- (4) A licence that relates to a maximum quantity of an SRS specified in it is valid only for that quantity.

38. Licences may be surrendered

- (1) A licence holder may surrender the licence by giving it to the Chief Officer with written notice that it is being surrendered.
- (2) On being so notified the Chief Officer must cancel the licence.

39. Lost licences may be replaced

If the Chief Officer is satisfied that a licence has been destroyed, lost or stolen, the Chief Officer may issue the holder of the licence a replacement licence.

Dangerous Goods Safety (Security Risk Substances) Regulations 2007Part 10 LicencesDivision 2 General provisionsr. 40

40. Amending licences

- (1) In this regulation —
“amend” a licence, includes to amend, include and remove a condition of the licence.
- (2) A licence holder may apply to amend the licence.
- (3) The application must —
 - (a) be in an approved form; and
 - (b) be accompanied by any document that is required by the approved form; and
 - (c) be made to the Chief Officer.
- (4) On such an application, the Chief Officer may refuse the application, or grant it and amend the licence.
- (5) If, after a licence is issued, the Chief Officer wants to amend the licence in a material way, the Chief Officer must —
 - (a) give the licence holder written notice of the proposal; and
 - (b) except where the removal of a condition is proposed, give the licence holder a reasonable opportunity to make submissions about the proposal; and
 - (c) consider any submissions and then decide whether to amend the licence; and
 - (d) give the licence holder written notice of the decision.
- (6) If the Chief Officer decides to amend a licence, the Chief Officer must give the licence holder written notice of the decision that —
 - (a) states the date (being a date no earlier than the date on which the notice is received by the holder) on which the decision takes effect; and
 - (b) is accompanied by a replacement licence the terms of which incorporate the amendment.
