Constitutional Powers (Coastal Waters) Act 1979

An Act to request the Parliament of the Commonwealth to enact an Act to extend the legislative powers of the States in and in relation to Coastal Waters.

Preamble

WHEREAS it has been agreed between the Government of the Commonwealth and the Governments of the States of Australia that the legislative powers of the States in and in relation to Coastal Waters should be extended by an Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth enacted at the request of the Parliaments of the States in pursuance of paragraph (xxxviii) of section 51 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia:

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows: —

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the *Constitutional Powers (Coastal Waters) Act 1979*¹.

s. 2

2. Request for enactment of Commonwealth Act

Parliament requests the enactment by the Parliament of the Commonwealth of an Act in or substantially in the terms set out in the Schedule.

Schedule — Requested Commonwealth Act: Coastal Waters (State Powers) Act 1979

[s. 2]

[Heading amended by No. 19 of 2010 s. 4.]

AN ACT

To extend the legislative powers of the States in and in relation to coastal waters.

Preamble

WHEREAS, in pursuance of paragraph (xxxviii) of section 51 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth, the Parliaments of all the States have requested the Parliament of the Commonwealth to enact an Act in, or substantially in, the terms of this Act:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen, and the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia, as follows:

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Coastal Waters (State Powers) Act 1979.

2. Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by Proclamation.

3. Interpretation

(1) In this Act —

adjacent area in respect of the State means, in relation to each State, the area the boundary of which is described under the heading referring to that State in Schedule 2 to the *Petroleum (Submerged Lands) Act 1967*² as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act;

coastal waters of the State means, in relation to each State —

- (a) the part or parts of the territorial sea of Australia that is or are within the adjacent area in respect of the State, other than any part referred to in subsection 4(2); and

Constitutional Powers (Coastal Waters) Act 1979

Schedule Requested Commonwealth Act: Coastal Waters (State Powers) Act 1979

(b) any sea that is on the landward side of any part of the territorial sea of Australia and is within the adjacent area in respect of the State but is not within the limits of the State or of a Territory.

(2) The Acts Interpretation Act 1901, in the form in which it was in force, as amended, immediately before the day on which this Act received the Royal Assent, applies to the interpretation of this Act.

4. Extent of territorial sea and coastal waters

(1) For the purposes of this Act, the limits of the territorial sea of Australia shall be the limits existing from time to time, ascertained consistently with the Seas and Submerged Lands Act 1973 and instruments under that Act and with any agreement (whether made before or after the commencement of this Act) for the time being in force between Australia and another country with respect to the outer limit of a particular part of that territorial sea.

(2) If at any time the breadth of the territorial sea of Australia is determined or declared to be greater than 3 nautical miles, references in this Act to the coastal waters of the State do not include, in relation to any State, any part of the territorial sea of Australia that would not be within the limits of that territorial sea if the breadth of that territorial sea had continued to be 3 nautical miles.

5. Legislative powers of States

The legislative powers exercisable from time to time under the constitution of each State extend to the making of —

(a) all such laws of the State as could be made by virtue of those powers if the coastal waters of the State, as extending from time to time, were within the limits of the State, including laws applying in or in relation to the sea-bed and subsoil beneath, and the airspace above, the coastal waters of the State;

(b) laws of the State having effect in or in relation to waters within the adjacent area in respect of the State but beyond the outer limits of the coastal waters of the State, including laws applying in or in relation to the sea-bed and subsoil beneath,
