SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES TRIBUNAL

SA401SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES ACT 1975*GOVERNMENT TRADING ENTITIES DETERMINATION NO. 1 OF 2023*PREAMBLE

1. Under section 7C of the Salaries and Allowances Act 1975 (the Act) the Tribunal must "determine the minimum and maximum amounts of remuneration to be paid or provided to executive officers of Government entities".
2. A Chief Executive Officer (CEO) position is only subject to the Tribunal's determinations following the expiry of a contract that was in place when section 7C commenced.
3. From 1 July 2021, respective Government Trading Entity (GTE) boards have been able to set or adjust remuneration of their CEOs within the range of the allocated bands.
4. In accordance with section 10A, this determination has considered the—
 - Public Sector Wages Policy Statement 2022 issued on 25 October 2022; and
 - financial position and fiscal strategy of the State, as stated in the Government Mid-year Financial Projections Statement 2022-23 from December 2022.

DECISION

5. The Tribunal reviewed the GTE environment, with consideration to the submissions received, and has retained the three-band model for remuneration.
6. The Tribunal has determined that CEO remuneration Bands be increased by 3.5%. The Tribunal considered this appropriate given the economic conditions, the wider public service framework and the mandatory 0.5% superannuation increase from July 2023.
7. The Tribunal has reviewed the classification of the Mid West and Southern Port Authorities. Based on the substantial growth and risk associated with their operations, the Tribunal has decided to increase their classification to Band 2.
8. The Tribunal has decided to maintain all other classifications. The Tribunal has determined that changes to an entity's scope or responsibilities presented in the submissions received are covered within existing band classifications.
9. The 3.5% increase will be applied to the total remuneration package payable to the Chief Executive Officer, Horizon, whose specific remuneration is determined by the Tribunal.

The Determination will now issue.
