minister under the Education Act 1928, and its amendments.
6. That if from any cause whatsoever other than death, disease or injury incapacitating the Student from teaching, the Student after employment has been provided by the Minister as provided in clause 5, fails to enter upon the duties as a teacher, or leaves or on account of misconduct is required to leave the service of the Minister before the expiration of the period referred to last in clause 5, the Student and the Guarantor shall immediately forfeit and pay to the Minister, as ascertained damages and not by way of penalty for such breach or failure the sum of all amounts received by the Student under the Scholarship or the sum of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1 000) (whichever is the lesser amount) PROVIDED THAT any full time service by the Student as a teacher in any school or schools in the State, under the control of the Minister during that period shall reduce the amount of the ascertained damages for which the Student shall be liable under this clause to the extent that the amount of such liability shall bear the same proportion to the amount for which the Student would be liable apart from this proviso as the length of such full-time service required to be served by the Student and specified in clause 5.

7. That if, at the expiration of the course, the Minister refuses to employ the Student (which and it is expressly agreed by the parties hereto, the Minister may do) or the Minister is within 6 months after the expiration of the course unable to find employment for the Student as a teacher in any school or schools in the State, under the control of the Minister, this Agreement shall determine and be of no force and effect whatsoever and the determination of this Agreement shall not give rise to any claim for damages, compensation or expenses or otherwise whether provided for in this Agreement or not by or in respect of any of the parties hereto.

8. In and for the purposes of this Agreement the expression "all amounts received by the Student under the Scholarship" shall mean those amounts paid to or on behalf of the Student by the Minister but shall not include any living away from home allowance, book allowance, travel allowance or graduate allowance.

². Repealed by the Workers' Compensation and Assistance Act 1981.

³. Now see Division 1 of Part 11A of the Industrial Relations Act 1979.

⁴. Regulation 8 (2) of the Education Amendment Regulations (No. 6) 1987 reads as follows—

“ (2) Nothing in regulation 167 (1) (d) as in force on or after the commencement of subregulation (1) of this regulation affects any teacher who was appointed to a position as deputy principal (female) of a Class I or Class IA junior primary school under or purportedly under the principal regulations as in force before that commencement and holds that position after commencement. ”.

⁷ Repealed in Gazette 18 July 1980 p. 2441.
