Spent Convictions Act 1988

An Act to make provision for a person who has been convicted of an offence against the law of this State or of a foreign country and who has not re-offended during a specified period to be rehabilitated by limiting the effects of the conviction, to enable that limitation to apply to a conviction against the law of another State or Territory to which a corresponding law thereof applies, to limit the effects of a dismissal or withdrawal of a charge, and for connected purposes.

[Long title amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Spent Convictions Act 1988 <sup>1</sup>.

2. Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on such day as is fixed by proclamation <sup>1</sup>.

3. Terms used in this Act

- (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears —

Commissioner of Police means the Commissioner of Police appointed under section 5 of the Police Act 1892;

Commonwealth law includes a law that was in force in —

- (a) the territory of Papua New Guinea before 16 September 1975; and
- (b) the territory of Nauru before 31 January 1968;

conviction means a conviction incurred by a natural person for an offence against the law of this State or of a foreign country;

life imprisonment includes strict security life imprisonment;

minor punishment means a fine not exceeding $100 or such amount as may be prescribed;

spent conviction means a conviction that is spent under section 6, 7 or 8 or that is spent by virtue of a spent conviction order made under section 39 of the Sentencing Act 1995.

- (2) For the purposes of this Act —

- (a) references to imprisonment do not include —
  - (i) imprisonment until a fine is paid, ordered under section 58 of the Sentencing Act 1995; or
  - (ii) a sentence of imprisonment until a fine is paid or a recognisance is entered into, that was imposed under section 19(5) or (6) of The Criminal Code<sup>2</sup>;

- (b) references to imprisonment for an indeterminate period include —
  - (i) indefinite imprisonment imposed under Part 14 of the Sentencing Act 1995;
  - (ii) detention that was ordered under section 19(6a)(a), 661 or 662 of The Criminal Code<sup>2</sup>;
- (c) a sentence imposed by a court outside Western Australia shall be regarded as if it were a sentence of a kind most nearly corresponding to a sentence that may be imposed by a court in Western Australia.

[Section 3 amended by No. 78 of 1995 s. 120.]

4. Convictions to which Act does not apply

- (1) Sections 6 and 7 do not apply to —
  - (a) a conviction to which section 189 of the Young Offenders Act 1994 applies;
  - (b) a conviction that under section 20 of the Offenders Community Corrections Act 1963<sup>3</sup> was deemed not to be a conviction;
  - (c) a conviction that under section 40(2) of the Child Welfare Act 1947<sup>4</sup> was deemed not to be a conviction.
- (2) A conviction for which the penalty imposed by the court is or includes a sentence of life imprisonment is not capable of becoming spent under section 6 or 7.

[Section 4 amended by No. 78 of 1995 s. 121.]

5. Act binds Crown

This Act binds the Crown.

Part 2 — Requirements for convictions to become spent

6. Serious convictions

- (1) A serious conviction incurred by a person becomes spent if, on application being made by that person to a District Court judge, the judge makes an order declaring that the conviction is spent.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) may not be made by a person in respect of a conviction —
  - (a) until the prescribed period for that conviction has expired; or
  - (b) if a judge has refused to make an order under that subsection in respect of the same conviction within the preceding 2 years.
- (3) The provisions in Schedule 1 apply to an application under subsection (1) and the determination of the application.
- (4) The making of an order under subsection (1) is at the discretion of the judge and that discretion shall be exercised having regard to —
  - (a) the length and kind of sentence imposed in respect of the conviction;
  - (b) the length of time since the conviction was incurred;
  - (c) whether the conviction prevents or may prevent the applicant from engaging in a particular profession, trade or business or in a particular employment;
  - (d) all the circumstances of the applicant, including the circumstances of the applicant at the time of the commission of the offence and at the time of the application;
  - (e) the nature and seriousness of the offence;
  - (f) the circumstances surrounding the commission of the offence; and

- (g) whether there is any public interest to be served in not making an order.

[Section 6 amended by No. 24 of 1989 s. 3.]

7. Lesser convictions

- (1) A lesser conviction incurred by a person becomes spent when, on application being made in the prescribed form by that person to the Commissioner of Police, the Commissioner issues to the applicant a certificate that the conviction is spent.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) may not be made by a person in respect of a conviction until the prescribed period for that conviction has expired.
- (3) The Commissioner of Police does not have a discretion to issue or not issue a certificate under subsection (1) but must issue a certificate if the application conforms with this Act.
- (4) When the Commissioner of Police issues a certificate under subsection (1) he shall also give to the person notice in the form referred to in section 33(2).

8. Convictions in other jurisdictions

- (1) A conviction for an offence against Commonwealth law or the law of another State or of a Territory is spent if it comes within a clause of Schedule 2.
- (2) Regulations may be made under section 33 amending Schedule 2 to make provision for or in relation to convictions by courts of the Commonwealth or of other States or of Territories.

9. Meaning of “serious conviction”

For the purposes of this Act serious conviction means a conviction in respect of which the sentence imposed is —

- (a) imprisonment for more than one year or for an indeterminate period; or

s. 10

- (b) a fine of $15 000 or more.

10. Meaning of “lesser conviction”

- (1) For the purposes of this Act lesser conviction means a conviction in respect of which the sentence imposed is not a sentence referred to in section 9 or a sentence of life imprisonment.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if a person who has incurred a lesser conviction that is not spent incurs a conviction (including a conviction for an offence against Commonwealth law or the law of another State or of a Territory) for which a sentence referred to in section 9 or a sentence of life imprisonment is imposed, the lesser conviction thereafter becomes a serious conviction for the purposes of this Act.

11. Meaning of “prescribed period”

- (1) The prescribed period for a conviction is —
  - (a) 10 years plus any period of imprisonment relevant to that conviction, reckoned in accordance with this section; or
  - (b) where applicable, the period provided for by subsection (4).
- (2) If any such imprisonment is for an indeterminate period —
  - (a) the period of 10 years commences with the day on which the person is discharged from that sentence; and
  - (b) the period of imprisonment is the actual period served.
- (3) In all other cases where a sentence of imprisonment is imposed —
  - (a) the period of 10 years commences with the day on which the conviction is incurred; and
  - (b) the period of imprisonment (if any) is the period imposed, regardless of the period actually served.

- (4) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3), if at the time when a person incurs a conviction, including a conviction for an offence against Commonwealth law or the law of another State or of a Territory, (in this subsection called the latest conviction) he has any other conviction that is not a spent conviction (in this subsection called any previous conviction) —
- (a) the prescribed period that has elapsed for any previous conviction shall be disregarded and the prescribed period for the latest conviction and any previous conviction shall —
    - (i) be the longer or longest of the prescribed periods for all those convictions; and
    - (ii) that period shall commence to run from the time of the latest conviction;
  - and
  - (b) if a sentence of imprisonment in respect of the latest conviction is ordered to be served cumulatively on a sentence of imprisonment ordered to be served in respect of any previous conviction, the period of the sentence imposed for the latest conviction shall be added to the prescribed period for that previous conviction.
- (5) In subsection (4) the latest conviction does not include a conviction for which no punishment, or only minor punishment, was imposed.

Part 3 — Effect of a conviction becoming spent

Division 1 — Application

12. Application of Part 3

This Part applies to —

- (a) a dismissal under —
  - (i) section 669(1)(a) of The Criminal Code <sup>2</sup>; and
  - (ii) section 34 or 34B of the Child Welfare Act 1947 <sup>4</sup>;
- (ab) a conviction that under section 20 of the Offenders Community Corrections Act 1963 <sup>3</sup> was deemed not to be a conviction;
- (ac) a conviction that under section 40(2) of the Child Welfare Act 1947 <sup>4</sup> was deemed not to be a conviction; and
- (b) a charge formally made in court that a person has committed an offence where —
  - (i) the charge is withdrawn; or
  - (ii) the charge is disposed of without a conviction being recorded, as if the dismissal or charge were a spent conviction.

[Section 12 amended by No. 78 of 1995 s. 122; No. 10 of 1998 s. 65(1).]

13. Effect of Part 3 on other laws

This Part has effect notwithstanding any other written law.

Division 2 — Exceptions

14. Proceedings in courts not affected by Division 4

- (1) Nothing in Division 4 affects —
  - (a) the procedure of, or evidence admissible in, proceedings of a court or tribunal that applies the laws of evidence or proceedings under section 6; or
  - (b) the Commissioner of Police acting under section 7.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1) —
  - (a) sections 25(2), 26(1) and 27 do not apply in proceedings of a court or tribunal referred to in subsection (1)(a) or proceedings under section 6;
  - (b) section 25(1) does not apply in a court or tribunal for the purpose of —
    - (i) the determination of the guilt or innocence of a person charged with an offence where a conviction is relevant to that determination; or
    - (ii) a determination of the appropriate punishment to be imposed by that court or tribunal for an offence.
- (3) A court, tribunal or judge that receives evidence of a spent conviction shall take such steps as are reasonably available to avoid or minimise publication of that evidence.

15. Bail decisions

Sections 25(1) and (2), 26(1) and 27 do not apply for the purposes of any decision relating to the bail of a person for an appearance in a court.

16. Further exceptions

- (1) Regulations may be made under section 33 —
  - (a) amending this Act by inserting a Schedule or Schedules making provision for exceptions to this Part; or
  - (b) amending any such Schedule.
- (2) An exception created under the power in subsection (1) may be expressed —
  - (a) by reference to —
    - (i) an employer, principal, organisation, authority, agency or other person who would otherwise be bound by this Part, or any class thereof;
    - (ii) an employee, contract worker, or other person who would otherwise have the benefit of this Part, or any class thereof;
    - (iii) a type of employment or legal relationship to which this Part relates, or any class thereof;
  - (b) to apply to —
    - (i) the whole, or any specified provision, of this Part; or
    - (ii) all spent convictions or spent convictions for specified offences or classes of offences, or in terms that are a combination of any 2 or more of the foregoing.

Division 3 — Discrimination on ground of spent conviction

17. Terms used in this Division

- (1) In this Division commission agent, committee of management, contract worker, employment, employment agency and principal have the respective meanings assigned to them by the Equal Opportunity Act 1984.

- (2) For the purposes of this Division, a person (in this subsection referred to as the discriminator) discriminates against another person (in this subsection referred to as the aggrieved person) on the ground of a spent conviction if —
- (a) on the ground of that conviction or the charge to which it relates, the discriminator treats the aggrieved person less favourably than, in the same circumstances or in circumstances that are not materially different, the discriminator treats or would treat a person who had never incurred a conviction; or
  - (b) the discriminator requires the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition that is not reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case.

18. Discrimination against job applicants and employees

- (1) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against a person on the ground of a spent conviction of the person —
- (a) in the arrangements made for the purpose of determining who should be offered employment;
  - (b) in determining who should be offered employment; or
  - (c) in the terms or conditions on which employment is offered.
- (2) It is unlawful for an employer to discriminate against an employee on the ground of a spent conviction of the employee —
- (a) in the terms or conditions of employment that the employer affords the employee;
  - (b) by denying the employee access, or limiting the employee's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with employment;
  - (c) by dismissing the employee; or

- (d) by subjecting the employee to any other detriment.

19. Discrimination against commission agents

- (1) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a person on the ground of a spent conviction of the person —
  - (a) in the arrangements the principal makes for the purpose of determining who should be engaged as a commission agent;
  - (b) in determining who should be engaged as a commission agent; or
  - (c) in the terms or conditions on which the person is engaged as a commission agent.
- (2) It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a commission agent on the ground of a spent conviction of the commission agent —
  - (a) in the terms or conditions that the principal affords the commission agent as a commission agent;
  - (b) by denying the commission agent access, or limiting the commission agent's access, to opportunities for promotion, transfer or training, or to any other benefits associated with the position as a commission agent;
  - (c) by terminating the engagement; or
  - (d) by subjecting the commission agent to any other detriment.

20. Discrimination against contract workers

It is unlawful for a principal to discriminate against a contract worker on the ground of a spent conviction of the contract worker —

- (a) in the terms or conditions on which the principal allows the contract worker to work;
- (b) by not allowing the contract worker to work or continue to work;

- (c) by denying the contract worker access, or limiting the contract worker's access, to any benefit associated with the work in respect of which the contract with the employer is made; or
- (d) by subjecting the contract worker to any other detriment.

21. Discrimination by organisations of workers and employers

- (1) This section applies to an organisation of employees and to an organisation of employers.
- (2) It is unlawful for an organisation to which this section applies or for a committee of management of such an organisation or for a member of such a committee of management to discriminate against a person who is not a member of the organisation on the ground of a spent conviction of the person —
  - (a) by refusing or failing to accept the person's application for membership; or
  - (b) in the terms or conditions on which the organisation is prepared to admit the person to membership.
- (3) It is unlawful for an organisation to which this section applies or for the committee of management of such an organisation or for a member of such a committee of management to discriminate against a person who is a member of the organisation on the ground of a spent conviction of the person —
  - (a) by denying the person access, or limiting the person's access, to any benefit provided by the organisation;
  - (b) by depriving the person of membership or varying the terms of membership; or
  - (c) by subjecting the person to any other detriment.

22. Discrimination by authorities that confer qualifications etc.

It is unlawful for an authority that is empowered to confer, renew, extend, revoke or withdraw an authorisation or qualification that is needed for or facilitates the practice of a profession, the carrying on of a trade or the engaging in of an occupation to discriminate against a person on the ground of a spent conviction of the person —

- (a) by refusing or failing to confer, renew or extend the authorisation or qualification;
- (b) in the terms or conditions on which it is prepared to confer the authorisation or qualification or to renew or extend the authorisation or qualification; or
- (c) by revoking or withdrawing the authorisation or qualification or varying the terms or conditions upon which it is held.

23. Discrimination by employment agencies

It is unlawful for an employment agency to discriminate against a person on the ground of a spent conviction of the person —

- (a) by refusing to provide the person with any of its services;
- (b) in the terms or conditions on which it offers to provide the person with any of its services; or
- (c) in the manner in which it provides the person with any of its services.

24. Enforcement of this Division

- (1) Where it is alleged that a contravention of this Division has occurred, a complaint may be lodged under section 83(1) or (2) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 as if the alleged contravention were a contravention of that Act, and the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly.
- (2) A contravention of this Division shall not attract any sanction or consequence, whether criminal or civil, except as provided in subsection (1).
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents an action for defamation.

Division 4 — Other effects

25. Interpretation of written laws

- (1) A reference in a written law of this State (other than this Act) to a conviction of a person for an offence does not include a reference to a spent conviction.
- (2) A written law of this State that requires a person to disclose or acknowledge matters relating to a convicted person does not require the disclosure or acknowledgment of a spent conviction or the charge to which the conviction relates.

26. Assessment of character not to have regard to spent convictions

- (1) Where a written law of this State permits or allows a person to consider, take into account, or determine the good character, fitness, propriety or other like attribute of a person for the purposes of that written law, the person shall not in doing so have regard to a spent conviction or the charge to which the conviction relates.
- (2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) is not an offence, but this subsection does not affect any other remedy that may be invoked in respect of the failure.

27. Disclosure or acknowledgment of spent convictions

- (1) Questions about a convicted person put to that person or any other person shall not be taken to relate to a spent conviction or the charge to which the conviction relates.
- (2) A rule of common law or equity, or a provision of an agreement or arrangement, that requires the disclosure or acknowledgment of matters relating to a convicted person does not require the disclosure or acknowledgment of a spent conviction or the charge to which the conviction relates.

28. Unlawful access to criminal records

- (1) A person shall not, without lawful reason, obtain information about a spent conviction, or the charge to which the conviction relates, from an official criminal record.

Penalty: $1 000.

- (2) In subsection (1) official criminal record means a record containing information about the results of criminal proceedings kept for the purposes of its functions by any police force, court, government department, local or other public authority in Western Australia.

Part 4 — Miscellaneous

29. Application of certain provisions of *Equal Opportunity Act 1984

Without limiting section 24, for the purposes of this Act —

- (a) the Minister has the powers conferred by sections 81 and 107(1) of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 on the Minister to whom the administration of that Act is committed; and
- (b) the Commissioner under that Act has the functions set out in section 80(a), (b)(i), (c), (e) and (h), section 81 and section 95 of that Act, in relation to discrimination on the ground of a spent conviction or the charge to which it relates, as provided in Division 3 of Part 3, as if such discrimination were a form of discrimination to which that Act applies; and

- (c) sections 155, 159, 160, 161, 162 and 163 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 apply as if they were set out in this Act.

30. Revival of sentence after parole etc.

If a conviction of a person has become spent under this Act, it is not revived by reason of the fact that the person is subsequently held not to have been discharged from the sentence of imprisonment imposed in respect of that conviction by reason of —

- (a) section 67 of the Sentence Administration Act 2003;
- (ab) section 70 of the Sentence Administration Act 1995; or
- (b) section 44(2) of the Offenders Community Corrections Act 1963<sup>3</sup>.

[Section 30 inserted by No. 78 of 1995 s. 123; amended by No. 50 of 2003 s. 29(3).]

31.      Prerogative of mercy not affected

This Act does not affect the exercise of the Royal prerogative of mercy.

32.      Act applies to convictions incurred before commencement

- (1) The application of this Act extends to a conviction incurred by a person before the commencement of this Act.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the prescribed period expires —
  - (a) on the commencement of this Act; or
  - (b) on the day on which it would have expired if this Act had been in force continuously since the day when the conviction was incurred, whichever is the later.

33.      Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed, or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.
- (2) For the purposes of section 7(4) and clause 9 of Schedule 1, a form of notice shall be prescribed by the regulations setting out the effect of a conviction becoming spent under sections 6 and 7.

Schedule 1

[s. 6(3)]

Provisions relating to application under section 6(1)

1. The application

- (1) An application under section 6(1) shall be in writing and shall set out —
  - (a) all previous convictions, whether incurred in Western Australia or elsewhere;
  - (b) the employment history of the applicant since the date of the conviction in respect of which the application is being made;
  - (c) such other matters as may be prescribed.
- (2) The judge may, by notice in writing given to the applicant, require the applicant to give further information in relation to the application.
- (3) An application may be made in respect of more than one conviction.

2. Parties to the application

- (1) The Commissioner of Police is a party to the application, and —
  - (a) shall be served with a copy of the application;
  - (b) may appear at any hearing or be represented by any person authorised by him;
  - (c) may make submissions on the application, or on any incidental matter.
- (2) The Attorney General may intervene in the application, and where he does so —
  - (a) he may appear or be represented at any hearing; and
  - (b) may make submissions on the application or on any incidental matter.

3. The hearing

- (1) The hearing shall be in private unless —
  - (a) the applicant requests that the hearing be in public; or

cl. 4

(b) the judge considers that, in the circumstances of the case, the hearing should be in public.

- (2) Where the hearing is in private the judge may give directions, in writing or otherwise, as to who may be present.
- (3) Where the hearing is in public the judge may order that there shall not be published by any means any particulars likely to lead to the identification of the applicant.
- (4) A person shall, unless he has lawful excuse, comply with an order made under subclause (3).

Penalty: $1 000.

4. Rules of evidence not to apply

In determining an application, the judge shall not be bound by the rules of evidence, but may inform himself on any matter in such manner as he thinks fit.

5. Powers of judge and officers

Subject to this Act, the judge and the officers of the District Court may exercise the powers and authorities vested in them in respect of the civil jurisdiction of that court so far as is necessary or expedient for the hearing and determination of applications under section 6(1).

6. Witnesses

A witness in proceedings before the judge has the same privileges and protection and is subject to the same liabilities as a witness in civil proceedings before the District Court.

7. Alternatives to holding a hearing

The judge may —

- (a) if satisfied that an application is vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance, refuse to make an order under section 6(1) without holding a hearing;
- (b) if satisfied that it is appropriate to do so, make an order under that section without holding a hearing.

8.        Costs

- (1) Except as provided by subclause (2), each party to an application shall bear his own costs.
- (2) Where the judge —
  - (a) refuses to make an order as mentioned in clause 7(a); or
  - (b) is of the opinion that the circumstances justify doing so,the judge may award such costs as the judge thinks fit.
- (3) Costs awarded under subclause (2) may be registered as a judgment debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

9.        Copy of order to be furnished

Where the judge makes an order declaring that a conviction is spent, a copy of the order shall, as soon as practicable, be sent to —

- (a) the applicant together with notice in the form referred to in section 33(2); and
- (b) the Commissioner of Police.

Schedule 2

<sup>1a</sup> On the date as at which this compilation was prepared, provisions referred to in the following table had not come into operation and were therefore not included in this compilation. For the text of the provisions see the endnotes referred to in the table.

Provisions that have not come into operation

Short title	Number and year	Assent	Commencement
Machinery of Government (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2006 Pt. 3 Div. 5 <sup>8</sup>	28 of 2006	26 Jun 2006	To be proclaimed (see s. 2)
Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Amendment Act 2010 Pt. 3 <sup>10</sup>	7 of 2010	27 May 2010	To be proclaimed (see s. 2)

<sup>5</sup> Under the Alteration of Statutory Designations Order 2007 a reference in any law to the Department of Community Development is, unless the contrary is intended, to be read and construed as a reference to the Department for Child Protection.

<sup>8</sup> On the date as at which this compilation was prepared, the Machinery of Government (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2006 Pt. 3 Div. 5<sup>9</sup> had not come into operation. It reads as follows:

Part 3 — Attorney General, and Justice

Division 5 — *Spent Convictions Act 1988

42. The Act amended

The amendments in this Division are to the Spent Convictions Act 1988.

43. Schedule 3 amended

Schedule 3 clause 1 item 10 of the Table is amended by deleting “Community and Juvenile Justice Division or the Prisons Division of the Department of Justice” and inserting instead — department of the Public Service principally assisting in the administration of this Act

<sup>9</sup> The amendment to item 10 in the table to Sch. 3 cl. 1 in the Machinery of Government (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2006 Pt. 3 Div. 5 would conflict with amendments in the Prisons and Sentencing Legislation Amendment Act 2006 s. 70.

<sup>10</sup> On the date as at which this compilation was prepared, the Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Amendment Act 2010 Pt. 3 had not come into operation. It reads as follows:

Part 3 — Spent Convictions Act 1988 amended

26. Act amended

This Part amends the Spent Convictions Act 1988.

27. Section 28 amended

(1) Before section 28(1) insert:

(1A) In this section —

child means a person under 18 years of age;

official criminal record means a record containing information about the results of criminal proceedings kept for the purposes of its functions by any police force, court, government department, local or other public authority in Western Australia.

(2) Delete section 28(2) and insert:

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a prescribed person if —

- (a) the person is required or permitted under a prescribed law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory to obtain or deal with information about a person who works, or seeks to work, with a child; and
- (b) the purpose of obtaining the information from an official criminal record is to obtain or deal with the information in accordance with the prescribed law.

28. Schedule 3 amended

After Schedule 3 clause 2(6) insert:

- (7) The CEO as defined in the Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Act 2004 section 4 is excepted from the provisions of section 28(1) in respect of all spent convictions in disclosing information under section 37(2) of that Act if the disclosure is to a corresponding authority as defined in section 37(1) of that Act and that authority is a person prescribed under section 28(2).
