Family Court of Western Australia Rules 1988

~~MADE by the Judges under section 88A.~~

Part I — Preliminary

1. Citation

These rules may be cited as the Family Court of Western Australia Rules 1988.

2. Commencement

These rules shall come into operation on the day fixed for the coming into operation of the Family Court Amendment Act 1987.

3. Interpretation

In these rules, unless the contrary intention appears —

“Central Registry” means the Central Registry of the Court;

“court of summary jurisdiction” means a court of summary jurisdiction referred to in section 75 of the Act;

“decree” has the same meaning as in section 81 of the Act;

“Family Law Rules” means the Family Law Rules made under the Family Law Act;

“the Act” means the Family Court Act 1975.

Part II — Family court of Western Australia

4. Seal

- (1) The Court shall have a seal which shall contain the words “The Seal of the Family Court of Western Australia”.
- (2) The seal may be impressed on any document by a rubber stamp or similar process.

5. Sitting vacations and holidays

- (1) The Court shall sit at such places and times as the Chief Judge directs.
- (2) There shall be no Court vacations but the Court shall not sit on the days specified in subrule (3) unless the Judge constituting the Court otherwise directs.
- (3) Subject to subrule (4) the Central Registry shall be open on every day in the year except Saturdays and Sundays, Good Friday and Monday in Easter week, Christmas Day and all Public Service holidays.
- (4) Unless the Chief Judge or Registrar otherwise directs the Central Registry shall be open from 9.00 am to 3.30 pm.

*[Rule 5 amended by Gazettes 10 December 1993 p.6528;
7 April 1995 p.1228.]*

6. Oaths and affirmations

- (1) The Court may require and administer all necessary oaths and affirmations.
- (2) The form of an oath or affirmation shall be the same as nearly as may be as that used in the Supreme Court.

7. Decrees to be recorded

Every decree of the Court shall be recorded by the proper officer of the Court in a record kept for that purpose.

8. Register of proceedings

The Registrar shall keep a register for the Court and shall cause to be entered in the register particulars of all applications lodged in the Court.

Part III — Non-federal jurisdiction

9. Adoption of Commonwealth practice and procedure

- (1) The practice and procedure of the Court and courts of summary jurisdiction relating to matters in their non-federal jurisdiction, except those conferred on the Court by the Adoption of Children Act 1896, shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as the practice and procedure provided in the Family Law Rules relating to like matters, unless a contrary intention appears in a written law.
- (2) In this rule practice and procedure includes all matters with respect to which rules may be made under the Act.

10. Costs where the Court has no jurisdiction

Where a matter is brought in the Court or in a court of summary jurisdiction over which the Court has no jurisdiction, the Judge or Magistrate shall order the matter to be struck out, and the Court or court of summary jurisdiction has power to award costs to the same extent, and recoverable in the same manner, as if the Court had jurisdiction therein and the person bringing the matter had not appeared in the Court or the court of summary jurisdiction or had so appeared and failed to establish his case.

11. Persons who may take affidavits

An affidavit required for use in or before the Court or any officer of the Court, or in a court of summary jurisdiction, and a recognizance required to be filed therein, may be sworn or executed before a Judge, a Registrar, a Deputy Registrar, the Marshal, the Collector of Maintenance, a Magistrate, a Justice of the Peace or any other person allowed by any written law or the Family Law Rules to take an affidavit or recognizance.

Part IV — Appeals
