(d) a bush fire brigade as defined in the Bush Fires Act 1954 section 7(1);

(e) a private fire brigade as defined in the Fire Brigades Act 1942 section 4(1);

(f) a volunteer fire brigade as defined in the Fire Brigades Act 1942 section 4(1);

FESA means the Fire and Emergency Services Authority of Western Australia established by the FESA Act section 4;

FESA Act means the Fire and Emergency Services Authority of Western Australia Act 1998.

(2) The following classes of person are prescribed for the purposes of sections 64A(4A)(a) and 64AAA(2A)(a) of the Act —

(a) a person who is an officer or member of an emergency services organisation;

(b) a person who is employed by a local government under the Local Government Act 1995 section 5.36;

(c) a person who is a contractor to FESA, an emergency services organisation or a local government;

(d) a person who is acting under the direction of a person referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

[Regulation 6A inserted in Gazette 30 Aug 2011 p. 3513-14.]

6B. Classes of motor vehicle prescribed for s. 64A of Act

The following classes of motor vehicle are prescribed for the purposes of section 64A(5)(e) of the Act —

(a) a motor vehicle that is a placarded vehicle as defined in the Dangerous Goods Safety (Explosives) Regulations 2007 regulation 107(1);

(b) a motor vehicle transporting a load of dangerous goods that is required to be placarded under the Dangerous Goods Safety (Road and Rail Transport of Non-explosives) Regulations 2007 regulation 110.

[Regulation 6B inserted in Gazette 30 Aug 2011 p. 3514.]

Part 3 — Demerit point scheme

6. Demerit point offence in WA

- (1) An offence is a demerit point offence in WA if it is an offence under a section of the Act identified in column 1 of Schedule 2, being an offence described in column 2 of that Schedule, and the number of demerit points applying to the offence is the number indicated in column 3.
- (2) In Schedule 2 — holiday period has the meaning given in regulation 7.
- (3) An offence that involves the driving or use of a motor vehicle is a demerit point offence in WA if it is an offence under the Road Traffic Code 2000 for which a penalty is expressed as a number of points, and the number of demerit points applying to the offence is that number of points.
- (4) An offence against the Road Traffic (Vehicle Standards) Regulations 2002 regulation 66(1) (failure to comply with a compliance notice) is a demerit point offence in WA, and the number of demerit points applying to the offence is 3.

7. What is regarded as a holiday period

- (1) In this regulation —
public holiday means a day specified, or appointed under the power, in the Public and Bank Holidays Act 1972 Second Schedule to be a public holiday.
- (2) If a public holiday falls on a Monday, the period of 4 days beginning with the last Friday before that Monday and ending with that Monday is a holiday period.
- (3) If a public holiday falls on a Friday, the period of 4 days beginning with the Thursday before that Friday and ending with the next Sunday after that Friday is a holiday period.

- (4) Despite subregulations (2) and (3), the period of 5 days beginning with the Thursday before Good Friday and ending with Easter Monday is a holiday period.
- (5A) Despite subregulations (2), (3) and (4), in 2011, the period of 6 days beginning with the last Thursday before Good Friday and ending with ANZAC Day holiday (the Tuesday after Easter Monday) is a holiday period.
- (5) Despite subregulations (2) and (3), the period of 17 days beginning with the last Friday before Christmas Day is a holiday period.

[Regulation 7 amended in Gazette 18 Mar 2011 p. 927.]

8. Some consequences of removing demerit points from register

- (1) In this regulation —
removed means removed or required to be removed.
- (2) This regulation applies if under section 104O(3) or (4) of the Act demerit points are removed from the demerit points register.
- (3) A notice under section 104I(1) of the Act ceases to have effect if the giving of the notice required the cancellation of the demerit points that are subsequently removed but the notice has not resulted in —
- (a) a period of disqualification commencing before the day on which the demerit points are removed; or
 - (b) a person making a section 104J election.
- (4) If the giving of a notice under section 104I(1) of the Act required the cancellation of the demerit points that are subsequently removed and, when the demerit points are removed, the notice has not resulted in a period of disqualification commencing but has resulted in a person making a section 104J election, the notice and the election each cease to have effect.

r. 8

- (5) In circumstances described in subregulation (3) or (4), any demerit points that were cancelled as a result of the notice, except any subsequently removed, have the effect, if any, that they would have if they had not been cancelled.
- (6) Subregulation (7) applies if —
- (a) the giving of a notice under section 104I(1) of the Act required the cancellation of any demerit point subsequently removed; and
 - (b) at the time of removal —
 - (i) the notice has resulted in a period of disqualification; or
 - (ii) the notice has resulted in a person making a section 104J election and a period of disqualification under section 104K has resulted from a notice given under section 104K(1) for an offence during the section 104J election period.
- (7) In circumstances described in subregulation (6) —
- (a) if a notice under section 104I(1) would not have been given if each demerit point removed had never been recorded —
 - (i) the period of disqualification ceases at the time of removal if it has not already expired; and
 - (ii) any demerit points that were cancelled as a result of the notice, except any removed or under subregulation (8) credited as served, have the effect, if any, that they would have if they had not been cancelled;
- and
- (b) if a notice under section 104I(1) would have been given even if each demerit point removed had never been recorded —
 - (i) the period of disqualification, whether or not it has already expired, is adjusted, if required, to what it would have been if the points removed had never been recorded; and

- (ii) if a greater period of disqualification has already been served than the adjusted period (in which case the difference is called the excess period served), the number of current demerit points, if any, then recorded against the person is to be reduced by cancelling one or more points according to subregulation (9).
- (8) In the circumstances in which subregulation (7)(a) applies, a whole number of demerit points are to be credited as served, the number being at least the same proportion of the number of points that were cancelled as the period of disqualification served represents of the full period of the disqualification under section 104I or 104K, as the case requires.
- (9) In the circumstances in which subregulation (7)(b)(ii) applies, the number of points to be cancelled cannot be more than the number of current demerit points the person then has, but otherwise is the lowest whole number that is not less than N in the following formula —

$$N = (4*d)/30$$

d is the number of days in the excess period served.

- (10) Neither subregulation (3), (4) nor (7)(a)(i) prevents a further notice from being given under section 104I(1).

9. Alternative to giving certain notices personally

A notice referred to in section 104R of the Act may be given to a person by a form of mail that involves the person taking personal delivery of the notice and acknowledging in writing having taken delivery of it.

10. Transitional matters

- (1) In this regulation —
transition day means the day on which the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2006 section 31 comes into operation.
- (2) Nothing in this regulation is intended to exclude any provision of the Interpretation Act 1984 Part V.
- (3) Points recorded against a person under the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 103 are not to be regarded as currently recorded for the purposes of the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2006 section 36 if, before the transition day, they counted towards an aggregate number of points the accumulation of which resulted in a notice of disqualification being served on the person under that section.
- (4) Subregulation (3) does not affect the continuation of any disqualification to which the person is subject immediately before the transition day.
- (5) Even if disqualification because of a notice of disqualification served under the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 103 before the transition day has not taken effect before that day, the disqualification takes and has effect as specified in the notice and that section applies to the disqualification as if it had not been repealed.
- (6) The reference in the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 76(1ac) to a person being disqualified under Part VIA does not include a person disqualified by a notice of disqualification served under the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 103 before the transition day.
[Regulation 10 amended in Gazette 24 Apr 2009 p. 1388.]

Part 4 — Repeal

11. Repeal

The Road Traffic (General) Regulations 2008 are repealed.

Unless authorised by the above restricted permit you are unable to drive a motor vehicle until after you have resolved all outstanding licence suspension orders made under the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Act 1994 with Fines Enforcement Registry, Ground Floor, May Holman Centre, 32 St Georges Terrace, Perth. Telephone 9235 0235.

WARNING: Driving contrary to a time, destination or condition specified on this form by the issuing officer will result in an offence of unauthorised driving. Any alteration, deletion or addition made to any details in this form, other than by the issuing officer, may amount to committing further offences. A permit will be granted only if it appears to the apprehending officer that to immediately cease driving would be impracticable or may jeopardise the safety of any person. The officer will have regard to such matters as the remoteness of the location and the absence of persons (other than police personnel) who can assist and lawfully drive.
