HEALTH ACT, 1911-1962.

Shire of Esperance.

Health By-law—Eating Houses.

P.H.D. 1707/56.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1962, the local authority may make by-laws and may amend, repeal or alter any by-laws so made: Now, therefore, the Esperance Shire Council, being the local authority of the Shire of Esperance within the meaning of the Act, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it in that behalf by the said Act and all other powers enabling it, doth hereby make the following by-law:—

Part 1.

Commencement.

1. This by-law shall come into operation on the 1st November, 1963.

Interpretation.

2. In the construction of this by-law, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Health Act, 1911-1962, and any amendment thereof;

“dining room” means any eating house other than a tearoom;

“eating house” as defined in Division 3, section 160, of the Health Act, 1911-1962;

“inspector” means any person appointed by the local authority to be a health inspector pursuant to the provisions of the Act;

“license” means a license to conduct an eating house granted pursuant to the provisions of this by-law;

“local authority” means the Esperance Shire Council;

“medical officer” means the medical officer of the local authority and includes any person acting in that capacity;

“proprietor” means the person having the management or control of premises;

“registered premises” means any premises which are registered as an eating house under this by-law;
