1.5 Application

This local law applies throughout the district and applies generally to the operation of a bush fire brigade of the local government and its officers and members and other persons performing functions under this local law, the Regulations and the Act.

PART 2—ESTABLISHMENT OF BUSH FIRE BRIGADES

Division 1—Establishment of a bush fire brigade

2.1 Establishment of a bush fire brigade

(1) The local government by resolution of the Council may establish a bush fire brigade for the purpose of carrying out normal brigade activities.

(2) A bush fire brigade is established on the date of the local government's decision under subclause (1).

2.2 Brigade name and appointment of officers of bush fire brigade

(1) On establishing a bush fire brigade under clause 2.1(1), the local government is to—

- (a) give a name to the bush fire brigade;
- (b) specify the area in which the bush fire brigade is primarily responsible for carrying out the normal brigade activities (known as the brigade area); and
- (c) appoint—
 - (i) a Captain that is to be the Bush Fire Control Officer for the bush fire brigade;
 - (ii) a First Lieutenant;
 - (iii) a Second Lieutenant;
 - (iv) any additional Lieutenants;
 - (v) an Equipment Officer;
 - (vi) a Secretary; and
 - (vii) a Treasurer.

(2) When establishing a bush fire brigade, the local government must register the bush fire brigade in accordance with the Act and Regulations.

(3) When considering the appointment of persons to the positions in subclause (1)(c), the bush fire brigade and the local government are to have regard to the qualifications, competence and experience which may be required to fill each position.

(4) A person appointed to a position in subclause (1)(c) is to be taken to be a brigade member and a person first appointed to a position is to be taken to be a brigade member from the establishment of the brigade.

(5) The appointments referred to in subclause (1)(c)—

- (a) become effective at the completion of the meeting of Council at which the appointments are made; and
- (b) expire at the completion of the meeting of Council at which new appointments are made following an annual general meeting of the bush fire brigade.

(6) If a position referred to in subclause (1)(c) becomes vacant prior to the completion of the next annual general meeting of the brigade, then the local government is to appoint a person to fill the vacancy in accordance with subclause (3).

Division 2—Transitional

2.3 Existing bush fire brigades

(1) Where the local government has established a bush fire brigade prior to the commencement date, then on and from the commencement date—

- (a) the bush fire brigade is to be taken to be a bush fire brigade established under, and in accordance with this local law; and
 - (b) any rules governing the operation of the bush fire brigade are to be taken to have been repealed and substituted with this local law, the Operating Procedures.
- (2) In this clause commencement date means the day on which this local law comes into operation.

Division 3—Cancellation of a bush fire brigade

2.4 Cancellation of a bush fire brigade

In accordance with section 41(3) of the Act, the local government may cancel the registration of a bush fire brigade if it is of the opinion that the bush fire brigade is not complying with the Act, this local law, the Operating Procedures or is not achieving the objectives for which it was established.

2.5 New arrangement after cancellation

If a local government cancels the registration of a bush fire brigade, alternative arrangements are to be made in respect of the brigade area.

PART 3—ORGANISATION AND MAINTENANCE OF BUSH FIRE BRIGADES

Division 1—Local government responsibility

3.1 Responsibilities for structure and operating procedures

- (1) The local government is to ensure that there is an appropriate structure through which the organisation of bush fire brigades is maintained.
- (2) The local government is to establish, implement and maintain the Operating Procedures in Schedule 1 for the general administration and management of bush fire brigades.
- (3) The local government may make other applicable rules, policies and procedures as determined necessary by the local government to support the management and administration of bush fire brigades and effective and safe normal brigade activities.
- (4) The local government may enter into an Agreement with the FES Commissioner to manage a bush fire brigade on its behalf.
- (5) Where the local government has entered into an Agreement with the FES Commissioner, the FES Commissioner has the following functions in relation to the administration of this local law—
 - (a) To implement, maintain and apply all necessary Standard Operating Procedures for direct fire fighting incident response activities and normal brigade activities by bush fire brigades;
 - (b) Administration of bush fire brigades in accordance with Part 4 of this local law;
 - (c) The maintenance, replacement and upkeep of all bush fire brigade protective clothing, equipment and appliances in accordance with clause 5.1 of this local law;
 - (d) Designate a DFES staff member as the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer for the local government for the duration of the Agreement;
 - (e) To ensure that a DFES staff member designated as the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer will be trained to the competencies identified by DFES as being required to effectively manage incidents attended by bush fire brigade members;
 - (f) To ensure that the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer is aware of the need to exercise due care in all decisions and actions that may affect the safety and health of brigade members, including but not limited to decisions as to deployment into known hazardous areas; and
 - (g) To exercise due care in giving any mobilisation and management directions and in giving directions to the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer, taking into account the safety and health of brigade members.
- (6) When the FES Commissioner applies Standard Operating Procedures to any bush fire brigade, if there is any conflict between a provision of the Operating Procedures in Schedule 1 and the Standard Operating Procedures, then the provisions of the Standard Operating Procedures prevail.
- (7) The duties of a Chief Bush Fire Control Officer, designated by the FES Commissioner include to—
 - (a) provide leadership to bush fire brigades;
 - (b) actively promote the use of AIIMS structures during response, to bush fire control officers and brigade members;
 - (c) carry out all administration and management of bush fire brigades, in consultation with the bush fire brigade Captain;
 - (d) actively monitor bush fire brigade member training and skills collectively or individually to ensure bushfire brigade members are appropriately trained to the competencies necessary to safely undertake normal brigade activities;
 - (e) report on the status of bush fire brigade members, with recommendations at least once a year, to the local government or as otherwise directed by the CEO;
 - (f) monitor bush fire brigades' resourcing, equipment (including protective clothing) and report thereon with recommendations at least once a year, to the local government or as directed by the CEO;

- (g) prepare in consultation with the CEO or a nominee appointed by the CEO applications for funding under the Local Government Grant Scheme for both operating and capital requests, and prepare acquittals for Local Government Grants Scheme expenditure;
- (h) liaise with the CEO or a nominee appointed by the CEO concerning fire prevention/suppression matters generally and directions to be issued by the local government to Bush Fire Control Officers (including those who issue permits to burn), bush fire brigades or brigade officers;
- (i) ensure that bush fire brigades are registered and that lists of brigade members are maintained;
- (j) ensure bush fire brigade appliances, ancillary operational equipment are serviced and maintained in accordance with the manufacturers or other statutory requirements and are ready and available for operational response activities; and
- (k) participate in Bush Fire Advisory Committee and bush fire brigade meetings as a non voting representative.

Division 2—Operating procedures

3.2 Application of the operating procedures and local law

- (1) In this clause the term ‘Operating Procedures’ includes Standard Operating Procedures.
- (2) The Operating Procedures in conjunction with the local law govern the operation of a bush fire brigade.
- (3) A bush fire brigade and each brigade member is to comply with the Operating Procedures and the provisions of this local law and to have due regard to policies and any written directions of the CEO or the local government.

3.3 Variation of procedures

- (1) The CEO, in consultation with the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer may recommend to the Council variation of the Operating Procedures and their application to bush fire brigades.
- (2) The CEO is to notify all bush fire brigades of any variation to the Operating Procedures, as soon as practicable following formally amending this local law.

3.4 Brigades are to be supplied with Act, policies and procedures

- (1) The CEO is to supply each bush fire brigade with a copy of the Act, the Regulations, this local law, any relevant policy, written direction and any other procedure or matter which may be relevant to the performance of brigade functions, and any amendments, which are made thereto from time to time.
- (2) Where an Agreement is in place, the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer designated by the FES Commissioner is to provide all bush fire brigades and brigade members copies of the Standard Operating Procedures contemplated by clause 3.1(5)(a).

Division 3—Chief bush fire control officer

3.5 Appointment and managerial role of chief bush fire control officer

- (1) The local government is to appoint a person as Chief Bush Fire Control Officer if at any time the FES Commissioner under an agreement has not designated a DFES staff member as the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer under clause 3.1(5).
- (2) The local government is not to appoint a Chief Bush Fire Control Officer if the FES Commissioner has designated a DFES staff member as Chief Bush Fire Control Officer as provided in clause 3.1(5), and if a Chief Bush Fire Control Officer has been appointed by the Shire at the time the DFES Commissioner designates a DFES staff member as Chief Bush Fire Control Officer, then the local government’s appointment terminates from that time.
- (3) Subject to any direction of the local government, or of the FES Commissioner, the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer has primary managerial responsibility for the organisation and maintenance of bush fire brigades.

SCHEDULE 1—OPERATING PROCEDURES

(Clause 3.1)

The Operating Procedures are comprised of the following Rules.

PART 1— PRELIMINARY

1.1 Interpretation

(1) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires, where a term is used in these Rules and is defined in the local law, the Act or the Regulations, then the term is to be taken to have the meaning assigned to it in the local law, the Act or the Regulations, as the case may be. In the case of conflict, the order of priority should be the Act, the Regulations and the Local Law.

(2) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires—simple majority means a majority of more than 50% of—

- (a) brigade members of a bush fire brigade, present in person; if the majority is required at a meeting of the bush fire brigade; or
- (b) brigade officers of the bush fire brigade, present in person, if the majority is required at a meeting of the committee.

absolute majority means a majority of more than 50% of the number of—

- (a) brigade members of the bush fire brigade, whether in attendance or not, if the absolute majority is required at a meeting of the brigade; or
- (b) brigade officers of the bush fire brigade, whether in attendance at the meeting or not, if the majority is required at a meeting of the Committee.

Committee means the Committee of the bush fire brigade.

(3) Subject to these Rules, where a decision is to be made by the bush fire brigade, then the decision may be made by a resolution passed by a simple majority of the brigade members who are present in person at the meeting.

(4) Subject to these Rules, where a decision is to be made by the Committee, then the decision may be made by a resolution passed by a simple majority of the brigade officers who are present in person at the meeting.

1.2 Types of membership of bush fire brigade

The membership of a bush fire brigade consists of the following—

- (a) fire fighting members;
- (b) auxiliary members;
- (c) cadet members; and
- (d) honorary life members.

1.3 Fire fighting members

Fire fighting members are those persons being at least 16 years of age who undertake all normal bush fire brigade activities.

1.4 Auxiliary members

Auxiliary members are persons willing to supply free vehicular transport for fire fighting members or fire fighting equipment, or who are prepared to render other assistance required by the bush fire brigade.

1.5 Cadet members

Cadet members are—

- (a) to be aged 11 to 15 years;
- (b) to be admitted to membership only with the consent of their parent or guardian;

- (c) admitted for the purpose of training and are not to attend or be in attendance at an uncontrolled fire or other emergency incident (operational response incidents);
- (d) to be supervised by a fire fighting member (with at least 3 years continuous bush fire brigade service), when undertaking normal brigade activities, as defined by paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) of section 35A of the Act;
- (e) ineligible to vote at meetings;
- (f) not to be assigned a rank.

1.6 Honorary life member

- (1) The bush fire brigade may by a simple majority resolution appoint a person as an honorary life member in recognition of services by that person to the bush fire brigade.
- (2) Membership fees if levied by the bush fire brigade are not payable by an honorary life member.

PART 2—OBJECTIVES AND MEMBERSHIP OF A BUSH FIRE BRIGADE

2.1 Objectives of a brigade

The objectives of the bush fire brigade are to carry out—

- (a) normal brigade activities; and
- (b) the functions of the bush fire brigade as specified in the Act, the Regulations, and this local law.

2.2 Applications for membership

- (1) Applications for membership of a bush fire brigade must—
 - (a) be made in the form as determined by the local government from time to time;
 - (b) be submitted to the Secretary of the relevant bush fire brigade, who must forward a copy of the application to the Captain within one week of the application being submitted; and
 - (c) be determined by the Committee of the bush fire brigade, having regard to any advice received from the Captain or the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer in relation to the application.

2.3 Conditions of membership

- (1) Bush fire brigade members must comply with the Act, Regulations, the Operating Procedures and the Department's Standard Operating Procedures in conducting normal brigade or response activities.
- (2) In relation to any type of membership, as described in Part 4 of these Rules, a bush fire brigade may establish internal policies or procedures to—
 - (a) the qualifications required;
 - (b) a requirement to serve a probationary period; and
 - (c) procedures to be employed by the Committee, in assessing an application for membership, and the Committee is to determine applications for membership in accordance with any such policy.

2.4 Decision on application for membership

- (1) Subject to clause 2.2, the Committee may—
 - (a) approve an application for membership unconditionally or subject to any conditions; or
 - (b) refuse to approve an application for membership.
- (2) If the Committee refuses to approve an application for membership, it is to give written notice of the refusal, as soon as practicable after the decision is made, to the applicant and advise the applicant that he or she has the right to object to the local government.

2.5 Department to be notified of registrations

If any application for membership to a bush fire brigade is approved, the local government is to supply details of the approved application to the Department within 14 days of a person being admitted to membership in the form required by the Department from time to time.

2.6 Suspension of membership

- (1) Membership of a bush fire brigade may be suspended at any time if, in the opinion of the CEO, or the Committee, following consultation with the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer, the circumstances warrant suspending the member.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subclause (1), a member of a bush fire brigade may be suspended in the event the member—
 - (a) contravenes the Act, the Regulations, the Operating Procedures, this local law, bush fire brigade policies or the Standard Operating Procedures;
 - (b) displays conduct detrimental to the best interests of the bush fire brigade, the local government or the Department;
 - (c) has performed an unsafe act that jeopardises the safety of the member or others;
 - (d) has been charged by the Police for a criminal offence and is awaiting court proceedings;
 - (e) has acted in such a manner as to cause harm or distress to other brigade members;
 - (f) has failed to attend 3 or more consecutive meetings of the bush fire brigade within a period of 12 months, without providing prior notice of non attendance; or

- (g) has failed to attend 3 or more structured local training events facilitated by the bush fire brigade.
- (3) The suspended member may be excluded immediately from all normal brigade activities or any specified bush fire brigade duties and activities.
- (4) The brigade Captain or Chief Bush Fire Control Officer must notify the member in writing, advising of the suspension period and reasons for suspension.
- (5) The period of suspension may be up to a maximum of 3 consecutive months and must be determined by the Committee, in consultation with the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer.
- (6) Upon the expiry of the period of suspension the Committee, following consultation with the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer, may—
 - (a) extend the period of suspension;
 - (b) terminate the membership; or
 - (c) reinstate the membership.

2.7 Termination of membership

- (1) Membership of the brigade terminates if the member—
 - (a) dies;
 - (b) gives written notice of resignation to the Secretary;
 - (c) is dismissed by a decision of the Committee, following consultation with the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer, by reason of—
 - (i) failing to comply with the aims and objectives of the bush fire brigade;
 - (ii) failing to comply with the Act, the Regulations, the Operating Procedures, this local law, or any the bush fire brigade or local government policies or local government written directions relating to bush fire brigades;
 - (iii) displaying conduct detrimental to the general interests of the bush fire brigade, the local government or the Department;
 - (iv) being convicted of a criminal offence that in the opinion of the Committee in consultation with the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer would reasonably ordinarily exclude the member from joining a brigade;
 - (v) acting in such a manner as to cause harm or distress to other brigade members by their activities or actions; or
 - (d) ceases to be a member or is taken to have resigned under subclause (2).
- (2) A brigade member who, in the opinion of the Committee or the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer, has not adequately fulfilled his or her role within the bush fire brigade, and has not responded to any written correspondence requesting that he or she state their intentions, within 21 days, will be deemed to have resigned from the bush fire brigade.
- (3) Where a membership is terminated, all property owned by the bush fire brigade; the local government or the Department that is held by or in the possession of the person whose membership has been terminated, must be returned to the bush fire brigade.

2.8 Member has right of defence

A bush fire brigade member is not to be dismissed under clause 2.7(1)(c) or have his or her membership terminated under clauses 2.6(6)(b), without being given the opportunity to meet with the Committee and the Chief Bush Fire Control Officer and respond to any allegations which might give grounds for dismissal or termination of membership, and unless the response has been duly considered.

2.9 Existing liabilities to continue

The resignation, or dismissal of a member under clause 2.7 or the suspension or termination of a member under clause 2.6, does not affect any liability of the bush fire brigade member arising prior to the date of resignation, dismissal, suspension or termination as the case may be.

2.10 Objection rights

- (1) A person whose—
 - (a) application for membership is refused under clause 2.4(1)(b);
 - (b) membership is terminated under clauses 2.7(1)(c)(iv) or clause 2.6(6)(b); or
 - (c) membership is suspended under clause 2.6(1) or clause 2.6(2);has a right of objection to the CEO.
- (2) Where a person lodges an objection to the CEO pursuant to subclause (1), the CEO, or another person nominated in writing by the CEO, may dispose of the objection by—
 - (a) dismissing the objection;
 - (b) varying the decision objected to; or
 - (c) revoking the decision objected to, with or without substituting for it another decision; or
 - (d) referring the matter, with or without directions, for another decision by the Committee.
- (3) No further right of review is available under this local law in respect of a decision made by CEO pursuant to subclause (2).

PART 3—FUNCTIONS OF BRIGADE OFFICERS3.1 Chain of command during fire fighting activities

Subject to the Act, the Regulations, the command hierarchy to apply during fire fighting response activities is—

- (a) Chief Bush Fire Control Officer;
- (b) Deputy Chief Bush Fire Control Officer;
- (c) Bush fire control officers, in accordance with seniority;
- (d) Captain;
- (e) Lieutenants, in accordance with seniority;
- (f) Fire fighter.

The most senior in attendance takes command and control operationally. Nothing precludes command and control being undertaken by a person of lesser rank by mutual agreement or by an employee of the Department, subject to any formal documented hand over requirements.

3.2 Captain

- (1) The Captain is the most senior operational brigade member of the brigade.
- (2) Subject to subclause (3) below, the Captain is to preside at all meetings.
- (3) In the absence of the Captain, the meeting is to be presided by the next senior operational person.
- (4) The Captain is responsible for the efficient administration of the brigade.

3.3 Lieutenant

- (1) A Lieutenants role is to—
 - (a) provide support to the Captain and assist with the management of the brigade;
 - (b) effectively guide, manage and mentor fire fighting members during direct fire fighting incident response activities and normal brigade activities;
 - (c) maintain a personal incident diary with a record of events that occur during all incidents attended;
 - (d) in the absence of the Captain or to support the Captain, assist with or conduct brigade briefings and post incident analysis of any incident involving direct fire fighting response activities; and
