  - (i) before the end of period 1; or
  - (ii) if paragraphs (c)(ii) and (d)(ii) apply, before the end of period 2, the surviving partner is taken to have had a registered entitlement at the commencement of period 1, or periods 1 and 2, as the case requires, and is to be treated accordingly for the purposes of this Act.

- (3) If —
  - (a) subsection (2)(a) and (b) apply in relation to a deceased partner and the surviving partner; and
  - (b) the surviving partner —

- (i) was liable for the payment of a prescribed charge in respect of the surviving partner's land in more than 2 charged periods after the charged period in which the prescribed charge was last payable by the deceased partner (the final period); and
  - (ii) was eligible under this Act to apply to the administrative authority to have an entitlement in respect of that land registered at the commencement of each of those charged periods;
- and
- (c) the Minister is satisfied that, because of exceptional circumstances, an entitlement in respect of a surviving partner's land has been registered in a charged period that is more than 2 charged periods after the final period,
- the Minister may declare that the surviving partner is taken to have had a registered entitlement in respect of the surviving partner's land at the commencement of each of the charged periods specified in the declaration.
- (4) A declaration under subsection (3) has effect according to its terms and the surviving partner is to be treated accordingly for the purposes of this Act.
  - (5) A surviving partner who is taken to have a registered entitlement in respect of the surviving partner's land may pay the rebated amount in relation to the prescribed charge by the date specified in the notice requiring payment of the prescribed charge, or at the end of the charged period to which the notice relates, whichever is the later.

[Section 32A inserted by No. 13 of 2007 s. 5.]

33. Effect of registration

- (1) Where as regards any land an entitlement is registered in relation to any kind of prescribed charge on that land on the basis that a person holds an estate in fee simple in possession in land or a relevant interest in land of a kind referred to in section 29, the person whose entitlement it is shall thereby, subject to this Act, be authorised in relation to a charge of that kind —

- (a) to pay a rebated amount; or
- (b) to defer payment, for the charged period for which that charge was made and for all subsequent charged periods until the registration is amended or cancelled under section 37.

- (1a) Where as regards any land an entitlement is registered in relation to any kind of prescribed charge on that land on the basis that a person holds a relevant interest in land of a kind referred to in section 29A, 29B or 29C, the person whose entitlement it is, subject to this Act, is authorised in relation to a charge of that kind to pay a rebated amount for the charged period for which that charge was made and for all subsequent charged periods until the registration is amended or cancelled under section 37.
- (2) Where in relation to any charged period an entitlement to land is registered, effect shall be given by the administrative authority to any rebate or deferment allowable for that charged period as though the entitlement remained that of the registered person, notwithstanding that during the charged period —
  - (a) the registered person dies, or ceases to be an eligible person; or
  - (b) the land ceases to belong to the registered person,but effect shall not be given to the rebate or deferment in relation to any subsequent charged period.
- (3) Where arrears are due from a registered person in respect of a prescribed charge neither payment of a rebated amount nor deferment in respect of a prescribed charge of that kind shall be allowed by an administrative authority, notwithstanding that an entitlement is registered by that person relating to the land, unless subsection (4) or (6) applies.

- (4) Where, before the coming into operation of Part 2 of the Rates and Charges (Rebates and Deferments) Amendment Act 1993<sup>1</sup>, any arrangement for the payment of arrears in respect of a prescribed charge was entered into by an administrative authority with a registered person, that arrangement shall be taken to have been authorised under this Act and effect shall be given to the arrangement according to its terms.
- (5) Where, in relation to any arrears payable in respect of a prescribed charge by an eligible person, a direction is given to the administrative authority under section 9 to —
- (a) apply any payment; or
  - (b) impose any requirement for penalty interest,
- in accordance with the requirements of the procedural manual, notwithstanding the provisions of the Local Government Act 1995, the administrative authority shall comply with the direction.
- (6) Despite subsection (3), a registered person in respect of a prescribed charge who is an eligible pensioner may, subject to this Act —
- (a) pay a rebated amount in respect of a prescribed charge of that kind; or
  - (b) defer payment of amounts of a prescribed charge of that kind, if that person and the administrative authority have agreed on an arrangement for the payment of arrears due from that person in respect of the prescribed charge.

- (7) If, in respect of a charged period for which the payment of a rebated amount or a deferment is allowed under subsection (6), the registered person does not pay the arrears due to be paid in that charged period under the arrangement, the administrative authority may by written notice given to the registered person require that person to pay the prescribed charge by the date specified in the notice and the registered person ceases to be entitled to pay the rebated amount or to defer payment of the prescribed charge, as the case may be.

- (8) Despite section 6.62 of the Local Government Act 1995, if an arrangement for the payment of arrears is agreed on under subsection (6) and an amount is paid in respect of the rebated amount, that amount is to be applied for or towards payment of the rebated amount.

35. Change in circumstances of registered person

- (1) Where the entitlement of a person as regards any land is registered, if —
- (a) the person ceases —
    - (i) to hold a seniors' card;
    - (ii) to be an eligible pensioner; or
    - (iii) to occupy the land as their ordinary place of residence;
  - (b) the interest or the extent of the interest of that person in the land changes in such a manner as to change the relevant entitlement; or
  - (c) the land no longer belongs to that person, the registration may need to be reviewed by the administrative authority and the person is required forthwith to notify the administrative authority, in a manner approved by the administrative authority, of the change in circumstances.

s. 35

- (2) Where in respect of any charged period an eligible person would be authorised to have registered, or to apply for the registration of, an entitlement as regards land in more than one place and it is alleged that each is the ordinary place of residence of that person, that person —
- (a) may retain, or have, an entitlement registered only for one of those places;
  - (b) must elect to which of those places this Act is to apply; and
  - (c) must relinquish any other entitlement.
- (2a) Subsection (2) does not apply in relation to land registered for a person on the basis of eligibility under section 23(5).
- (3) Where subsection (2) applies to a place where a person has an entitlement which is required to be relinquished that person shall, in a manner approved by the administrative authority, notify every administrative authority which makes any prescribed charge in respect of that place —
- (a) of the change of circumstances, in that the person has relinquished the entitlement and elected that the Act shall no longer apply to that place; and
  - (b) of any other land in respect to which that person claims an entitlement instead.
- (4) If, by reason only of any increase in the assets or income of that person to a value in excess of that permitted by the means test, a person ceases to be an eligible person as regards any land, that person remains a person who may be allowed to retain —
- (a) the benefit of any rebate on a prescribed charge, which that person had previously been allowed; and
  - (b) any right to defer payment of a prescribed charge, until such time as a liability for payment of the full amount under this Act otherwise arises,

37. Amendment or cancellation of registration

(1) An administrative authority —

(2) An administrative authority by which the entitlement of a person is registered shall, upon receiving an application made in a manner approved by the administrative authority from that person for cancellation of the registration, cancel the registration with effect from the day on which the application was received.

- (3) On making a determination as to the amendment or cancellation of the registration of the entitlement of a person the administrative authority concerned shall cause that person to be notified in writing of the determination and of the reason why the cancellation or amendment is proposed to be effected.
- (4) Subject to section 12 and section 14(2), effect may be given to a determination made under this section.

  - (b) omits to notify an administrative authority of a change of circumstances, as required by section 35; or
  - (c) for the purpose of trying to obtain a benefit under this Act, purports —
    - (i) to retain an entitlement, knowing that the entitlement as registered had ceased to exist; or

[Section 38 amended by No. 22 of 1998 s. 24; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

39. Persons allowed rebate or deferment incorrectly

- (1) Where it appears to an administrative authority by which the entitlement of a person is registered that, consequent upon a contravention of this Act, the entitlement of that person has unlawfully continued to be registered when —

- (a) the person was not eligible to have the entitlement registered; or
- (b) the entitlement did not exist, that administrative authority may determine that the entitlement shall be taken for the purposes of this Act not, since the contravention, to have been correctly registered and effect shall not be given to the registration.

- (2) Where an administrative authority determines that a rebate or deferment was allowed, purportedly under this Act, on any prescribed charge to a person to whom it should not have been allowed —

- (a) the rebate purportedly allowed is of no effect;
- (b) the amount paid shall be taken to have been paid in partial satisfaction of the prescribed charge;
- (c) the amount, or the balance, of the rebate or of the amount deferred —
  - (i) is payable to the relevant administrative authority on demand; and
  - (ii) is recoverable by the administrative authority in any court of competent jurisdiction;

(d) that person is liable to any penalty in respect of arrears of that prescribed charge that may apply apart from this Act; and

(e) if —

(i) the amount of a rebate purportedly allowed has been reimbursed under section 17, the reimbursement shall be reversed; or

(ii) interest has been allowed under section 17 on deferral of a payment the interest shall be repaid, whether or not the person concerned has contravened this Act.

(3) Where a rebate was allowed by reference to an apportionment made on a basis different from the entitlement the person concerned in fact should have had, so that the rebate purportedly allowed was more than it should have been —

(a) the rebate purportedly allowed shall be reduced to the correctly apportioned rebate;

(b) the amount paid shall be taken to have been paid in partial satisfaction of the prescribed charge; and

(c) if the amount of the rebate mistakenly allowed has been reimbursed under section 17, the reimbursement shall be adjusted accordingly.

Part 3 — Rebates

40. Rebates to registered persons

- (1) This section applies to a person who —
  - (a) at the commencement of the charged period is liable for the payment of a prescribed charge, or in respect of a prescribed charge which is apportioned under section 28, on any land used by that person as their ordinary place of residence; and
  - (b) has —
    - (i) an entitlement as regards that land which is registered by the administrative authority either at the commencement of or during the charged period; or
    - (ii) the right, as a dependant occupying the land in circumstances to which section 31(1) applies, to be allowed the benefit of a rebate.
- (2) The liability of a person to whom this section applies for payment of a prescribed charge, or the proportion that relates to the extent of the entitlement of the eligible person may, subject to this Act, be satisfied by the payment of a rebated amount before the end of the charged period or, if that person has been allowed an extended period under subsection (2a), before the end of that period.
- (2a) If the Minister is satisfied that a person to whom this section applies has not paid the rebated amount before the end of the charged period because of exceptional circumstances, the Minister may allow that person an extended period within which the payment may be made.
- (3) Where, apart from this Act, an administrative authority allows a discount on a prescribed charge, and any conditions applicable to that discount are met, subsection (2) applies as though the

liability for payment of the prescribed charge had been reduced by the discount allowed.

- (4) An administrative authority shall, subject to this Act, allow to any person to whom this section applies a rebate on any prescribed charge, that rebate being calculated in such a manner as to reflect the extent of the entitlement which that person has in the land and, in accordance with section 28, apportioned where appropriate.
- (5) If a person to whom this section applies is an eligible senior and not an eligible pensioner for the whole or a part of the charged period, the rebate to be allowed shall be determined using the following equation —

where —

R is the rebate to be allowed;

PC is the portion of the prescribed charge calculated under subsection (9)(a);

DS is the number of the days during the charged period that the person is registered as an eligible senior; and

CY is the number of days in the charged period.

- (6) If a person to whom this section applies is an eligible pensioner and not an eligible senior for the whole or a part of the charged period, the rebate to be allowed shall be determined using the following equation —

where —

R is the rebate to be allowed;

PC is the portion of the prescribed charge calculated under subsection (9)(b);

DP is the number of the days during the charged period that the person is registered as an eligible pensioner; and

CY is the number of days in the charged period.

- (7) If a person to whom this section applies is an eligible senior for a part of the charged period and an eligible pensioner for another part of the charged period, the rebate to be allowed shall be determined using the following equation —

where —

R is the rebate to be allowed;

PCS is the portion of the prescribed charge calculated under subsection (9)(a);

PCP is the portion of the prescribed charge calculated under subsection (9)(b);

DS is the number of the days during the charged period that the person is registered as an eligible senior;

DP is the number of the days during the charged period that the person is registered as an eligible pensioner; and

CY is the number of days in the charged period.

- (8) Where a person who is authorised to pay a rebated amount, pays an amount in excess of the rebated amount in respect of a prescribed charge, then the administrative authority shall refund, or give credit, for the excess amount.

- (9) The portion of the prescribed charge to be used in determining the rebate of a person to whom this section applies shall be —
- (a) for an eligible senior, on any prescribed charge by way of the emergency services levy or rates or for the provision of water supply, sewerage or drainage — 25% of the prescribed charge concerned, up to such limit as is prescribed;
  - (b) for an eligible pensioner, on any prescribed charge by way of the emergency services levy or rates or for the provision of water supply, sewerage or drainage — 50% of the prescribed charge concerned; and
  - (c) on any other prescribed charge — the prescribed percentage.

[Section 40 inserted by No. 3 of 2001 s. 13(1); amended by No. 42 of 2002 s. 34; No. 13 of 2007 s. 10.]

41. Effect of payment of rebated amount

Where the rebated amount, or if the amount of the rebate is apportioned under section 28 the relevant proportion to which the particular entitlement related, of a prescribed charge is paid by or on behalf of a registered person before the end of the charged period or, if that person has been allowed an extended period under section 40(2a), before the end of that period —

- (a) that person shall not be liable to pay any further amount for that prescribed charge; and
- (b) the administrative authority —
  - (i) has no further claim against that person for that prescribed charge; and
  - (ii) may claim for reimbursement under section 16, subject to this Act.

[Section 41 amended by No. 25 of 1993 s. 14; No. 13 of 2007 s. 11.]

42. Charges for periods preceding, or for improvements made or services provided subsequent to, registration

- (1) If an administrative authority makes a prescribed charge in respect of any land for a year or part of a year preceding the date of issue of the notice requiring payment of that prescribed charge, a person, subject to subsection (2), may be allowed a rebate on that prescribed charge, if at the commencement of the rating year in which the charged period occurred that person was —
- (a) liable to pay that charge;
  - (b) an eligible person; and
  - (c) entitled to apply for the registration of an entitlement as regards that land,
- and was so registered subsequently.
- (2) A rebate may be allowed under subsection (1) to any person where the rebated amount of the prescribed charge is paid to the administrative authority before the due date, being a date not earlier than 6 months after the date of the notice specified by the administrative authority in the notice requiring payment, but not otherwise.
- (2a) If subsection (2) applies, the administrative authority shall refund, or give credit for, the amount of the rebate.
- (3) Where an entitlement as regards land was registered, and the land was used as a place of residence, at the commencement of a rating year and during that year —
- (a) a prescribed charge is made by way of the emergency services levy or rates relating to improvements subsequently effected to the land; or
  - (b) a prescribed charge is made in respect of additional or other water supply, sewerage or drainage services subsequently provided,

this Act has effect in relation to those prescribed charges arising during a charged period that occurs in that rating year, notwithstanding that the registration previously effected did not relate to a charge of that kind, and the particulars of the registration shall be amended accordingly.

- (4) On or after 1 July 2001, where an entitlement as regards land is registered during a rating year and during that year —
- (a) a prescribed charge is made by way of the emergency services levy or rates relating to improvements effected to the land during the year; or
  - (b) a prescribed charge is made in respect of additional or other water supply, sewerage or drainage services provided during the year,

this Act has effect in relation to those prescribed charges arising during a charged period that occurs in that rating year for the period of the rating year to which both the charges relate and the entitlement as regards the land is registered.

Part 4 — Deferment

Division 1 — Where charges may be deferred

43. Circumstances where deferment may be allowed

- (1) In relation to any prescribed charge, the administrative authority may, subject to subsections (1a), (1b) and (2), allow payment of a prescribed charge to be deferred where —
- (a) the person liable to pay the charge is an eligible pensioner or is registered as an eligible pensioner during a rating year;
  - (b) the conditions to which a rebate of that charge is subject have been met; and
  - (c) the land to which the charge related belongs to one person only, unless subsection (3) or subsection (4) applies, but the administrative authority under section 47 may decline to allow the payment to be deferred.

- (1a) In relation to any land, deferment of the payment of a prescribed charge must not be allowed if the entitlement of the person liable to pay the relevant prescribed charge is as a person who holds a relevant interest of a kind referred to in section 29A, 29B or 29C.
- (1b) In relation to any land, deferment of the payment of a prescribed charge must not be allowed if the person liable to pay the relevant prescribed charge is registered on the basis of eligibility under section 23(5).
- (2) In relation to any land, deferment of the payment of a prescribed charge may only be allowed if —
- (a) the entitlement of the person liable to pay the relevant prescribed charge is as the sole owner of the fee simple in possession in that land; or

Rates and Charges (Rebates and Deferments) Act 1992

Part 4 Deferment

(b) subsection (3) or subsection (4) applies.

(3) In relation to land which belongs to several persons, being owners as tenants in common of undivided shares in the land, deferment of the payment of a prescribed charge may be allowed where the charge to which the deferral sought relates is based on an assessment made in respect only of the specific part of that land which —

(a) is in the exclusive occupation of; and

(b) is the ordinary place of residence of, the person liable to pay the charge, but not otherwise.

(4) In relation to a person liable for the payment of a charge whose entitlement is registered together with an entitlement of some other person as regards the same land (whether or not that other entitlement is a registered entitlement), deferment of the payment of a prescribed charge may be allowed if —

(a) the other person is the spouse or de facto partner of the person liable; or

(b) that other person —

(i) occupies the land as his or her ordinary place of residence; and

(ii) is also eligible to defer, and agrees to the deferral of, the payment of the charge, but not otherwise.

[Section 43 amended by No. 25 of 1993 s. 15; No. 3 of 2001 s. 15; No. 28 of 2003 s. 171; No. 9 of 2005 s. 15; No. 31 of 2006 s. 37; No. 32 of 2006 s. 98.]

44. Deferred payment of rates by eligible pensioner

(1) Where an eligible pensioner who is a registered person does not pay, or does not wholly pay, the rebated amount of any charge before the end of a period prescribed under subsection (1a) that person —

- (a) remains liable for the payment of the full amount of the charge, without rebate; and
- (b) ceases to be authorised to satisfy the liability for the payment of the charge by the payment only of a rebated amount, but the administrative authority shall not seek to recover the amount, or the balance of the amount owing, from that person, and the liability of that person to pay that amount or that balance may be deferred until such time as it becomes payable in accordance with subsection (2).

(1a) For the purposes of subsection (1), the following periods are prescribed:

- (a) the charged period;
- (b) if the person has been allowed an extended period under section 40(2a), that period;
- (c) if a period has been specified under section 42(2), that period.

(2) Prescribed charges, liability for the payment of which is deferred under this Act, become payable and may be recovered by the administrative authority if the person liable for the payment —

- (a) dies, unless section 45(1) applies;
- (b) ceases to be a person entitled to the land;
- (c) ceases to occupy the land as their ordinary place of residence, unless —
  - (i) a person to whom section 31(1) applies continues to reside there;
  - (ii) residence there by that person ceased by reason of ill-health, frailty or other cause not within the control of that person; or
  - (iii) residence there by that person ceased upon that person ceasing to live together with a spouse or de facto partner there, but that spouse or de facto partner remains there, and section 45(2) applies;

or

- (d) being a person to whom section 19 applies, is notified in writing that under section 21 the administrative authority has determined that the allowing of deferment can no longer be justified, whichever happens first.

- (3) Where the liability for the payment of prescribed charges is deferred as regards any land to which several persons are entitled, being owners as tenants in common of undivided shares in the land, then notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act the liability for the payment of the charges to which the deferral relates attaches only to —
  - (a) the specific part of that land to which an assessment of the kind referred to in section 43(3) related; and
  - (b) the charge on that part of the land in so far as it remains unpaid.

[Section 44 amended by No. 28 of 2003 s. 172; No. 13 of 2007 s. 12.]

45. Where charges may remain deferred in favour of a spouse or de facto partner

- (1) Where —
  - (a) prescribed charges, the liability for the payment of which is deferred, would otherwise become payable upon the death of the person liable for the payment; but
  - (b) the land continues to be the ordinary place of residence of a surviving spouse or de facto partner of that person, whether or not that land had also belonged to the surviving spouse or de facto partner, the liability for payment arising on the death of that person shall be further deferred until that surviving spouse or de facto partner —

- (c) dies; or
- (d) ceases to be a person to whom the land, for the purposes of this Act, belongs,

notwithstanding that the spouse or de facto partner may not be an eligible person.

(2) Where —

- (a) prescribed charges, the liability for the payment of which is deferred, would otherwise become payable upon the person liable for the payment ceasing to occupy the land as their ordinary place of residence; but
- (b) a spouse or de facto partner of that person continues so to occupy the land, the liability for payment of the charges remaining owing shall be further deferred until —

- (c) the person dies;
- (d) the spouse or de facto partner continuing in residence dies or ceases so to occupy the land; or
- (e) an order of a court of competent jurisdiction in family matters otherwise provides for the payment, notwithstanding that the spouse or de facto partner may not be an eligible person.

[Section 45 amended by No. 28 of 2003 s. 173.]

46. Continuing liability for payment of deferred charges to be a charge on the land

- (1) Where deferment of the liability for the payment of any prescribed charges has been or is allowed and those charges remain unpaid, those charges in so far as they remain unpaid are by force of this Act a charge on the land ranking equally with any other charge on that land created by an Act, and before any other kind of charge on that land, subject to subsections (2) and (3).

- (2) Where deferment of the liability for the payment of any prescribed charges has been or is allowed and those charges remain unpaid, if the land to which the liability relates is land which was or is —
- (a) land subject to the provisions of —
    - (i) the State Housing Act 1946<sup>5</sup>; or
    - (ii) the Housing Act 1980;or
  - (b) land the subject of a scheme relating to housing —
    - (i) entered into between the Commonwealth and the State; or
    - (ii) administered or managed by the Housing Authority, any amount owing under those Acts or such a scheme to the Housing Authority has priority over any amount owing arising out of the deferment of prescribed charges payable on that land.

- (3) Any amount owing to the Defence Homes Corporation under the Commonwealth Act known as the Defence Service Homes Act 1918 in respect of land subject to that Commonwealth Act has priority over any amount owing arising out of the deferment of prescribed charges payable on that land.

[Section 46 amended by No. 28 of 2006 s. 432.]

Division 2 — Where charges may not be deferred

47. Charges likely not to be recoverable

Where, by reason that the likely net sale value of the land would be insufficient to satisfy the liability, an administrative authority determines that any prescribed charges, or any charges the deferment of which has previously been allowed (whether under this Act or the Pensioners (Rates Rebates and Deferments) Act 1966<sup>4</sup>), are payable as regards the land concerned but might not be recoverable, despite being charged on the land, that administrative authority —

- (a) may decline to permit deferral in respect of that or any subsequent charged period; but
- (b) may allow a rebate,

in respect of the charged period.
