- (1c) An agreement resulting from the modification, continuation, or renewal of an agreement entered into before 10 February 2001 is to be considered, when applying subsection (1b), to have been entered into on the day on which it was most recently modified, continued, or renewed, but —
  - (a) a modification is not to be taken into consideration if it had no necessary connection with the duration of the agreement; and
  - (b) a modification, continuation, or renewal is not to be taken into consideration if the retailer was the only party who had a choice about whether the modification, continuation, or renewal would be made.
- (1d) Nothing in this section limits any right that the retailer may, independently of this section, have to purchase motor fuel, for resale at the site, from a supplier other than the primary supplier for that kind and, where applicable, grade of motor fuel for that site.
- (2) A right conferred on the retailer by subsection (1) is not exercisable until 7 days after notice in writing of the intention to exercise it has been given —
  - (a) if it is a right conferred by subsection (1)(a), to the retailer's primary supplier, if any, for the kind and, where applicable, grade of motor fuel concerned;

- (3a) For the purposes of deciding whether a retailer has, as required by subsection (3)(a), ensured, so far as is practicable, that motor fuel that the retailer is obliged to purchase from the primary supplier is available for sale at the site, the lack of availability of storage is not relevant if more than one kind or, where applicable, grade of motor fuel is being stored, under subsection (1)(b)(i), in bulk storage provided at the site for the storage of motor fuel purchased from the primary supplier.
- (4) Subsection (3)(b) does not apply for a particular kind or grade of motor fuel in any 6 month period if —

- (4a) For the purposes of deciding whether a person has, as required by subsection (3)(g) or (h), ensured, so far as is practicable, that bulk storage does not contain a particular motor fuel, the lack of availability of other storage is not relevant.
- (5) If a provision of an agreement —
  - (a) requires a retailer to display the name or business name of the primary supplier of a kind or grade of motor fuel or any colour or distinguishing symbol or motif identifying or commonly associated with or controlled by the primary supplier on all items of dispensing equipment or on bulk storage that is not underground;
  - (b) restricts the rights of the retailer to use or maintain or paint dispensing equipment operated in accordance with this Act; or
  - (c) permits the landlord, if the retailer is a tenant, or a primary supplier to paint or affix signs, symbols or motifs to or write on dispensing equipment being operated, or bulk storage being used, by the retailer in accordance with this Act, the provision is to the extent that it restricts or modifies or purports to restrict or modify the exercise of the retailer's rights under this Act void and of no effect.

- (6) Where a retailer exercises his right under subsection (1) the retailer shall display on any dispensing equipment used to dispense motor fuel of the kind and, where applicable, grade concerned purchased from a person other than the primary supplier a notice that conforms to the regulations.
