FISHERIES ACT 1905
PART IIIB—PROCESSING LICENCES

FD 96/86.

The public is hereby notified that in accordance with section 35CA of the Fisheries Act 1905, I have approved the amendment of the Processors Licence number 1131 issued to Robin Green of Albany Fish Supply to allow the processing of Australian Salmon at 26 Charles Street, Albany.

That the processing establishment:

1. Shall comply with the requirements of the Fisheries Act 1905, and all Regulations, Orders in Councils and Notices and Ministerial Directions issued thereunder.
2. Shall not be used for the processing of Prawns, Tuna, Abalone or Western Rock Lobster.
3. Shall comply with the requirements of the Health Act 1911.
4. Shall comply with the requirements of any town planning scheme or interim development order gazetted under the provisions of the Town Planning and Development Act 1928, or the Metropolitan Region Town Planning Scheme Act 1959.
5. Shall be registered as an export establishment pursuant to the provisions of the Parliament of the Commonwealth Export Control Act 1982, and Orders made thereunder, more specifically the Prescribed Goods (General) Orders and the Fish Orders, should it be used to process fish for export.
6. Shall not be used for the processing of marron (cherax tenuimanus) unless a licence is held under section 39C of the Fisheries Act 1905.
7. The licensee shall lodge with the Department of Fisheries no later than the 15th day of each month, a return of all fish purchased for the preceding month, specifying the name of the fisherman, the boat number or professional fisherman's licence number, anchorage from which the vessel operates, the species and live weights purchased. Where no fish have been purchased a "Nil" return shall be submitted.
8. Shall not be used to process Australian Salmon other than as a food for human consumption purposes only.

In accordance with the provisions of section 35K, any person aggrieved by this decision, may within fourteen days after publication of this notice, appeal against the decision or order by serving on the Minister for Fisheries a statement in writing on the grounds of their appeal.

P. P. ROGERS, Executive Director.

BUSH FIRES ACT 1954*Shire of Pingelly*

Fire Control Order 1994/95

Pursuant to the powers contained in section 33 of the Bush Fires Act 1954, all owners and occupiers of land within the Shire of Pingelly are hereby required to take, provide and/or maintain fire control measures during the firebreak period, as follows—

“Excluded Area” means an area of rural land not exceeding 30 hectares, where it is physically impossible to install a firebreak, or where in the owner’s or occupier’s opinion, the installation of firebreaks would be detrimental to the conservation of remnant or natural vegetation or the establishment of re-afforested areas.

“Farming Land” means all land within the Shire of Pingelly zoned “Farming” under the Town Planning Scheme No. 2.

“Firebreak” means ground from which all inflammable material has been removed and on which no inflammable material is permitted during the firebreak period.

“Firebreak Period” means the time between 1st November and 15th April in the following year.

“Inflammable Material” means bush (as defined by the Bush Fires Act 1954), timber, boxes, cartons, paper, and the like inflammable materials, rubbish and any combustible matter, but does not include buildings, standing trees or growing bushes or plants in gardens or lawns.

“Rural Residential Land” means all land within the Shire of Pingelly zoned “Rural Residential” under the Town Planning Scheme No. 2.

“Townsite Land” means all land within the townsite of Pingelly not zoned as “Rural Residential” under the Town Planning Scheme No. 2.

FARMING LAND

On farming land other than excluded areas, the owner or occupier shall—

- (a) clear firebreaks not less than two metres wide—
 - (i) inside all external boundaries of the land,
 - (ii) within fifteen metres of the perimeter of all buildings and remove all inflammable material from within the two metres of all such buildings, and
 - (iii) so as to divide the land into areas not exceeding 400 hectares,
- (b) remove all inflammable material for a continuous distance of 5 metres immediately surrounding every haystack, hayshed, stationary pump or engine, and
- (c) remove all inflammable material for a continuous distance of 15 metres, or to the external boundary of the land whichever is nearer, from around fuel depots.

All excluded areas remain the owner’s or occupier’s responsibility and any variation as permitted by this Order does not render null and void any duty otherwise required by law.

TOWNSITE LAND

On townsite land, where a property or adjoining properties having the same ownership or control and are used as a single holding, the owner or occupier, shall—

- (a) provide and maintain firebreaks not less than 2 metres in width inside all external boundaries of the land, or
- (b) clear by burning, all inflammable material likely to be conducive to the outbreak, spread or extension of a fire from the whole of the land, or
- (c) have all inflammable material likely to be conducive to the outbreak, spread or extension of fire removed, and the grass maintained to a height not greater than 10 cms.

RURAL RESIDENTIAL LAND

On rural residential land, where a property or adjoining properties having the same ownership or control and are used as a single holding, the owner or occupier shall comply with the requirements of—

- (a) farming land where the holding exceeds 10 ha in area, or
- (b) townsite land, where the holding does not exceed 10 ha in area.

GENERAL

If it is considered, impracticable to clear firebreaks or remove inflammable material from the land as required, application may be made in writing to the Council or its duly authorised officer for permission to put in place alternative fire hazard reduction measures. If permission is not granted, the requirements of this Order shall be complied with.

The penalty for failing to comply with this notice is a fine not exceeding $1 000 and a person in default is also liable whether prosecuted or not to pay the costs of performing the work directed in this notice if it is not carried out by the owner and/or occupier by the date required by this notice.

By Order of the Council,

N. MITCHELL, Shire Clerk.
