Supreme Court (Arbitration) Rules 2016

Part 1 — Preliminary matters

1. Citation

These rules are the Supreme Court (Arbitration) Rules 2016.

2. Commencement

These rules come into operation as follows —

- (a) Part 1 — on the day on which these rules are published in the Gazette;
- (b) the rest of the rules — on the 14th day after that day.

3. Terms used

- (1) In these rules —

arbitration means an arbitration to which the WA Act or the Commonwealth Act applies, as the case requires;

Commonwealth Act means the International Arbitration Act 1974 (Commonwealth);

Form, if followed by a number, means the form of that number in Schedule 1;

Model Law means the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration, adopted by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law on 21 June 1985, as amended by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law on 7 July 2006, the English text of which is set out in the Commonwealth Act Schedule 2;

RSC means Rules of the Supreme Court 1971;

WA Act means the Commercial Arbitration Act 2012.

- (2) Unless the contrary intention appears —

- (a) expressions used in this Part have the same meaning as in the Commonwealth Act or the WA Act, as the case requires; and
- (b) expressions used in Part 2 and in the forms in Schedule 1 referred to in that Part have the same meaning as in the Commonwealth Act; and
- (c) expressions used in Part 3 and in the forms in Schedule 1 referred to in that Part have the same meaning as in the WA Act.

4. Application of Rules of the Supreme Court 1971

- (1) These rules must be read with the RSC.
- (2) For the purposes of subrule (1) —
 - (a) a reference in the RSC to the RSC (whether “these rules” or other words are used) is to be taken as including a reference to these rules, unless the context requires otherwise; and
 - (b) a reference in these rules to these rules (whether “these rules” or other words are used) is to be taken as including a reference to the RSC, unless the context requires otherwise.
- (3) If there is a conflict or inconsistency between these rules and the RSC, these rules prevail.

5. Documents not in English

A party to a proceeding to which these rules apply who seeks to rely on a document that is not in the English language must provide a certified English translation of the document —

- (a) to the Court; and
- (b) to any other party to the proceeding.

Notes for this rule —

- 1. The Commonwealth Act section 9 also deals with the translation of awards and arbitration agreements in proceedings to which the Commonwealth Act Part II applies.
- 2. The WA Act section 35 also deals with the translation of awards in proceedings to which the WA Act Part 8 applies.

- (ii) the nature of the dispute with sufficient particularity to give an understanding of the context in which the question of law arises;
 - (iii) the facts on the basis of which the question of law is to be determined and the basis on which those facts are stated, including whether they are agreed, assumed, found by the arbitral tribunal or otherwise.
- (3) The summons and supporting affidavit must be served on any person whose interest might be affected by determination of the question of law.
- (4) The Court may, if it thinks fit, hear and determine the question of law at the same time as the application for leave to apply for the determination of the question.
- (5) If the Court first hears and grants the application for leave, it may make such orders as it thinks fit for the hearing and determination of the question of law.

22. Application to set aside award (WA Act s. 34)

- (1) An application under the WA Act section 34 to set aside an award must be made by way of an originating summons in the form of Form 23.
- (2) The summons must state the following —
 - (a) if the applicant relies on the WA Act section 34(2)(a), which subparagraph of section 34(2)(a) is relied upon;
 - (b) if the applicant relies on the WA Act section 34(2)(b), which subparagraph of section 34(2)(b) is relied upon;
 - (c) the grounds for seeking the order.
- (3) The summons must be accompanied by an affidavit —
 - (a) exhibiting the following —
 - (i) a copy of the arbitration agreement;

- (ii) a copy of the award including the reasons of the arbitral tribunal for the award;
- and
- (b) stating the following —
 - (i) the material facts relied on;
 - (ii) the date on which the applicant received the award or, if a request was made under the WA Act section 33 to the arbitral tribunal to correct the award, the date on which that request was disposed of by the arbitral tribunal.
- (4) The summons and supporting affidavit must be served on any person whose interest might be affected by the setting aside of the award.
- (5) Any application by a party to the arbitration under the WA Act section 34(4) must be made by way of a summons in the proceeding commenced under subrule (1).

23. Appeal on question of law in award (WA Act s. 34A)

- (1) An application under the WA Act section 34A for leave to appeal on a question of law arising out of an award must be made by way of an originating summons in the form of Form 24.
- (2) The summons must state the following —
 - (a) the question of law to be determined;
 - (b) the grounds on which it is alleged that leave to appeal should be granted.
- (3) The summons must be accompanied by an affidavit showing that, before the end of the appeal period referred to in the WA Act section 34A(1) and (6), the parties agreed that an appeal may be made under section 34A of that Act.

- (4) The affidavit must exhibit the following —
- (a) a copy of the arbitration agreement;
 - (b) a copy of the award, including the reasons of the arbitral tribunal for the award.
- (5) The summons must be accompanied by a submission setting out the following —
- (a) the name and usual or last known place of residence or business of any person whose interest might be affected by the proposed appeal or, if the person is a company, the last known registered office of the company;
 - (b) the nature of the dispute with sufficient particularity to give an understanding of the context in which the question of law arises;
 - (c) when and how the arbitral tribunal was asked to determine the question of law and where in the award or the reasons, and in what way, the arbitral tribunal determined it;
 - (d) the relevant facts found by the arbitral tribunal on the basis of which the question of law is to be determined by the Court;
 - (e) the basis on which it is contended that the determination of the question of law will substantially affect the rights of one or more parties;
 - (f) the basis on which it is contended that —
 - (i) the decision of the arbitral tribunal on the question of law is obviously wrong; or
 - (ii) the question of law is of general public importance and the decision of the arbitral tribunal is open to serious doubt;
 - (g) the basis on which it is contended that, despite the agreement of the parties to resolve the matter by arbitration, it is just and proper in the circumstances for the Court to determine the question;

- (h) a succinct statement of the argument in support of the application for leave and the appeal if leave is granted.
- (6) The summons and the supporting material must be served on any person whose interest might be affected by the proposed appeal.
- (7) Within 14 days after service on a party or within such further period as the Court may allow, that party must file and serve any answering material, including a succinct statement of any argument in opposition to the application for leave and the appeal if leave is granted.
- (8) If it appears to the Court that an oral hearing of the application for leave to appeal is required, the Court may, if it thinks fit, hear and determine the appeal on the question of law at the same time as it hears the application for leave to appeal.
- (9) If the Court grants the application for leave before hearing the appeal, it may make such orders as it thinks fit for the hearing and determination of the appeal.
- (10) When an application for leave to appeal is brought or leave to appeal is granted, the Court may suspend or discharge any enforcement order made in respect of the award the subject of the proposed appeal.

24. Application to enforce award (WA Act s. 35)

- (1) An application under the WA Act section 35 to enforce an award must be made by way of an originating summons in the form of Form 25.
- (2) The summons must be accompanied by the following —
 - (a) the documents referred to in the WA Act section 35;
 - (b) an affidavit stating the following —
 - (i) the extent to which the award has not been complied with at the date of the summons;

- (ii) the usual or last known place of residence or business of the person against whom it is sought to enforce the domestic award or, if the person is a company, the last known registered office of the company.

Schedule of documents
The documents and things you must produce are as follows: [List the documents and state whether the original of any document is required. If insufficient space, attach list.]
Notes
Last day for service	1. You need not comply with the subpoena unless it is served on you on or before the date specified in the subpoena as the last date for service of the subpoena.
Informal service	2. Even if this subpoena has not been served personally on you, you must, nevertheless, comply with its requirements, if you have, by the last date for service of the subpoena, actual knowledge of the subpoena and of its requirements.
Addressee a company	3. If the subpoena is addressed to a company, the company must comply with the subpoena by its appropriate or proper officer.
Conduct money	4. You need not comply with the subpoena unless conduct money sufficient to meet your reasonable expenses of attending to produce the subpoena (or a copy of it) and the document(s) or thing(s) as required by the subpoena is handed or tendered to you a reasonable time before the date your attendance is required.
Production of subpoena or copy of it and documents by delivery or post	5. Instead of attending to produce the subpoena (or a copy of it) and the document(s) or thing(s), you may comply with the subpoena by delivering or sending the subpoena (or a copy of it) and the documents to the arbitral tribunal — (a) at the address specified in the subpoena for the purpose; or (b) if more than one address is specified — at any of those addresses, so that they are received not less than 2 clear business days before the date specified in the subpoena for attendance and production, or if you receive notice of a later date or time from the issuing party, before the later date or time.

Objection to the inspection of document or thing produced	6. If you object to a document or thing produced in response to this subpoena being inspected by a party to the proceeding or any other person, you must, at the time of production, notify the arbitral tribunal in writing of your objection and of the grounds of your objection. 7. Unless the Court otherwise orders, if you do not object to a document or thing produced by you in response to the subpoena being inspected by any party to the proceeding, the arbitral tribunal may permit the parties to the proceeding to inspect the document or thing.
Production of a number of documents	8. If you produce more than one document, you must, if requested by the arbitral tribunal, produce a list of the documents produced.
Production of copy instead of original	9. You may, with the consent of the issuing party, produce a copy, instead of the original, of any document that the subpoena requires you to produce. 10. The copy of a document may be — (a) a photocopy; or (b) in an electronic form on a CD-ROM, DVD or USB device in any of the following electronic formats: .doc and .docx – Microsoft Word documents .pdf – Adobe Acrobat documents .xls and .xlsx – Microsoft Excel spreadsheets .jpg – image files .rtf – rich text format .gif – graphics interchange format .tif – tagged image format.
Return or destruction of documents or copies	11. You may, at the time of production, inform the arbitral tribunal that any document or copy of a document produced need not be returned and may be destroyed. 12. If you have so informed the arbitral tribunal, the arbitral tribunal may destroy the document or copy instead of returning it to you.
Applications in relation to subpoena	13. You have the right to apply to the Court — (a) for an order setting aside the subpoena (or a part of it) or for relief in respect of the subpoena; and (b) for an order with respect to any claim you may have for privilege, public interest immunity or confidentiality.
Loss or expense of compliance	14. You may apply to the Court for an order that the issuing party pay an amount (in addition to conduct money and any witness's expenses) in respect of the loss or expense, including legal costs, reasonably incurred in complying with the subpoena.
Contempt of court — arrest	15. Failure to comply with a subpoena without lawful excuse is a contempt of court and may be dealt with accordingly.
