Personal Explanation

41. The Shire President may allow a Councillor to make a personal explanation if the Councillor claims that something he/she has said at a meeting has been misunderstood in a material respect. A Councillor making a personal explanation shall confine that explanation to a brief and concise explanation of that part of his/her statement which may have been misunderstood and he/she shall not advert to matters not strictly necessary for that purpose nor seek to strengthen any argument by new matter or by replying to any point raised by another Councillor.

(b) An extension shall not be permitted under this clause so as to enable any Councillor to speak for more than a total period of fifteen minutes.

Speaking in Reply

45. A Councillor speaking in reply shall not introduce any new matter but shall strictly confine himself/herself to answering previous speakers.

Division of Motions

46. The Shire President may, at his/her discretion, or the Council may, by motion without debate, order a complicated motion to be divided and put in the form of two or more motions.

Withdrawal of Motions

47. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without debate. A Councillor shall not speak upon a motion or amendment after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal unless that permission is refused.

Production of Documents

48. (a) Any Councillor may require the production of any of the documents of the Council relating to a question or matter under discussion if that document is readily available and it is practical and convenient for that document to be produced.

(b) On giving to the CEO not less than four hours notice, a Councillor shall be entitled to have laid on the Council table for the duration of a meeting, any document or record of the Council, and the CEO, on receiving that notice shall lay the document on the Council table at the commencement of the meeting with respect to which the production of that document or record has been requested.

50. A Councillor shall not reflect adversely upon a resolution of the Council, except on a motion that the resolution be rescinded.

No Adverse Reflection on Councillor

51. A Councillor shall not reflect adversely upon the character or actions of another member nor impute any motive to a member, unless the Council resolves, without debate, that the question then before the Council cannot otherwise be adequately considered.

52. For the purposes of Clauses 51 and 52, any Councillor may require the CEO to take down any particular words used by a Councillor immediately upon their being used.

Demand for Withdrawal

53. If any Councillor commits a breach of Clause 51 or 52, the Shire President may require him/her unreservedly to withdraw any offending comment and to make a satisfactory apology. If the Councillor declines or neglects to do so, the Shire President may direct such Councillor to cease speaking and resume his/her seat and may call on the next speaker.

Disturbance by Councillors

54. A Councillor shall not make any noise or disturbance or converse aloud, except to raise a point of order, while any other person is addressing the Council.

56. When the Shire President is putting any question, a Councillor shall not walk out of or across the Chamber. A Councillor shall not, whilst any other Councillor is speaking, pass between the speaker and the chair.

57. The Shire President shall preserve order, and may call any Councillor to order, whenever, in his/her opinion, there is cause for so doing.

58. Every Councillor shall be entitled to direct the attention of the Shire President to any infraction of the Standing Orders by any other Councillor or to draw the attention of the Shire President to any matter of which the latter may take notice under Clause 56.

Rulings by Shire President

59. When the Shire President has given a decision on a point of order or practice, argument or comment shall not be permitted thereon and that decision shall be final, in that particular case, unless a majority of the Councillors then present shall, upon motion made forthwith and without discussion, dissent therefrom.

60. Whenever the Shire President has decided that any motion, amendment or other matter before the Council is out of order, it shall be rejected and whenever anything said or done in the Council, by any Councillor, is similarly decided to be out of order, that Councillor shall be called upon by the Shire President to make such explanation, retraction or apology, as the case may require.

Continued Breach of Order

61. Where a Councillor persists in any conduct which the Shire President decides is out of order or refuses to make any explanation, retraction or apology required by the Shire President under Clause 61, the Shire President shall direct that Councillor to refrain from taking any further part in the then meeting of the Council, other than by recording his/her vote and the Councillor shall comply with that direction.

Serious Disorder

62. (a) If at a meeting of the Council the Shire President is of the opinion that by reason of disorder or otherwise the business of the Council cannot be effectively continued, he may adjourn the meeting for a period of up to fifteen minutes. At the end of that period Council shall re-assemble and decide whether business is to be proceeded with and that question shall be decided forthwith and without debate.

(b) Where Council has decided to proceed under sub-clause (a) of this clause and the Shire President is again of opinion that the business of the Council cannot be effectively continued, the Shire President may close the meeting.

All Members to Vote

63. (a) At every meeting of the Council, save where the Act otherwise provides, every Member present shall vote, and if any Member who is entitled to vote fails to vote, the Shire President shall call upon him/her to vote.

(b) Where there is any equal division of votes upon any question, the Shire President has and may exercise a second vote.

Permissible Motions During Debate

Amendment to Relate to Motion

65. Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion on which it is moved.

66. Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

One Amendment at a Time

67. (a) Only one amendment shall be discussed at a time, but as often as an amendment is lost, another amendment may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote. When one amendment to a motion is carried, only one further amendment to the original motion, as amended and no more, may be moved.

(b) In speaking to an amendment a Councillor may give notice of his/her intention to move a further amendment.

68. Where an amendment is carried, the original motion as amended shall, for all purposes of subsequent debate and subject only to Clause 68 be treated as an original motion.

“That Council Adjourn”

69. (a) A Councillor may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor or on the conclusion of any business, move without notice that the Council do now adjourn and that motion shall state the time and date to which the adjournment is to be made or that the adjournment is to be to a date and time to be fixed. Where a motion to adjourn does not specify the time and date to which the adjournment is to be made the Shire President shall, if the motion is carried, adjourn the Council to such time and date as the Shire President shall then declare.

(b) On a motion to adjourn, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second the motion and the mover of the motion (if any) which was then under debate may speak for not more than five minutes, but no other debate shall be allowed.

70. Where a motion for the adjournment of the Council is negatived, no similar motion shall be moved until after the question then under discussion (if any) or the next on the notice paper or any other which may be allowed precedence, as the case may be, shall have been disposed of.

71. (a) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then before the Council shall not move the adjournment of the Council.

(b) A Councillor shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, be the mover or seconder of more than one motion for the adjournment of the Council.

72. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, the debate on the question (if any) under debate when the motion was moved shall be continued immediately upon the Council resuming after the adjournment.

73. On a motion for the adjournment of the Council being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under consideration at the time of the adjournment and they shall not be permitted to speak on any subsequent consideration of the same subject, but this clause does not deprive a mover of the right of reply.

“That Debate be Adjourned”

74. (a) A Councillor may at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor move, without notice, that the debate be adjourned to a later hour of the same meeting or to a subsequent meeting of the Council.

(b) On a motion that the debate be adjourned, the mover may speak for not more than five minutes, the seconder shall not speak other than formally to second the motion, and no other debate shall be allowed.

75. (a) A Councillor who has spoken on the question then under debate shall not move the adjournment of the debate.

(b) A Councillor shall not, at the same sitting of the Council, be the mover or seconder of more than one motion for the adjournment of the same debate.

76. On resuming an adjourned debate, the Councillor who moved its adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.

77. On a motion for the adjournment of a debate being carried, a record shall be taken of all those who have spoken on the subject under debate and they shall not be permitted to speak on any resumption of the debate on that subject, but this clause does not deprive the mover of the right of reply.

78. Where the debate on any motion, moved and seconded, is interrupted by the lack of a quorum, that debate may, on motion with notice, be resumed at the next meeting, at the point where it was so interrupted.

“That the Question be now Put”

79. (a) A Councillor may, at the conclusion of the speech of any other Councillor, move without notice and, provided the Shire President is of the view that there has been sufficient debate on the matter, upon that motion being formally seconded, that motion shall be immediately put, without debate.

(b) If the Shire President is of the view that there has not been sufficient debate on the matter than he shall rule the motion to be out of order.

80. A motion that the question under consideration be put shall not be moved by a Councillor who has already spoken on the question.

81. When it is decided by the Council that the question under consideration be put, the mover of the question under consideration shall, if debate has ensued and if otherwise entitled to do so, be permitted to speak in reply for not more than five minutes before the question is put, but subject thereto, the question shall at once be put.

82. Whenever it is decided by the Council that the question be put, any amendment to the question then being debated by the Council shall be put and then the main question shall be put.

Confidential Business

83. (a) Any report which is classified as “Confidential” by the CEO under Regulation (29) shall be treated as strictly confidential and shall not, without the authority of the Council, be disclosed to any person other than the Shire President, Councillors, CEO or other servants of the Council as authorised by the CEO.

(b) All discussions and proceedings and every matter dealt with by or brought before the Council sitting otherwise than with open doors, shall be treated as strictly confidential, and shall not, without the authority of the Council, be disclosed to any person other than the Shire President, Councillors, CEO or other servants of the Council as authorised by the CEO prior to discussion of that matter at a meeting of the council held with open doors.

(c) Sub-clause (b) of this clause shall not—

- (iv) prevent any disclosure which is required to be made by law.

Negatived Motions

85. A motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived by the Council shall not again be entertained within a period of three months, except with the consent of an absolute majority of the Council.

Suspension of Standing Orders

86. In cases of urgent necessity, any Standing Order of the Council may be suspended on motion duly made and seconded and carried by a majority of Councillors present at the time.

87. Any Councillor moving the suspension of a Standing Order shall state the object of the motion, but discussion shall not otherwise take place thereon.

Method of Taking Vote

88. The Shire President shall, in taking the vote on any motion or amendment, put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative, and he may do so as often as is necessary to enable him/her to form and declare his/her opinion as to whether the affirmative or the negative has the majority by a show of hands or on the voices.

89. The Council shall vote on the count of raised hands but the result may be determined on the voices. Any Councillor may for any question taken on a vote by a show of hands or on the voices, request that his or her vote, or the vote of all members present, be recorded in the Minutes.

Meetings of Electors

90. (a) The Standing Orders apply, so far as is practicable, to any meeting of electors, but where there is any inconsistency between the provisions of this clause and the provisions of Regulation 15, 17 or 18 of the Act, the latter prevails.

(b) A person who is not an elector is not entitled to vote at a meeting of electors and he/she may not take part in any discussions at that meeting, unless the meeting, by a motion, requests him/her to do so.

Penalty

91. Any person committing a breach of Standing Orders is liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), Section 3.10 (1).

Enforcement
