Division 3 — Dealing with corridor land and things on it

42. Authority's functions as to corridor land and certain things on it

- (1) The Authority may, for the purposes of facilitating the use of corridor land for the carriage of freight by rail or for any other purpose that is compatible with that use —
- (a) dispose of an interest in corridor land that is no greater than a leasehold interest and, if it is for a term, is not for a term that is, or is capable of being, more than 50 years;
 - (b) dispose of anything, or an interest in anything, belonging to the State that is on corridor land, is associated with the provision of a rail freight service, and is not part of a Government railway for the purposes of the Government Railways Act 1904;
 - (c) generally manage, and do anything else in relation to —
 - (i) corridor land; and
 - (ii) anything belonging to the State that is on corridor land, is associated with the provision of a rail freight service, and is not part of a Government railway for the purposes of the Government Railways Act 1904.
- (2) For the purposes of the restriction in subsection (1)(a), any term for which there is an option to renew an interest is to be regarded as part of the term of the interest.

- (3) The powers given by subsection (1) apply to land and things belonging to the State even if they are not held by the Authority but before exercising powers in respect of land that is in the DBNGP corridor (as defined in Part 4 of the Dampier to Bunbury Pipeline Act 1997), or anything on that land, the Authority is required to consult with the DBNGP Land Access Minister (as defined in that Part).
- (4) Without limiting what else the Authority may do, the Authority may do, in relation to former Government railway land or anything on it that is associated with the provision of a rail freight service and is not part of a Government railway for the purposes of the Government Railways Act 1904, anything that the Authority could have done had the land not become corridor land.
- (5) Without limiting what else the Authority may do, Part VI of the Public Works Act 1902 applies, so far as it is consistent with the other provisions of this Act for it to do so, as if —
- (a) a reference in it to a railway referred to a railway that is on corridor land; and
 - (b) in relation to a railway that is on corridor land, a reference to the Minister referred to the Minister responsible for the administration of this Act, but the regulations may modify or exclude the application of any provision of that Part under this subsection.

- (6) Nothing in subsection (1)(b) or (c)(ii) or subsection (4) or (5) limits the power of the Authority to dispose of, manage, or do anything else in relation to, anything, whether or not it is on corridor land or former Government railway land, if it belongs to the Authority.
- (7) In this section —
- former Government railway land means corridor land that was, before it became corridor land, part of a Government railway for the purposes of the Government Railways Act 1904.

 - (c) such other restrictions, if any, as are prescribed by the regulations.

- (3) The Authority may refuse to give approval under subsection (2)(b) on the grounds of the likelihood of, or the extent of, the interference referred to in that provision or on any other grounds that the Authority thinks relevant.
