4. I fix and declare the maximum price at which any handknitting wool of the types and descriptions specified in the First Column of the Schedule to this Order may be sold by any person by retail to be the price specified for that wool in the Second Column of that Schedule.

Discounts.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this Order, where a retail trader who sells handknitting wools has customarily allowed any difference in price—

- (c) in respect of sales of handknitting wools under certain conditions of sale, or upon certain terms of payment, the maximum price fixed by or under this Order in respect of those handknitting wools shall, in the case of sales to any such person or persons, or of such quantities, or under such conditions, or upon such terms of payment, be reduced by the allowance of that difference.

Every person who has for sale by retail any handknitting wool the maximum price of which is fixed by or under the provisions of this Order shall attach to or display with that handknitting wool a ticket or label setting forth his selling price thereof and such ticket or label shall be in such a form as to be easily legible to any person inspecting or viewing those goods, and as to be properly associated with such goods.

Variation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

7. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which any of the goods covered by this Order and which are specified in a notice in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.
