PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT ACT 2005
APPROVED LOCAL PLANNING SCHEME AMENDMENT
City of Melville

Community Planning Scheme No. 5—Amendment No. 46

Ref: 853/2/17/12 Pt 46

“4.4 Fragmentation of Land the Subject of Planning Approval

4.4.1 In this clause—

“development land” means land in any form of tenure which is the subject of a planning approval and consisting of—

- (a) the lot or combination of lots; or
- (b) the combination of a lot or lots with any part lot or lots; or
- (c) a part lot or combination of part lots.

4.4.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Scheme to the contrary, where the Council has given planning approval for the development of any development land and the boundaries of the development land are altered by subdivision or by other means, or where the development land is in any way fragmented into portions, the maximum plot ratio, residential density or site cover permitted by the Scheme for the development land shall not be exceeded for any portion or any combination of portions of the development land.

4.4.3 When the Council is considering a development proposal on any portion of development land, any existing development (to remain and that complies with the Scheme), or any development the subject of a current planning approval on any portion is to be taken into consideration and aggregated for the purpose of calculating plot ratio, residential density or site cover.

4.4.4 Where planning approval has been given in respect of any development land, the planning approval applies to the whole and to every portion of the development land while the planning approval remains current or while the approved development remains on the development land. Any application for planning approval relating to any portion of the development land is to be dealt with by the Council on the basis that the portion is subject to the previous planning approval unless the Council decides to the contrary.”
