12. Offender subject to community work conditions

An offender performing work —

- (a) is to comply with any reasonable direction given by the overseer; and
- (b) is to wear any safety clothing or equipment supplied to the offender for the purpose of performing the work.

13. Maximum number of hours to be worked in any day

Unless the supervising officer and offender both consent to the requirement, an offender performing work is not to be required to perform more than 6 hours of work in any day.

14. Safe working environment and safe manner of work

The supervising officer is to take any measures that are practicable to ensure that an offender performing work —

- (a) is not exposed to hazards at the place where the work is being performed; and
- (b) performs the work in a manner that does not expose the offender or any other person to hazards.

15. Authorised breaks counted as work

If an offender performing work takes a break authorised by the supervising officer or overseer, the period of the break is to be taken to be a period of work in computing the number of hours of work performed by the offender.

16. Certain breaks allowed and counted as work

- (1) An offender performing work is to be allowed during a normal working day —
 - (a) a break of 15 minutes in the morning;
 - (b) a break of 45 minutes for lunch; and
 - (c) a break of 15 minutes in the afternoon.
- (2) The period of a break taken by an offender under subregulation (1) is to be taken to be a period of work in computing the number of hours of work performed by the offender.

17. Offender not required to work if supervising officer or overseer fails to arrive unless alternative arrangements made

- (1) If —
- (a) an offender attends to perform work at a time and place specified in a direction given to the offender by the supervising officer; and
 - (b) neither the supervising officer nor overseer arrives at the specified place within one hour after the specified time, the offender is not required to perform work on that day unless other arrangements are made for an appropriate person to oversee the work to be performed by the offender at the specified place or another place.

- (2) If an offender does not perform work because of circumstances referred to in subregulation (1), the period that the offender would have worked if not for those circumstances is to be taken to be a period of work in computing the number of hours of work performed by the offender.

18. Certain substances prohibited

An offender is not to bring to, or possess at, the place where the offender is performing work any alcohol, drug, toluene or any other substance capable of influencing a person's fitness to perform work.

19. Offender under the influence of alcohol etc.

- (1) If the overseer considers that an offender is unfit to perform work because the offender is under the influence of alcohol, a drug, toluene or any other substance capable of influencing a person's fitness to perform work, the overseer —
- (a) is to direct the offender not to work; and
 - (b) is to report the matter to the supervising officer.

Young Offenders Regulations 1995

Part 3 Youth community based orders and intensive youth supervision orders

Division 4 Community work conditions

r. 20

- (2) Any period during which an offender is directed not to work under subregulation (1) is not to be taken to be a period of work in computing the number of hours of work performed by the offender.

20. Offender not to possess weapon, and confiscation

- (1) An offender is not to bring a weapon to, or possess a weapon at, the place where the offender is performing work.
- (2) During the period that the work is being performed, the supervising officer or overseer may take possession of a weapon that an offender brings to, or possesses at, the place where the offender is performing work.

21. Offender not to drive vehicle unless authorised

An offender is not to drive or ride in or on a vehicle at the place where the offender is performing work unless authorised to do so by the supervising officer or overseer.

22. Offender may be excused from work

- (1) The supervising officer or, with the approval of the supervising officer, the overseer may excuse an offender from performing work if the supervising officer or overseer, as the case requires, is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so.
- (2) Any period during which an offender is excused from work under subregulation (1) is not to be taken to be a period of work in computing the number of hours of work performed by the offender.

23. Offender ill or injured while performing work

- (1) If an offender becomes ill or is injured while performing work, the overseer —
- (a) is immediately to notify the supervising officer of the illness or injury; and

- (b) in the case of injury, is within 24 hours to provide to the supervising officer a written report of the circumstances in which the injury occurred.
- (2) The overseer may excuse an offender who becomes ill or is injured while performing work from working for any period during the remainder of the day.
- (3) Any period during which an offender is excused from performing work under subregulation (1) is to be taken to be a period of work in computing the number of hours of work performed by the offender.

24. Supervising officer to notify responsible adult

If an offender is excused from performing work under regulation 22 or 23, the supervising officer is to take reasonable steps to notify a responsible adult accordingly.

25. Offender unable to attend to perform work because of illness

- (1) If, because of illness, an offender is unable to attend to perform work at a time and place specified in a direction given to the offender by the supervising officer, the offender is to notify the supervising officer as soon as practicable within 48 hours after the specified time.
- (2) An offender —
 - (a) who notifies the supervising officer under subregulation (1); and
 - (b) who, within 3 days after the specified time, provides to the supervising officer a certificate signed by a medical practitioner certifying that, because of illness, the offender was unable to perform work for a period specified in the certificate that includes the specified time, is to be taken to have been excused from attending to perform work as required by the direction referred to in subregulation (1).

Young Offenders Regulations 1995

Part 3 Youth community based orders and intensive youth supervision orders

Division 5 Supervision conditions

r. 26

- (3) Any period during which an offender is unable to attend to perform work because of illness is not to be taken to be a period of work in computing the number of hours of work performed by the offender.

Division 5 — Supervision conditions

26. Limits on the reporting requirements of supervision conditions

Supervision conditions imposed on an offender by way of an order made under section 73(1)(c) of the Act are not to require the offender to report more than once each week.

27. Requirement to report for offender who lives in remote area of the State

If —

- (a) the court is considering making an order under section 73(1)(c) that imposes supervision conditions on an offender who lives in a remote area of the State; and
- (b) the conditions being considered include a requirement for the offender to report, the court is to take into account the fact that the offender lives in a remote area of the State in determining the appropriate requirement to report.

Division 6 — Intensive youth supervision orders without detention

28. Term used in this Division

In this Division, supervision order means an intensive youth supervision order made by a court without imposing a sentence of detention.

29. Application of Divisions 3, 4 and 5 to supervision orders

Without limiting section 100 of the Act and unless otherwise provided in this Division, Divisions 3, 4 and 5 apply, with necessary modifications, to conditions imposed by way of a supervision order as if it were a youth community based order.

30. Limits on the reporting requirements of supervision conditions

Supervision conditions imposed on an offender under section 73(1)(c) of the Act (as read with section 100 of the Act) by way of a supervision order are not to require the offender to report more than 3 times each week.

31. Offender to inform supervising officer of change in address within 48 hours

An offender who changes address while subject to a supervision order is to comply with section 78(c) of the Act (as read with section 100 of the Act) within 48 hours after the change in the offender's address.

Division 7 — Conditional release orders

32. Application of Division 4 to offender released under conditional release order

Division 4 (other than regulation 25) applies, with necessary modifications, to an offender released under a conditional release order, within the meaning of section 101 of the Act, as if a reference in the Division to the performance of work included a reference to the performance of work, or to complying with any other obligation, in accordance with conditions imposed on an offender by way of a conditional release order.

33. Offender unable to attend to perform work because of illness

- (1) If, because of illness, an offender is unable to attend to perform work at a time and place specified in a direction given to the offender by the supervising officer, the offender is to notify the supervising officer as soon as practicable within 24 hours after the specified time.
- (2) An offender —
 - (a) who notifies the supervising officer under subregulation (1);
 - (b) who, within 3 days after the specified time, provides to the supervising officer a certificate signed by a medical practitioner certifying that, because of illness, the offender was unable to perform work for a period specified in the certificate that includes the specified time; and
 - (c) who, if so required by the chief executive officer under subregulation (3), is examined by a medical practitioner who verifies that the offender was ill at the specified time,is to be taken to have been excused from attending to perform work as required by the direction referred to in subregulation (1).
- (3) If an offender notifies the supervising officer under subregulation (1), the chief executive officer may require the offender to be examined by a medical practitioner, nominated by the chief executive officer, to verify that the offender was ill at the specified time.
- (4) Any period during which an offender is unable to attend to perform work because of illness is not to be taken to be a period of work in computing the number of hours of work performed by the offender.

- (5) In this regulation, work means work required to be performed, or any other obligation required to be complied with, in accordance with conditions imposed by way of a conditional release order.

Part 4 — Special detention centres

34. Detention centres established and operated as special detention centres

- (1) Detention centres to be known as special detention centres may be established and operated where detainees are required to undertake designated work and other developmental programmes in a structured and disciplined environment in order to attain predetermined goals.
- (2) In attaining predetermined goals, detainees in special detention centres are required to undertake activities that demonstrate progress in their self-discipline, work performance and capacity to participate in developmental programmes.

[Part 5 (r. 35) ~~repealed~~deleted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2851.]

Part 6 — Hearing and determination of detention offences

36. Term used in this Part

In this Part, superintendent or visiting justice means the superintendent or visiting justice hearing and determining a charge of a detention offence.

37. Charge of detention offence

- (1) If a charge of a detention offence is made under section 171 of the Act, the charge is to be made in writing and is to contain —
 - (a) the name of the detainee alleged to have committed the offence;
 - (b) the date, time and place of the alleged offence;
 - (c) the details of any person assaulted or any property broken, damaged or destroyed in the commission of the alleged offence;
 - (d) a description of any injury or damage resulting from the alleged offence; and
 - (e) a brief summary of the alleged circumstances of the offence.
- (2) A copy of the charge is to be made available to the detainee alleged to have committed the offence a reasonable time before the hearing of the charge.

38. Notification of hearing

- (1) If —
 - (a) a detainee is charged with a detention offence; and
 - (b) a date is set for the hearing of the charge, the superintendent is to take reasonable steps to notify a responsible adult of the date set for the hearing and of the right of the responsible adult to be present at the hearing.

- (2) It is sufficient compliance with subregulation (1) if the superintendent causes written notification of the hearing to be forwarded to the last address recorded at the detention centre for the responsible adult.

39. Representation of detainee

- (1) The superintendent or visiting justice is to permit a suitable person, other than a legal practitioner, nominated or agreed to by the detainee charged to assist and represent the detainee at the hearing of the charge.
- (2) It is for the superintendent or visiting justice to determine whether a person nominated or agreed to under subregulation (1) is a suitable person for the purposes of that subregulation.

40. Procedure

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), the procedure that applies to the hearing and determination of a charge of a detention offence is —
 - (a) the prosecuting officer is to state the case against the detainee and call any witnesses in support of the charge;
 - (b) the superintendent or visiting justice may take evidence on oath, affirmation or otherwise at his or her discretion;
 - (c) the prosecuting officer is to conduct the examination in chief of each witness and the detainee or the detainee's representative may cross-examine each witness;
 - (d) the prosecuting officer may re-examine each witness on matters arising out of cross-examination;
 - (e) the prosecuting officer is then to close his or her case; and
 - (f) the detainee is then to give evidence on his or her own behalf and call any witnesses, and paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) are to apply with necessary modifications.

- (2) The superintendent or visiting justice may at the request of the detainee or the detainee's representative adjourn the hearing of the charge to permit the detainee to consider the charge more properly and prepare a defence to it.
- (3) The superintendent or visiting justice —
 - (a) is to conduct proceedings expeditiously and without undue adjournment or delay;
 - (b) is to keep or cause to be kept an accurate record of proceedings;
 - (c) may question a witness called; and
 - (d) may direct that a particular witness be called or call and question a witness.
- (4) The prosecuting officer and the detainee or the detainee's representative may question a witness called and questioned under subregulation (3)(d).

Part 6A — Miscellaneous

[Heading inserted in Gazette 9 Jan 1996 p. 54.]

40A. Calculation of period of detention by reference to unpaid amount (s. 65C(2))

For the purposes of section 65C(2) of the Act, the period of detention in a detention order (expressed in days) is to be calculated by dividing the unpaid amount by $~~150~~250 and rounding the result ~~up~~down to the nearest whole number.

Regulation 40A inserted in Gazette 9 Jan 1996 p. 54; amended in Gazette 25 Jul 2000 p. 3909; [19 Jun 2009 p. 2233.]

40B. Restriction of access to exchange information (s. 16(8)(b))

- (1) A person must not publish information disclosed under section 16(5) of the Act without the written approval of the chief executive officer.
Penalty: a fine of $1 000.
- (2) The chief executive officer must not give approval under subregulation (1) unless the chief executive officer is satisfied that —
 - (a) the research for which the information was disclosed was conducted in a methodologically sound manner; and
 - (b) the report based on that research is factually correct; and
 - (c) the publication does not identify individuals, reveal confidential departmental information or otherwise pose a security risk to the operations of the Department.

[Regulation 40B inserted in Gazette 3 Apr 2007 p. 1509-10.]

Part 7 — Detainee gratuities

[Heading amended in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2852.]

Division 1 — Special detention centres

41. Classification of activities undertaken by detainees in special detention centres

- (1) For the purpose of crediting gratuities to detainees in special detention centres, the activities undertaken by detainees are to be classified by the chief executive officer as —
 - (a) level 1 activities, in respect of activities that are at times undertaken without supervision and activities that are undertaken in the local community and require special aptitude and diligence;
 - (b) level 2 activities, in respect of activities that are at times undertaken under general supervision in the local community and activities that require above average aptitude and diligence; or
 - (c) level 3 activities, in respect of activities that are undertaken under direct supervision and activities that require average aptitude and diligence.
- (2) The level at which activities are classified is as the chief executive officer considers appropriate, having regard to the matters set out in subregulation (1)(a), (b) and (c).

42. Gratuities credited to a detainee in special detention centre

The gratuities that may be credited to a detainee in a special detention centre are —

- (a) for undertaking level 1 activities, $~~35.00~~50.11 each week;
- (b) for undertaking level 2 activities, $~~25.00~~35.80 each week; or
- (c) for undertaking level 3 activities, $~~15.00~~21.48 each week.

[\[Regulation 42 amended in Gazette 19 Jun 2009 p. 2233.\]](#)

Division 2 — Detention centres other than special detention centres

43. Gratuities credited to a detainee in detention centre that is not a special detention centre

- (1) Subject to subregulations (2A), (2) and (3), the gratuities that may be credited to a detainee ~~are~~ in a detention centre other than a special detention centre are $21.48 each week.

~~(a) for a detainee in Rangeview Remand Centre, $14.00 each week; or~~

~~(b) for a detainee in any other detention centre, $15.00 each week.~~

(2A) The rate of gratuities to be credited under subregulation (1) is to be varied each year according to the variation in the previous year of the Consumer Price Index (all groups) Perth as issued by the Australian Bureau of Statistics under the authority of the Census and Statistics Act 1905 (Commonwealth) and the date from which any such variation is to be credited is to be determined by the chief executive officer.

- (2) The superintendent may direct that, because of the nature of the activities that a detainee is required to undertake, the gratuities credited to the detainee be increased, as the superintendent considers appropriate, for the period during which the detainee undertakes those activities.
- (3) Gratuities are not to be credited to a detainee who is detained for less than 3 days.
- (4) In this regulation, detainee means a detainee detained in a detention centre other than a special detention centre.

[\[Regulation 43 amended in Gazette 19 Jun 2009 p. 2233.\]](#)

Division 3 — General

44. Superintendent may direct gratuities be withheld or reduced

- (1) If a detainee refuses to undertake activities as directed, the superintendent may direct that no gratuities be credited to the detainee for the period during which the detainee refuses to undertake those activities.
- (2) If the performance of activities undertaken by a detainee at a detention centre is, in the opinion of the superintendent, unsatisfactory, the superintendent may direct that the gratuities credited to the detainee be reduced, as the superintendent considers appropriate, for the period during which the performance of those activities is unsatisfactory.
- (3) If the superintendent gives a direction under subregulation (1) or (2), the superintendent is to maintain a record of the reasons for giving the direction.

45. Superintendent may direct deductions from gratuities

If a detainee causes any property of the State in a detention centre to be lost, broken, damaged or destroyed, the superintendent may direct that an amount that the superintendent considers appropriate —

- (a) be deducted from the gratuities that are credited to the detainee; and
- (b) be paid towards the repair or replacement of the property.

46. Superintendent may direct when gratuities are to be credited

The superintendent may direct that gratuities be credited to detainees at times that the superintendent considers appropriate.

Part 7A — Detainee privileges

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2852.]

46A. Granting and withdrawing of privileges

- (1) In this Part —
authorised means authorised by the superintendent; privilege means a concession or luxury extended to a detainee in addition to any rights provided by statutory or common law.
- (2) A privilege may be extended to a detainee at the discretion of an authorised officer.
- (3) An authorised officer may withdraw a privilege from any detainee at any time satisfied that —
 - (a) the privilege is being misused;
 - (b) the detainee has been involved in a breach of a rule made under section 181 of the Act;
 - (c) continued provision of that privilege constitutes a threat to, or a breach of, the security of the detention centre; or
 - (d) the detainee has use or possession of an article and that use or possession has not been approved or granted by an authorised person.
- (4) An authorised officer must withdraw a privilege from a detainee when requested to do so by the Director of Juvenile Custodial Services.
- (5) If a privilege is withdrawn by an authorised officer, the detainee may seek a review of the decision to withdraw that privilege by the superintendent.

[Regulation 46A inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2852-3.]

46B. Privileges

- (1) The privileges that may be extended to a detainee may include access to —

- (a) the canteen;

53. Application

(1) The “discipline” provisions in this Division apply to ~~group workers~~ juvenile custodial officers and miscellaneous employees, but do not apply to persons appointed under section 11(1) of the Act.

(2) In this Division —

employee is used to describe ~~group workers~~ juvenile custodial officers and miscellaneous employees; serious breach of discipline means where it appears to the superintendent before whom a charge of a breach of discipline is presented for validation or to a superintendent or other person appointed to hold an inquiry into the charge that, having regard to —

- (a) the nature and particulars of the charge; or
- (b) if an inquiry has commenced, to the evidence presented at the inquiry, the charge cannot be adequately dealt with by a superintendent or other person under regulation 64(1) (in the event of an admission or finding of guilt).

*[Regulation 53 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2857-8;
amended in Gazette 19 Jun 2009 p. 2234.]*

54. Breaches of discipline

An employee who —

- (a) disobeys or disregards a lawful order;

- (b) breaches a duty or responsibility imposed upon him or her by the Act or these regulations, or any rules made under the Act that are applicable to that employee;
- (c) commits an act of misconduct that relates to the performance of his or her duties or fitness as an employee;
- (d) is negligent or careless in the performance of his or her functions; or
- (e) commits an act of victimisation within the meaning of section 15 of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2003, commits a breach of discipline.

[Regulation 54 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2858.]

55. Laying a charge

- (1) A charge that an employee has committed a breach of discipline may be laid by any officer or employee having authority or control over the employee to a superintendent.
- (2) A charge —
 - (a) is to be in writing, and contain particulars of the alleged breach of discipline that gave rise to the charge; and
 - (b) is to be validated by a superintendent before a copy of the charge is furnished to the employee under regulation 56.

[Regulation 55 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2858-9.]

56. Give notice when charge is laid

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2) and regulation 66, if a charge of a breach of discipline is made to a superintendent, the superintendent is to give the subject of the charge detailed notice in writing of the nature of the charge.

- (2) If a charge is laid under subregulation (1) that an employee has committed a serious breach of discipline, the charge is to be referred by the superintendent to the chief executive officer.
- (3) Notice under subregulation (1) is to set out —
 - (a) 48 hours or such longer period as is specified in the notice within which the employee has to respond formally to the charge, as to whether they admit or deny the truth of the charge;
 - (b) the manner in which the inquiry will be conducted if the charge is denied or if no response is received; and
 - (c) the manner in which the breach of discipline will be dealt with, if the breach is admitted.

[Regulation 56 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2859.]

57. Where a charge is denied or ignored

- (1) If an employee denies a charge, or does not respond to a charge, within the time to respond referred to in regulation 56(3), the superintendent may conduct an inquiry, or the chief executive officer may direct another person to conduct an inquiry, in relation to the charge, in accordance with regulations 61 and 62.
- (2) Despite subregulation (1), a charge may be referred to the chief executive officer if regulation 66(1) is satisfied.

[Regulation 57 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2859-60.]

58. Where a breach of discipline is admitted

- (1) If an employee admits to breaching discipline within the time to respond referred to in regulation 56(3) —
 - (a) the superintendent may make a finding, and take action in accordance with regulation 64; or
 - (b) an inquiry into the charge may be commenced in accordance with regulations 61 and 62.

- (2) Despite subregulation (1), the admission may be referred to the chief executive officer if regulation 66(1) is satisfied.

[Regulation 58 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2860.]

59. Inquiry into charge

- (1) Where a charge of a breach of discipline against a person —
- (a) is denied by the employee under regulation 57(1);
 - (b) does not provoke a response from that employee within the time allowed; or
 - (c) is admitted, but the superintendent wishes to conduct an inquiry regardless of the admission, an inquiry into the charge is to be commenced in accordance with regulations 61 and 62.

- (2) An inquiry is to be held expeditiously but not earlier than 3 days after subregulation (1) is satisfied.

[Regulation 59 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2860.]

60. Persons involved in an inquiry

- (1) The employee against whom the charge is laid may nominate a person to appear with them for support but cannot nominate a legal practitioner.
- (2) An officer is to be nominated by the Director of Juvenile Custodial Services to lead the case against the employee who is the subject of the charge.

[Regulation 60 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2861.]

61. Determination of charge

- (1) The procedure to determine a charge of a breach of discipline is as follows —
- (a) the officer is to state the charge against the employee and call any witnesses in support of the charge;

- (b) the chief executive officer, superintendent or other person appointed to conduct the investigation may take evidence on oath, affirmation or otherwise at his or her discretion;
 - (c) the officer is to conduct the examination-in-chief of each witness, and the employee or a person nominated to support him or her under regulation 60(1) may cross-examine each witness;
 - (d) the officer may re-examine each witness on matters arising out of cross-examination;
 - (e) the officer is to close his or her case; and
 - (f) the employee may then give evidence, and the employee or the nominated support person may call witnesses, and paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) apply subject to necessary modification.
- (2) The person conducting an inquiry is not bound by the rules of evidence.
- (3) A deviation from the procedure in subregulation (1) that does not materially affect the inquiry does not invalidate the inquiry.

[Regulation 61 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2861-2.]

62. Guidelines for person conducting inquiry

- (1) The chief executive officer, superintendent or other person appointed to hear a charge of a breach of discipline —
- (a) is to conduct the inquiry expeditiously and without undue adjournment or delay;
 - (b) is to keep or cause to be kept an adequate record of proceedings;
 - (c) may question a witness called; and
 - (d) may direct that a particular witness be called or call and question a witness.

- (2) The officer and the employee may question any witness called and questioned under subregulation (1)(d).

[Regulation 62 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2862.]

63. Finding following inquiry

- (1) After completing an inquiry under regulation 59, a finding must be made as to whether there was a breach of discipline committed.
- (2) If the outcome of an inquiry under regulation 59 is a finding that the employee has not committed a breach of discipline, the superintendent must notify the employee of that finding without undue delay.

[Regulation 63 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2862.]

64. Action that may be taken following finding

- (1) If the outcome of an inquiry held by a superintendent or another person directed to conduct an inquiry is a finding that the employee has committed a breach of discipline, the superintendent may do one or more of the following —
- (a) issue a caution to the employee;
 - (b) reprimand the employee;
 - (c) impose on the employee a fine not exceeding an amount equal to the amount of remuneration received by the employee in respect of the last day during which he or she was at work as an employee before the day on which that finding was made.
- (2) The chief executive officer must be informed of any disciplinary action taken under subregulation (1).

[Regulation 64 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2862-3.]

65. Review by CEO

- (1) Following a finding that an employee has committed a breach of discipline, the employee may apply to have the finding, or the action taken following the finding, or both, reviewed by the chief executive officer.

- (2) The application must be —
- (a) in writing, setting out details of the finding and the issues or actions that are to be reviewed;
 - (b) signed by the employee; and
 - (c) lodged with the superintendent without undue delay, but no later than 10 days after the finding, and the superintendent must forward every application to the chief executive officer.

- (3) A copy of an application received by the chief executive officer is to be made available to the other party to the inquiry, and the party may respond in writing within 14 days.
- (4) After the time in subregulation (3) has passed, the chief executive officer is to review the finding or actions set out in the application and, in doing so, may inform himself or herself by considering such proceedings or matters as are considered equitable or necessary.
- (5) Depending upon the basis of the application, the chief executive officer may —
- (a) confirm the superintendent's finding;
 - (b) confirm the action taken following the finding;
 - (c) vary the action taken following the finding;
 - (d) reverse the superintendent's finding and quash the finding; or
 - (e) revoke the action taken.

[Regulation 65 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2863-4.]

66. Referral where charge appears too serious

- (1) If a charge is the subject of an inquiry by the superintendent or another person directed to conduct an inquiry and, before a finding is made, it appears to the superintendent or another person that an employee has committed a serious breach of discipline, the charge or admission is to be referred to the chief executive officer by the superintendent.

- (2) If a charge is referred under this regulation, the superintendent may suspend the employee from duty on either full or partial pay, or without pay and other entitlements, pending an inquiry under regulation 67.
- (3) A suspension imposed under subregulation (2) must be confirmed by the chief executive officer within 2 working days.
- (4) An employee suspended under subregulation (2) who is not found to have committed a breach of discipline is entitled to full pay and entitlements for the period of that suspension.

[Regulation 66 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2864.]

67. Inquiry into a referred charge

If a charge is referred to the chief executive officer, the chief executive officer shall —

- (a) hold an inquiry into the charge in accordance with this Part; or
- (b) appoint some other person (including, if he or she so determines, the superintendent who forwarded the charge to the chief executive officer) to hold an inquiry into the charge in accordance with this Part.

[Regulation 67 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2865.]

68. Outcome of inquiry into a referred charge

- (1) If the outcome of an inquiry under regulation 67 is a finding that an employee has not committed a breach of discipline, the person holding the inquiry must notify the employee of that finding without undue delay.
- (2) If the outcome of that inquiry under regulation 67 is a finding that the employee has committed a breach of discipline, the person holding the inquiry may do one or more of the following —

- (a) issue a caution to the employee;
- (b) reprimand the employee;
- (c) transfer the employee to another detention centre;
- (d) impose on the employee a fine not exceeding an amount equal to the amount of remuneration received by the employee in respect of the last 5 days during which he or she was at work as an employee before the day on which that finding was made;
- (e) suspend the employee from duty for a period not exceeding 10 working days, on full or partial pay, or without pay and other entitlements;
- (f) reduce the monetary remuneration of the employee or reduce the level of classification of the employee;
- (g) dismiss the employee, or, except when the employee is dismissed, take action under any 2 or more paragraphs.

- (3) A penalty imposed under subregulation (2) by a superintendent or other person appointed by the chief executive officer does not take effect unless, and until, it is validated by the chief executive officer.
- (4) The chief executive officer may, instead of validating that penalty, impose a different penalty of a kind referred to in subregulation (2), but the chief executive officer cannot impose a greater penalty than that imposed under subregulation (3) unless he or she has provided the employee with an opportunity of making representations in relation to his or her intention to impose a greater penalty and has considered any representations made by the employee.
- (5) Where a penalty is imposed under this regulation on an employee who is suspended from duty under regulation 66 on partial pay or without pay and other entitlements, the chief executive officer may, having regard to the nature and particulars of the breach of discipline for which the penalty is imposed and the nature of that penalty, direct that the employee is to be paid full or partial pay and other entitlements for the period of the suspension.

[Regulation 68 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2865-6.]

69. Fines may be deducted from pay etc.

- (1) A fine lawfully imposed under these regulations on an employee may be deducted, by order of the chief executive officer, from the pay due to the employee or any other moneys due to the employee in respect of his or her employment.
- (2) A penalty lawfully imposed under these regulations on an employee continues to have effect and is to be given effect to despite any review under regulation 65, but the chief executive officer shall ensure that any necessary financial adjustments are made or other appropriate action is taken upon the determination of the review.
- (3) Notwithstanding subregulation (2), a dismissal carried out under these regulations does not take effect until 14 days after the employee is informed of the dismissal and, in every case where there is a dismissal, the employee is automatically suspended from duty without pay or other entitlements from the time the dismissal is announced until the expiration of the period of 14 days.
- (4) An employee who is suspended from duty under subregulation (3) is entitled to receive full pay and entitlements for the period of the suspension if the finding of committing a serious breach of discipline is overturned.

[Regulation 69 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2866-7.]

Division 4 — Use of force

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2867.]

70. Application

- (1) The “use of force” provisions in this Division apply to persons appointed under section 11(1) of the Act and ~~group workers~~ juvenile custodial officers but do not apply to miscellaneous employees.
- (2) The “use of force and restraint” provisions in this Division apply to a declared facility under section 12 of the Act and to a detention centre under section 13 of the Act.

[Regulation 70 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. ~~2867~~2867; amended in Gazette 19 Jun 2009 p. 2234.]

71. Prescribed force (section 11C(1))

- (1) For the purposes of section 11C(1) of the Act — prescribed force means the degree of physical force which is the minimum required to control a detainee’s behaviour in the circumstances.
- (2) A person cannot use a physical restraint hold when applying prescribed force unless —
 - (a) that person has received instruction in the proper use of that hold; and
 - (b) the use of that type of hold has been authorised by the superintendent.

[Regulation 71 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2868.]

72. Prescribed circumstances for use of force (section 11C(2))

- (1) For the purposes of section 11C(2) of the Act —
prescribed circumstances means an immediate period when a detainee is imminently presenting a risk of physical injury to himself or herself, other detainees or staff.
- (2) As soon as the imminent risk has passed and the detainee has been stabilised then prescribed circumstances for the use of force no longer exist.

(3) If prescribed force or another similar physical restraint is used on a detainee, whether in prescribed circumstances or not, the detainee must be examined by the medical staff as soon as is practicable after the incident.

~~(4) A nurse or medical officer~~ (4A) A member of the medical staff who conducts the examination must ensure that a written report of the examination is prepared and forwarded to the superintendent.

(4) The superintendent must ensure that photographs are taken immediately of any injury sustained either by the detainee or staff ~~and the photographs, along with a copy of any medical report, must be forwarded to the superintendent.~~

(5) A written report of any incident involving the use of prescribed force or another similar physical restraint must be provided to the superintendent by the staff member involved with respect to each detainee.

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2869.]

73. Term used in this Part

In this Part —

unlock hours means the period during which detainees who are not subject to confinement or restraint are able to leave their sleeping quarters.

[Regulation 73 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2869.]

74. Imposition of confinement

- (1) A superintendent or a visiting justice may order that a detainee be confined to that detainee's sleeping quarters or to a designated room as a way of dealing with a detainee who has been found to have committed a detention offence.
- (2) A superintendent may order that a detainee be confined to that detainee's sleeping quarters or to a designated room in order to maintain good government, good order or security in a detention centre.

[Regulation 74 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2869.]

Division 2 — Detention offence confinement

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2869.]

75. Application

This Division applies to an order by a superintendent or a visiting justice that a detainee be confined to that detainee's sleeping quarters or to a designated room as a way of dealing with a detainee who has been found to have committed a detention offence.

[Regulation 75 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2869.]

76. Confinement procedures

- (1) A superintendent must make and maintain a record of an order to confine a detainee.
- (2) Where the confinement is ordered to take place in a designated room, the room used for the confinement must be assessed by the superintendent to be of an appropriate size and sufficiently ventilated and lit that the detainee can be confined in that room without injury to health.
- (3) A detainee confined under this Division is entitled to fresh air, exercise and staff company for a period of at least 30 minutes every 3 hours during unlock hours.

[Regulation 76 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2870.]

77. Confinement monitoring, searches etc.

- (1) A detainee placed in confinement must be subject to continuous monitoring for the first 30 minutes of that confinement.
- (2) After the first 30 minutes of confinement, a confined detainee must be subject to regular monitoring carried out in accordance with a written management regime that has been endorsed by the superintendent.
- (3) The confinement of a detainee is subject to the usual regimen of searches, checks, observation, notification, record-keeping, reporting and other requirements that are imposed under administrative rules and instructions.

[Regulation 77 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2870.]

Division 3 — Good government, good order or security confinement

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2870.]

78. Application

- (1) This Division applies to an order by a superintendent that a detainee be confined to that detainee's sleeping quarters or to a designated room as a way of maintaining good government, good order or security.
- (2) A superintendent may order that a combined period of separate confinement and a period of work time be imposed on a detainee for the purpose of this Division but, in that case, the period of work time is to be counted as confinement time for the purposes of section 196(2)(e) of the Act.

79. Confinement procedures

- (1) A superintendent must make and maintain a record of an order to confine a detainee.
- (2) The superintendent that ordered confinement must inform the detainee of the reason for the confinement.
- (3) Where the confinement is ordered to take place in a designated room, the room used for the confinement must be assessed by the superintendent to be of an appropriate size and sufficiently ventilated and lit that the detainee can be confined in that room without injury to health.
- (4) A detainee whose confinement is for 12 hours or longer is entitled to at least one hour of exercise each 6 hours during unlock hours.
- (5) The superintendent may at any time cut short a period of confinement or a period of work time that has been ordered and return the detainee to the appropriate program area.

[Regulation 79 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2871.]

80. Confinement monitoring, searches etc.

- (1) A confined detainee must be subject to the regimen of searches, checks, observation, notification and other requirements (if any) set out in juvenile custodial rules made for this purpose and approved by the chief executive officer.
- (2) The confinement of a detainee is subject to the usual regimen of searches, checks, observation, notification, record-keeping, reporting and other requirements that are imposed under administrative rules and instructions.

substance includes any narcotic drug to which the Misuse of Drugs Act 1981 applies, any drug that may be obtained by prescription, any solvent that might be abused and alcohol; unauthorised, in relation to things, means an article or substance —

- (a) that a detainee cannot have or retain without a prescription or the approval of the superintendent;
- (b) that are not available to detainees generally, to prevent harm or self-harm; or
- (c) that appear to a person conducting an authorised search to constitute a threat to or breach of the security or good order of the detention centre;

unauthorised thing means an article or substance that a person conducting a search suspects is unauthorised.

(2) If a superintendent is uncertain as to the gender of a person to be searched under this Part —

- (a) the superintendent must ask the person to advise whether a male or female should carry out the search and must act in accordance with the answer; and

- (b) in the absence of an answer, the person is to be treated as if of the gender that the person outwardly appears to the superintendent to be.
- (3) In this Part, the manner in which a person can be searched is limited to either a “pat down” search or a “strip” search or both.
- (4) In this Part, if the superintendent is empowered to search a detainee, officer or other employee, or a person to whom Division 4 applies, the superintendent is empowered to direct an officer to undertake that search on his or her behalf.

[Regulation 81 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2872-3.]

82. Superintendent empowered to search

- (1) A superintendent is authorised to search any detainee in accordance with this Part and take from him or her any illegal or unauthorised thing found on his or her person.
- (2) A superintendent is authorised to search any officer or other employee in accordance with this Part in order to ascertain whether any illegal or unauthorised thing is in his or her possession.
- (3) A superintendent is authorised to search any person in the circumstances set out in regulation 91, including a child, in accordance with this Part in order to ascertain whether any illegal or unauthorised thing is in his or her possession.
- (4) A superintendent is authorised to search any person or vehicle outside but near a detention centre in accordance with this Part, where in the opinion of the superintendent that search is necessary for the security or good order of the detention centre, in order to ascertain whether any illegal or unauthorised thing is present.

[Regulation 82 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2873-4.]

83. Superintendent empowered to search with assistance of trained dog

A superintendent is authorised to use a trained dog to assist in carrying out a search in accordance with this Part.

[Regulation 83 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2874.]

84. Superintendent empowered to use force when searching detainees

A superintendent is authorised to use such force as is reasonably necessary —

- (a) to perform a search; and
- (b) to take from a detainee in, entering or leaving a detention centre any illegal or unauthorised thing found during a search.

[Regulation 84 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2874.]

Division 2 — Searching detainees

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2874.]

85. When

- (1) A detainee should be searched —
 - (a) on admission to the detention centre;
 - (b) immediately before discharge from the detention centre;
 - (c) on leaving or returning to a detention centre; and
 - (d) when transferring from one detention centre to another.
- (2) A detainee may be searched at any time, and in such a manner, as is considered necessary at the time by the superintendent.

[Regulation 85 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2874-5.]

86. How

- (1) A detainee may be searched using either a “pat” or “strip” search depending on the circumstances surrounding the requirement of the search.
- (2) A detainee should be “strip” searched if there are circumstances giving rise to a reasonable suspicion that the detainee may be in possession of an item that could —
 - (a) jeopardise the safety, good order or security of the detention centre; or
 - (b) be used for self harm.
- (3) At least 2 officers must be present during a search of a detainee.
- (4) A detainee must not be “strip” searched in the sight or immediate presence of a person of the opposite gender.
- (5) Where practicable, a detainee should not be “strip” searched in the immediate presence of another detainee.
- (6) Any search of a detainee must be conducted with due regard to the decency and self-respect of the detainee.
- (7) Despite subregulation (4), a superintendent may direct that a search is to be carried out in the presence of a medical practitioner or a nurse.
- (8) Whenever a detainee is “strip” searched, each officer taking a role in that search must forward a written report of the search to the superintendent.

[Regulation 86 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2875.]

87. If illegal or unauthorised things are found

- (1) If an illegal or an unauthorised thing is found on a detainee then the matter may be dealt with as a detention offence committed by the detainee under section 170 of the Act.
- (2) An illegal or unauthorised thing is to be dealt with in accordance with Division 6.

- (3) If an illegal thing is found on a detainee, the parent or the caregiver of the detainee is to be notified (where practicable) of the circumstances of that discovery by the superintendent.

[Regulation 87 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2876.]

Division 3 — Searching officers or other employees

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2876.]

88. When

An officer or other employee may be searched —

- (a) on entering or leaving a detention centre; and
- (b) at such a time as is considered necessary at the time by the superintendent.

[Regulation 88 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2876.]

89. How

- (1) An officer or other employee may be searched using a “pat” search.
- (2) The search of an officer or other employee may include a search of any article or thing carried on them or under their control.
- (3) The refusal of an officer or other employee to submit to a search constitutes disobedience of a lawful order for the purposes of regulation 54.
- (4) The search of an officer or other employee must be conducted —
 - (a) by an officer who has been appointed by the superintendent and who is of the same gender as the person being searched;
 - (b) in the presence of another staff member;
 - (c) out of sight of other persons unless the person being searched requests the presence of another person; and

- (d) with due regard to the decency and self-respect of the person being searched.
- (5) The officers involved in the search must submit a written report to the superintendent.

[Regulation 89 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2876-7.]

90. If illegal or unauthorised things are found

- (1) If a search under this Division leads to the discovery of an illegal or unauthorised thing, the officers conducting the search are to inform the superintendent immediately.
- (2) An illegal or unauthorised thing is to be dealt with in accordance with Division 6.

[Regulation 90 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2877.]

Division 4 — Searching other persons

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2877.]

91. When

- (1) A person who is not a detainee, or an officer or other employee, may be searched in the following circumstances —
 - (a) on seeking to enter a detention centre;
 - (b) on entering a detention centre;
 - (c) while in a detention centre;
 - (d) on seeking to leave a detention centre;
 - (e) immediately before leaving a detention centre;
 - (f) having just left a detention centre;
 - (g) subject to subregulation (2), when outside but near a detention centre.
- (2) If the superintendent is of the opinion that a search of a person, article or vehicle outside but near a detention centre is necessary for the security or good order of the detention centre, the superintendent may search any or all of the following —

- (a) that person;
- (b) a person with that person, who is under the person's care and control;
- (c) an article in the possession or control of that person or a person with them;
- (d) a vehicle in the possession or control of the person.

[Regulation 91 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2877-8.]

92. How

- (1) A person described in regulation 91 may be searched using a “pat” search.
- (2) The search of a person described in regulation 91 is to include a request to voluntarily produce any thing that may jeopardise the safety, good order or security of the detention centre if taken inside, or which may be used by a detainee for self harm.
- (3) A person described in regulation 91 who —
 - (a) does not submit to a search ordered under this Division;
or
 - (b) is in possession or control of anything requested for surrender under subregulation (2) of this regulation and does not produce it, may be refused entry to the detention centre on that occasion and on subsequent occasions and may be removed from the detention centre forthwith.

- (4) Subject to subregulation (5), the search of a person described in regulation 91 must be —
 - (a) conducted by an officer, who has been appointed by the superintendent, of the same gender as the person being searched and in the presence of another staff member;

- (b) conducted out of sight of other persons unless the person being searched requests the presence of another person; and
 - (c) conducted expeditiously with due regard to the decency and self-respect of the person being searched.
- (5) If the person to be searched is a child that has not (or apparently has not) attained 10 years of age, the search is to be carried out —
- (a) expeditiously;
 - (b) by a female employee accompanied by at least one other female employee;
 - (c) in the presence of the person accompanying the child unless that person refuses to remain; and
 - (d) in the absence of any male employees.
- (6) All officers and employees conducting a search must submit a written report to the superintendent.

[Regulation 92 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2878-9.]

93. If illegal or unauthorised things are found

- (1) If a search under this Division leads to the discovery of an illegal or unauthorised thing, the officers conducting the search are to inform the superintendent immediately and —
- (a) if the thing is an illegal thing or an unauthorised thing and the search is conducted immediately prior to entering — ensure that the circumstances under which it was found are noted and prevent that person from entering the detention centre while the thing is in his or her possession;
 - (b) if the thing is an illegal thing or an unauthorised thing and the search is conducted whilst inside or before leaving the detention centre — ensure that the circumstances under which it was found are noted and ensure that the person is removed from the detention centre before returning the thing to the person;

- (c) if the thing is an unauthorised thing and the search is conducted on a person who has just left a detention centre or is outside but near a detention centre — ensure that the circumstances under which it was found are noted before returning the thing to the person.
- (2) If an illegal thing is surrendered, it is to be dealt with in accordance with Division 6.
 - (3) If a search reveals an illegal thing, the police may be informed of that discovery by the superintendent, and the person in apparent possession or control of that thing is to be requested, by the officer performing the search, to wait for the arrival of the police.
 - (4) A person who is searched under this Division and who is in possession or control of an illegal or unauthorised thing —
 - (a) may be refused entry to the detention centre on that occasion and on subsequent occasions; and
 - (b) may be removed from the detention centre forthwith.

[Regulation 93 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2879-80.]

Division 5 — Use of dogs

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2881.]

94. Dogs can be used to search for drugs

- (1) A superintendent may authorise the use of a trained dog to assist in carrying out a search if the purpose of a search is to detect whether illegal or unauthorised substances are or have been present.
- (2) The trained dog used must be a “prison dog” within the meaning of the Prisons Act 1981 section 49A.

- (3) The superintendent may require a trained dog to be used to search a detainee while in detention, and a person, an officer or other employee, or property —
- (a) on seeking to enter a detention centre;
 - (b) on entering a detention centre;
 - (c) while in a detention centre;
 - (d) on seeking to leave a detention centre;
 - (e) immediately before leaving a detention centre;
 - (f) having just left a detention centre; or
 - (g) when outside but near a detention centre, if the superintendent is of the opinion that it is necessary for the security or good order of the detention centre.

[Regulation 94 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2881.]

95. Dogs to be under the control of a dog handler

If the use of a trained dog to assist a search is authorised or required under regulation 94, the trained dog must be accompanied by, and under the control of, a “dog handler” within the meaning of the Prisons Regulations 1982 regulation 81A.

[Regulation 95 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2881.]

96. Dogs to be used in authorised manner

For a trained dog to be used appropriately by a dog handler in a search —

- (a) the dog handler must be the dog handler who has been allocated responsibility for the dog;
- (b) the dog must be under the control of the dog handler; and
- (c) the use of the dog must be in accordance with these regulations and any relevant rules.

[Regulation 96 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2882.]

97. Dogs in searches

(1) A person who —

- (a) assaults; or
- (b) hinders or obstructs,

a trained dog under the control of a dog handler carrying out a search under this Division is to be deemed to have assaulted, or to have hindered or obstructed, the dog handler.

(2) A trained dog under the control of a dog handler may enter, and be in, any place that an officer may lawfully enter or be in while carrying out a search for illegal or unauthorised substances, and no liability arises by reason only that the dog entered or was in that place, notwithstanding any other law.

(3) Without limiting the generality of section 182 of the Act, an officer or a dog handler is not personally liable for injury or damage caused by the use of a trained dog under the control of a dog handler in carrying out a search for illegal or unauthorised substances, if that use was in accordance with this Part.

(4) Subregulation (3) does not apply if injury or damage occurs as a result of anything commanded or permitted by the dog handler without reasonable and probable cause.

[Regulation 97 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2882-3.]

Division 6 — Securing illegal or unauthorised things

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2883.]

98. Securing illegal or unauthorised things

(1) An illegal or unauthorised thing is to be placed in a heat-sealed, clear polythene evidence bag with a label showing —

- (a) the name of the person who was in apparent possession or control of the thing;
- (b) the place of discovery and the signature of the officer that made the discovery; and

- (c) the time and date of discovery, and the superintendent is to take and have custody of the thing.
- (2) When an illegal thing has been found and the police are called, the superintendent is to retain custody of that thing and ensure that police take custody of the illegal thing.
- (3) When an unauthorised thing has been found on a detainee, the superintendent is to retain custody of that unauthorised thing until the determination of any detention offence against the detainee related to that thing.
- (4) Subject to subregulation (3), where the superintendent has custody of an unauthorised thing the superintendent may —
- (a) return it to the detainee on his or her release;
 - (b) return it to the person believed by the superintendent to be the rightful owner;
 - (c) order that the thing be destroyed or otherwise dealt with.
- (5) If an illegal thing that is a substance is found, the existence and movement of the substance is to be recorded by means of entries made in an “Unlawful Drugs Register” maintained at the detention centre.
- (6) If an illegal or unauthorised thing requires analysis to confirm its composition, the superintendent may authorise the delivery of a sample taken under this Part to an approved analysis agent to be analysed in the manner set out in Part 11.

[Regulation 98 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2883-4.]

Part 11 — Body samples

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2884.]

Division 1 — Taking body samples

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2884.]

99. Officer who suspects unauthorised or illegal substance use to inform superintendent

An officer who has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a detainee has used or ingested an unauthorised or illegal substance must inform the superintendent.

[Regulation 99 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2884.]

100. Circumstances that may prompt requirement for body samples

- (1) The superintendent may require a body sample from a detainee in the following circumstances —
 - (a) if the superintendent has been informed of an officer's suspicion under regulation 99;
 - (b) if the superintendent has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the detainee has used or ingested an unauthorised or illegal substance;
 - (c) if a random process of sampling has been instituted in the detention centre and the detainee is selected at random.
- (2) The superintendent is to direct, either generally or in respect of the particular case, whether a body sample is to be taken in the form of blood, breath or urine.

[Regulation 100 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2884-5.]

101. Taking of body samples

- (1) If the body sample to be taken is breath, the breath sample is to be tested by means of an apparatus of a kind approved by the Director of Juvenile Custodial Services, and that apparatus is to be operated by a person approved by the superintendent.

- (2) If the body sample to be taken is blood or urine, the blood or urine taken is to be labelled with —
- (a) the name of the person from whom the sample was taken;
 - (b) the type of the sample;
 - (c) the name of the person who took the sample; and
 - (d) the date and time that the sample was taken.
- (3) A body sample that is to be taken in the form of blood ~~or urine~~ is to be taken by a medical practitioner or a registered nurse.
- (4) A body sample that is to be taken in the form of urine is to be taken by —
- (a) a medical practitioner; or
 - (b) a registered nurse; or
 - (c) a juvenile custodial officer authorised by the chief executive officer to take urine samples.

[Regulation 101 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. ~~2885~~2885; amended in Gazette 19 Jun 2009 p. 2235.]

Division 2 — Analysis

[Heading inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2885.]

102. Approval of analysis agent

- (1) Subject to subregulation (4), the chief executive officer is to approve at least one organisation, in respect of each type of body sample authorised to be taken under this Part, as the organisation whose employees are to carry out analysis of samples of that type.
- (2) Subject to subregulation (4), the chief executive officer is to approve at least one organisation, in respect of illegal or unauthorised things seized under Part 10, as an organisation whose employees are authorised to carry out analysis of things seized under that Part.

- (3) The chief executive officer may, at any time, cancel the approval of an organisation and approve another organisation under subregulation (1) or (2).
- (4) If the chief executive officer does not approve a particular organisation under subregulation (1) or (2), the Chemistry Centre (WA) is the relevant approved analysis agent.
- (5) For the purposes of these regulations, an analyst is a person appointed as an analyst under the Health Act 1911 and employed by an approved analysis agent.

[Regulation 102 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2885-6.]

103. Analyst to give certificate

- (1) If a sample has been delivered under this Part to an organisation which is, at the time of delivery, the relevant approved analysis agent —
 - (a) that organisation must ensure that the analysis of the sample is completed;
 - (b) an analyst employed by that organisation who carries out the analysis must complete a certificate in a form approved by the chief executive officer; and
 - (c) the analyst must forward that certificate to the superintendent of the detention centre in which the detainee is kept.
- (2) Subregulation (1) applies even if, after delivery of the sample, the approval of the organisation as the relevant approved analysis agent is cancelled.
- (3) The superintendent must give a copy of the certificate referred to in subregulation (1) to the detainee from whom the sample was taken or obtained.

[Regulation 103 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2886-7.]

104. Admissibility of analyst's certificate

The analyst's certificate is admissible as evidence against a detainee charged with a detention offence and is prima facie evidence of the matters certified in the certificate.

[Regulation 104 inserted in Gazette 27 Jun 2005 p. 2887.]

Schedule 1

[Regulation 3]

WRITTEN STATEMENT TO BE GIVEN BY THE COURT TO A YOUNG PERSON NOT REPRESENTED BY A LEGAL PRACTITIONER
WHAT TO DO IF YOU DON'T HAVE A LAWYER

1. It is your right to have a lawyer represent you in court.
2. There may be a free lawyer in the courthouse, known as the “duty lawyer” or “duty counsel”. You may seek their assistance if you wish.
3. If there is no lawyer for you at the court, you may ask to have your case put off (“adjourned”) to another day so that you can get legal advice.
4. The Legal Aid Commission and the Aboriginal Legal Service provide free legal services to young people. There may also be other free legal services in your area. To get their address and telephone number, ask the court staff for help.
