Part 14 — Repeal

36. Repeal

The Friendly Societies Regulations 1924 are repealed.

Schedule 1 — Postal ballot

[r.22 and 23]

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Appointment of returning officer

- (1) If a postal ballot is to be conducted —
 - (a) for the purpose of approving a special resolution for a proposed merger of societies or transfer of engagements under section 364 or 377 of the Code; or
 - (b) for the purpose of approving a proposal to convert to a company under section 387 of the Code, the society must appoint a person with appropriate qualifications, experience or standing as returning officer for the ballot.

- (2) The returning officer may, if necessary, appoint one or more persons with appropriate qualifications, experience or standing to act as assistant returning officers or clerical assistants.
- (3) A member of the society is not eligible to be appointed as a returning officer or assistant returning officer.
- (4) The returning officer may delegate to an assistant returning officer any of the returning officer's powers and functions under this Schedule.

2. Roll

As soon as practicable after the appointment of the returning officer, the society must give the returning officer a roll showing the members of the society and, in the case of a ballot conducted under section 387, the number of shares (if any) held by each member, including, if the shares of the society are divided into different classes, the number of shares of each class held by each member.

3. Notice of proposed postal ballot

- (1) As soon as practicable after being appointed as returning officer for the postal ballot, the returning officer must cause notice of the proposed ballot to be —

- (a) given to each member who is entitled to vote under section 364, 377 or 387; or
 - (b) published in a newspaper circulating generally in the area in which the society operates and, if the society operates in another State, in the other State or States.
- (2) The notice must —
- (a) state that a postal ballot is to be held;
 - (b) state the resolution or proposal that is to be put to voters in the ballot;
 - (c) state the date for the close of the ballot; and
 - (d) contain any other information as the SSA may require.

4. Postponement of closing date

- (1) The returning officer, in consultation with the society's board, may change the date for the close of the postal ballot to a later date than the date previously notified by —
- (a) giving notice of the change of date to each member who is entitled to vote under section 364, 377 or 387; or
 - (b) publishing a notice of the change of date in a newspaper circulating generally in the area in which the society operates and, if the society operates in another State, in the other State or States.
- (2) The later date must be not more than 7 days later than the date previously notified.
- (3) The power conferred on the returning officer by this clause may be exercised more than once in respect of a ballot.

5. Printing of ballot papers

The returning officer must ensure that enough ballot papers are printed for the purposes of the postal ballot.

6. Distribution of ballot papers

As soon as practicable after the ballot papers have been printed, the returning officer must send to each member on the roll at the address specified in respect of the member in the roll —

- (a) a ballot paper that bears the initials of the returning officer or an assistant returning officer;
- (b) an inner envelope that is marked with the words “Ballot paper only”;
- (c) an outer envelope addressed to the returning officer for the postal ballot and with appropriate provision on the back of the envelope for the member’s name and address;
- (d) a postal vote certificate to be completed by the member certifying the member’s membership and, in the case of a ballot conducted under section 387, the number and class of shares (if any) held by the member;
- (e) in the case of a ballot conducted for the purposes of section 364 or 377, a statement under section 364(3) or 377(3) of the Code; and
- (f) any other information the SSA requires to be sent to members for the postal ballot.

7. Replacement of ballot papers

- (1) If any person to whom a ballot paper has been sent satisfies the returning officer that the ballot paper has been spoilt, lost or destroyed, the returning officer may issue the person with a replacement ballot paper.
- (2) The returning officer must keep a record of all replacement ballot papers so issued.

Part 2 ~~—~~ — Voting

8. Voting

To vote in a postal ballot, a member must —

- (a) record the member’s vote on the ballot paper in accordance with the directions shown on the ballot paper;
- (b) place the completed ballot paper in the inner envelope marked “Ballot paper only” and seal the envelope;
- (c) complete the postal vote certificate and place the inner envelope and the completed postal vote certificate in the outer envelope and seal the envelope;

- (d) write the member's full name and address in the appropriate place on the back of the envelope; and
- (e) send the envelope to the returning officer.

9. Eligible votes

A member's vote in the postal ballot may be counted only if —

- (a) the member has voted in the way required by this Part; and
- (b) the outer envelope is received by the returning officer on or before the closing date for the postal ballot.

Part 3 ~~—~~ — The scrutiny

10. Appointment of scrutineers

- (1) The society may appoint a scrutineer to monitor the scrutiny and the counting of votes in the postal ballot.
- (2) An interested person may, with the consent of the returning officer, appoint a scrutineer to monitor the scrutiny and counting of the votes.
- (3) A scrutineer is entitled to be present at the scrutiny and counting of the votes.

11. Scrutiny of envelopes

- (1) As soon as practicable after the returning officer receives an outer envelope, the returning officer must —
 - (a) examine the name on the back of the envelope; and
 - (b) if satisfied that a person of that name is eligible to vote, open the envelope and extract its contents.
- (2) If the outer envelope contains an inner envelope and a postal vote certificate, and the returning officer is satisfied that the person who purports to have signed the postal vote certificate is a member of the society and eligible to vote, the returning officer must accept the inner envelope for scrutiny.
- (3) The returning officer must, in the case of a ballot conducted under section 387, endorse on the inner envelope, if accepted for scrutiny, the class of shares (if any) held by the member who purports to have signed the accompanying postal vote certificate, together with the number of shares of each class so held by the member.

- (4) The returning officer must draw a line through the member's name on the roll of eligible voters.
- (5) If the returning officer is not satisfied that the signature appearing on the postal vote certificate is the signature of the person whose name and address appear on the back of the outer envelope, the returning officer —
 - (a) may make any inquiries the returning officer considers appropriate; and
 - (b) if satisfied, after making those inquiries, that the signature is not the signature of that person, must reject the inner envelope for scrutiny.

12. Scrutiny of votes

- (1) The scrutiny of votes must be conducted as follows —
 - (a) the returning officer must produce unopened the inner envelopes accepted for scrutiny;
 - (b) the returning officer must then open each inner envelope, extract the ballot paper without unfolding it, copy onto the ballot paper the endorsement (if any) relating to the class and number of shares of the member and place the ballot paper in a locked ballot box or, if the shares in the society are divided into different classes, in a locked ballot box for members holding shares of the class referred to in the endorsement;
 - (c) when all the ballot papers have been placed in a ballot box, the returning officer must unlock each box and remove the ballot papers;
 - (d) the returning officer must then examine each ballot paper and reject those that are informal.
- (2) A ballot paper must be rejected as informal if —
 - (a) it is not initialled by the returning officer or by an assistant returning officer;
 - (b) it has on it any mark or writing (other than an endorsement made in accordance with this clause) that, in the returning officer's opinion, could enable the member who completed it to be identified; or

- (c) it has not been completed in a way that indicates the member's intention for the purposes of the resolution or proposal the subject of the postal ballot.

13. Counting of votes

- (1) The returning officer must then count the votes from each ballot box.
- (2) On completing the count, the returning officer must make out a return to the society certifying —
 - (a) the number and percentage of members of the society who voted in the postal ballot;
 - (b) the number and percentage of members of the society who voted to approve the resolution or proposal the subject of the postal ballot; and
 - (c) in the case of a postal ballot conducted under section 387, if the society has issued shares of more than one class, the number of members who hold shares of each class who voted to approve the proposal the subject of the postal ballot, and the percentage of shares of that class held by those members.

Part 4 — Miscellaneous

14. Disputes

- (1) A dispute about a decision made by the returning officer under this Schedule must be referred to the SSA.
- (2) The SSA must determine any dispute referred to it under this clause and its determination is final.

15. Retention of ballot papers etc.

- (1) The returning officer must retain all ballot papers, postal vote certificates and outer envelopes for the postal ballot until the SSA authorizes their destruction.
- (2) The returning officer must deliver the materials referred to in subclause (1) to the SSA if the SSA so requires.

16. Computerised counting of votes

The returning officer may make use of electronic data processing equipment in the counting of votes.

17. Vacation of office of returning officer etc.

- (1) The appointment of a person as a returning officer or assistant returning officer ceases if the person —
 - (a) dies;
 - (b) resigns by notice of resignation delivered to the society; or
 - (c) is removed from office by the society or the SSA.
- (2) The society may terminate the appointment of a person as a returning officer, or assistant returning officer, if the SSA approves the termination.

18. Offence

A person must not vote in a postal ballot if the person knows that he or she is not entitled to exercise the vote.

Penalty: $500.
