Public Officers Act 1879

An Act to regulate the Appointment of certain Public Officers.

Preamble

Whereas by divers Ordinances and Acts of the Legislative Council of Western Australia, powers and authorities, rights and privileges are conferred, and duties, restrictions, and liabilities are imposed on Public Officers; And whereas such Public Officers are often unable in person to exercise and discharge the powers and duties of their respective offices: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows: —

[1-3. — Repealed by 44 Vic., No. 4.]

4. As to Police Magistrates, Resident Magistrates, and Government Residents

And whereas by certain Ordinances and Acts of the Legislature, certain functions are directed or empowered to be exercised by a Police Magistrate, or by a Resident Magistrate, or by a Government Resident, and whereas in some parts of the Colony there are officers designated with one only of such titles: Be it therefore further enacted as follows: —

From and after the passing of this Act the functions prescribed to be discharged by a Police Magistrate, or by a Resident Magistrate, or by a Government Resident exclusively, shall be exercisable by any officer being a Police Magistrate, Government Resident, or Resident Magistrate within the Colony of Western Australia.
