Western Australia
SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES ACT 1975
Determination of the Salaries and Allowances Tribunal
14 December 1989
Preliminary Statement

DURING 1989 the Tribunal engaged a National firm of Consultants to conduct a work value review of all positions within its jurisdiction, and advise on the appropriate remuneration that should be accorded to each position. In respect of the Chief Executives in the Special Division of the Public Service and those officers holding Prescribed Offices information was also sought as to the merit in adopting a salary packaging approach.

Due to a number of circumstances, discussions are still proceeding between the Tribunal and its Consultants, and accordingly this determination does not reflect any recommendations made by the Consultants.

Suffice it to say, from the information already received from the Consultants, a number of the more senior Chief Executive and Parliamentary Office Holder positions are under remunerated to such an extent that will require the Tribunal to consider action that will eventually remedy the situation. It is anticipated that a further determination taking into account the matters raised by the Consultants will be made later this financial year.

Parliamentary Remuneration

As has been stated in previous determinations, the positions of Parliamentarians cannot be reduced in terms of their standing in the community, as the result of their inability to comply with conditions that regular wage and salary earners can readily satisfy in order to receive remuneration increases.

This determination increases the basic and additional salaries granted to Members of the Western Australian Parliament by 3 per cent.

Electorate allowances are provided to Members to enable the discharge of the Members' duties in connection with Parliamentary or electorate work.

Accordingly, in line with previous practices, movements in the Consumer Price Index have been applied to the allowances provided in section 2 (1) and 2 (2) of the Tribunal's determination dated 12 May 1989. In addition an amount of $300 per annum has been added to the basic electorate allowance to cover expenditure not previously considered by the Tribunal.

Officers in the Special Division of the Public Service and Prescribed Office Holders

Organisations controlled by the Chief Executives within the Tribunal's jurisdiction have received a 3 per cent salary increase as the result of commitments made to award restructuring and structural efficiency principles.

This determination grants that same increase in remuneration to those Chief Executives in the Special Division of the Public Service and Prescribed Office Holders Electorate Allowances paid to Members pursuant to section 2 (1) of the Tribunal's determination dated 12 May 1989 shall be increased to $16 117 per annum. Allowances paid under section 2 (2) shall be increased by 4.5 per cent. These increases to have effect from 1 January 1990.
